ON THE COVER

The 2025 Houston Astros enter the season with a strong roster that features seven former All-Stars. The group is looking to continue the club's Golden Era, which stretches back to the 2015 season, and includes nine postseason appearances, four American League pennants and two World Series championships (2017, 2022).

Franchise icon Jose Altuve is the only player remaining from all nine of those postseason runs. He returns to the Astros Media Guide cover for the 11th time in his career (also, 2013, 2015-19, 2021-25) and the fifth consecutive.

An All-Star in three consecutive seasons (2023-25), Yordan Alvarez returns to the Astros Media Guide cover for the fourth time in his career (also, 2020, 2023, 2025). He is coming off a 35-homer season, giving him 30-plus homer seasons in each of the last four years (2021-24).

A stalwart in the Astros rotation dating back to the 2020 season, left-handed starter Framber Valdez enters the season as a perennial Cy Young candidate. This mark's Valdez's second appearance on the Astros Media Guide cover (also, 2023).

Astros closer Josh Hader makes his debut on the Astros Media Guide cover after racking up 34 saves for the club in 2024. Hader amassed 105 strikeouts in 71.0 innings across a career-high 71 appearances for the Astros last season.

Speaking of closers, Astros great Billy Wagner, who pitched for the club for nine seasons (1995-2003), is featured on this year's Media Guide cover to commemorate his induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2025.

OVERVIEW

The Astros Foundation and Community Relations team manage a wide variety of community and charitable programs that focus on supporting youth baseball and softball, honoring members of our nation's military and veterans, aiding in the fight against childhood cancer, and helping address pervasive issues in our society such as homelessness and domestic violence. These efforts are an investment in the Houston community and speak to a culture of giving back that touches every facet of the Astros organization.

The 2024 season was a very successful one for the Astros Foundation, with $6 million donated to Houston area community programs and nonprofits over the year. Over 580 active Astros Foundation volunteers served at over 1,900 community events, totaling over 38,000 of volunteer hours. Overall, the Astros Foundation served over 90 non-profit partners in a variety of ways during 2024.

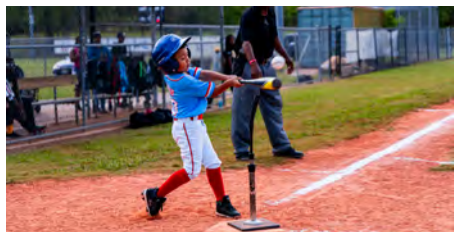

A cornerstone of the Astros Foundation is the Astros Youth Academy, which offers local youth an opportunity to learn about and experience the game of baseball and softball. In 2024, the Astros Youth Academy softball team made their 20th appearance at the Nike RBI World Series, winning their fifth Nike RBI World Series Championship.

Each year, the Astros Foundation continues to grow the Community Leaders program, which provides young baseball and softball players with the environment and resources they need to develop mentally and physically.

Through fundraising and volunteer efforts, the Astros Foundation supports many local non-profits, dedicating thousands of volunteer hours each year.

In 2017, the Astros Foundation was awarded the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, Major League Baseball's highest recognition of the charitable efforts of its clubs, for the Astros Community Leaders program.

To learn more about the Astros Foundation and community programs, please visit www.astros.com/community or www.astros.com/foundation. Also follow along on social media, on Twitter: @AstrosCares, Facebook: Facebook.com/AstrosFoundation and Instagram: astrosfoundation.

ASTROS ITEMS

The Astros' commitment to our community includes assisting qualified local 501(c)(3) nonprofits with their fundraising efforts through in-kind donations, including promotional or autographed items, tickets or ballpark related in-kind experiences. All requests must be made online. Information is available at Astros.com/community.

ASTROS PLAYER, ALUMNI AND FRONT OFFICE APPEARANCES

Astros players, alumni, owners and executives make a select number of appearances throughout the year. Businesses and groups who wish to request an appearance by an Astros player, alumnus or front office member should complete and submit an appearance application at least four to six weeks prior to the proposed event. The application should include detailed information on the event including specific date, time, exact location of the appearance, how many people will be in attendance and the purpose of the event. The Astros online appearance request forms are available at www.astros.com/community.

THE ASTROS FOUNDATION

The Astros Foundation is the official 501(c)(3) team charity of the Houston Astros. We seek to harness the passion of our fans to support youth sports and education programs, the recognition/honor of our nation's military, childhood cancer and domestic violence awareness and efforts to reduce homelessness. Our cornerstone initiatives include the Community Leaders program, the Astros MLB Youth Academy and the Astros RBI Program (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities).

The Astros Foundation hosts several marquee events throughout the year, including the Diamond Dreams Gala, LG Homes Share2Care 50/50 Raffle, The MVP Series, the Astros Foundation Charity Broadcast, Astros Wives Fashion Show and more.

ASTROS COMMUNITY LEADERS

MLB Commissioner Rob Manfred and Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane with the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, which was awarded to the Astros Community Leaders program in 2017.

Developed by Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane, the Community Leaders program seeks to provide the next generation of young athletes with the environment and resources they need to develop physically and mentally. Baseball and softball teach young players the importance of teamwork, perseverance and commitment, principles that will serve them not only on the field, but throughout their lives.

The Community Leaders program has grown significantly since its inception in 2013. Through the help of its generous corporate partners, the program now impacts thousands of children and their youth baseball and softball leagues throughout the city, providing additional resources, instructional player and coaching clinics, infrastructure enhancements, uniforms and equipment. The Community Leaders program has expanded its footprint and scope to include established community centers and youth programs throughout Greater Houston, and down to Uvalde, Texas, and provides tens of thousands of uniforms and equipment to children at no cost.

For its efforts, the Community Leaders program received the 2017 Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, Major League Baseball's highest honor for the charitable efforts of its clubs.

ASTROS YOUTH ACADEMY

2801 VICTORY DRIVE, HOUSTON, TX 77088

The Astros Youth Academy is the cornerstone of the Astros Foundation with the initiative to provide youth baseball and softball to the young athletes in the Greater Houston Area. The Academy's experienced staff serve over 28,000 participants providing free baseball and softball instruction, life-skills training, academic support, and initiatives to young athletes year-round. The Astros Youth Academy staff plays a vital role in the expansion and development of the Foundations' Community Leader program.

The Academy is also home to the Houston Astros RBI program and host summer camps and year-round clinics. Astros RBI is in its 12th year as an Astros Foundation-run program. The Astros Nike RBI program has established a legacy of success nationally, particularly the Astros RBI Softball Team, which has won five recent MLB Nike RBI World Series titles (2018, 2019, 2021, 2023 and 2024). The Astros Nike RBI Senior Boys advanced to the MLB Nike RBI World Series in 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2022 and in 2023, finally broke through to win their first World Series title. The Junior Boys also advanced to this prestigious event in 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018.

Since 2014, over 200 RBI members have received baseball or softball opportunities to continue playing at the collegiate level, with 37 AYA members receiving baseball/softball college opportunities in 2024. Since 2015, 11 RBI members have been drafted by Major League Baseball teams, including the Astros first round draft pick in the 2023 MLB Draft, shortstop Brice Matthews.

ASTROS FOUNDATION IN 2024

The 2024 season was a very successful one for the Astros Foundation, as $6 million was donated to various Houston community programs.

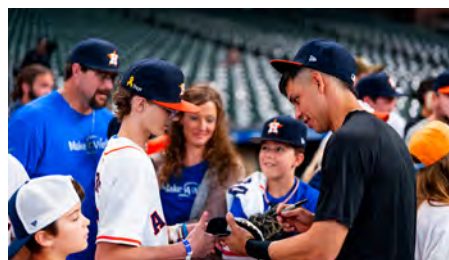

The 2024 Astros Foundation Charity Game was once again a successful event for the Astros, as over $724,000 was raised, with the proceeds from the telecast benefitting B.I.G. Love Cancer Care, Candlelighters, The Sunshine Kids, Texas Children's, Ronald McDonald House and other childhood cancer related organizations.

The Astros Foundation also put on the Diamond Dreams Gala presented by Chevron in November of 2024, a wonderful night of fundraising for the Astros Foundation and New Hope Housing, an organization combatting homelessness by providing housing and support services for those in need. The event featured a fantastic dinner, live and silent auctions and a concert by Grammy award-winning singer-songwriter, record producer, actor and dancer, Ne-Yo.

Astros players pride themselves on giving back to the community, and many did so in 2024 through player-led initiatives. Astros shortstop Jeremy Peña hosted Peña's Pals for the second season, celebrating kids and their development in academics, character building and making healthy choices at one Friday home game a month. Kyle Tucker was the Astros Roberto Clemente Award nominee in 2024 for his work with his foundation, The Kyle Tucker Foundation, and dedication to hospice care. Alex Bregman continued his work with his nonprofit Bregman Cares, helping those in need and highlighting autism awareness. Astros closer Josh Hader made his mark in the Houston community in his first season, starting Hader's Heart alongside his wife, Maria. Josh and Maria invited foster kids from BEAR (Be a Resource) and Covenant House, giving them a special gameday experience. The Hader's also hosted a toy drive to benefit foster children in December 2025. Jose Altuve, Tucker and Hader also hosted the sixth annual "Team Up" event, with the funds raised benefitting causes the trio are passionate about, including animal rescue efforts, hospice care, children's charities and more.

The Astros Foundation could not have had the success they did in 2024 without World Champion Volunteers, a group of over 583 active volunteers that served over 38,000 hours at 1,932 events for over 90 partner organizations.

Additionally, in February of 2024, the Astros Foundation and Daikin Park hosted the second-annual Cactus Jack HBCU Classic, a round-robin collegiate baseball tournament featuring six Historically Black Colleges and Universities.

MASCOT

Species: Homerunus Spectacularus
Age: How long is a light-year?

Since rejoining the team in 2012 as the official mascot of the Houston Astros, Orbit has quickly become one of the most popular mascots in baseball and all of sports! During pregame, you can often find him giving a fun Astros "welcome" to top athletes, entertainers and dignitaries from around the world. During the game itself, be on the lookout for some of Orbit's signature shenanigans which can happen on the field or even right next to you in the stands.

Whether it's on the dugout, in the stands or on the field, Orbit's hilarious hijinks have garnered attention from some of the world's top media outlets, including ESPN, MLB Network, FOX Sports, CBS Sports, SB Nation, Yahoo! Sports, The Huffington Post, USA Today, E! Online, MTV, and GQ Magazine to name a few! Many of these performances can be found online, where their respective videos have collectively garnered nearly two billion views.

Orbit's contributions don't stop on the field. In the community, Orbit makes nearly 300 appearances a year! These include everything from public appearances such as community festivals and parades, to private events such as corporate events and birthday parties. Orbit also has been known to participate in a number of promotional stunts throughout the year, including taking on the BP MS 150 bike ride from Houston to Austin, rappelling down the side of the Four Seasons hotel, and tag-teaming events such as the Houston Marathon and the Cypress Triathlon with other Houston-area mascots. Additionally, Orbit offers a series of educational assembly shows geared toward elementary schools that cover topics such as literacy, anti-bullying, having character, making smart choices during Red Ribbon Week, STEM and preparing for the STAAR test.

In 2024, Orbit joined the team on their trip to Mexico City, Mexico, as they played the Colorado Rockies as a part of MLB's World Tour, Mexico City Series. This was Orbit's fifth international trip and third trip to Mexico. Other trips included a trip to Japan (2014), Mexico (2016), Taiwan (2018) and Mexico (2019).

In 2017, Orbit released his very first children's book, Orbit's First Day of School! The book covers topics such as making new friends, how to handle bullies, embracing differences, celebrating strengths and practicing respect. They are available for purchase exclusively at the Astros Team Store at Minute Maid Park.

Orbit was named MLB Mascot of the Year in 2023.

JIM CRANE

OWNER & CHAIRMAN

On Nov. 17, 2011, Major League Baseball unanimously approved the purchase of the Houston Astros by a group headed by Houston businessman Jim Crane, marking the beginning of a new era of Astros baseball.

As Owner and Chairman, Jim Crane hit the ground running upon taking control of the Astros in 2011 by immediately putting his plan to rebuild the franchise into action. As a highly successful businessman in Houston and former standout college pitcher, Jim's credentials made him the perfect choice to build a winning team both on and off the field in Houston.

From the start, Jim was clear about his goals: to make the Astros a ballclub that can have sustained success at the Major League level by building a top-notch farm system and to provide Astros fans with an outstanding experience at Daikin Park.

In just six years, Jim Crane took the Astros from worst to first in spectacular fashion. Houston's farm system, which was ranked as one of the worst in baseball in 2011, recovered in a three-year span to be ranked as the best in baseball in 2014. Since then, that same farm system has produced multiple Major Leaguers and everyday players and has given the Astros the ability to pull off multiple trades, all signed off on by Crane, including the acquisitions of Justin Verlander in 2017, Gerrit Cole in 2018 and Zack Greinke in 2019.

Buoyed by promotions and acquisitions, the Major League club went from a 111-loss season in 2013 to ultimately winning its first World Series Championship in 2017. The club has continued to produce at the highest level, as the Astros posted 100-plus win seasons in four of the last seven years (did not reach the mark in 2020 due to a shortened season because of the COVID-19 pandemic). Not only have the Astros reached the postseason each of the last seven seasons, but they have advanced to the ALCS in all seven of those years, becoming the first team in AL history to advance to seven straight ALCS. In 2019, the Astros set a franchise record with 107 regular season wins and won the American League pennant. In 2022, the Astros won their second World Series title, going 11-2 (7-0 through the ALDS and ALCS) as they rolled through the postseason after winning their fifth American League West Division title and fourth American League pennant in six seasons. In 2023, the Astros won their sixth American League West Division title and advanced to their seventh straight ALCS. Last season, the Astros won their seventh American League West Division title. Overall, four of the club's five World Series trips, including both the 2022 and 2017 World Series Championships, have come under Crane's ownership.

Under Crane's leadership, the Astros announced in November 2024 a 15-year agreement on an exclusive naming rights partnership with Daikin Comfort Technologies North America Inc. (Daikin) that brands the home of the Astros as Daikin Park. The agreement, effective January 1, 2025, will run through the 2039 season, and includes official naming rights, other partnership benefits, and a give back to the Greater Houston community through educational programming and youth sports development in underserved communities.

In order to make the experience at Daikin Park one of the best in baseball, the Astros have made several large-scale renovations to the ballpark under Jim's leadership. The multi-million-dollar investment in center field, the addition of the Astros Hall of Fame Alley, the renovations and enhancements to the ballpark's suites, an upgrade to the video board, ribbon boards and audio system in the stadium, along with a new Team Store in center field are the most recent innovative updates that showcase Jim's commitment to making Daikin Park a great destination for fans of all ages.

Jim recognized the need for a new Astros Spring Training facility and successfully moved the team to West Palm Beach in 2017, where players and fans now enjoy a first-class, state-of-the-art facility, Ballpark of the Palm Beaches. Through a partnership, Jim also purchased an office building five miles from the Spring Training facility and had it redeveloped into a Hilton Garden Inn branded hotel which serves the public as well as Astros players, staff and families.

He also successfully brokered the purchase of the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks in 2015 and was closely involved with the acquisition of a Class A Advanced affiliate in the Carolina League in 2017. In 2019, that team had a new stadium built in Fayetteville, N.C., and a new name, the Fayetteville Woodpeckers. Ballpark Digest recognized the Woodpeckers' brand with the Logo/Branding of the Year Award in 2019. Additionally, Jim continued to add to the Astros minor league system acquiring the Sugar Land Skeeters franchise to serve as the Astros Triple A affiliate prior to the 2021 season. In January of 2022, the Skeeters underwent a successful re-brand to the Sugar Land Space Cowboys.

Under Jim's leadership, the Astros have supported several of MLB's diversity initiatives, including MLB's eighth annual Civil Rights Game and ancillary activities as well as MLB's Diversity Summit, a sports employment and business opportunity career and trade fair. Houston has twice hosted the Urban Invitational, a nationally-televised collegiate baseball tournament designed to give HBCUs and their baseball programs national exposure, as well as the Breakthrough Series, a collegiate and professional scouting showcase featuring a diverse group of top high school players in the country. In 2023, the Astros debuted the inaugural Astros Foundation Cactus Jack HBCU Classic, hosting six HBCUs for a nationally-televised tournament at Daikin Park featuring traditional HBCU rivals from Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi.

Passion for the Game

Jim hails from St. Louis, Mo. where he became a loyal, spirited fan of the St. Louis Cardinals. As a teenager, he caddied for members of the Cardinals team at local golf clubs and parked cars for patrons at Cardinals games. Jim was impressed by the Cardinals' caring, family atmosphere and the team's close ties with the local community. He has carried these values forward throughout his life in business, philanthropic and personal relationships.

As a young man, Jim put his innate passion for baseball into action at Central Missouri State University (now the University of Central Missouri), where he was a standout pitcher for the Mules from 1973-76 under the late, revered coach, Robert Tompkins. Jim still holds the Mules' single-game strikeout record with 18, and in 1997, was inducted into the Central Missouri State University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Jim was the primary underwriter of a $1.2 million renovation in 1998 of the old Mules Field on the University of Central Missouri campus. On Jan. 21, 1998, the facility was renamed the James R. Crane Stadium/Robert N. Tompkins Field in honor of Jim and his beloved coach. Jim continues to contribute to the college annually to provide athletic scholarships for Mules baseball. On Jan. 29, 2017, Jim was enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame for his outstanding pitching career at the University of Central Missouri, his generous donations to UCM baseball and his successful efforts in rebuilding the Houston Astros franchise.

Jim earned a Bachelor of Science degree in industrial safety from Central Missouri State University in 1976. This led to a loss-control job evaluating commercial risks for an insurance company and then a move to Houston in 1982, where he entered the freight forwarding business.

Success in the Business World

In March of 1984, at the age of 30 and with $10,000 borrowed from his sister, Jim founded Eagle USA Airfreight (EGL, Inc.). In his first office located in Houston with a sole employee, Jim handled the loading and trucking himself. The company made money in its first month, and Jim ultimately built it into an organization of more than 10,000 employees with 400-plus facilities in 139 countries. EGL was named one of Houston's "Best Places to Work," and reached No. 599 on the Fortune 1000 list during Jim's tenure. EGL has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. The company was acquired in an LBO transaction in August 2007.

In August of 2008, Crane formed Crane Worldwide Logistics (CWL), a premier global provider of customized transportation and logistics services. CWL continues to grow rapidly with experienced members of Crane's management team and sales force at the helm.

Jim's love of baseball is unabated, and he has added the game of golf to his athletic endeavors. He acquired the Floridian, a private golf resort in Palm City, Fla., in 2010. In 2017, Jim ventured into the restaurant business and opened Osso & Kristalla and Potente, named after his children. In 2018, he also took ownership of the Houston Open, the PGA TOUR tournament that was in danger of leaving the city. The tournament is operated under the Astros Golf Foundation transaction to the newly renovated Memorial Park Golf Course in 2020.

Stepping Up and Giving Back

As Astros Owner and Chairman, Jim has embraced the opportunity to give back to the City of Houston and beyond. Since he took ownership of the club, the Astros Foundation has donated and invested over $50 million into the Houston community and beyond.

The Astros Foundation donated $6 million to various Houston non-profits in 2024. The funds supported the causes that are the five main pillars of the Astros Foundation, including youth baseball and softball initiatives, childhood cancer awareness, domestic violence awareness, military causes and homelessness.

In 2022, the Astros Foundation embraced the community of Uvalde, Texas, making them a part of the Astros family in the aftermath of the shooting of 19 students and two teachers at Robb Elementary School on May 24, 2022. Crane, 85 front office staff and the Astros Foundation mobilized to visit the Uvalde community in July 2022 to bring some healing to the community through the game of baseball. The Astros then welcomed 3,500 citizens of Uvalde to Daikin Park for a special Uvalde Strong Day on Aug. 14, 2022 as the Astros took on the Oakland A's. It was also announced that the Uvalde Little League would become a part of the Astros Community Leaders Little League program, providing a multi-year commitment of over $1.2 million to maintain their little league fields, provide new fencing, concession stand, uniforms, equipment and more. The Astros also made Uvalde a special stop on the 2023 Astros Caravan, with Alex Bregman and

In 2021, the Astros Foundation led the way in the fight against COVID-19, partnering with the City of Houston to use Daikin Park as both a COVID-19 testing site and as a vaccination site.

In April of 2020, during the early stages of the pandemic, Jim stepped up to connect the Astros Foundation with Crane Worldwide Logistics, which resulted in millions of medical supplies being delivered to Houston hospitals within the Texas Medical Center. The goal of the partnership was to provide funding, logistics and transportation support for much-needed medical supplies and Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) being used by healthcare professionals to treat COVID-19 patients.

In 2020, Jim also connected the Astros Foundation and Crane Worldwide with Astros players Carlos Correa and Martin Maldonado plus other MLB players from Puerto Rico to assist with delivering medical supplies to the island during the COVID-19 pandemic. In that endeavor, the Astros Foundation and Crane Worldwide covered 100% of the freight and transportation costs and also coordinated the logistics to get those much-needed medical supplies to Puerto Rico.

Crane and the Astros Foundation are the first to jump to action after natural disasters in the area, holding supply drives at Daikin Park to support relief efforts for communities impacted by storms and other natural disasters. Most recently, the Astros Foundation supported the communities affected by the wildfires in Los Angeles in January 2025. Drives were held to collect supplies for communities in Louisiana impacted by Hurricane Laura in 2020, Hurricane Ida in 2021 and Hurricanes Helene and Milton in 2024. In 2021, the Astros Foundation and Alex Bregman held a water distribution drive to support local Houstonians during recovery from Winter Storm Uri. Most recently, the Astros held a water and ice distribution drive to local Houstonians in the aftermath of Hurricane Beryl in July 2024.

In the immediate aftermath of Hurricane Harvey in 2017, Jim and the Astros ownership group were among the first to pledge $4 million to relief efforts. Jim also facilitated the shipment of more than 240,000 pounds of disaster relief supplies to Puerto Rico, where he was instrumental in transporting families of Astros and other MLB players, as well as hospitalized patients in critical condition, to safety.

In 2018, when the City of Houston was in danger of losing the Houston Open golf tournament, Jim helped establish the Astros Golf Foundation to ensure that the historic, PGA Tour tournament would remain in Houston. As a result, since 2019, the Houston Open has been presented by the Astros Golf Foundation and has had a tremendous impact on the Houston community, becoming the single-biggest fundraiser for the Astros Foundation. The Astros Golf Foundation spearheaded a $34 million renovation to Memorial Park Golf Course, which now plays host to the Houston Open. One of the key goals of the Astros Golf Foundation is to provide much-needed resources and funds to the citizens and community of Houston through park improvements, charitable fundraising and investing in youth programs.

Jim is committed to providing local children the opportunities he feels baseball afforded him in his youth. One of his first initiatives after purchasing the Astros was the creation of the Astros Community Leaders program, which won MLB's prestigious Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence in 2017. As part of the program, a multi-million-dollar partnership was formed with the City of Houston's Parks and Recreation Department and included participation from several corporate partners, whose financial donations supported the field refurbishments, year-round maintenance, league programming and uniforms. Now, tens of thousands of young athletes receive free uniforms, equipment, tickets to Astros games and professional instruction through the Community Leaders program. The parents, coaches and league participants also benefit from different types of clinics through the Community Leaders program, attending clinics on coaching, groundskeeping, nutrition, education, and much more.

"Baseball was very important to my development," Jim said. "Playing baseball made me a lot more confident and comfortable in my ability to achieve things. I'd like to be able to help more kids get the opportunities that I had through baseball."

Jim has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. In 2019, Jim was recognized as the MD Anderson "Living Legend" and was also presented with the Ben Taub Humanitarian Award at their Jubilee of Caring event. He also won the 2019 Houston Sports Award Executive of the Year award. In May of 2018, he received the Public Service Award from the American Leadership Forum and was also inducted into the St. Louis Sports Hall of Fame where he received the August A. Busch, Jr. Award. On November 1, 2018, Jim was inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame and in December 2018 received the Jack Buck Award from the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis, Missouri.

Most recently, in February 2024, First Tee Houston honored Jim Crane and the Astros Golf Foundation for their Game Changer Award as part of their 20th anniversary celebration.

DANA BROWN

GENERAL MANAGER

Dana Brown was named the 14th General Manager in Astros franchise history on Jan. 25, 2023.

Brown became the second African-American general manager in Astros history, joining Bob Watson (1994-95). He enters his third season as GM in 2025.

After the Astros won their fourth-straight American League West title in 2024, Brown became the first Astros general manager to win division titles in his first two years as general manager.

In 2023, his first season as the Astros general manager, the team won the American League West and finished with a record of 90-72, advancing through the divisional round to their seventh-straight American League Championship Series.

Following the 2024 season, Brown had a busy offseason, signing one of the top first basemen in the league, three-time Gold Glove winner, Christian Walker. He also acquired 2024 All-Star third baseman Isaac Paredes, top prospect Cam Smith and right-handed pitcher Hayden Wesneski in a trade with the Chicago Cubs.

Prior to the 2024 season, Brown made the first managerial selection of his career, naming longtime coach Joe Espada the 20th manager in Astros franchise history. He also orchestrated a big offseason signing of five-time All-Star left-handed reliever Josh Hader to bolster an already strong bullpen. In February 2024, Brown also extended Astros star second baseman Jose Altuve for five seasons, through 2029, keeping the eight time All-Star, 2017 MVP and future Hall of Fame candidate as an Astro for life.

Under Brown, the Astros signed starting pitcher Christian Javier to a contract extension through 2027 in spring training 2023. At the 2023 trade deadline, Brown made his first major move, reacquiring Cy Young Award-winning pitcher Justin Verlander and cash considerations from the New York Mets, in exchange for minor league outfielders Drew Gilbert and Ryan Clifford.

Brown joined the Astros after spending four seasons (2019-22) with the Atlanta Braves organization as their Vice President, Scouting. In that role, he oversaw several successful drafts in which the Braves selected impact players such as outfielder Michael Harris, right-handed pitcher Spencer Strider and infielder Vaughn Grissom. In 2022, Harris earned National League Rookie of the Year honors while Strider finished second.

The Braves success during Brown's tenure there, which included five straight division titles and a World Series championship in 2021, was in large part the result of a solid farm system.

Prior to joining the Braves, Brown spent nine seasons (2010-18) with the Toronto Blue Jays as a special assistant to the general manager. In that span, the Blue Jays earned an American League East Division title in 2015 and a Wild Card berth in 2016. The postseason appearance in 2015 was the first for the Blue Jays since 1993.

Before his stint in Toronto, Brown served as the Director of Scouting for the Nationals/Expos franchise for nine seasons (2001-09). During his tenure, the Nationals/Expos would draft over 40 players that would go on to appear in the Major Leagues. Seven players drafted in that span would earn All-Star status, including Ian Desmond, Stephen Strasburg and Ryan Zimmerman.

Brown's career also includes an eight-year stint with the Pittsburgh Pirates, where he served as their area scouting supervisor and east coast cross checker.

Brown also played professionally for three seasons as an outfielder in the Phillies minor league system after being drafted out of Seton Hall University in the 35th round of the 1989 June Draft. In three minor league seasons as an outfielder, Brown hit .262 in 280 games with 82 stolen bases, advancing as high as Double-A in his final season in 1991.

One of his teammates at Seton Hall was Astros Hall of Famer Craig Biggio. Brown also played with three other future Major Leagues while at Seton Hall: former All-Star and MVP first baseman Mo Vaughn, shortstop John Valentin and left-handed pitcher Kevin Morton. Brown was inducted into the Seton Hall University Hall of Fame in 2008 and the New Jersey SportsWriter Hall of Fame in 2012 for notable accomplishments in baseball.

ANDREW BALL

Andrew Ball is in his fourth season as Assistant General Manager for the Astros. In his role, he assists Dana Brown with all aspects of Baseball Operations, primarily focusing on Major League roster management, player evaluation and procurement, contract negotiations, and rules compliance. He also oversees Research & Development and Sports Medicine & Performance and works closely with all departments on long-term strategy, innovation, and facilitating learning and development.

Prior to joining the Astros, Ball spent five seasons (2017-2021) as the Director of Baseball Operations for the Los Angeles Angels and three seasons (2014-2016) with the Tampa Bay Rays in their Pro Scouting department. He began his career in professional baseball with the independent York Revolution, starting as an intern in 2011 before spending two seasons as Manager of Baseball Operations.

Ball graduated from Gwynedd-Mercy College, where he earned a business administration degree and pitched for the baseball team. He lives in Houston with his wife, Rachel.

CHARLES COOK

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Charles Cook enters his 10th year with the Astros, ninth in a full-time capacity and third as Assistant General Manager. Charles previously held the roles of Senior Director of Player Evaluation, Baseball Operations Coordinator, Manager of Amateur Scouting Analysis and Director of Player Evaluation for the Astros.

Charles is a 2015 graduate of Yale University, where he was a member of the baseball and football teams. As a student, he held a summer internship with the Astros business strategy & analytics department.

GAVIN DICKEY

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Gavin Dickey was promoted to assistant general manager in November of 2023 after spending the 2023 season as special assistant to the general manager. 2025 is his second season as an assistant general manager.

He has been with the Astros organization since 2011, which is when he was hired as an area scout. As part of his current duties, Dickey oversees player development, player personnel, minor league operations and performance science.

After a six-year minor league playing career as an outfielder, Dickey was hired by the Astros as an area scout in September of 2011, covering South Texas. From 2013-15, his territory to cover was moved to Georgia and North Florida. In 2016, he was promoted to regional cross checker, covering the Southeast region of the country, before being named national crosschecker in 2018. In 2021, he was named as a special assignment scout, handling those duties until 2023 when he was promoted to special assistant to the general manager.

Dickey was originally drafted out of the University of Florida by the Seattle Mariners in the 12th round of the 2006 June Draft. He ended up playing six seasons of minor league baseball (2006-11) advancing as high as Double-A.

Prior to his college career, Dickey was a highly-recruited quarterback and centerfielder at Lincoln High School in Tallahassee, FL. As a quarterback, Dickey received several scholarship offers before deciding to attend the University of Florida, where he played football and baseball. During his junior year on the baseball diamond, he would hit .304 with 11 home runs and 41 RBI in just 50 games prior to being drafted by Seattle.

Dickey and his wife, Rachel, have three children, sons Tristan and Jonah and a daughter, Alessa.

JEFF BAGWELL

SENIOR ADVISOR, OWNERSHIP & BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Jeff Bagwell, who was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2017 and the Astros Hall of Fame in 2019, was one of the greatest sluggers of all-time.

In his current role as Senior Advisor, Ownership & Baseball Operations, Bagwell is an active member of the Baseball Operations department, directly supporting player development, scouting and talent acquisition. He is also a key advisor to both ownership and Astros General Manager Dana Brown.

Additionally, Bagwell makes public appearances, acts as an ambassador for the organization, and can be heard on the club's TV and radio broadcasts, serving as a part-time color analyst on both platforms.

In his illustrious playing career with the Astros, which spanned 15 years, Bagwell hit .297 with 488 doubles, 32 triples, 449 home runs, 1,529 RBI with a .948 OPS (.408 OBP/.540 SLG) in 2,150 games. The four-time All-Star and three-time Silver Slugger Award winner was the first player in Astros history to be named the MVP of his league (1994), as well as the first player to receive a Rookie of the Year Award (1991). The franchise leader in homers, walks and RBI, Bagwell was also known for his elite defense at first base, winning a Rawlings Gold Glove Award in 1994. He is the only first baseman in MLB history to record a 30-homer, 30-stolen base season, which he accomplished twice (1997, 1999). Under Bagwell's leadership, the Astros won four division titles and made the playoffs six times, reaching the National League Championship Series in 2004 and the World Series in 2005.

CRAIG BIGGIO

SPECIAL ADVISOR, BASEBALL OPERATIONS & COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

Hall of Famer and longtime Astros icon Craig Biggio is in his 18th season as an important part of the Astros front office. In his role, Craig works in several areas, including with the baseball operations staff in its Major and minor league player development programs, scouting, and talent evaluation. Additionally, Craig participates in the club's community development programs and the Astros partnership initiatives.

On Jan. 6, 2015, Craig Biggio became the first player in Astros history to be voted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame after receiving 82.7 percent of the total votes from the Baseball Writers' Association of America. He was officially inducted into the HOF during the annual ceremony in Cooperstown on July 26, 2015. Craig was also inducted to the Astros Hall of Fame on August 3, 2019, as a part of the inaugural class.

The franchise career leader in hits, games played, runs scored, and at-bats, Craig retired at the end of the 2007 season following a stellar, 20-year career, all with the Astros. His No. 7 was retired by the ballclub on Aug. 17, 2008.

He finished his career with 3,060 hits, 668 doubles, 291 homers, 1,175 RBI, and a .281 career average in 2,850 games. He remains the franchise leader in several categories, including hits, doubles, games played and runs (1844).

A first-round selection by Houston in the June 1987 draft, Craig became the first Astro to reach the 3,000-hit plateau with a seventh-inning single against Colorado's Aaron Cook on June 28, 2007 at Minute Maid Park. His 3,060 hits rank 25th all-time, and his 668 career doubles are the 2nd-most of any right-handed hitter in Major League history (sixth all-time overall).

Craig's 20 seasons with Houston are a franchise record, and he also made a club-best 19 consecutive Opening Day starts. He is also the only player in Major League history to reach all of the following milestones: 600 doubles (668), 250 home runs (291), 2,700 hits (3,060), and 400 stolen bases (414). Craig and Cal Ripken Jr. are the only middle infielders (only 13 players all-time) to collect 3,000 hits and 1,000 extra-base hits.

Craig was named to a franchise-record seven National League All-Star teams, received five Silver Slugger Awards, four Rawlings Gold Glove Awards and was a member of six Astros playoff teams. Craig holds National League records for leadoff home runs with 53 (ranks second all-time) and for hits in interleague play with 201. He also led all players during the 2005 postseason with 18 hits.

Additionally, Craig was the 2007 recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award, a prestigious honor bestowed upon one Major League player each season by Major League Baseball and the Clemente family recognizing community service. Craig has been actively involved with the Sunshine Kids throughout his career, a support organization for children with cancer and their families.

Craig and wife Patty reside in Houston and have two sons, Conor and Cavan, and one daughter, Quinn. In 2010, Craig coached his sons' St. Thomas High School baseball team to the Texas Class 5A state championship. Both Conor (graduate '15) and Cavan (drafted '16) played baseball for the University of Notre Dame. Cavan was drafted by the Blue Jays and made his Major League debut for Toronto in 2019. On Sept. 17, 2019 in Baltimore, Cavan hit for the cycle, making he and his father just the second father-son duo to each hit for the cycle in an MLB game; Quinn was a member of the Notre Dame softball team.

RUSS BOVE

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Russ Bove (pronounced boe-vay) joined the Astros in 2023 as a special assistant to the general manager and enters his third season in the role in 2025.

Bove brings close to 40 years of experience in professional scouting to the Astros. His current role will include assisting with the amateur draft as well as minor league player evaluation.

Prior to joining the Astros, Bove had served as a special assignment scout for the Toronto Blue Jays since 2010, during which time he worked alongside current Astros General Manager Dana Brown. While in Toronto, Bove was a part of the signing of several current Major League players, including Bo Bichette, Marcus Stroman and Vladimir Guerrero Jr. During his stint in Toronto, Bove was named East Coast Scout of the Year at the Winter Meetings in December of 2017.

Bove's career in scouting began in 1983 with the Major League Scouting Bureau. In 1992, he was hired by the Brewers organization where he would first serve as an area scout before being promoted to East Coast Supervisor. In 2004, he worked as an area scout for the Montreal Expos for one season before being hired by the New York Mets as amateur scouting director. He would remain with the Mets until 2011, at which time he would join the Blue Jays.

A native of Queens, NY, Bove received a Bachelor's of Science degree in business from St. John's University. While in college, he was the Team MVP of the St. John's baseball team in 1971 was twice named as a District II All-American.

WILL SHARP

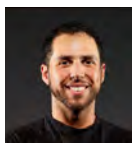

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Will Sharp is entering his 12th season with the Houston Astros and was promoted to Special Assistant to the General Manager in November 2023. Prior to that, Sharp spent the past two seasons as Special Advisor to Baseball Operations. Sharp is focused on pro player evaluation and management of the Astros' Major League and 40-man rosters.

Sharp also worked as an Analyst, Pro Scouting and Manager, Major League Strategy while based in Houston, beginning in December 2017. Sharp was originally hired by the Astros in December 2012 as a professional scout based out of Athens, Ga., a role in which he was responsible for evaluations of Major and minor league players and contributed work to arbitration and other roster management decisions in the off season.

Sharp began his career as a Baseball Operations intern with the Los Angeles Dodgers during his sophomore year of college in January 2007. He then worked for the Dodgers as a Baseball Operations Assistant with a focus on pro scouting, serving as a liaison between the club's professional scouts and its front office decision makers, from November 2009 to November 2012.

A Los Angeles native and 2009 graduate of the University of Southern California with a major in Economics and a minor in Religion, Sharp now resides in Columbus, OH with his wife, Tatiana, and their two dogs, Peach and Penny.

JACOB BUFFA

SENIOR DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT AND PERFORMANCE SCIENCE

In 2025, Jacob Buffa enters his seventh season with the Astros and second as Senior Director, Player Development and Performance Science. Buffa joined the Astros in January 2019 as a development coach and was promoted to Director of Performance Science in January 2022 where he was responsible for building the first Performance Science department for the Astros. Currently Buffa oversees biomechanics, sports science and player development. In this role he is responsible for setting the vision and strategy for how minor leaguers are developed under the Astros system. As well as leading the initiatives on technology acquisition and performance research.

Prior to joining the Astros, Buffa co-founded a baseball performance facility in St. Louis Missouri. A 2016 Graduate of Missouri State University, Buffa currently resides in Houston with his wife, Shanna.

Deric Ladnier enters his second season with the Astros as the Senior Director of Amateur Scouting. Prior to joining the Astros, he spent nine seasons with the D-backs and has 36 years of experience in scouting and player development.

With the D-backs, Ladnier oversaw all aspects of amateur scouting and talent evaluation for the annual MLB Draft. In June 2015, he and his staff used the No. 1 overall pick to select infielder Dansby Swanson. Under his direction, the D-backs drafted the 2023 NL Rookie of the Year, Corbin Carroll in the first round of the 2019 draft and top-five prospect Jordan Lawlar as the sixth overall pick 2021. Other notable draftees include Dalton Varsho, Brandon Pfaadt, Alec Thomas, Tommy Henry, Kevin Ginkel, Ryne Nelson and Drey Jamison. During his time with the D-backs, the organization went from a last place club with the worst farm system in baseball to a top three system and the 2023 National League pennant.

Ladnier spent seven seasons with the Nationals as a national crosschecker and special assistant to the general manager from 2008-14. The Nationals were NL East division champs in 2012, '14 and finished second in 2013.

He also spent seasons with the Royals (2000-08) as senior director of scouting. Notable draftees include 2009 AL Cy Young Award winner and former Astro Zack Greinke; members of the Royals' 2014-15 World Series teams, including current D-backs Jarrod Dyson and Greg Holland, as well as Alex Gordon, Eric Hosmer, Billy Butler, Mike Moustakas, Luke Hochevar (2006's No. 1 overall pick) and Danny Duffy; and Mike Montgomery.

Ladnier worked for the Braves from 1991-2000 as area supervisor, Director of Minor League Operations, Regional Supervisor and Assistant Director of Scouting and Player Development. During his 10 seasons, the organization was recognized as having a Top-6 Minor League system by Baseball America.

As a player, Ladnier was the Royals' eighth-round pick in the 1985 draft out of University of Mississippi.

Deric and his wife, Misty, reside in Gulf Breeze, Fla. They have six daughters: Kalen, Megan, Ashley, Laken, Brooklyn and Saylor.

J.J. RUBY

SENIOR DIRECTOR, RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

JJ Ruby, who joined the Houston Astros full-time in October 2022, is currently the Senior Director of Research and Development. In this role, JJ oversees the direction of R&D activities and helps lead the technical vision for the organization, benefiting from excellent collaboration across baseball operations and the Astros more broadly.

Prior to joining the Astros, JJ was a Lawrence Postdoctoral Fellow at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory while also working as a consultant within the R&D department of the Astros. JJ started full-time with the Astros in the role of Lead Innovator, working on high leverage projects across baseball operations.

JJ graduated with a degree in Astrophysics from Villanova University and a PhD in Physics from the University of Rochester, where he also currently holds an appointment as a visiting assistant professor of Mechanical Engineering. JJ currently resides in Houston with his wife, Elizabeth.

Caridad oversees all aspects of the Astros Latin American development and operations in addition to overseeing the administrative aspects of the Astros Academy in the DR. In addition to administrator, Caridad also served in the positions of Supervisor, Latin American Operations and Manager, Latin American operations.

Prior to joining the Astros, Caridad served as Analyst in the pledge's unit of the Dominican Ministry of Agriculture. Before that, she served as administrative assistant in EMC Abogados, handling all aspects related to human resources and payroll. Caridad graduated, cum laude, from O&M with an engineering degree in computer systems and holds a master's degree in business administration (senior management) from INTEC.

ANTHONY CACCHIONE

DIRECTOR, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Anthony Cacchione enters his seventh season with the Astros organization. In his role as Baseball Operations Director, Cacchione oversees the club's Major League operations and assists in player acquisition.

Cacchione joined the organization in 2019 as a Baseball Operations Apprentice where he supported the needs of the Major League operations group. He later served as Coordinator, Baseball Operations (2020-2021) and Manager, Baseball Operations (2022-2023). As Manager, Baseball Operations, Cacchione focused on Major League roster management, rules compliance, and assisted the General Manager with player acquisitions, negotiations, as well as other aspects of baseball operations. Cacchione holds a B.A. and M.A. in Economics from The City College of New York, where he played baseball and was named CUNY Scholar Athlete of the Year in 2018. Born in St. Louis, MO., he now resides in Houston.

ADAM DECKER

DIRECTOR, SPORTS MEDICINE AND PERFORMANCE

Adam Decker enters his 4th season with the Astros as Director of Sports Medicine & Performance. Decker oversees the medical, strength & conditioning, nutrition, and mental health & performance teams covering all Astros' Major and Minor League players. Decker and his team are tasked with keeping players healthy and developing mentally and physically.

Prior to joining the Astros, Decker worked in medical and performance leadership positions with Team Canada, Cirque du Soleil, and the NHL's New Jersey Devils. Decker holds a PhD in medical rehabilitation and several professional certifications in sports medicine and performance. Decker resides in Houston with his wife and son.

GILES KIBBE

Giles Kibbe joined Jim Crane's family office in 2010 and currently serves as General Counsel, overseeing all the Crane enterprises.

Specifically, Giles holds various titles and responsibilities across the Crane portfolio. He is in his fourteenth year with the Houston Astros and currently serves as Executive Vice President, General Counsel. Since 2018, Giles has also served as the President and Executive Director of the Astros Golf Foundation. And, since 2011 when Jim Crane acquired the prestigious Floridian National Golf Club, Giles has served as President of that operation and development.

Hailing from Port Arthur, Texas, Giles attended undergrad at Lamar University on a golf scholarship. He followed that with a law degree from LSU in 1993, where he was immediately awarded the prestigious opportunity to serve a federal clerkship for United States District Judge Joe J. Fisher from 1993-1995. Giles joined the law firm of Weller, Green, Touns & Terrell in 1996, serving as a partner for nine of his thirteen years at the firm.

In addition to his current responsibilities of oversight of the ballclub's Legal, Risk, and Human Resources functions, Giles represents the Astros on Major League Baseball's Presidents' Committee and serves as board member for the following organizations:

- Crane Safety: Member Board of Directors, 2017 – 2023
- Space City Home Network: Member Board of Directors, 2023 – Present
- Greater Houston Partnership: Member Board of Directors – 2025 - Present

Giles and his wife, Andrea, are proud parents of two young children – Cade and Aquila. Alongside his passion for baseball and golf, Giles has remained committed to showcasing Houston on a global stage and is active in ensuring that the Astros and Astros Golf Foundation continue to invest in the growth of Houston through both business development and community giving.

ANITA SEHGAL

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, MARKETING & COMMUNICATIONS

Anita Sehgal is currently in her 11th year with the Houston Astros, currently serving as Executive Vice President, Marketing & Communications. In her role, Anita provides strategic leadership for the ballclub's retail, advertising, marketing, communications, broadcasting, and alumni relations, including support for a broad variety of sponsorship, ticket, special event, community, and the Astros Golf Foundation and Texas Children's Houston Open initiatives.

Prior to joining the Houston organization, Anita spent over 20 years in various strategic marketing functions with several organizations, including FGL Sports, Best Buy and Academy Sports + Outdoors. Hailing from Canada's Regina, Saskatchewan, Anita, who earned her United States citizenship in September of 2019, received a bachelor's of business administration degree, with a focus in marketing and human resources, from the University of Regina.

She plays an active role in several Houston-based organizations, including her position as an Executive Committee Board Member of the Boys and Girls Club of Greater Houston and a Board Member of WISE Houston. She is also an active Marketing 50 member of World 50 and participates in Greater Houston Partnership Executive Women Program. Anita serves as an Independent Board Director with Reitman's Canada, Ltee, and Holley Inc – where she also serves as Chair for the Governance & Nominating Committee. She is also a member of Women's Corporate Directors and NACD.

In 2016, Anita was honored as one of Houston's Top 15 Business Women by the National Diversity Council. In 2018, Anita was honored again by the National Diversity Council as the National Business Woman of the Year. She also received honors in 2018 as one of Texas Executive Women's Women on the Move. In November 2021, Anita was celebrated with the Woman of Inspiration award by WISE Houston, and she was also recognized in both 2021 and 2022 by the National Diversity Council as a Power 50, for her contributions and commitment to both business and community. In 2023, Houston Woman's Magazine honored Anita as one of 50 Women of Influence.

MICHAEL SLAUGHTER

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Michael Slaughter joined the Astros in October 2015 and enters his 10th season as the CFO with the ballclub and first as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Mike comes to the Astros with extensive executive experience in finance, accounting and mergers and acquisitions involving both public and private companies.

Most recently, Mike served as the Chief Financial Officer of Crane Capital Group. In that position, he assisted Jim Crane in the successful acquisition, operation and disposition of businesses in a wide range of industries, including Crane Worldwide Logistics, Crane Freight Services and the Houston Astros. In particular, Mike played an integral role in the purchase of the Houston Astros and subsequently the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks and Triple A Sugar Land Skeeters. From June 2008 to September 2015, Mike also served as the Chief Financial Officer of Champion Energy Marketing LLC, a leading retail electricity provider.

Prior to 2008, Michael was the Principal Financial Officer at EGL, Inc., a Nasdaq-listed global transportation and logistics company. Previously, Michael had also been EGL's Chief Accounting Officer and VP Finance and Investor Relations.

Michael began his career at Price Waterhouse, where he rose to the position of senior auditor while serving public and private clients across a broad spectrum of businesses. Michael earned a bachelor's degree in business administration with a major in accounting from the University of Texas-Austin in 1988. He and his wife Susan reside in Houston, TX, and have a son, Nick and daughter, Emma.

MARCEL BRAITHWAITE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Marcel Braithwaite joined the Astros in 2012 and enters his 13th full season with the ballclub in 2025. As the Senior Vice President of Business Operations, he oversees various departments and projects, including Stadium Operations and Engineering, Safety and Security, Guest Services, Facilities, and Food and Beverage provided by Aramark. As an operator that likes to roll up his sleeves, Marcel is involved in the daily meetings and coordination of each department and manages the club's Aramark contract and partnership in a similar, hands-on fashion. Since joining the Astros, Marcel has played a pivotal role in the many renovations and improvements to Daikin Park.

Marcel began his career in the logistics industry with Aeronet Worldwide in 1993 and then joined Eagle Global Logistics in 1995. Over the course of his career, Marcel worked his way up to senior leadership positions, finally serving in the role of Vice President of the Program Management Office, Americas for CEVA Logistics. In that position, he managed the shared services group responsible for third party vendor services to the company, as well as large scale strategic and transformational projects throughout the Americas driving shareholder value. Marcel was featured this year in American Builders Magazine, which highlighted his professional career.

Born in Rotterdam, The Netherlands, Marcel is fluent in Dutch and has lived in a number of locations throughout North America and Europe, including Canada, Seattle, southern California and now Texas.

MATT BRAND

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS

Matt Brand joined the Houston Astros organization in 2011 and now enters his 13th full season with the ballclub as the team's Senior Vice President, Corporate Sponsorships.

Prior to coming on board with the Astros, Matt spent 25 years in the supply chain industry, holding various executive sales leadership positions specializing in the retail, automotive, and energy sectors. While with Eagle Global Logistics, he served as Vice President of Sales for Asia-Pacific, living in both Hong Kong and Singapore.

Matt has served on the board of the Make-A-Wish Foundation for the Texas and Gulf Coast Region, the Baylor Sports Management Advisory Board, the General Motors (GM) Supplier's Council and was a member of the Petroleum Equipment Suppliers Association (PESA).

Matt was raised in Selah, Wash., and played baseball at Lewis & Clark State College. He and his wife, Casey, have two sons, Josh and Jake, and make their home in Houston.

EMELDA DOUGLAS

SVP, COMMUNITY AFFAIRS & ASTROS FOUNDATION EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Emelda Douglas brings a transformative vision to her role as Senior Vice President of Community Affairs and Foundation Executive Director for the Houston Astros, joining the organization in February 2025 with a remarkable 25-year trajectory of philanthropic leadership and community development.

Douglas is responsible for strategically advancing the Astros' ambitious engagement mission. She oversees the Foundation's comprehensive approach to creating meaningful impact, developing innovative programs that provide educational, wellness, and recreational opportunities for youth, families, veterans, and others in need. Her responsibilities encompass managing key partnerships, designing and implementing the Foundation's giving strategy, driving fundraising and sponsorship initiatives, building organizational capacity, and executing projects that not only strengthen stakeholder connections but also elevate the Astros' brand as a socially responsible organization.

Douglas's professional journey is a testament to her deep commitment to community transformation. Throughout her career, she has held leadership positions at some of Houston's most impactful nonprofit organizations. At Greater Houston Community Foundation, she served as Vice President of Community Investment, managing grant-making initiatives and supporting the organization's assets from $1.5 million to over $100 million. As Senior Vice President at Baker Ripley, she was instrumental in managing a multi-million dollar annual operating budget and driving significant organizational growth, including a $40 million merger and a $25 million capital campaign.

She also served as Executive Director of Susan G. Komen Houston, a national breast health organization and Chief Development Officer for Houston Defender, a leading Black media group. Since 2016, she has also operated E. Douglas Strategies, LLC, a nonprofit management and fundraising consulting firm that has become a partner of choice for small to mid-sized organizations seeking strategic growth and capacity building.

A native of Galena Park, TX (east Harris County), Douglas is deeply rooted in the local community. Her professional credentials are complemented by her educational background – a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Stephen F. Austin State University and certification as a Fundraising Executive (CFRE). Her leadership development includes prestigious programs like Texas Executive Women and the Center for Houston's Future.

Douglas's contributions have been widely recognized. In 2013, she was named one of Houston's "Top 30 Most Influential Women," a reflection of her significant impact in the philanthropic and nonprofit sectors. Her community involvement includes active participation in organizations such as Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., the Association of Fundraising Professionals, and Top Ladies of Distinction, Inc.

She and her husband have two adult children, and they enjoy family travel and watching collegiate and professional sports together.

Prior to joining the Astros, Creighton spent the first seven seasons of his career with The Sacramento River Cats and New Orleans Hornets in various Ticket Sales & Service leadership positions.

Baseball has always been a part of Creighton's life. He played collegiate baseball at The University of Hawaii and The University of California-Berkeley and was a late a draft pick for the Arizona Diamondbacks in the 2000 Amateur Draft. A native of Fremont, CA, Creighton, his wife Shasta and two children currently reside in Cypress, Texas.

ABBY BRANTLEY

VICE PRESIDENT, ACCOUNTING

Abby Brantley enters her 16th season with the club, currently serving as Vice President, Accounting. In this role, Abby oversees the Accounting and Payroll functions of the organization. Prior to her promotion to this role in 2021, Abby held the position of Controller for the club since 2013, and Senior Accountant before that.

Prior to joining the Astros, Abby worked in public accounting for Deloitte and Pannell Kerr Forster, with a focus on corporate and partnership taxation.

Abby is a graduate of the University of Texas at Austin where she earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting, as well as a Master in Professional Accounting. Abby also earned her CPA license in 2006.

She resides in Pearland with her family.

VITO CIMINELLO

VICE PRESIDENT, TAX

Vito Ciminello enters his ninth full season as the club's Vice President, Tax. In his role, he is responsible for all tax compliance and planning functions for the Houston Astros.

Prior to joining the ballclub, Vito held various tax management positions with companies such as KBR and Waste Management and public accounting positions with KPMG.

Vito received his undergraduate degree from Brown University and his Masters in Management from Northwestern University. He resides in League City, Texas.

GENE DIAS

VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS

Gene Dias joined the Astros in February of 2009 and now enters his 16th season with the ballclub. Prior to joining the Houston organization, he spent close to 20 years with the Philadelphia Phillies in both Media and Community Relations.

In December of 2023, Gene received a "Trailblazer" award from the Houston Association of Black Journalists "in recognition of outstanding service in media and community." Following the 2017 season, Gene was named the recipient of the 2017 Robert O. Fishel Award for Public Relations Excellence. The Fishel Award goes to the "active, non-uniformed representative of Major League Baseball whose ethics, character, dedication, service, professionalism and humanitarianism best represent the standards propounded by Robert O. Fishel." In 2017, the Astros also received the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence in recognition of the Houston Astros Community Leaders program, with the nomination being submitted by the Astros communications staff.

Gene plays a major role in baseball and business communications for the Astros and supports initiatives throughout the organization. He has guided his staff through eight of the last nine postseasons, including Houston's first two World Series Championships (2017, 2022) in franchise history along with its AL Pennant-winning runs in 2019 and 2021. Since 2017, the Astros have played more postseason games (97) and have the most postseason wins (59) of any club in baseball, having advanced to the ALCS in each of the past seven seasons and the World Series in four of the last seven seasons.

In 2025, Gene and his staff will oversee Billy Wagner's Hall of Fame induction, marking the third induction of an Astros player in the past nine years. The Astros communications team assembled far-reaching media campaigns for Wagner as well as Craig Biggio (2015) and Jeff Bagwell (2017) leading up to their respective inductions.

From 1989 to 2008, Gene worked for the Phillies, first as an intern in the ticket sales office before joining the Media Relations staff full-time. After serving as Media Relations Manager, he was promoted to Director of Community Relations in 2000, where he was instrumental in creating a number of community-based programs and events, many of which are still in place today. Gene also helped to grow the club's footprint in the community through increased media coverage and by increasing the dollars raised for the club's charity. He was also successful in increasing the player's community involvement and was a member of the Phillies Charities, Inc. Board of Directors. In 2003, the Phillies received the prestigious Philadelphia Sports Congress Community Service Award for the first time. Prior to joining the Phillies, Gene worked as a sports editor for Associated Newspapers in Stoughton, Mass.

Throughout his career in baseball, Gene has worked with Major League Baseball, assisting with the media relations duties at several World Series, League Championship Series and All-Star Games. Gene has also served as a board member of the Houston Chapter of the NAACP and volunteers his time to assist with the charitable efforts of the Astros Foundation.

Gene received his Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism from the University of Massachusetts where he was a member of the varsity baseball team. He and his wife Kandee live in Kingwood, Texas and have two children, son Maxwell and daughter Sydney. Maxwell is a current member of the Southern Nazarene University baseball team while Sydney is a freshman at Texas A&M and a member of the Aggie Dance Team. She also finished second runner-up in the 2023 Miss Texas Teen pageant.

BOBBY FORREST

VICE PRESIDENT, STADIUM OPERATIONS

Bobby Forrest has served as the club's Vice President of Stadium Operations since January of 2007. He originally joined the Astros franchise on Jan. 2, 1995, as a member of the engineering department. Bobby was subsequently promoted to Engineering Supervisor in 1997, Engineering Manager in 1999, and Senior Director of Engineering and Maintenance in 2003. He is responsible for all building operations, which includes the Engineering, Groundskeeping, Guest Services and Security and Parking departments. Bobby also played a key role in the club's move from the Astrodome to its current home, Daikin Park, prior to the 2000 season.

Bobby is a member of the International Association of Assembly Managers, and the Stadium Managers Association.

He and his wife, Tiffani, reside in Magnolia, Texas.

Chris provides strategic leadership for the club's information technology investments and oversees the day-to-day operation of technology for the Astros and Minute Maid Park, plus the club's minor league affiliates and other operating locations.

Prior to joining the Astros, Chris worked in a variety of information technology leadership roles with several companies, including Accenture, Duke Energy, CEVA Logistics and, most recently, Halliburton. Chris joined Halliburton in 2014 and served as Senior Manager of IT Mergers and Acquisitions where he was instrumental in executing two major divestitures from the company's business portfolio. Prior to holding that post, Chris was a partner in the CIO Advisory practice for Tatum, LLC and led a number of business process improvement, technology strategy and M&A projects.

A lifelong Texan, Chris was raised in New Braunfels and went on to graduate from the University of Texas at Austin with a bachelor's of business administration degree in finance and honors business. Chris and his wife, Gayle live in Kingwood, Texas, and have two daughters, Hannah and Sarabeth.

MARIAN HARPER

VICE PRESIDENT, FOUNDATION AND COMMUNITY AFFAIRS

The 2025 season marks Marian Harper's 34th with the Houston Astros. Over the past three decades, Marian has been an integral part of all team charitable, fundraising and community outreach initiatives. As Vice President of Foundation and Community Affairs, Marian manages community engagement programs, fundraising operations, and leads the team family relations efforts. Marian was instrumental in development of the Astros Foundation, the official team charity of the Houston Astros and the Astros MLB Youth Academy, a cornerstone program of the foundation.

Marian serves on the board of directors for the Astros Foundation, the Houston Downtown Management District, and the Texas Council on Family Violence. Marian is dedicated to the Houston community as an American Leadership Forum Senior Fellow, a Leadership Houston alumnus and a graduate of the Leadership for Nonprofit Executives Program from Rice University. She is a member of the Astros Hall of Fame Selection Committee.

Marian was honored with the prestigious Jimmy Wynn Toy Cannon Award for exceptional community service by the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame, and in 2022 was awarded the Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service Award by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America. Marian was named a 2023 Women on the Move honoree for professional achievement and outstanding service to the community by the Texas Executive Women.

A native of Pittsburg, Texas, Marian started with the Astros in 1992 and rose through the ranks, starting as promotions coordinator for the Marketing and Sponsorship departments, then as Director of Community Relations, working with players, alumni, fans, businesses, and non-profit leaders to create positive impact in the Greater Houston community.

TOM JENNINGS

VICE PRESIDENT, MERCHANDISING & RETAIL OPERATIONS

In his role, Tom manages all aspects of the Astros Team Stores at Daikin Park. Over the course of his tenure with the club, Tom has led the Astros retail growth from the lowest-ranked in Major League Baseball to one of the top teams, which included winning the 2014 MLBPA Team Retailer Award. Tom's team is also responsible for the merchandising of the three Astros owned Minor League affiliates: Triple A Sugar Land, Double A Corpus Christi and Low A Fayetteville. The work on the Woodpeckers brand and subsequent retail assortment led to the team being awarded the 2019 Best New Logo/Branding Award by Baseball Digest.

His team also oversees merchandising for the Astros Spring Training site in West Palm Beach, Fla., where they are in charge of purchasing product for both the Astros and Washington Nationals, the latter of whom shares the same ballpark.

Tom began his retail career in the buying office of Montgomery Ward in Chicago. He has spent time with May Department Stores, Home Shopping Network and Kohl's on their e-commerce side. He started his sports career by running the retail department for the Milwaukee Brewers with their concessionaire, Sportservice, where he helped the team achieve the MLB Retailer of the Year award in 2008.

Born in Hinsdale, Ill., Tom has lived in Pittsburgh (twice), Cleveland, Detroit, St. Louis, Tampa, Milwaukee, Chicago (twice) and Gary, Ind., where he went to high school and subsequently graduated from Indiana University in Bloomington, Ind.

Under his leadership, the Ticket Sales team continues to ensure Astros Season Tickets holders, the best in all of sports, always know that Daikin Park is home while simultaneously growing the fan base by bringing in more fans each year to enjoy Astros baseball.

Prior to joining the Astros, P.J. worked in Ticket Sales for the Arizona Diamondbacks and Columbus Blue Jackets of the NHL.

He is originally from Springfield, Illinois and a graduate of Illinois State University. Keene is married with three kids and currently resides in Spring, TX. When not at Daikin Park, he spends much of his time coaching youth sports and traveling around between much smaller ballparks and venues to watch his kids play sports.

RACHEL QUAN

VICE PRESIDENT, SPECIAL EVENTS

Rachel Quan joined the Astros in July 2024 as Vice President, Special Events. She came to the Astros from a marketing, sponsorship and communications agency in Houston (Professional Sports Partners), where she was the managing director of the Live Events division.

Rachel's background in production and events began as a festival director and then the National Director of Production and Arrangements for an international non-profit that conducted festivals around the country. She first oversaw one of their largest festivals to date in Houston and then went on to manage production in other festival cities. From here she headed up the Houston office for Mowalla Productions, where she met her future business partner, who co-founded SBHH with her a number of years later.

A large component of Rachel's events career was in the co-founding of SBHH, an event management and production company where she was the managing partner. She, along with three other company partners, made a name for themselves in the large event space - including concerts, corporate conferences, sporting events, stadium events and large outdoor festivals. Through the company, Rachel managed various large-scale events for a myriad of clients including as the Vice President of External Operations for the HLOC with the three most recent NCAA Men's Final Fours in Houston (2011, 2016, 2023) in addition to working on the 2018 and 2022 Men's Final Fours. She sold her partnership in SBHH in 2022.

Rachel was a founding board member for WISE (Women in Sports & Events) in Houston in 2016, and the recipient of their Woman of Inspiration award in 2022. She was also the recipient of the Houston Business Journal's Diversity in Business, Outstanding Head of Diversity award in 2023 while on the executive team for the Men's Final Four.

MATT RICHARDSON

VICE PRESIDENT, SPONSORSHIP

Matt Richardson originally joined the Astros in June 2014 spending 5 years in the Corporate Partnership development team. After a 2-year stint in Los Angeles with AEG Global Partnerships, he returned to the Astros organization serving as the Senior Director of Corporate Partnerships Sales. In his current role as Vice President, Corporate Partnerships, Matt leads the business development and retention efforts with a focus on driving revenue growth across the Astros portfolio and developing strategic community engagement programs. Over his 8 years with the Astros, he's played an integral role in developing successful sponsorship marketing campaigns that connect partners to the Astros fan experience in meaningful ways.

Prior to joining the Astros, Matt worked in partnership marketing in various roles and industries such as College Athletics (University of Kansas & Valero Alamo Bowl) to Six Flags Entertainment Group.

Matt was raised in Parsons, KS and is a proud graduate of the University of Kansas. He and his wife, Nicole, have one baby girl and resides in West Houston. When not at Daikin Park, he spends much of his time with family, walking his 2 retrievers, traveling around the world and visiting family and friends.

JAY VERRILL

VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS STRATEGY & ANALYTICS

Jay joined the Astros in July of 2012 as an analyst and worked his way up to his current title of Vice President in August of 2020. In his role, Jay provides data analysis and strategic planning support across business units. His notable projects as a member of the Astros include the financial modeling of the $18M center field renovation project, needs-analysis fan segmentation, and ticket yield maximization strategy.

Prior to joining the Astros, Jay started his career in the Boston area, doing strategy consulting at Putnam Associates, Inc.

A native of Maine, Jay studied as an undergraduate at Tufts University, earning a BA in Economics, and then later earned his MBA at the MIT Sloan School of Management. He was a part of the student leadership team for the MIT Sloan Sports Analytics Conference.

Jay has served as a Big Brother with the Big Brothers, Big Sisters organization since 2007. He lives in Houston with his wife and five-year-old daughter.

JASON WOODEN

VICE PRESIDENT, MARKETING

Jason Wooden joined the Astros in December 2015 and enters his ninth season with the ballclub as Vice President of Marketing. In his role, Jason oversees the marketing and advertising aspects of the organization through the development of core strategic campaign initiatives and media planning as well as creative services and overall content strategy. In his role he also helps lead the marketing and advertising efforts for the PGA TOUR Texas Children's Houston Open in partnership with the Astros Golf Foundation since 2019.

Jason started his professional career at Academy Sports + Outdoors and spent 12 years in various roles within the company before joining the Astros. In his most recent role at Academy as Media Director, Jason oversaw the strategic planning and execution of print, TV/radio media buying and commercial production. He also served as Regional Promotions Director and was responsible for developing key sponsorships and partnerships both at the grassroots and professional levels.

Jason is a graduate of Texas Christian University where he earned a BFA in graphic design. Jason is a longtime Houston resident and Astros fan.

ENOS CABELL

COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

Enos Cabell is in his 21st season working in the front office for the Astros, since re-joining the club in an official capacity on Nov. 17, 2004. In his wide-ranging role, Enos assists the Astros Baseball Operations staff and the Astros scouting department in evaluating the Astros Major and minor league players, along with other projects and assignments within the Astros community programs. Enos also plays a key role in the Astros Foundation's relationship with Texas Southern University.

During his 15-year Major League playing career, Enos played for the Astros from 1975-80 and 1984-85 and is in the top 10 in franchise history in several categories. In 1978, he was named the team's MVP after setting club records in at-bats (660) and games (162) and tallying a then-record 195 hits, which ranked third in the National League. He currently ranks tied for eighth on the club's all-time list in stolen bases (191) and tied for sixth in career batting average (.281).

Enos stole more than 30 bases for four straight seasons (1976-1979) while with Houston. In 1,688 career big league games from 1972-86, he hit .277 (1647x5952) with 60 home runs and 596 RBI. He started 149 games at third base for the 1980 National League West Champion Astros and played on two other division-winning clubs, the 1974 Baltimore Orioles and the 1985 Los Angeles Dodgers.

From 1991-94, Enos was an analyst on Home Sports Entertainment telecasts of Astros home games and from 1991-96, he hosted the weekly call-in show, Astros Report, on KCOH Radio. He was a member of the Texas Southern University's Board of Regents from 1995-2001 and served as interim athletic director for the school in 2000.

Enos is a graduate of L.A. Harbor Junior College in San Pedro, Calif., where he was an all-conference selection in baseball. He is a cousin of former Major Leaguers Dick Davis and Ken Landreaux. He and his wife, Ruby, make their home in Missouri City, Texas. Enos has three sons, Marcus, Stephen and Cordell.

JOSE CRUZ

The 2025 season is the 42nd with the Houston Astros organization for Jose Cruz, who is one of the most popular figures in franchise history.

Jose has served in several roles with the Astros during his long, distinguished tenure. In his current role as community outreach executive, Jose makes public appearances on behalf of the club and serves as an ambassador for the organization.

Prior to his current role, he spent five seasons as a special assistant to the general manager (2010-14). Prior to that, he was a Major League coach for 13 seasons (1997-2009).

On the field, Jose spent 13 of his outstanding 18-year Major League playing career as an outfielder with the Astros (1975-87). In that span, he developed into an All-Star and one of the most popular players ever to wear the Astros uniform. Nicknamed "Cheo", Jose held franchise records in games, at-bats, hits, total bases and triples at the time of his retirement. His 80 career triples remain the franchise record. In addition to his Astros career, Jose also played for the St. Louis Cardinals (1970-74) and the New York Yankees (1988).

Jose holds the distinction of being involved with the first nine of the Astros postseason appearances, three as a player (1980, '81 and '86) and six as a coach (1997-99, '01, '04-05). He was the Astros Team MVP four times and hit .300 six times in his career while stealing 317 bases.

Jose's uniform No. 25 was retired by the Astros on Oct. 3, 1992, along with former teammate Mike Scott's No. 33. They were the third and fourth numbers retired by the team. In 1999, Jose was selected by a panel of experts as one of the three outfielders on the franchise's All-Astrodome team. In 2003, he was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame. On August 3, 2019, Jose was inducted into the Astros Hall of Fame as a part of the inaugural class.

Jose and his wife, Zoraida, make their home in Houston and have four children: Jose Javier, Jose Cheito, Shakira and Jose Enrique. His son, Jose Jr., was the first-round selection (third player overall) of the Seattle Mariners in the 1995 June free agent draft. Jose Jr. graduated from Bellaire (TX) High School and attended Rice University, where he currently serves as the Owls Head Coach. As a high school player, he led Bellaire to the number one national ranking by USA Today and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award while at Rice. Jose Enrique also excelled on the baseball diamond, helping to lead Rice University to a national championship in 2003 before being drafted by the New York Yankees in the 13th round of the 2003 June Draft.

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Joe Espada had a successful first season as a manager, leading the Astros to another American League West title. What made Espada's first season even more impressive was that his ballclub got off to a very slow start, due in large part to a slew of injuries to key players. Through the first 26 games of the season, the Astros were 7-19 and in last place in the AL West. However, from that point on, the Astros were an AL-best 81-54 (.600), overcoming a 10-game deficit en route to their seventh division title in the past eight seasons.

Espada was named as the 20th manager in franchise history on November 13, 2023, replacing Dusty Baker, who announced his retirement from managing following the 2023 season. Espada, who is a native of Santurce, Puerto Rico, is the second Latino manager in Astros history, joining Cuban-born Preston Gómez, who managed Houston in 1974-75.

Prior to taking over the reigns as Astros manager, Espada compiled several years of experience as a Major League coach, including six seasons (2018-23) as the Astros bench coach. In that span, the Astros won three American League Pennants, a World Series championship and advanced to the ALCS in all six seasons.

Prior to joining the Astros in 2018, Espada spent three seasons as the Yankees third base coach from 2015-17, and four seasons as the Marlins third base coach from 2010-13. In between those two coaching stints, Espada served as a pro scout for the Yankees in 2014. Overall, he has 13 years of experience as a Major League coach.

Espada also has prior experience as a manager, having spent two stints as a skipper in the Puerto Rican Winter League, the first with Manatí (2012-13) and the second with Carolina (2014-15). He also served as a third base coach for Team Puerto Rico in the 2013 and 2017 World Baseball Classics.

Before retiring as a player, Espada spent 10 seasons (1996-2005) as an infielder in the minor leagues after being selected by the Oakland A's in the second round of the 1996 MLB Amateur Draft. His playing career included stops in the Oakland (1996-2000), Florida (now Miami, 2001), Colorado (2001), Kansas City (2002), St. Louis (2003), Texas (2003) and Tampa Bay (2004) organizations. His best season came in 1999 with Double A Midland when he hit .338 in 113 games, finishing second in the Texas League in batting average among qualified hitters.

After retiring as a player, Espada began his coaching career in the Marlins minor league system in 2006. He would coach in the minor leagues for the Marlins for four seasons (2006-09) before being named third base coach for the Major League club in 2010.

In his first six seasons in Houston as a coach, Espada also served as infield coach, mentoring some of the game's biggest stars, including 2022 AL Gold Glove winner Jeremy Peña, who became the first rookie shortstop ever to win a Gold Glove. In 2021, both Carlos Correa and Yuli Gurriel earned Gold Glove Awards, while the Astros earned the Rawlings AL Team Gold Glove Award.

Additionally, under Espada's tutelage, the Astros led the American League in fielding percentage in four of six seasons between 2018-23.

Prior to his professional career, Espada attended the University of Mobile (Ala.), where he still owns the school's top two single-season batting averages (.468 in 1995 and .446 in 1996) and top overall career batting average of .442.

Espada is married to Dr. Pamela Espada, who is the sister of Orioles manager Brandon Hyde's wife. The Espada's have two daughters, Eliana Marie and Viviana Elena. Active in the community both in Puerto Rico and in Houston, Espada has given countless clinics to youth baseball groups, including at the Astros Youth Academy. Espada has also been involved in various Houston charities, and enjoys spending time with his family.

BENCH
COACH

Full Name: Omar E. López

Born: 1/3/77 in Valencia, VZ

Resides: Orlando, FL

First Base Coach, Houston Astros (2020-2023); Bench Coach, Houston Astros (2024-present)

The 2025 season will be Omar López' sixth as a member of the Astros Major League coaching staff and his second as the bench coach. López was named as Joe Espada's replacement as bench coach after Espada was named as the Astros new manager following the 2023 season. López had spent three of the last four seasons as the Astros first base coach (2020, 2022-23) and one as the third base coach (2021), filling in for Gary Pettis as he recovered from multiple myeloma.

In recent seasons, López has gained valuable experience as a manager. This offseason, he served as manager of the Cangrejeros de Santurce in the Puerto Rican Winter League. In March of 2023, López served as manager of Team Venezuela for the World Baseball Classic. His roster included Jose Altuve and Luis Garcia. López, who was born in Valencia, VZ, also was a part of Team Venezuela's staff in the 2017 World Baseball Classic, serving as their quality control coach.

Although the 2025 season is López' sixth on the Astros Major League staff, it is his 27th season in the Astros organization overall. He joined the Astros Major League staff in 2020 after a successful two-year stint as manager of the Double-A Corpus Christi Hooks (2018-19). In 2018, López was named the Texas League Manager of the Year after guiding the Hooks to an 82-56 record and a spot in the postseason.

Overall, López spent 12 seasons managing in the Astros farm system. Prior to managing the Hooks, he had stints at Buies Creek (2017), Quad Cities (2013-14, 2016), Lancaster (2015), Greeneville (2011-12), the Gulf Coast League (2009-10) and the Venezuelan Summer League (2008). In 2013, López led Quad Cities to a Midwest League Championship title after an 81-57 finish in the regular season. That team featured 16 future Major Leaguers, including two future All Stars in shortstop Carlos Correa and right-handed pitcher Lance McCullers Jr.

Additionally, López was named the Manager of the Year in the Venezuelan Professional Baseball League for the 2014-15 season after guiding the Caribes de Anzoátegui to a league-best 39-24 regular season record and an LVBP Championship title in what was his first year as the club's manager. As a 38-year-old, López was the youngest manager in the league and became the third manager in the history of the Caribes club to win the prestigious award.

In 2010, López earned the Astros Player Development Man of the Year award, as he was credited with guiding the organization's Spanish-speaking prospects through their first year of professional baseball in the United States. Prior to starting his managerial career in 2008, López served as a hitting and infield instructor in the Astros Venezuelan program and was a full-time scout from 1999-2007. While in Venezuela, López was one of the scouts who recommended that the Astros sign Jose Altuve, who was an unheralded, 16-year-old free agent at the time.

A native of Valencia, Venezuela, López played three seasons of minor league baseball with the Chicago White Sox (1996-97) and Arizona Diamondbacks (1998) organizations. He played his first professional season with Rookie Level Bristol in 1996, leading the club in walks over 55 games. In 1997 at Bristol, the third baseman hit .276 with 23 RBI while setting career highs in almost every category. He finished his playing career in 1998 with Arizona's Class A affiliate at South Bend.

López and his wife, Helen, reside in Orlando, Fla. They have two children, Omar Eduardo and Emily Gabriela.

PITCHING

Full Name: Joshua Benjamin Miller

Born: 2/7/79 in Melbourne Beach, FL

Resides: Katy, TX

Bats/Throws: Right/Right

Bullpen Coach, Houston Astros (2019-20); Pitching Coach, Houston Astros (2021-present)

The 2025 season will be Josh Miller's seventh as a part of the Astros coaching staff and his fifth as pitching coach. Prior to being named pitching coach for the 2021 season, Miller served as bullpen coach in 2019 and 2020.

In 2024, despite injuries to key members of the pitching staff, the Astros still finished fourth in the AL in team ERA at 3.74. Even more impressive was that the Astros 3.49 team ERA in their final 135 games was tops in the AL in that span (after April 26). Some keys to the Astros success was the development of young starting pitchers such as Hunter Brown, Spencer Arrighetti and Ronel Blanco, and the outstanding improvement of veteran Yusei Kikuchi after joining the Astros staff at the trade deadline.

The Astros have been one of the most successful clubs in the Majors in recent years, and the performance of the pitching staff has played a significant role. Since Miller was named as a pitching coach for the Astros in 2021, Houston pitchers lead the AL in ERA (3.59), opponents batting average (.228) and wins (379-268) while ranking second in strikeouts (5,919) in that span.

After working with veteran pitching coach Brent Strom on the Major League level for three seasons (2019-21), Miller took on an expanded role as Astros pitching coach in 2022 and the results were historic. That season, Houston's pitching staff led the AL in several key categories, including ERA (2.90), opponents batting average (.212) and WHIP (1.09). All three totals were the best in club history for a full, 162-game season. Additionally, the club's bullpen ERA of 2.80 was tops in the Majors and third-best in franchise history.

Pitching was the key to the Astros outstanding postseason run in 2022 as the staff posted a 2.29 ERA in 13 games overall and a miniscule 0.83 ERA in the bullpen. Additionally, Astros pitchers had a .172 opponents average and a 0.95 WHIP in the postseason.

The 2025 season will be Miller's 19th with the Astros overall. Prior to joining the Major League staff, Miller spent the 2018 season as the organization's minor league pitching coordinator. He also served as the Astros complex pitching coordinator for two seasons from 2016-17, overseeing the Astros pitching programs at their complex in Kissimmee and then West Palm Beach, Fla.

Miller began his coaching career in 2013 as a pitching coach at Rookie Level Greeneville, which followed a two-year stint as a pro scout for the Astros. He then spent three total seasons as Greeneville's pitching coach, helping to lead the club to an Appalachian League Championship title in 2015.

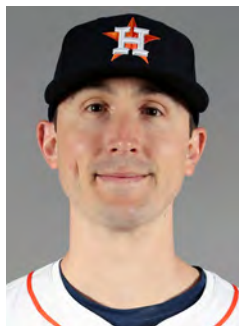

A veteran of seven minor league seasons as a pitcher in the Phillies (2001-2003) and Astros (2005-08) organizations, Miller was originally drafted by Philadelphia in the 32nd round of the June 2001 draft out of North Carolina State University. During his 10 combined seasons in the minors and Independent leagues (2004-05, 2009-10), he posted a 67-55 record and a 4.01 ERA.

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Assistant Pitching Coach, Houston Astros (2021); Pitching Coach, Houston Astros (2022-present)

The 2025 season will be Bill Murphy's fourth as an Astros pitching coach. After serving as the Astros assistant pitching coach in 2021, he was named as an Astros pitching coach in January of 2022.

In 2024, despite injuries to key members of the pitching staff, the Astros still finished fourth in the AL in team ERA at 3.74. Even more impressive was that the Astros' 3.49 team ERA in their final 135 games was tops in the AL in that span (after April 26). Keys to the Astros success included the development of young starting pitchers such as Hunter Brown, Spencer Arrighetti and Ronel Blanco, and the outstanding improvement of veteran starter Yusei Kikuchi after joining the Astros staff at the trade deadline.

In 2022, Murphy played an integral role in what was a record-setting season by the Astros pitching staff. Houston's staff led the American League in several key categories, including ERA (2.90), opponents batting average (.212) and WHIP (1.09). All three totals were the best in club history for a full, 162-game season. Additionally, the club's bullpen ERA of 2.80 was tops in the Majors and third-best in franchise history.

Pitching was the key to the Astros outstanding postseason run in 2022 as the staff posted a 2.29 ERA in 13 games overall and a miniscule 0.83 ERA in the bullpen. Additionally, Astros pitchers had a .172 opponents average with an 0.95 WHIP in the postseason.

Murphy's current stint with the big club is his first Major League coaching assignment. Prior to joining the Major League club, Murphy served as the Astros minor league pitching coordinator for the 2019-20 seasons. In 2020, as a result of the pandemic, Murphy worked with minor league pitchers at the Astros alternate training sites and then worked with the Instructional Camp in Florida in October.

Murphy began his coaching career with the Astros organization as pitching coach for Rookie Level Greenville in 2016. He then served as pitching coach for Class A Short Season Tri-City (2017) and Double A Corpus Christi (2018), respectively. During his time in the minors, Murphy had the opportunity to work with current Astros pitchers Luis Garcia, Cristian Javier and Framber Valdez.

Prior to joining the Astros, Murphy served stints as the pitching coach at Brown University, and co-manager and pitching coach for the Northwoods Collegiate League Battle Creek Bombers.

In 2013, Murphy was a volunteer assistant coach at Georgetown University, and also coached in the Cal Ripken Collegiate League with the Rockville Express. Murphy was a full-time coach at Roselle Catholic High School from 2010-11 and 2012-13, which included stints as the varsity pitching coach.

Murphy graduated from Rutgers University in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in history. While at Rutgers, he was a pitcher on the baseball team for three years. Murphy received his MBA in management from Wagner College in Staten Island, N.Y., where he played first base during his final year of eligibility. Murphy graduated from Roselle Catholic High School in 2007.

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Major League Coach, Houston Astros (2017); First Base Coach, Houston Astros (2018); Hitting Coach, Houston Astros (2019-present)

Alex Cintrón was named an Astros hitting coach on Nov. 21, 2018. This will be his seventh season in the hitting coach role, and his ninth overall on the Astros Major League staff.

In addition to his coaching duties, this offseason, Cintrón also served as the General Manager of the San Juan Senadores of the Puerto Rican Winter League.

During his tenure as Astros hitting coach, which began in 2019, the Astros lead the American League in runs scored, on-base percentage, slugging percentage and OPS while registering the lowest strikeout totals.

In the 2022 championship season, the Astros lineup once again was one of the most productive in the American League, ranking second in home runs, third in runs, walks, and slugging percentage and fourth in on-base percentage. Also, the Astros had the second-lowest strikeout totals in the Major Leagues.

In 2021, the Astros were the top offensive club in baseball, leading the Majors in runs and batting average while ranking second in OPS and third in slugging and finishing with the second-fewest strikeouts.

Cintrón started with the Astros in 2017, working as the club's Spanish translator, advance scout and assistant coach. He also spent a portion of the 2017 season on the bench as an active coach. Cintrón was promoted in 2018 to the club's first base coach while assisting in infield positioning. He was again promoted in 2019 to hitting coach.

Cintrón has spent two offseasons (2018-19, 2019-20) managing the Gigantes de Carolina in the Puerto Rican Winter League, and earned that League's Manager of the Year Award once (2018-19).

Cintrón had a professional playing career as an infielder that lasted 16 years, from 1997-2012, which included parts of nine Major League seasons. He was originally a 36th-round pick by Arizona in 1997 and would make his debut with the Diamondbacks in 2001. He played parts of five seasons with the D-backs (2001-05), before finishing his career in Chicago-AL (2006-07), Baltimore (2008) and Washington (2009). He's a career .275 Major League hitter, including a great 2003 season with Arizona, in which he hit .317 (142x448) with 51 RBI in 117 games.

Born in Humacao, Puerto Rico, Cintrón is a resident of Houston. He has one daughter, Alexandra.

Hitting Coach, Houston Astros (2019-present)

Since he joined the Major League staff in 2019, the Astros lead the American League in runs scored, on-base percentage, slugging percentage and OPS while registering the lowest strikeout totals.

In 2022, the Astros lineup once again was one of the most productive in the American League, ranking second in home runs, third in runs, walks, and slugging percentage and fourth in on-base percentage. Also, the Astros had the second-lowest strikeout totals in the Major Leagues.

In 2021, the Astros were the top offensive club in baseball, leading the Majors in runs and batting average while ranking second in OPS and third in slugging and finishing with the second-fewest strikeouts.

The 2025 season will be Snitker's seventh season on the Major League coaching staff, but his 10th with the Astros organization overall. Prior to joining the Astros big club, he spent his 2018 season as the hitting coach at Double A Corpus Christi, where he was named as the Texas League's Inaugural Mike Coolbaugh Memorial Coach of the Year, which is given to a Texas League figure who has shown an outstanding baseball work ethic, knowledge of the game, and skill in mentoring young players on the field.

Snitker originally joined the Astros in 2016 as the organization's rehab hitting coordinator and a coach for the GCL Astros. In 2017, he was the hitting coach at Class A Advanced Buies Creek and the next season, he was promoted to Corpus Christi.

Prior to joining the Astros, Snitker was a graduate assistant on the baseball coaching staff at his alma mater, the University of North Georgia.

The former catcher played two seasons in the Atlanta Braves minor league system (2011-12) before getting traded to Pittsburgh in 2013. He then played one season in the Independent Atlantic League (2013).

Snitker was drafted by the Braves in the 19th round of the 2011 draft after a highly successful two-year run at North Georgia. During his final season at the school in 2011, Snitker was named Peach Belt All-Conference after hitting .340 with a team-best six home runs and 44 RBI, while starting behind the dish in all 54 of the Saints' games.

Snitker has a bachelor's degree in exercise science and a master's degree in physical education. He is also a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS).

Troy is the son of Atlanta Braves manager Brian Snitker, and is a graduate of Brookwood High School in Snellville, Ga.

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Hitting Coach, Pittsburgh Pirates (2001-02); Third Base Coach, Houston Astros (2009-12); First Base Coach, Houston Astros (2013); Third Base Coach, Detroit Tigers (2014-19); First Base Coach, Detroit Tigers (2020); First Base Coach, Houston Astros (2024-present)

On December 1, 2023, the Astros announced that Dave Clark would be joining the Major League staff as first base coach, marking a return to the Astros organization for the longtime coach and former player.

Clark enters 2025 with 15 seasons of experience as a Major League coach, which includes six seasons as part of the Astros Major League coaching staff, and parts of 13 seasons as a Major League player, including one season with the Astros (1998).

Prior to his current stint with the Astros, Clark's most recent stint as a Major League coach was with the Detroit Tigers, where he served as their third base coach from 2014-19 before moving to first base coach in 2020.

Prior to joining the Tigers staff, Clark spent five seasons with the Astros Major League staff, as third base coach from 2009-12 and as first base coach in 2013. Clark also had a brief stint as Astros manager in 2009 after being named on an interim basis on Sept. 21, replacing Cecil Cooper. Clark managed the club's final 13 games.

In addition to his Major League duties, Clark spent the 2010-11 offseason managing the Lacey Tigers in the Dominican Winter League.

Prior to joining the Astros Major League coaching staff, Clark spent four seasons as a minor league manager (2005-08) in the Astros farm system, which included three seasons (2005-07) guiding the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks, whom he led to the Texas League championship in 2006. Clark moved up to manage the Triple A Round Rock Express in 2008 before joining the Astros coaching staff in 2009.

Prior to his stint managing in the Astros system, Clark had success managing in the Pirates farm system, earning Carolina League Manager of the Year honors at Class A Lynchburg in 2003 and then leading Class A Hickory to an 85-55 record en route to the South Atlantic League title in 2004.

Clark's first season coaching came in 2000 as the Triple A Nashville Sounds hitting coach. After just one season as a minor league coach, Clark was hired as the Pirates Major League hitting coach, a post he would hold for the next two seasons (2001-02).

Clark played for the Indians (1986-89), Cubs (1990, 97), Royals (1991), Pirates (1992-96), Dodgers (1996) and Astros (1998) during his 13-year Major League playing career, compiling a .264 average with 62 home runs and 284 RBI in 905 career games. He made two postseason appearances, one of which was in the 1998 National League Division Series while with the Astros where he appeared in two games as a pinch-hitter (walked both times). Clark also appeared in two games for the Dodgers in the 1996 NLDS.

Clark was originally selected by Cleveland in the first round (11th overall pick) of the 1983 June Draft and made his Major League debut with the Indians in 1986. He posted a .302 average in 808 career minor league games, including a .340 clip with 30 HR in just 108 games in 1987 at Buffalo (AA).

He attended Jackson (MS) State University where he was the team's MVP and top hitter in both 1982 and 1983. He was inducted into the Jackson State Sports Hall of Fame in November 2000, joining the likes of Walter Payton, Jackie Slater and Dennis "Oil Can" Boyd. His brother, Louis, played seven years in the NFL with Seattle (1987-93) and Green Bay (1994) and currently serves as director of pro personnel for the Los Angeles Chargers.

Clark and his wife, Vivian, make their home in Nashville, TN, and have two daughters: Meki and Kiki. He is a 1980 graduate of Shannon (MS) High School, and was 26-0 as a Golden Gloves boxer while in high school.

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Third Base Coach, Arizona Diamondbacks (2017-24); Third Base Coach, Houston Astros (2025-present)

Tony Perezchica joins the Astros in 2025 as the third base and infield coach/run prevention coordinator, bringing over 22 years of experience in professional baseball as a coach, coordinator, manager and player.

Prior to joining the Astros, Perezchica spent the last eight seasons (2017-24) as the Arizona Diamondbacks third base coach. While in Arizona, he was a part of two postseason teams, including the 2023 club that won the National League pennant.

Perezchica originally joined the Diamondbacks organization as a hitting coach in 1997, spending that first season at Double A Norwich before advancing to Triple A Columbus in 1998. He would spend the next four seasons as a hitting coach at Single A Greensboro (1999-2001) and Norwich (2002).

In 2003, he was named manager of Rookie-Advanced Mexcala. In the next two seasons, he moved up the ladder, managing Single A South Bend in 2004 and Double-A Tennessee in 2005. From 2006-13, Perezchica served as the D-backs minor league infield coordinator followed by a three-year stint as field coordinator (2014-16).

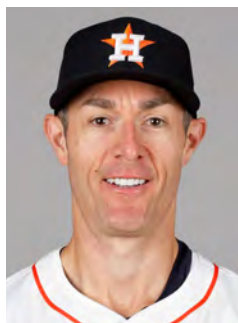

Perezchica also has Major League experience as a player, appearing in a combined 69 games with San Francisco (1988, 1990-91) and Cleveland (1991-92), primarily at shortstop. Highlights from his playing career include collecting his first Major League hit off future Hall of Famer Tom Glavine on Sept. 7, 1988 vs. Atlanta. He was originally drafted by San Francisco in the third round of the 1984 Major League Draft and played 11 seasons in the minor leagues.

A native of Mexicali, Mexico, Perezchica was inducted into the Mexicali Sports Hall of Fame in April of 2023. He is one of just six players born in Mexicali to play in the Major Leagues.

He is married, and he and his wife Natalie have three children, A.J., Alexandria and Jasmine.

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Major League Coach, Houston Astros (2020-present)

Michael Collins is in his eighth season with the Astros and his sixth as a Major League coach. He spent his first two seasons as the Astros catching coach and bullpen catcher.

As part of his current duties, Collins works closely with the Astros catchers.

Collins joined the Astros in 2018 after a seven-year stint (2011-17) in the San Diego Padres organization, including a six-year run (2012-17) as a minor league manager. He last served as the manager in the Arizona Rookie League, holding that post for three seasons overall (2013, 2016-17). He also managed in the Dominican Summer League (2012), at Class A Fort Wayne (2014) and at Class A Lake Elsinore (2015). While with Fort Wayne, Collins led his club to a division championship and earned the Padres 2014 Jack Krol Award for his contributions to player development.

A native of Australia, Collins managed his hometown Canberra Cavalry team of the Australian Baseball League for six offseasons from 2012-18. In his six years on the job, he led Canberra to one Australian Baseball League Championship (2012-13) and two second place finishes (2013-14, 2017-18).

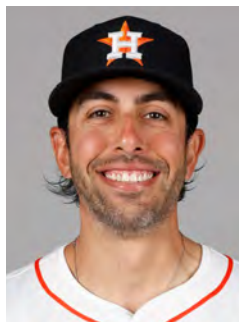

Collins is a former player, having played 10 years in minor league baseball with the Los Angeles-AL (2001-08) and San Diego (2009-10) organizations. He topped out at the Triple A level in 2009 and 2010, but had his best minor league season in 2005 at Class A Advanced Cedar Rapids. That season, Collins appeared in 100 games, hitting .320 (116x363) with 32 doubles, seven home runs and 64 RBI with an .894 OPS.

Following his minor league career, Collins played two seasons (2010-11, 2011-12) for Canberra before taking the reins as the club's manager in for the 2012-13 campaign.

A native of Canberra, Australia, Collins originally signed as a 16-year-old minor league free agent with the Angels in 2001.

COACH

Tommy Kawamura is in his third season as the Astros Major League game planning coach, which is a position that was added prior to the 2023 season.

Although the 2025 season will be his third as part of the Major League coaching staff, Kawamura has played a significant role in the Astros baseball operations department for several years. Prior to the 2023 season, he served as manager of advance scouting. In that role, he worked in the clubhouse directly with the players, coaches and manager for all home and road games.

Kawamura first joined the Astros organization as a development coach at Double A Corpus Christi, serving in that role for the 2016 and 2017 seasons. He joined the Astros Major League staff as coordinator, Major League advance information in November of 2017. He would later be promoted to manager of advance scouting in November of 2020.

Prior to joining the Astros, Kawamura spent the 2015 season as a baseball operations intern with the New York Mets organization. Before joining the Mets, he was a video intern for Baseball Info. Solutions in 2014.

Kawamura is a graduate of Willamette University, in Salem, Oregon, where he was an infielder and four-year starter. He served as team captain for two seasons. Kawamura earned a Bachelors of Arts degree at Willamette in Mathematics and Economics.

JEREMIAH RANDALL

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeremiah Randall was named the Astros Major League head athletic trainer on Nov. 9, 2015. The 2025 season will be his 10th atop the Astros athletic training staff.

Randall and his staff have been recognized as one of the best in baseball, as the group was named the Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year in 2017, an award that's given out by PBATS (Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society) and voted on by training staffs throughout the league.

Randall and his staff proved to be invaluable in 2020 and 2021 as they oversaw much of the Astros COVID-19 safety protocols as the club navigated through two challenging seasons. Randall oversaw the testing of players and staff, which became a daily occurrence in 2020 during the Astros extended playoff run.

Prior to joining the Astros, Randall spent the previous three seasons with the Pittsburgh Pirates, serving as the club's Major League rehab coordinator and physical therapist/assistant athletic trainer. Prior to joining the Pirates, Randall worked two seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers, serving as their minor league rehab coordinator in 2010 and as their Major League physical therapist for the 2011 season.

In addition to his time in Major League Baseball, Randall spent time as an intern in the NFL with the Seattle Seahawks and New England Patriots. He has also presented at several national sports medicine conferences and has contributed as an author to various sports medicine and rehabilitation textbooks.

Currently, he is the principal investigator for the testing of several functional upper extremity assessment tools for use in the overhead throwing athlete. In addition to his clinical research, he has co-authored several case studies that are under peer review for publication in the American Journal of Sports Medicine.

Randall received his Doctor of Physical Therapy Degree in 2009 from the University of Miami (FL). While there, he conducted research involving active military members and aided in the development of the Comprehensive High-level Activity Mobility Predictor (CHAMP).

He received his undergraduate degree in biology from Tabor College in Hillsboro, Kan., and went on to the University of Kansas to obtain his athletic training degree. During his time at Tabor College, he was a three-year letterman in basketball and track and received all-conference honors in both sports.

Randall was born in Mound City, Kan. Currently, he resides in The Woodlands, TX, with his wife, Kelly, daughter Aliann and son Declan.

ERIC VELAZQUEZ

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Velazquez previously served as the athletic training coordinator for the Boston Red Sox from 2019-2021. Prior to that, he worked in the Boston system as an affiliate athletic trainer for the Triple A Pawtucket Red Sox for two seasons (2017-18) and for Double A Portland for one season (2016).

Velazquez began his career in baseball in 2010 with the New York Mets organization, working at their Dominican Republic Academy. He then was named as their Latin America coordinator in 2011. Over the next few seasons, he served as athletic trainer for Short-A Brooklyn (2012-2013) and Single-A Savannah (2014-2015).

Additionally, Velazquez has worked as an athletic trainer for the Dominican Winter League (2011), Arizona Fall League (2012), Venezuelan Winter League (2014-15) and the World Baseball Classic (2017).

He received his bachelor's degree in exercise biology from the University of California, Davis, and his master's in athletic training from Stephen F. Austin University.

Originally from Los Angeles, CA, Velazquez now resides in Pflugerville, TX, with his wife and two daughters.

JOHN GREGORICH

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

John Gregorich, who was named to the Astros Major League staff in 2024 as an assistant athletic trainer, is in his 12th season with the Astros organization overall. Prior to joining the Major League club, he served as medical coordinator in the Astros minor league system from 2022-2023.

Since joining the Astros organization in 2014, Gregorich has served as athletic trainer at several stops, including Triple A Sugar Land (2021), Alternate Training Site (2020), Triple A Round Rock (2019), Double A Corpus Christi (2018), Class A Buies Creek (2017), Class A Tri-City (2015-16), and Rookie Level Greeneville (2014). In 2014, he was named as the 2014 PBATS Appalachian League Athletic Trainer of the Year.

Prior to joining the Astros, Gregorich spent two seasons in Cleveland's organization (2012-13), spending 2012 as an intern at Class A Lake County before joining the Major League club as a sports medicine intern in 2013.

In 2011, Gregorich earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Bellarmine University in Louisville, Kentucky and later went on to earn his Master of Science degree in athletic training from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga in 2013.

A native of Chardon, Ohio, Gregorich currently resides in Houston, Texas with his wife, Chrystal, their son, William, and daughter Maddison.

TAYLOR WITCZAK

MAJOR LEAGUE PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Taylor Witczak joined the Astros organization in December of 2022 as assistant athletic trainer/physical therapist for the Major League club.

Before joining the Astros, Witczak worked for the Miami Marlins during the 2021-22 seasons, serving as the minor league medical coordinator for most of 2022 and as minor league rehabilitation coordinator from 2021-22.

Prior to beginning his career in baseball, he completed a seasonal athletic training/physical therapy internship with the San Francisco 49ers during the 2020 season.

Witczak received a bachelor's degree in athletic training and doctorate of physical therapy from Grand Valley State University. He served internships with EXOS, the Arizona Diamondbacks, and Northwestern University Football.

Witczak is from Hudsonville, MI and resides in Houston, TX with his wife, Jessi, and their dogs, Izzy and Marlin.

BRIAN FALLER

MAJOR LEAGUE PHYSICAL THERAPIST

After spending the last two seasons (2023-24) as the Astros minor league rehab coordinator, Brian Faller was named as the club's Major League physical therapist in November of 2024. He originally joined the Astros organization in June of 2022 as a minor league physical therapist.

Over the past three seasons, Faller has worked with several players in the Astros system that were recovering from injuries at the Astros facility in West Palm Beach, FL.

In 2019, Faller earned a degree in athletic training pre-physical therapy at the University of Miami before going on to earn his doctor of physical training/physical therapy in 2022 at George Washington University.

HAZAEL WESSIN

MAJOR LEAGUE STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

The 2025 season is Hazael Wessin's second as the Astros head Major League strength and conditioning coach. Prior to his current position, he served as the Astros assistant strength and conditioning coach for two years (2022-23).

A native of Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic, Wessin is believed to be Major League Baseball's first full-time, Dominican-born strength and conditioning coach. Additionally, he served as the strength coach for the Dominican Republic in the 2023 World Baseball Classic.

The 2025 season will be Wessin's 11th in the Astros organization, and his fourth at the Major League level. Prior to joining the Major League staff in 2022, Wessin served as strength coach for the Triple A Sugar Land Skeeters in 2021. In 2020, he was part of the staff assigned to the Astros alternate training site, which was a result of the 2020 minor league season being cancelled due to the pandemic.

In 2019, Wessin, who is fluent in Spanish, was the Astros Latin America strength and conditioning coordinator. Prior to that, he was the strength and conditioning coach for Class A Quad Cities in 2017 and Class A Advanced Buies Creek in 2018, with both of those clubs winning their respective titles. Wessin worked with several of the current Astros players during his years in the minor league system.

Prior to joining the Astros, Wessin assisted the Boston Red Sox Dominican Summer League operations in 2014.

Wessin received his bachelor's degree in sports management from Faulkner University in 2014. He also received his associate of arts degree in liberal arts from Western Oklahoma State College in 2012, where he played catcher on the baseball team. In 2011, his Western Oklahoma State squad captured the NJCAA National Championship.

Additionally, Wessin is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS).

STEPHANIE GRUBBS

ASSISTANT MAJOR LEAGUE STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Stephanie Grubbs was hired by the Astros as assistant strength and conditioning coach in January of 2025. She brings several years of experience in the strength and conditioning field in the college ranks.

Prior to joining the Astros, Grubbs had served as assistant athletic director for sports performance at the University of Pittsburgh since June of 2021. While at Pitt, she worked with several successful programs, including their women's volleyball team that won three consecutive ACC championships (2022-24).

Before joining the Pitt Panthers, she was the director of Olympic sports strength and conditioning for Mississippi State University from July of 2018-May of 2021.

Grubbs' also spent five seasons working for Clemson University (2013-18), where she started as an intern before advancing to assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2016 and then assistant director of Olympic sports strength and conditioning in 2017.

Additionally, Grubbs' experience includes a stint as a seasonal strength and conditioning/sports science intern with the Pittsburgh Steelers from July of 2022-January of 2023.

In 2022, she was awarded the title of Master International Strength and Conditioning Practitioner by the International Universities Strength and Conditioning Association.

She earned a bachelor of science degree in physical activity and sports sciences from West Virginia University in 2013, earning Big East All-Academic Team honors from 2009-11.

Grubbs later would earn her master's degree in athletic leadership/human resource development from Clemson University in 2016.

GEORDAN STAPLETON

MAJOR LEAGUE DIETITIAN

Geordan Stapleton joined the Astros Major League staff in January of 2024 club's Major League Dietitian. As part of her duties, she is responsible for creating a food and nutrition plan for the Astros Major League players and staff for Spring Training camp and for regular season home and road games.

Previously, Stapleton served as minor league nutrition coordinator for the past three seasons (2021-23) for the New York Mets organization in Port St. Lucie, FL. In this role, she spearheaded nutrition programming for all of the Mets minor league affiliate athletes while also mentoring Mets nutrition associates. Her role also included travel to minor league affiliates in the United States and to the Mets Dominican Academy.

Prior to joining the Mets organization, Stapleton had served as Olympic Sports Dietitian at Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA from September of 2019 until March of 2021. In that role, she oversaw the sports nutrition programs for men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball, soccer and track and field.

She was also a sports nutrition assistant for the Indianapolis Indians, the Triple A affiliate of the Pittsburgh Pirates, for the 2019 season.

Stapleton earned a Bachelor of Science degree in dietetics from Florida State University in 2017 before going on to earn her master of science degree in clinical nutrition from the University of Memphis in 2018. She is a registered and licensed dietitian in the state of Texas.

Stapleton is a native of Montgomery, AL.

BRAD STONE

MASSAGE THERAPIST

Brad Stone joined the Astros Major League staff as Massage Therapist prior to the 2024 season.

Prior to joining the Astros, Stone had served as the full-time Massage Therapist for the Arizona Coyotes of the National Hockey League for the previous three seasons (2021-23). In addition to providing therapeutic massages and other modalities for the Coyote players, he worked with the medical team to assist in the rehabilitation process for injuries.

Stone, who is a certified, licensed massage therapist, also provides services for clients through the company he owns, Kinetic LMT, which he opened in 2019 in Phoenix, AZ. As a result, he has experience in working with professional and collegiate athletes in a wide variety of sports.

Stone earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Oklahoma before earning certification in Therapeutic Massage from Phoenix College in Arizona in 2019.

JAVIER BRACAMONTE

BULLPEN CATCHER

Javier Bracamonte has spent the last 24 seasons as the Astros bullpen catcher, joining the club in that role in 2001. In his role, Javier, who wears jersey number 85, travels to Spring Training and on every road trip, assisting the coaching staff by catching bullpens, throwing batting practice and hitting infield practice.

During his time with Houston, Javier has taken part in seven MLB All-Star Games, including as the batting practice pitcher in the Home Run Derby for Alex Bregman in 2018-19. He also took part in the 2004 All-Star Game in Houston, catching bullpens and working pregame activities. He would also pitch batting practice in the next two All-Star Games, throwing to Andruw Jones and Jason Bay in 2005 in Detroit and to Miguel Cabrera in Pittsburgh in 2006.

A former shortstop and second baseman, Bracamonte played at the New York Yankees Venezuelan Academy from 1988-90, which made him just the third Venezuelan to sign a professional contract after serving as a bat boy in the Venezuelan Winter League. He would join the Astros organization in 2001 after five years of giving private baseball lessons.

Born in Caracas, Venezuela, he now resides in Houston, Texas, with his wife, Katie, and his daughters, Jaelyn and Jade. His son Gustavo, currently works in the Miami Marlins organization.

CALEB NUNES

BULLPEN CATCHER

Caleb Nunes enters his first full season as a bullpen catcher for the Astros after joining the Major League club in April of 2024. Before his promotion to the Major League staff, Nunes had been the bullpen catcher for the Sugar Land Space Cowboys, the Triple A affiliate of the Astros, since 2021.

In 2016, Nunes began his career with the Astros organization, working in his hometown of Fresno, for the Grizzlies, the Astros Triple A affiliate at the time. The team eventually moved to Round Rock and Sugar Land, where Nunes followed.

In his role, Nunes throws batting practice and helps with catchers' pregame routines and early work. He can be found in the bullpen during games.

Nunes graduated from the College of Idaho in May of 2017, where he was a catcher for the Coyotes baseball team.

Nunes and his wife, Chelsea, are expecting their first child in May.

CARL SCHNEIDER

CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Carl Schneider, who has been with the Astros organization since 1989, became the Astros clubhouse manager in 2011. While with the Astros, Schneider has worked 18 Astros playoff runs, four All-Star Games (1998, 2003-04, 2018) and all five of the Astros World Series appearances (2005, 2017, 2019, 2021-22).

In 2020, Schneider was named the winner of the Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service to Baseball Award, named by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Additionally, in 2017, Schneider was named the winner the Pete Sheehy Clubhouse Award (Clubhouse Manager of the Year), which is given out annually to a home and visiting clubhouse manager, and voted on by the MLB Clubhouse Manager's Association.

Schneider, who is one of the longest-tenured employees in the organization, originally joined the Astros in 1989 as a bat boy and also handled clubhouse duties during the baseball season. He joined the home clubhouse staff full time in 1995 and would work in that role until assuming the clubhouse manager duties in 2011.

A Texas native, Schneider currently resides in Houston where he has enjoyed raising his sons Zachry and Max and daughters Amie and Madyson. Schneider's oldest son, Zach, was a left-handed pitcher at Truman State University in Missouri.

STEVE PERRY

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Steve Perry has worked for the Astros organization since 1979 and has served as the visiting clubhouse manager since 1989.

Over the years, Perry has developed a fine reputation in Major League Baseball for his work. He is a three-time winner (2000, 2008-09) of the Pete Sheehy Clubhouse Award (Clubhouse Manager of the Year), which is given out annually to a home and visiting clubhouse manager. The award is voted on by his peers within the MLB Clubhouse Manager's Association.

He also earned the Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service to Baseball Award in 2013, named by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Perry joined the Astros as a bat boy at the start of the 1979 season, but by the All-Star Break was promoted to an assistant in the visiting clubhouse. He was named visiting clubhouse manager in 1989, and has filled that role since. During his Astros tenure, Steve has worked five All-Star games, all five of the Astros World Series appearances and 21 postseason runs.

Perry is fluent in Spanish, having spent several years of his childhood in South America, where his father was relocated for work. He and his wife, Jessica, reside in Houston and have two daughters, Nicole and Amanda.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Signed by Houston as a 16-year-old prospect out of Santo Domingo, DR on Nov. 11, 2013...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Marc Russo and Rafael Belen.
- At the age of 13 and prior to his professional signing, worked construction and helped his uncle, a mechanic, fix cars, in Santo Domingo.
- Grew up playing youth basketball in the Dominican, a sport that was taught to him by his mother and father, who both played basketball as children...by the age of 13, he was competing in Under-17 All-Star teams, facing athletes four years older than him...Bryan grew up watching Lakers games with his father, Enrique, with Bryan idolizing the team's stars, including Kobe Bryant, Pau Gasol and Lamar Odom.
- He also played recreational baseball, where he was eventually discovered by Buscones, who are unaffiliated baseball scouts, which invited him to join a baseball program at the Olympic Center in Santo Domingo...at the age of 14, was requested by his mother to choose baseball or basketball as a focus...chose baseball and was rewarded with a professional contract just two years later.
- Abreu, who grew up in Simón Bolívar and Las Cañitas barrios of Santo Domingo, credits his upbringing revolved around sports for keeping him away from drugs and crime, which he saw friends get involved with in his neighborhood.
- Still loves the game of basketball, and in Spring Training of 2019, Abreu, an unknown prospect at the time, was selected by Justin Verlander to be his partner during a team basketball shooting contest...the contest was never even completed due to Abreu's and Verlander's shooting dominance.
- As a prospect, was a longterm project of former Astros pitching coach Brent Strom, who always believed in Abreu's abilities...in the offseason prior to the 2022 season, honed in on improving his command while pitching for the Toros del Este of the Dominican Winter League...worked with former Astros minor league pitching coach Erick Abreu, who had worked with Bryan at various levels of the Astros organization since his pro debut in 2014.
- Was added to the Astros 40-man roster on Nov. 20, 2018...was eligible for arbitration for the second time in his career this offseason...is still under control by the Astros for another two years.

2021 vs. LAD (0ER/1IP)...also picked up seven holds while serving as a set up reliever for the club.

- Advanced from Class A Advanced Fayetteville to the Majors in 2019, making seven regular season appearances for the Astros...was also on the club's ALCS roster, making one appearance in the series against the Yankees...also had a banner year in 2019 at Double A Corpus Christi, as he was named a Texas League Midseason All-Star, the first All-Star honors of his professional career.

- Added to the Astros 40-man roster following the 2018 season after he went 6-1 with a 1.49 ERA (9ER/54.1IP) and 90 strikeouts in 14 games (seven starts) between Class A Quad Cities (10g) and Class A Short Season Tri-City (4g).

BROADCAST NOTES

- Signed by Houston as a 16-year-old non-drafted free agent out of Maracay, Venezuela, on Sept. 27, 2006...the Astros Venezuelan Coordinator at the time, Pablo Torrealba, and a local Astros scout, Wolfgang Ramos, are credited with the signing of Altuve, which might be the most influential signing in Astros history...in addition to those two men, Omar López, who was the club's Venezuelan team manager at the time, and Al Pedrique, the Astros former Special Assistant, also had strong ties to the signing...after all these years, López remains with the organization, now serving as the Astros' bench coach.
- It took Altuve many trips to the Astros Venezuelan Academy to receive a contract offer from the club...he eventually made believers out of every staffer, but not yet the organization...Torrealba, Ramos and López all pleaded with Pedrique to visit the academy himself to take a look at Altuve...Pedrique agreed, made the trip, and came away a believer...Pedrique then made the pitch to Astros General Manager Tim Lincecum, who signed off on the deal...Altuve signed for just $15,000, and according to López, would have signed for free for just an opportunity to play baseball.
- Sixteen years after his signing, Altuve now has nine All-Star Game selections under his belt (2012, 2014-18, 2021-22, 2024), including starting nods in 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2022 and 2024...is first player in franchise history to be named an All-Star starter six times, besting Hall of Famer Craig Biggio (1995-98), who earned four starting All-Star Game nods.
- IN THE COMMUNITY: Jose and his wife Nina have undertaken several charitable initiatives in his career with the Astros, which has earned Jose three team nominations for the Roberto Clemente Award (2013, 2017, 2022)...Jose and Nina focus their efforts on children's causes, which has included providing support to children with serious illnesses and providing meals to child services...partnered with teammates Kyle Tucker and Josh Hader for a "Team Up" charity event in 2024 at the Post Oak Hotel, with live and silent auctions that raised over $600,000 for local causes, benefiting children, animals, and the Houston community.
- Has signed three extensions with the Astros...most recently, on Feb. 7, 2024, signed a five-year deal that will keep him in Houston through 2029.

- Has been named the Astros MLBPA Heart and Hustle Award winner four times (2012, 2014, 2021-22)...this honors active players who demonstrate a passion for the game and best embody the values, spirit and traditions of the game.
- Named the second Houston Astros player ever to earn league MVP honors in 2017, joining 1994 NL MVP Jeff Bagwell...was showered with awards that season, which included being named the Sports Illustrated Sportsperson of the Year (along with J.J. Watt), the AP Male Athlete of the Year and the Baseball America Player of the Year.
- Has been one of the best postseason players in Major League history...has a career .841 OPS in 105 postseason games, the most in club history.
- Ranks second all time in postseason home runs (27), trailing Manny Ramirez (29)...also ranks second all-time in runs (89), third in hits (118), sixth in doubles (21), sixth in games (105) and seventh in RBI (55).
- Made his MLB debut on July 20, 2011 vs. WSH...bypassed Triple A on his ascent to the Majors...was named the Astros 2011 Minor League Player of the Year and played in the 2011 All-Star Futures Game.
- Was a South Atlantic League Midseason and Postseason All-Star in 2010 and an Appalachian League Postseason All-Star in 2009...was Greenville's Team MVP in 2009.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Towering left-handed hitter has won a Rookie of the Year Award (2019), earned three consecutive ALL-STAR selections (2022-24), been named ALCS MVP (2021) and won a Silver Slugger Award (2022) in six Major League seasons with Houston.
- In 629 career games in the Majors, spanning the 2019-24 seasons, he has hit .298 (683x2290) with 148 doubles, 164 homers, 466 RBI and a .737 OPS (.390 OBP/.583 SLG).
- Is listed as an outfielder after starting 53 games in left field in the 2024 regular season...in regular season action, has 197 career starts in left field and 417 as the Astros designated hitter.
- Earned his third consecutive ALL-STAR nod in 2024, along with his first career starting assignment as the fan-selected DH for the American League...led the Astros in batting average (.308), doubles (34), home runs (35), RBI (86), on-base percentage (.392) and slugging percentage (.567), with his batting average serving as his career high (min. 350 AB)...became the second player in Astros history to hit 30-plus homers in at least four consecutive seasons, joining Jeff Bagwell (1996-2003).
- Named an All-Star in 2023, his second consecutive All-Star appearance...had a huge season, reaching the 30-homer mark for his third consecutive year...also reached 100 career homers in what was his 372nd career game, becoming the fastest player to do so in franchise history...once again excelled in the postseason, hitting .465 (20x43) with six home runs, 15 RBI and a 1.487 OPS in 11 games...his .465 average (20x43) ranked first in a single postseason in club history (min. 30AB)...recorded multiple hits in six straight games to close out the postseason, which is the longest streak of multi-hit games in a single postseason in MLB history.
- Had a huge 2022 season in which he finished third in the AL in MVP voting...was named the Astros MVP, was a 2022 All-Star Game selection and was named the AL Silver Slugger at DH...followed up his 2022 regular season with a strong postseason...hit three go-ahead homers in the 6th inning or later in the postseason, all three coming with the Astros trailing...hit a walkoff homer in Game 1 of the ALDS and then a go-ahead homer in Game 2 of the ALDS, both against the vaunted Mariners bullpen...

BROADCAST NOTES

- After defecting from Cuba in 2016, Alvarez's journey took him first to the Dominican Republic, then to Haiti, where he would eventually establish residency...after establishing residency in Haiti, Alvarez signed his first professional contract with the Dodgers and their scouts Ismael Cruz and Mike Toscar.
- While establishing residency, Alvarez crossed paths with fellow Cuban Yuli Gurriel, who was also working to establish residency...Alvarez grew up idolizing Gurriel, who was a star in the Cuban league during his childhood...the two would later become teammates, sharing the same clubhouse with each other for Alvarez's first four MLB seasons (2019-22).
- Spent less than two months in the Dodgers organization and did not play in a professional game with them before being acquired by Houston in exchange for reliever Josh Fields on Aug. 1, 2016...the Astros scouts Charlie Gonzalez and Oz Ocampo were credited with the identification of Alvarez.
- Went six years, from the moment he defected from Cuba, until August of 2022, without seeing his father (Agustín Alvarez), mother (Marilyn Cadogan Reyes) and little brother (Yonder), who's turning 18 in 2025...with the help of Astros Owner & Chairman Jim Crane, who worked with an immigration lawyer, the three secured visitor visas to eventually make it to the U.S.
- Has had several eye-opening power moments in his career...on Sept. 9, 2019, he became the first Astro to hit a homer into the third deck at Daikin Park (off A's RHP Paul Blackburn)...that shot landed in section 337, row 1, seat 18, a seat that no longer exists after the addition of the Michelob Ultra View Deck...on Aug. 13, 2024, he lined a homer during BP off the right-field videoboard at Tropicana Field, causing it to malfunction and go dark for that night's game...with seemingly no concrete video evidence of the homer, Alvarez joked after the game, "I'm not paying that bill."
- Alvarez hit for the 10th cycle in Astros history on July 21, 2024 at T-Mobile Park in Seattle...he was able to retrieve the home run ball from his historic game after the fan who secured it, Amy Franz, returned it to in exchange for an Alvarez signed baseball.
- Played his first four seasons (2019-22) under his rookie contract...signed a six-year contract extension with the Astros on June 6, 2022, which will keep Alvarez in an Astros uniform through 2028.

- Played his first full season as an Astro in 2021 and led the club in home runs (33) and RBI (104)...named a second-team All-MLB selection and was a Silver Slugger finalist at the DH position...named the 2021 ALCS MVP after hitting .522 (12x23) with a homer, six RBI and a 1.408 OPS during the series.
- In his rookie season of 2019, was named the 2019 American League Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year...became the third player in Astros history to win the award...established a new Major League record for OPS by a rookie in a single season, with his 1.067 mark (min. 350 PA).

- Hit three homers with seven RBI on Aug. 10, 2019 at BAL, becoming the youngest player in MLB history (22 years, 44 days old) with three homers and seven RBI in a game, surpassing Pat Seerey (July 13, 1945 at 22 years, 118 days old).
- Hit .311 (288x927) with 56 doubles, 56 HR, 218 RBI and a .956 OPS (.395 OBP/.561 SLG) in 250 minor league games in four years prior to his MLB debut.
- Played in the SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game in 2017 and 2018...was a Midwest League Midseason All-Star in 2017.

2024 SEASON:

- Earned his third consecutive ALL-STAR selection, was named to the All-MLB Second Team, was a finalist for the AL Silver Slugger Award at DH, was a Sporting News AL All-Star and was named the Astros MVP by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA.
- Led the Astros in batting average (.308), doubles (34), home runs (35), RBI (86), on-base percentage (.392) and slugging percentage (.567)...his batting average served as his career-high for a season in which he had at least 350 at-bats.
- Stole a career-high six bases and went 6-for-6 in his attempts...had just two stolen bases through his first five MLB seasons.
- Made 53 starts at LF and 94 at DH...were the second-most start at LF in his career (56 starts in '22).
- Recorded a 5.4 WAR (Baseball Reference), which was the second-highest single-season mark of his career, behind only a 6.8 WAR he logged in 2022 when he finished third in AL MVP voting.
- In the AL, he ranked tied for fourth in multi-hit games (53), fourth in on-base percentage, fourth in batting average and fourth in OPS (.959).
- Set his career-high 16 intentional walks, which ranked secpmd in the Majors, behind only OF Aaron Judge (20)...were the most intentional walks by an Astro since 1B Lance Berkman had 18 in 2008.
- Was tied for first in MLB with seven multi-homer games...also tied the Astros single-season record with IF Chris Carter (2014).
- Led MLB left-handed hitters with a .362 batting average and 1.029 OPS vs. left-handed pitching.
- Was named the AL Co-Player of the Week on Aug. 12 after batting .429 (9x21) with a double, 5 HR, 8 RBI, 7 walks and a 1.777 OPS through six games during the week...was his third career weekly award (last, week of Sept. 18, 2022).
- Reached 30-plus homers for the fourth time, coming in four consecutive years...became second player in Astros history to hit 30-plus homers in four consecutive seasons, joining Jeff Bagwell (8 from 1996-2003)...is third player in Astros history to hit 30-plus homers in four total seasons, along with Bagwell (9) and Lance Berkman (5).
- Was on his fourth consecutive and career OPENING DAY roster (2020-24)...went 2x5 vs. NYY.

- Launched a homer with an exit velocity of 116.8 mph off RHP Marcus Stroman on May 9 at NYY...was the second-hardest hit homer of his career, behind a 117.7-mph home run from Sept. 13, 2023 vs. OAK.
- Appeared in his 500th career game on April 15 vs. ATL, becoming the 58th player to reach 500 career games with the Astros...led all Astros through their first 500 career games in homers (133) and RBI (392), while ranking 2nd in runs (336), 5th in doubles (117) and 7th in hits (533).
- Logged the 17th multi-homer game of his career on April 27 at COL (Mexico City), passing Craig Biggio for the third-most multi-homer games in Astros franchise history.
- Recorded his first career cycle and the 10th cycle in Astros franchise history on July 21 at SEA...marked the second cycle in T-Mobile Park history...notched the first cycle by an Astros left-handed hitter since Luke Scott on July 28, 2006 vs. ARI...became the first DH to hit for the cycle in Astros history and was the ninth in MLB history to do so.
- Voted in as the AL starting DH for the ALL-STAR Game at Globe Life Field, earning his third consecutive and career All-Star nod, as well as his first fan selection...became first DH in club history to be named a starter in the All-Star Game...drew a walk in his only plate appearance during the game.
- Hit his 150th career homer on Aug 6 at TEX, becoming the fastest Astros player to reach the mark (590g)...OF George Springer had the previous record of 150 career HR in 723 games...also became the eighth-fastest player in MLB history to record 150 homers.
- Hit the 164th home run of his career on Sept. 21 vs. LAA, passing OF César Cedeño for the 9th-most HR in franchise history.
- Recorded the third three-homer game of his career on Aug. 28 at PHI, tying Jeff Bagwell for the most three-homer games in Astros history.
- In the POSTSEASON, batted .286 (2x7) with a double and a walk in the club's ALWC vs. DET.
- Went 2x4 with a double in Game 1, extending his streak of multi-hit games in the postseason to seven games, passing Nelson Cruz for the longest such streak in MLB history.

2023 SEASON:

- Served as one of the AL's most potent power threats, batting .293 (120x410) with 31 homers, 97 RBI, 24 doubles, 77 runs and a .990 OPS (.407 OBP/.583 SLG) in 114 games...made 73 starts at DH and 40 in LF.
- Was his selected to his second ALL-STAR Game, but did not appear in the game due to injury.
- His .407 OBP was a career-high for a season in which he logged at least 400 plate appearances...became the fourth player in Astros history to log multiple seasons (2022-23) with a .400+ on-base percentage (min. .450 PA)...the last to do so in consecutive seasons was 1B Lance Berkman (2001-06).
- Reached the 30-homer mark for his third straight season...the last Astro to homer 30 times in at least three consecutive seasons was 1B Jeff Bagwell (8 seasons, 1996-03).
- Did not have enough plate appearances to qualify, but among AL players with at least 475 plate appearances, ranked third in on-base percentage (.407), third in OPS (.990) and third in SLG (.583).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-handed starter is coming off a productive rookie season in which he averaged 10.61 strikeouts-per-nine innings while going 7-13 with a 4.53 ERA (73ER/145IP) in 29 games (28 starts).
- Entered the 2024 season as the Astros top prospect and became a mainstay in the club's rotation by mid-April...ranked fifth among AL pitchers with his average of 10.61 strikeouts-per-nine-innings (min. 145 IP) and ranked tied for first among AL rookies with 171 strikeouts on the year.
- Was the AL's Rookie of the Month for August 2024, becoming the first Astro to win the award since Yordan Alvarez in August 2019...went 3-2 with a 1.95 ERA (7ER/32.1IP), a .168 opponent average (19x113) and 47 strikeouts in five starts during the month...became the second rookie in the Modern Era (since 1901) to log at least 47 strikeouts while allowing 19-or-fewer hits in a calendar month, joining RHP Kerry Wood, who did so for the Chicago Cubs in May 1998 (60 strikeouts, 19 hits).
- Named the 2023 Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Year and a MiLB.com Organizational ALL-STAR...split his campaign between Triple A Sugar Land and Double A Corpus Christi...also named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Month in May, while pitching at Double A.

2024 SEASON:

- Was thrust into the Astros rotation in mid-April and went 7-13 with a 4.53 ERA (73ER/145IP) and 179 strikeouts through 29 appearances (28 starts) in his rookie season.
- Among AL rookies, finished tied for first in strikeouts (171), first in SO/9IP (10.61), tied for first in quality starts (10), tied for second in appearances, third in wins, third in innings pitched and fifth in Pitching WAR by STATS (1.4)...ranked fifth among all AL starters in SO/9 IP (min. 125 IP).
- His 171 strikeouts were the third-most by a rookie in franchise history...trailed only RHP Hunter Brown (178 in 2023) and RHP Tom Griffin (200 in 1969)...his 10.61 SO/9 was the best by a rookie pitcher in franchise history (min. 125IP).
- Posted four starts with 10-plus strikeouts, tied for second-most by an Astros pitcher in their first 30 career games (RHP Tom Griffin - 7 in 1969; RHP Don Wilson - 4 in 1967).

BROADCAST NOTES

- A local product, Arrighetti attended Cinco Ranch High School in the Houston suburb of Katy...while at Cinco Ranch, was a two-time unanimous First Team All-District pitcher...earned First Team All-State honors as a senior...went undrafted out of high school.
- Though he went to high school in the Houston area, Arrighetti was born and spent most of his childhood in Albuquerque, N.M., the same hometown as former Astros third baseman Alex Bregman...Arrighetti has cited Bregman as a role model, being someone who was a collegiate star and reached the Majors from a region not known for producing pro baseball players...Arrighetti played on the travel ball circuit with Alex's younger brother, A.J., with Alex sometimes serving as their team's first-base coach.
- Coincidentally, Arrighetti was in Albuquerque with the Triple A Sugar Land Space Cowboys, ready to make his first-ever start at Isotopes Park where he grew up watching minor league games, when he got the call he'd be making his MLB debut on April 10 in Kansas City...Arrighetti never made the start in Albuquerque and was on a plane to make his MLB debut mere hours after he had landed in New Mexico.
- Began his collegiate career at TCU, making 16 appearances and fanning 19 batters in 17.0 innings pitched as a freshman...transferred to Navarro Junior College for his sophomore year, where he made four starts and owned a 2-2 record with a 4.26 ERA...tallied 19.0 innings pitched on the bump and recorded the most strikeouts (30) and highest K/9 (14.21) on the team...transferred to the University of Louisiana at Lafayette, where he pitched one season (2021)...starred as a Ragin' Cajun, going 7-6 with a 3.12 ERA (29ER/83.2IP) in 16 games (13 starts).
- Selected by the Astros in the sixth round of the 2021 draft...signed by Astros scout Landon Townsley.
- As expected, Spencer is of Italian heritage, and has been associated with spaghetti pasta his entire life, which is a meal he does enjoy...at Double A Corpus Christi in 2023, his teammates produced shirts with a stick figure of Arrighetti pitching next to the text "Spaghetti of Meat Balls"...the crew wore the shirt for every start of Spencer's...the infamous drawing was inspired after playing a Pictionary-type game with his teammates on their phones.
- Received his second invitation to Major League Spring Training camp in 2025...is signed to a major league contract for the 2025 season.

- Was named the AL August Rookie of the Month... became the first Astro to win a Rookie of the Month Award since OF Yordan Alvarez in August 2019... was the first Astros pitcher to win the award since RHP Colin McHugh in September 2014...went 3-2 and posted a 1.95 ERA (7ER/32.1IP), a .168 opponent batting average (19x113) and struck out 47 batters in his five starts during the month.
- Per STATS, he became the second rookie in the Modern Era (since 1901) to record at least 47 strikeouts while allowing 19-or-fewer hits in a calendar month joining CHC RHP Kerry Wood, who did so in May 1998 (60 strikeouts, 19 hits).
- Made his MLB debut on April 10 at KC...struck out the first two batters he faced, including IF Bobby Witt Jr., who was his first career strikeout...allowed seven runs on seven hits with three walks and three strikeouts through 3.0 innings in his debut.
- Earned his first Major League win on May 13 vs. OAK...tossed 5.0 innings while allowing two runs on five hits and two walks with five strikeouts in a 9-2 victory.
- Recorded his first quality start and first scoreless outing on May 30 at SEA...hurled 6.0 shutout innings and allowed just two hits and three walks with 8 strikeouts.
- Logged his 100th career strikeout in just his 19th career outing on July 28 vs. LAD...became the fifth pitcher in Astros history to record 100 strikeouts through their first 19 career appearances, with RHP Hunter Brown the last to do so (101 strikeouts through his first 19 appearances).
- Notched 12 strikeouts on Aug. 5 vs. TB and followed that with 13 strikeouts on Aug. 10 at BOS, becoming the first rookie in AL history to log 12-plus strikeouts in consecutive starts (source: STATS)...was one of six Astros ever to tally 12-plus strikeouts in back-to-back starts, joining RHP Cristian Javier.
- His 13 strikeouts on Aug. 10 at BOS marked the second-highest single-game strikeout total by an Astros rookie, behind only a 15-strikeout effort by RHP J.R. Richard in his MLB debut on Sept. 5, 1971.
- Carried a no-hit bid into the eighth inning on Aug. 28 at PHI...ended his outing with 7.2 scoreless innings and 10 strikeouts...was the longest outing of his career and was the second-longest no-hit bid by a rookie in Astros history, trailing only RHP Don Wilson's completed no-hitter on June 19, 1967 vs. ATL.
- Got the Opening Day nod for Triple A Sugar Land and recorded a 2.16 ERA (2ER/8.1IP) with 10 strikeouts and a .233 opponent batting average (7x30) through 2 starts before being promoted to the big league club on April 10...made two MLB starts before being optioned back to Triple A on April 16...was recalled on April 21 and spent the rest of the year with the big league club.
- Was ranked as the Astros' top pitching prospect and No. 3 overall prospect by both Baseball America and MLB Pipeline entering the 2024 season.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Was named the Astros 2023 Minor League Pitcher of the Year and a MiLB.com Organizational All-Star after combining to go 9-7 with a 4.40 ERA (61ER/124.2IP) in 28 games (21 starts)...posted 141 strikeouts in his 124.2 innings on the season... began his season at Double A, where he made his first 13 appearances (eight starts)...had a slow start to the season, posting an 11.05 ERA (18ER/14.2IP) in his first four appearances...recovered to dominate in May, going 4-0 with a 0.67 ERA (2ER/27IP) in five games (three starts)...named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Month for May...racked up 79 strikeouts in his 60.2 innings before a promotion to Triple A in late June...finished his season at Triple A, making 15 appearances...he was especially great at home for the Space Cowboys, pitching to a 1.93 ERA in nine appearances (eight starts), giving up just nine total runs in 42.0 frames of work...overall
- on the season, Arrighetti finished second in the Astros system in wins, third in strikeouts, innings pitched, batting average against (.217) and games started (21), fourth in WHIP (1.25) and sixth in ERA.
- Split his 2022 season between Corpus Christi (5g/4gs) and Class A Asheville (22g/13gs)... combined to go 7-6 with a 4.73 ERA (56ER/106.2IP) on the season...led all Astros minor leaguers with 152 strikeouts in just 106.2 innings of work.
- Began his professional career in 2021 with the FCL Astros, making two appearances...promoted to Class A Fayetteville for his final four appearances of the season.

- Was a member of the Ray Opening Day roster and went a 6-3 record with a 4.31 ERA (54/104.1IP).
- Went 5-0 with one save and a 2.79 ERA (61.1 IP, 19 ER) through 19 games before he was optioned to Triple-A Durham on June 28.
- Logged 104.1 IP including 92 innings out of the bullpen, which were second-most among major league relievers behind TOR Sam Gaviglio (95.2).
- Went 5-0 with a 2.78 ERA (20ER/64.2IP) in his first 20 games from March 28–July 16...that stretch gave him a 10-game winning streak spanning two seasons with the Rays, the longest streak of winning decisions in club history.
- Made his first career OPENING DAY roster and struck out five batters (3.0 IP) in a 5-1 Opening Day loss to the Astros on March 28...his five strikeouts were the most by a Rays reliever on Opening Day, a record he would tie again in 2020.
- Tossed career-best 6.2 innings in game one of a double header on May 1 at Kansas City (6.2,1,0,0,2,6).
- In three starts with Triple A Durham, went 0-1 with a 4.22 ERA (10.2 IP, 5 ER).

2018 SEASON:

- In his debut season, he made two appearances (one start) with the Red Sox and 12 appearances for the Rays.
- Was acquired by the Rays from the Red Sox on July 25 in exchange for RHP Nathan Eovaldi.
- Made his Major League debut with the Red Sox with a start on June 7 vs. DET (4.0 IP, 7 H, 6 R/ER, 3 BB, 4 SO)...picked up his first career strikeout vs. OF JaCoby Jones.
- Served as a long reliever for the Rays, primarily following an opener...went at least two innings in all 12 appearances, including nine apps of at least three innings.
- Went 5-0 after being acquired by the Rays, matching Juan Cruz (2011) for most wins by a Rays pitcher in a season without recording a loss.
- From Aug 2-14, became the third pitcher in Rays history to go at least five innings and allow two hits (or fewer) in three consecutive games, joining Jake Odorizzi (2016) and Matt Moore (2012-13).

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Was the Red Sox Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2017, going 11-8 with a 3.29 ERA (53ER/145IP) in 26 starts between Triple A Pawtucket and Double A Portland...was second among Red Sox minor leaguers with 155 strikeouts...named Red Sox Minor League Pitcher of the Month for both April and July...ranked by Baseball America as the No. 11 prospect in the Red Sox system following the season
- Split the 2016 season between High-A Salem and Double-A Portland, combining to go 9-8 with a 3.87 ERA (57ER/132.2IP) through 26 starts.
- Led Red Sox Minor Leaguers with a 145.2 innings pitched in 2015, the fourth-most in the South Atlantic League...ranked fifth among Red Sox Minor Leaguers in strikeouts (100) and was 10th in ERA (4.32).
- Made two appearances for the GCL Red Sox in his first professional season in 2015...did not allow a run and struck out eight through five frames.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Physically imposing righty became a pillar in the Astros rotation in 2024 and has pitched at the MLB level with Houston in each of the last three seasons, posting a 3.31 ERA (83ER/225.2IP) through 54 appearances (36 starts).
- Had a breakout 2024 campaign, his first full season in the rotation, in which he ranked first in the AL in opponent batting average (.190), first in hits-allowed-per-nine-innings (6.13) and second in ERA (2.80), while also throwing a no-hitter.
- Tossed the 17th no-hitter in Astros history in his season debut on April 1, 2024 vs. TOR, in what was just his eighth career start...was the earliest no-hitter thrown by date in MLB history and was the 13th solo no-hitter thrown in Astros history...was subsequently named the AL Player of the Week for his no-hit effort.
- Worked mainly as a reliever through his first two MLB seasons (2022-23), posting a 4.78 ERA (31ER/58.1IP) through 24 appearances (7 starts).
- Served mainly as a reliever in his minor league career, going 41-23 with a 3.54 ERA (160ER/407.1IP), 38 saves and 462 strikeouts through 202 games (34 starts)...was named a Pacific Coast League Post-Season ALL-STAR in 2021 after logging 22 saves and posting a 3.40 ERA with Triple A Sugar Land.
- For six consecutive offseasons, from 2018-23, pitched for the Estrellas in the Dominican Winter League, making a total of 52 relief appearances and recording a combined 0.98 ERA (6ER/55IP)...was especially dominant between the 2021-22 offseasons, combining to make 36 relief appearances (38.2IP) without allowing an earned run.

2024 SEASON:

- Made a strong bid for an All-Star selection and Cy Young Award consideration in his first full season in the rotation, going 13-6 with a 2.80 ERA (52ER/167.1IP), a .190 opponent batting average and a 1.088 WHIP through 30 games (29 starts).
- Among qualified AL starters, ranked first in opponent average, first in hits-allowed-per-nine-innings (6.13), tied for first in shutouts (1), second in ERA, sixth in WHIP and eighth in opponent OPS (.627)...the Astros went 20-9 in his starts on the season.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Grew up in Santiago, DR, which is the second-largest city in the Dominican Republic...played amateur baseball as a light-hitting corner infielder and outfielder with a strong arm...did not hit enough to get a look by scouts so switched to pitching at the age of 18...worked on his pitching in the morning, and in the afternoon he worked at a car wash, to help support himself and his mother, Maria.
- Continued pitching in showcases and on the tryout circuit in the Dominican, where he was eventually seen at a workout by Astros scout Francis Mojica...Mojica attended the workout to get a look at the highly-touted prospect and eventual 2022 AL Rookie of the Year Julio Rodríguez, who shared the same trainer as Blanco...after seeing him throw, Mojica invited Blanco to the Astros academy and subsequently signed him at the age of 22 on April 27, 2016...Mojica, Oz Ocampo and Roman Ocumarez are all credited with his signing...Blanco joined a growing list of Astros pitchers who were signed at advanced ages out of Latin American countries...the Astros have also signed Framber Valdez (21 years old), Luis Garcia (20) and Cristian Javier (18) at ages that most teams would deem too old to sign.
- Was primarily a relief pitcher prior to the 2023 season, which all changed with the Astros hiring of GM Dana Brown...after observing another strong Spring Training performance in 2023, Brown identified Blanco as potential starter...he broke camp with the MLB team as a reliever, but was quickly optioned to Triple A to get extended...returned to make seven starts with the Astros in 2023.
- Was informed by Joe Espada that he made the Astros Opening Day roster in 2024 as he was being taken out of the team's preseason exhibition vs. the Triple A Sugar Land Space Cowboys on March 24, following a 10-strikeout performance...earlier that day his wife, Yanissa, gave birth to their second child, a daughter.
- Among the many in attendance for his no-hitter on April 1, 2024, was his mother, Maria...Shortly following the final out, Maria made her way onto the field at Daikin Park and shared a hug with Ronel...Ronel dedicated his no-hitter to his mother and the rest of his family.
- Has picked up one year and 101 days of MLB service over the last three seasons, using two of his three option years...is signed to a one-year contract for the 2025 season.

- Set career-bests in nearly every category, most notably: Games (30/29 starts), IP (167.1), Wins (13), Strikeouts (166), ERA (2.80), ERA+ (141) and WHIP (1.088).
- Made 23 starts in which he allowed five-or-fewer hits, tied for third-most in the AL (with teammate RHP Hunter Brown)...had eight starts in which he didn't allow an earned run...was one of 14 MLB pitchers to make at least eight starts without allowing an earned run in 2024.
- Owned an MLB-best 2.36 road ERA (min. 75 IP).
- His 7-2 road record (.778 win pct.) was the second-best winning percentage on the road in the Majors behind CHC Shota Imanaga (8-1, .889).
- Did not allow more than five hits through his first 14 starts of the season...excluding openers, marked the longest such streak in AL history (per STATS)...the streak ended on June 28 at NYM in his 15th start of the season (6 hits).
- Was on his third consecutive (and career) OPENING DAY roster with Houston.
- Tossed the 17th no-hitter in Astros history in his season debut on April 1 vs. TOR, facing just two batters over the minimum...was the earliest no-hitter (by date) thrown in MLB history...was just the eighth start of his career, marking the 18th solo no-hitter thrown by a pitcher within the first eight starts of their career...was the 13th solo no-hitter in Astros history.
- Went on to win the AL Player of the Week Award following his no-hit effort.
- Followed his no-hitter with 6.0 scoreless innings on April 7 at TEX...recorded 44 outs to begin the season before surrendering his first hit, which is the most by any pitcher to begin a season since 1893 (when the mound moved to its current distance from home plate).
- Had a scoreless streak of 15 innings to open the season, which was tied for the fourth-longest scoreless streak to open a season by a starter in Astros history with RHP Cristian Javier, who also did so in 2024.
- Tossed his fourth consecutive quality start to open the season on April 20 at WSH, becoming the first Astros starter to do so since RHP Gerrit Cole in 2019.
- Did not pick up his first losing decision until his 10th start of the season on May 31 vs. MIN...was the latest into a season that an Astros starter had recorded their first loss since RHP Charlie Morton in 2018 (first loss in 12th start).
- Pitched 7.0 no-hit innings before being removed from his start at 94 pitches on June 16 vs. DET...had retired the first 14 batters he faced before issuing a walk...became the second pitcher in Astros history to log two starts of 7.0+ no-hit innings in a single season, along with LHP Framer Valdez (2023 and 2024).
- Matched his single-game career high with nine strikeouts on July 27 vs. LAD...went on to match that total once again on Sept. 21 vs. LAA.
- Made his lone relief appearance of the year on Sept. 7 vs. ARI, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings with five strikeouts...were the most strikeouts in a single relief appearance in his MLB career.
- Made his first career POSTSEASON appearance in Game 1 of the ALWC vs. DET...hurled 2.0 innings of scoreless relief, allowing just one hit with three walks and four strikeouts.
- Was handed a 10-game suspension by MLB on May 15 following his ejection from the Astros' game on May 14 vs. OAK due to a foreign substance being found on his glove.

2023 SEASON:

- Finished the season going 2-1 with a 4.50 ERA (26ER/52IP) in 17 games, including seven starts, with the Astros...also recorded 52 strikeouts and a .251 opponent batting average.
- Made the OPENING DAY roster as a reliever (for the second straight season) and made nine apps. before an option to Triple A on May 6...at Triple A, he worked to get extended, before being recalled on June 1...Blanco's transition to a starter can be credited to Astros GM Dana Brown, who identified him in Spring Training as a potential starter.
- Bounced between Triple A and the Majors on five occasions in 2023...was with the Major League club from Opening Day thru May 6, June 1-July 2, July 6-8, Aug. 2 and Aug. 25-27.
- Made his first career Major League start on June 1 vs. LAA (2ER/5.1IP)...recorded his first career quality start on June 7 at TOR...allowed two runs on three hits and five strikeouts in 6.0 innings.
- Had his best start of the season on July 6 vs. SEA (3ER/6IP).
- In the POSTSEASON, appeared on the Astros ALCS roster but did not make an appearance.
- At Triple A, went 7-4 with a 3.68 ERA, 81 K's and a .188 opponent average in 15 games (13 starts).

2022 SEASON:

- Began his season as an NRI at MLB Spring Training and impressed, making five scoreless appearances, while allowing just one hit with seven strikeouts.
- After Spring Training, made the Astros OPENING DAY roster...pitched in seven relief appearances with Houston, tossing 6.1 innings, while striking out seven...made his Major League debut on April 8 at LAA (1ER/1.2IP), closing out the Astros 13-6 win.

- Spent a month in Houston before being optioned to Triple A on May 1...finished his season at Sugar Land, where he made 44 apps., posting a 3.63 ERA (18ER/44.2IP) with 58 strikeouts in 44.2 innings.
- Like his 2021 offseason, returned to the Estrellas for Winter Ball in 2022, and did not allow an earned run in his Winter Ball season...went 4-0 with six saves and a 0.00 ERA (0ER/20.2IP) for the Estrellas.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Was an NRI at Spring Training for the first time in his career in 2021, making two scoreless appearances for the Astros (2.1IP)...reassigned to minor league camp on March 17...spent his entire regular season at Triple A, appearing in 42 games, while posting a 5-3 record, 22 saves and a 3.40 ERA (17ER/45IP)...struck out 57 in his 45.0 innings...named a Triple A PCL Postseason All-Star...following the regular season, had a stellar stint with the Estrellas in the Dominican Winter League...made 17 scoreless appearances for the Estrellas, pitching 18.0 innings...tacked on another two scoreless appearances in the Dominican League postseason.
- Trained at the Astros Alternate Training Site in 2020 during the pandemic-shortened season.
- Appeared at three levels in the Astros system in 2019, going 5-2 with a 4.96 ERA (27ER/49IP) and 57 strikeouts in 32 games.
- Had a 5-1 record and a 1.73 ERA in 19 games at Class A Advanced Buies Creek in 2018, before going 2-0 with a 7.08 ERA in his first stint at Double A.
- Spent the majority of 2017 at Class A Quad Cities, where he went 6-4 with a 3.30 ERA (31ER/84.2IP).
- Made his professional debut in the Dominican Summer League in 2016, going 7-1 with a 2.13 ERA (12ER/50.2IP).

- Turned in a strong sophomore campaign in 2024, going 11-9 with a 3.49 ERA (66ER/170IP) and 179 strikeouts through 31 games (30 starts)...went 10-4 with a 2.31 ERA (31ER/120.2IP) over his final 20 starts of the season, which ranked as the lowest ERA in the AL in that span (min. 100 IP)...finished the season fifth in the AL in ground ball percentage (48.7) and tied for eighth in quality starts (19).
- Spent the entirety of his 2023 season at the MLB level, working as a starter in 29 of his 31 appearances...ended up leading AL rookie pitchers in innings and strikeouts, while ranking tied for first in wins and second in strikeouts per 9.0 (10.29) (min 100 IP)...his 178 strikeouts were the second-most strikeouts in a single season by an Astros rookie, trailing only RHP Tom Griffin (200 in 1969).
- Made his Major League debut in 2022, making seven appearances with a 0.89 ERA (2ER/20.1IP)...made his debut on Sept. 5, 2022 vs. TEX (0ER/6IP), earning the victory...also pitched three times in the postseason, working 3.2 scoreless...had his postseason moment in Game 3 of the ALDS at SEA, in the Astros 18-inning, series-clinching win, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings (12th-13th innings).
- Also had a phenomenal 2022 season at Triple A Sugar Land, earning the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Year honors...pitched in 23 games (14 starts) with Triple A Sugar Land, posting a 2.55 ERA...at the time of his selection to the MLB roster in September, led the Pacific Coast League in ERA (2.55), strikeouts (134) and opponent average (.186), while ranking second in wins (9) and in WHIP (1.08).
- Began the 2022 season as the Astros top pitching prospect per MLB.com and Baseball America.
- In his stellar minor league career, he went 17-11 with a 3.40 ERA (87ER/230IP) and 298 strikeouts in 59 career minor league games, including 39 starts.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Born and raised in Detroit, Brown went to grade school, high school and college in his hometown...he grew up a Tigers fan and a fan of Tigers ace Justin Verlander, who he modeled his pitching delivery after...Brown actually met Verlander as a fifth-grader at St. Isaac Jogues Catholic School in Saint Clair Shores, MI, a suburb of Detroit...Verlander and fellow Tiger Carlos Guillén visited the school as part of a radio promotion, won by one of Brown's classmates...the two became teammates in 2022, sharing a clubhouse together in Spring Training, the regular season and the postseason.
- Graduated in 2016 from Lakeview HS, which is also in Saint Clair Shores, MI...hit .438 while posting a 1.54 ERA as a senior...was his team's offensive MVP as a junior...also lettered in wrestling as a freshman...went undrafted out of high school.
- After high school, attended Division II Wayne State University, which is also in Detroit...had a breakout junior year in which he went 9-0 with a 2.21 ERA, three shutouts, and 114 strikeouts in 85.1 innings...was a D2CCA All-American First Team selection, the ABCA/Rawlings Midwest Region Pitcher of the Year and an ABCA/Rawlings Second Team All-American.
- After his junior year, was selected by the Astros in the fifth round of the June 2019 draft...signed by Astros scout Scott Oberhelman.
- After being drafted, shot up the Astros prospect lists, ranking as the top prospect in the Astros system entering the 2023 season.
- A pair of teammates aided Brown's resurgence in 2024 after he posted a 16.43 ERA through his first three starts...veteran reliever Ryan Pressly had a confidence-building discussion with Brown on the team's flight home from Kansas City on April 11 after Brown surrendered nine runs through 0.2 of an inning...additionally, third baseman Alex Bregman suggested Brown incorporate a sinker into his arsenal to keep right-handed hitters from leaning out over the plate...the assistance from his teammates was palpable, as Brown posted a 2.88 ERA over his final 27 outings following the start in Kansas City.
- Added to Astros 40-man roster in September of 2022 and was with the Major League club for the entirety of the 2023-24 seasons...he is set to become arbitration-eligible for the first time following the 2025 season.

2024 SEASON:

- After pitching to mixed results in the first month of the season, he settled in as one of the most consistent starters in the Astros rotation and the AL, finishing the year 11-9 with a 3.49 ERA (66ER/170IP), 179 strikeouts, a 113 ERA+ and 19 quality starts through 31 games (30 starts).
- Over his final 20 starts of the season, he went 10-4 with a 2.31 ERA (31ER/120.2IP), .221 opponent batting average, 1.12 WHIP and 126 strikeouts... among AL pitchers over that span (min. 100 IP), he ranked first in ERA, fourth in opponent OPS (.583), and tied for fourth in wins,
- On the season, ranked fifth in the AL in ground ball percentage (48.7) and tied for eighth in quality starts (19)...also led the Astros rotation in starts, strikeouts, strikeouts-per-nine-innings (9.48) and quality starts.
- Held opponents to an average exit velocity of 86.2 mph, ranking in the 96th percentile among MLB pitchers (Baseball Savant)...also allowed hard-hit contact (contact with an exit velocity of 95-mph-or-higher) at just a 30.3-percent clip, placing him in the 97th percentile.
- Made 23 starts in which he allowed five-or-fewer hits, tied for third-most in the AL (with teammate RHP Ronel Blanco).
- Recorded 103 strikeouts against left-handed hitters, tied for the most by an AL pitcher (also, SEA RHP Logan Gilbert).
- Was a member of his second career OPENING DAY roster (2023-24) with Houston.
- Logged a career-high eight consecutive quality starts from May 22-July 1, which was tied for the fourth-longest quality-start streak in the Majors.
- In five starts from June 8-July 1, he posted a 0.29 ERA (1ER/31IP), while also going 5-0...became the fourth pitcher in Astros history and marked the sixth instance in club history in which a pitcher logged a sub-3.00 ERA through a five-start stretch, joining RHP J.R. Richard (1979-80), RHP Nolan Ryan (1981, 1984) and LHP Jim Deshaies (1986).
- Made a strong bid for the AL Pitcher of the Month in June, posting a 1.16 ERA (4ER/31IP), .189 opponent batting average, .529 opponent OPS, 0.94 WHIP and 10.45 SO/9IP through his five starts during the month...among AL pitchers in June, ranked tied for first in wins, third in opponent batting average, third in opponent OPS, third in H/9IP (6.10), fifth in WHIP and eighth in SO/9IP...additionally, his 1.16 ERA was tied for the lowest ever in June by an Astros pitcher (also, RHP Darryl Kile in June of 1993).
- Recorded 12 consecutive starts of at least 6.0-plus innings from May 22-July 24...was the second-longest streak in the Majors in 2024, behind only a 17-start streak from BAL RHP Corbin Burnes...was the longest such streak by an Astros pitcher since LHP Framber Valdez tossed 6.0-plus innings in 25 consecutive starts as part of his historic quality-start streak from April 25-Sept. 18, 2022.
- From June 14-19, he logged back-to-back starts of at least 6.0 IP and six strikeouts without surrendering a walk, becoming the first Astros starter to do so since RHP Zack Greinke posted those totals in back-to-back starts from April 17-23, 2021.
- Made his lone relief appearance of the year on May 11 at DET...struck out seven batters through 5.0 innings while allowing one run on five hits without surrendering a walk...was the longest relief outing of his career...were the most strikeouts in a relief outing by an Astro since RHP Luis Garcia also fanned 7 batters on April 12, 2021 vs. DET.
- Logged his first career POSTSEASON start in Game 2 of the ALWC vs. DET and struck out nine batters through 5.2 innings while allowing just one run on two hits... became the second pitcher in Astros history to strike out nine-plus hitters in their first career postseason start, joining RHP Mike Scott, who tossed a complete-game shutout with 14 strikeouts in Game 1 of the 1986 NLCS vs. NYM.

2023 SEASON:

- The rookie right-hander primarily pitched out of the Astros rotation during the regular season, making 31 appearances (29 starts) and pitching 155.2 innings.
- Led AL rookie pitchers in innings, strikeouts, and ranked tied for first in wins, while ranking second in strikeouts per 9.0 (10.29) (min 100 IP)...including all AL pitchers, ranked seventh in strikeouts per 9.0 (min. 130 IP)...his SO/9 was tops in a single season by an Astros rookie (min. 140 IP).
- Ranked tied for second on the club in wins (11), second in strikeouts (178) and third in innings.
- His 200 career strikeouts ranked as the fifth-most by an Astros pitcher through their first 38 outings, trailing RHP Lance McCullers Jr. (252), RHP Tom Griffin (225), RHP Bud Norris (212) and RHP Roy Oswalt (205).
- His 178 strikeouts this season were the second-most strikeouts in a single season by an Astros rookie...he only trailed RHP Tom Griffin (200 in 1969)...they were also the third-most from an AL rookie since 2000.
- Ranked third among AL pitchers with a 52.2% ground ball percentage, trailing teammate LHP Framber Valdez (55%) and Red Sox RHP Brayan Bello (56.6%) (min 120 IP).
- Showed up during road trips, going 7-4 with a 3.80 ERA (35ER/83IP) and 93 strikeouts in his 16 appearances (14 starts) on the road this season.
- Started his career 5-0 through his first 12 games (seven starts), a streak which spanned from Sept. 5, 2022 to April 26, 2023...in that stretch, he posted a 2.54 ERA, which ranked second in club history by a pitcher through his first 16 career apps. (min. 70 IP).

- Made his first career OPENING DAY roster.
- Made back-to-back starts on April 9 at MIN and April 15 vs TEX in which he recorded at least 7.0 IP without allowing an ER...the last Astros pitcher to do so was LHP Scott Kazmir, who made two such starts in a row in 2015 (July 24-July 30, 2015).
- From May 14-31, he recorded eight-plus strikeouts in four straight starts...the last Astros rookie to strike out eight-plus batters in four straight starts was RHP Roy Oswalt, who did so in six straight from Aug. 14-Sept. 9 in 2001.

- Had only two appearances out of the bullpen during the regular season when he threw 2.0 scoreless innings on Aug. 15 at MIA and a scoreless 9th inning to secure the AL West title on Oct. 1 at ARI...had not allowed a run in his 12 of his 14 career appearances out of the bullpen, including seven postseason outings.
- Worked twice in the ALDS and the ALCS in the 2023 POSTSEASON, posting a 2.57 ERA (2ER/7IP) with six strikeouts in those appearances.

2022 SEASON:

- Astros No. 1 prospect was called up from Triple A on Sept. 1...went 2-0 with a 0.89 ERA (2ER/20.1IP) through seven big league outings (two starts).
- Made two starts before being moved to the bullpen when RHP Justin Verlander returned from injury on Sept. 16...in the bullpen, pitched in five games, posting a 0.00 ERA (0ER/8IP) with 11 strikeouts.
- Was lights out at Daikin Park, posting a 0.00 ERA while striking out 12 in 10.1 innings at home...allowed just a .143 batting average off him at home.
- In five games as a reliever, did not allow a single run, which included 3.0- and 2.1-inning outings on Sept. 19 at TB and Oct. 4 vs. PHI, respectively.
- Allowed a .100 opponent batting average with RISP, and got out of all four bases-loaded jams he faced.
- Had an incredible start to his MLB career, winning both of his first two career starts on Sept. 5 vs. TEX (0ER/6IP) and Sept. 13 at DET (2ER/6IP)...on Sept 5 vs. TEX, became the third Astros starter in club history to toss 6.0 scoreless frames in their debut.
- Brown and the D-backs RHP Ryne Nelson both made their MLB debut on Sept. 6, with Brown tossing 6.0 scoreless and Nelson working 7.0 scoreless...Per Elias, this marked the third time in MLB history that two players making their MLB debuts threw 6.0-plus innings without allowing a run on the same day (also, Eric Milton (MIN) and Masato Yoshii (NYM) on April 5, 1998 and Ricky Bones (SD) and Armando Reynoso (ATL) on Aug. 11, 1991.

- Following the season, named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Year...pitched in 23 games (14 starts) with Triple A Sugar Land, posting a 2.55 ERA.
- At the time of his selection to the MLB roster on Sept. 1, he led the Pacific Coast League in ERA (2.55), strikeouts (134) and opponent average (.186), while ranking second in wins (9) and in WHIP (1.08)...earned a couple awards, being named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Month for May...also named the Pacific Coast League Pitcher of the Week for the week of May 23-29.
- As a reliever at Triple A, was dominant with a 1.34 ERA in 40.1 innings...had 54 strikeouts in 40.1 innings of relief, while holding batters to a .152 average.
- Was on all three of the Astros POSTSEASON rosters...ended up pitching in three playoff games, tossing 3.2 scoreless innings...allowed two hits and struck out one...pitched 2.0 innings in relief in G3 of ALDS at SEA, giving up one hit and one walk while striking out a batter...the Astros went 3-0 when in games he pitched.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Played his first full season as a professional in 2021...began the year as an NRI with the Astros, making two relief appearances (2ER/2IP) before being reassigned to minor league camp on March 16...started the regular season at Double A Corpus Christi before being promoted to Triple A Sugar Land on July 31...combined to go 6-5 with a 4.04 ERA (45ER/100.1IP) with 131 strikeouts between the two levels.

- Did not appear in a game in 2020 due to the cancellation of the minor league season.
- Spent the entire 2019 season at Class A Short Season Tri-City after getting selected in the fifth round of the 2019 MLB Draft...went 2-2 with a 4.56 ERA (12ER/23.2IP), 18 walks and 33 strikeouts in 12 games (6 starts).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Veteran catcher is set to enter his second season with the Astros and his ninth at the Major League level (2017-24), also playing for the Cubs (2017-20), Padres (2021) and Brewers (2022-23)...has appeared in 606 career games, hitting .241 (393x1631) with 61 doubles, 46 homers and 201 RBI.
- Has played primarily catcher in his Major League career, making 376 career starts behind the dish... also has 33 career starts at first base, while also appearing in games at third base (7g), left field (1g) and right field (1g)...has also made five career pitching appearances, last making a 1.0-inning relief appearance for the Brewers in 2022.
- In 2024, his first season with the Astros, he served as the club's backup catcher, as well as a fill-in at first base and one of the top pinch-hitting threats in the AL...batted .269 (66x245) with eight doubles, eight homers, 30 RBI and a .744 OPS in 87 games... ranked third in the AL in pinch hits (8) and tied for fourth in pinch-hit RBI (5).
- Has caught two no-hitters in his career...the first was thrown by RHP Alec Mills on Sept. 13, 2020 at MIL, while a member of the Cubs...the second no-hitter was tossed by former Astros starter Joe Musgrove, who completed the first no-hitter in Padres franchise history on April 9, 2021 at TEX.
- Homered from both sides of the plate as a member of the Cubs on July 3, 2019 at PIT off Chris Archer (left-handed) and Francisco Liriano (right-handed)...marked his second career multi-homer game...his first career two-homer game might be more notable, which came on Aug. 29, 2019 at NYM...both homers came off RHP Jacob deGrom.
- Collected the first three hits of his career on July 9, 2017 vs. PIT, going 3x3 with two doubles and one RBI off the bench...his first Major League hit was a double off A.J. Schugel.
- Was named the 2017 Cubs Minor League Player of the Year after batting .342 with 10 HR and 61 RBI in 83 games at Triple A Iowa...was a Pacific Coast League midseason and postseason All-Star...was also selected to the U.S. Team for the All-Star Futures Game, but did not play due to promotion to Chicago.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Last name is pronounced as "care-ah-TEE-knee".
- Caratini was born in Ponce, Puerto Rico, the same city that also produced SS Carlos Correa...the two are the same age and both played as amateurs at the Puerto Rican Baseball Academy in 2012.
- Originally signed out of high school with Southern University, but attended Miami Dade JC in 2013... drafted by Atlanta in the second round of the 2013 draft...signed by Braves scout Buddy Hernandez.
- Spent one season (2013) in the Braves system before being traded to Chicago (NL) at the trading deadline in 2014...has been a part of three trades in his career, going from Atlanta to Chicago (2014), Chicago to San Diego (2020), and San Diego to Milwaukee (2022).
- Played third base in high school and played catcher sparingly in college, but was drafted as an infielder by the Braves...began catching in 2014 and has worked himself into a highly-regarded defensive catcher...models his game after another Puerto Rican catching legend, Yadier Molina.
- Caratini is among a long list of Puerto Rican catchers in Major League Baseball history...was one of four Puerto Rican catchers in the Majors in 2024, with two of those players being former Astros: Martín Maldonado and Christian Vázquez.
- Developed a strong relationship with Yu Darvish during their time together with the Cubs and Padres, serving as his personal catcher...last season, Caratini cultivated a relationship with another Japanese pitcher in Yusei Kikuchi, who the Astros acquired from Toronto ahead of the Trade Deadline... Caratini caught all 10 of Kikuchi's starts to close out the season, with the Astros going 9-1 in those starts.
- Reached free agency following the 2023 season and signed a two-year contract with the Astros that will keep him in Houston through the 2025 season.

- Was a three-time minor league ALL-STAR...was a 2017 Triple A PCL All-Star (AAA), a 2016 Southern League All-Star (AA) and a 2014 South Atlantic League All-Star (A)...was also named the MVP of the 2015 Carolina League Championship Series.

2024 SEASON:

- The switch-hitting backstop spent his first season with the Astros, batting .269 (66x245) with eight doubles, one triple, 30 RBI, 23 walks and a .744 OPS in 87 games...was his highest single-season OPS since posting a .744 OPS in 2019 with CHC.
- Appeared mainly at catcher (58g), while also appearing at first base (11g) and DH (3g)...his 11 starts at first base were just most since also making 11 starts at the position in 2019 with CHC.
- Went 8x19 (.421) with one home run and five RBI in the pinch in 2024...ranked third in the AL in pinch hits and tied for fourth in RBI...his eight pinch hits were the most by an Astro since OF Brian Bogusevic also had eight in 2012.
- Led the Astros with two walk-off hits, with both coming as a pinch-hitter...the first was a walk-off home run on April 30 vs. CLE and a walk-off RBI single on May 14 vs. OAK...the walk-off homer was the third walk-off blast of his career and was the 10th pinch-hit, walk-off home run in Astros history.
- Became the ninth player in Astros history to record at least two walk-off hits as a pinch-hitter while with the club, and is the first to do so twice in the same season since IF Rafael Ramírez (1991).
- Made his seventh career OPENING DAY roster (2018-24) and his first with the Astros.
- Caught all 10 starts made by LHP Yusei Kikuchi following his acquisition from TOR, with the Astros going 9-1 in those starts.
- Recorded a career-high seven-game hitting streak from from June 13-July 28.
- Went 1x2 with a triple on June 15 vs. DET...was the first triple of his eight-year MLB career.
- Recorded a three-run homer batting right-handed on Sept. 22 vs. LAA, his first homer as a right-handed batter since June 19, 2022 at CIN...has batted .333 (19x57) with an .812 OPS when batting right-handed in 2024.
- Had one IL stint from June 21-July 2, due to a left hip flexor strain...missed 25 games on the IL.
- Made his fourth career appearance on a POSTSEASON roster (2018, 2020 and 2023-24)...went 1x6 (.167) with a run scored and was hit by two pitches in the Astros' ALWC vs. DET...started both games of the series at 1B.

2023 SEASON:

- Appeared in 62 games for the Brewers, making 55 starts (54g at C, 1g at 1B)...played his entire season as the Brewers backup catcher to William Contreras.
- Committed just one error this season and did not allow a passed ball for a .998 fielding percentage.
- Among MLB catchers with at least 50 starts at the position, ranked third in fielding percentage, trailing only Salvador Perez (.999) and J.T. Realmuto (.998).
- Had a strong season hitting left-handed, compiling a .262 (39x149) average with a .745 OPS.
- Hit all seven of his homers on the season vs. RHP.
- Reached a career-high in hits by going 4x4 with four singles and a run scored on April 15 at SD.
- Started his one game at first base on July 21 vs. ATL.
- Was on the Brewers AL Wild Card Series roster but did not appear in a POSTSEASON game.

- Originally signed by Toronto as a non-drafted free agent from the Dominican Republic on Jan. 5, 2012...grew up idolizing fellow Dominican Pedro Martinez, who he met for the first time in 2019 as he was beginning to establish himself as a regular in the Majors with the Orioles...on meeting Martinez, Castro said, "to see someone that has achieved so many great things in his life and still remain humble and willing to share a few minutes to talk to a young player like myself was a special moment."
- Miguel has been well-traveled during his time in the big leagues, having been traded five times while appearing with six different teams in his MLB career.
- In 2022, he donated a fully-functional fire truck, including equipment, to his hometown of Villa Hermosa in the Dominican Republic...he was able to purchase the fire engine thanks to a contact he developed with the fire chief of New York during his time with the Yankees and Mets...Villa Hermosa had been without a working fire truck prior to Castro's donation...the fire truck was officially donated by his family, who passed off the keys to the Villa Hermosa fire chief in a ceremony attended by community officials, clergy and media.
- His father, Miguel Sr., trained as a boxer in his youth but was unable to pursue a pro career due to a lack of resources, including a mentor who could train him...Miguel Sr. went on to work in the meat industry, still passing along the strength and work ethic he learned in both trades to his son.
- Had appeared in parts of eight seasons in the Majors before he was able to have his parents, Miguel Sr. and Yesenia, see him pitch in person...his parents were finally able to see him pitch in the Majors on June 12, 2023, with Miguel Sr. throwing out the ceremonial first pitch at Chase Field...Miguel Jr. recorded the save that night in the D-backs win over the Phillies.
- Is the owner of an extensive shoe collection, featuring an estimated 250 pairs of Air Jordan sneakers, ranging from Jordan 1s to 13s...Miguel cited the fashion and color combinations that make Jordans his sneakers of choice.
- Signed a minor league contract with the Astros on Dec. 29, 2024...is under a one-year contract for 2025.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Venezuelan right-handed reliever made his MLB debut with Houston in 2024 following an unorthodox path in which he didn't appear in the affiliated minor leagues until he was 23 years old...through 140 career affiliated minor league appearances (seven starts), he owns a 3.44 ERA and has averaged 12.9 strikeouts-per-nine innings.
- Made his MLB debut with a scoreless inning of relief on June 23, 2024 vs. BAL...made nine big league appearances across two stints with the Astros, posting a 9.00 ERA (6ER/6IP)...spent the bulk of his season with Triple A Sugar Land, where he went 4-1 with a 1.74 ERA (9ER/46.2IP) and 50 strikeouts through 47 games.
- Pitched in parts of four minor league seasons in the Brewers system (2019, 2021-23) before joining the Astros prior to the 2024 campaign...made his professional debut with the East Side Diamond Hoppers of the independent United Shore League in 2019 before signing a minor league contract with the Brewers that same year.
- Has posted huge strikeout numbers throughout his affiliated minor league career, compiling 305 strikeouts in his 220.0 innings pitched...also owns a career .204 opponent batting average.

2024 SEASON:

- In his first season with the Astros organization, made his MLB debut and appeared in five games across two big league stints, while also posting dominant numbers with Triple A Sugar Land, where he spent the bulk of his year.
- Made his MLB debut on June 23 vs. BAL, tossing a scoreless inning of relief...posted a 9.00 ERA (6ER/6IP) with six strikeouts through his five MLB appearances in his debut season..
- Picked up his first MLB strikeouts vs. former Astro and six-time All-Star J.D. Martinez on June 28 at NYM.
- Tossed 2.0 scoreless innings with three strikeouts on July 2 at TOR, setting his single-game career-highs in innings and strikeouts.
- Had his contract selected from Triple A on June 16 and was optioned on June 20...was recalled on June 22 and optioned back to Triple A on July 6.

BROADCAST NOTES

- A native of Maracaibo, Venezuela, Contreras was originally signed as an international free agent by the Cubs at the age of 18 on April 4, 2015...did not appear in a single game with the Cubs before being released in May of 2016.
- Contreras relocated from his native Venezuela to the United States in 2017 after his father, Pablo, received a visa that covered himself, along with his family, through the United States' diversity visa program...the program issues visas through a lottery system and, according to the U.S. Department of State, there were more than 12.4 million qualified applications for the program in 2017, with just 50,000 visas distributed...Luis moved to Miami to work as a pitching instructor upon his move to the U.S.
- Resurfaced on the pro circuit again in 2018 in the independent Empire Baseball League, which is a five-team summer league in Upstate New York...pitched for the league champions, the Puerto Rican Islanders, in 2018, posting a 3-1 record and a 1.74 ERA (11ER/57IP) in 11 games (seven starts)...moved on to the Eastside Diamond Hoppers in the United Shore Professional Baseball League (USPBL) in 2019...impressed with 39 strikeouts in 23.0 innings across five games (four starts) in 2019.
- The United Shore Professional Baseball League is an independent league based out of Utica, Michigan...the league has been in existence since 2016, has graduated 52 players to minor league baseball...including Contreras, six players from the league have gone on to reach the Majors: RHP Randy Wynne (CIN), OF Joey Wiener (MIL), LHP Jared Koenig (OAK), RHP Logan Gillaspie (BAL) and RHP Randy Dobnak (MIN).
- Spent parts of five seasons (2019-23) in the Brewers minor league system before reaching free agency following the 2023 season.
- Made his MLB debut on June 23, 2024 vs. BAL and was joined by fellow reliever LHP Bryan King, who also made his big league debut in the game...the duo became the first Astros pitchers to make their MLB debuts in the same game since RHP Nivaldo Rodriguez and RHP Andre Scrubb did so on July 28, 2020 vs. LAD.
- Signed by Houston as a minor league free agent with an invite to MLB Spring Training on Nov. 26, 2023...received his second career invite to Major League Spring Training in 2025.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Exceptional defensive outfielder has played parts of six minor league seasons in the Mets (2019) and Astros (2020-24) organizations, reaching the Triple A level for the first time in 2024...through 442 career minor league games, he's batted .256 (417x1631) with 51 homers and 125 steals.
- Has played all three outfield positions in his minor league career, playing 186 games in center field, 140 in right field and 83 in left field.
- Has stolen 25-plus bases in each of the last three seasons and his 87 combined stolen bases over that span are tied for the second-most among Astros minor leaguers.
- Earned a 2023 Minor League Rawlings Gold Glove Award for his work in the outfield, while playing primarily center field at Double A Corpus Christi...was also a 2022 MiLB.com Organizational ALL-STAR after spending his season at the Class A level.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Reached the Triple A level for the first time in 2024 but spent the majority of his season with Double A Corpus Christi...batted a combined .214 (73x342) with three home runs, 29 RBI and 27 stolen bases...began the year with Corpus Christi (78g) and was promoted to Triple A Sugar Land on Aug. 13, where he spent the rest of the season (20g)...received his first invite to MLB Spring Training, batting .286 (4x14) through 10 games.
- Was a frequent minor league call-up at 2023 Astros Spring Training, appearing in nine games for the Astros, hitting .313 (5x16)...spent the majority of his season at Double A Corpus Christi, earning a Minor League Gold Glove Award at the outfield position...in addition to his defensive season, hit 22 homers and stole 32 bases combined at two levels...hit .278 (25x90) with a .902 OPS vs. lefties on the season...played in seven games in the Arizona Fall League, hitting .240 (6x25) with four RBI in seven games.
- Was a 2022 MiLB.com Organizational All-Star while splitting his season between Fayetteville (45g) and Asheville (62g)...played better after his promotion to Asheville, hitting .290 (71x245) with 10 homers in 62 games at the higher level...was the only player in the Astros organization to reach 19 homers and 28 stolen bases on the season.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Originally signed by the Mets as a 19-year-old international free agent out of Venezuela on April 6, 2019...signed by Mets scout Wilson Peralta.
- Played one season in the Mets system, advancing three levels...after that first professional season, was traded to Houston along with LHP Blake Taylor in exchange for OF Jake Marisnick on Dec. 5, 2019.
- Corona has spent four of the last five offseasons (2020-22, 2024) playing for the Aguilas de Zulia of the Venezuelan Winter League...following the 2022 season, Corona shared an outfield with fellow countryman and three-time Gold Glove Award winner, Ender Inciarte, who took Corona under his wing...Corona cited Inciarte's pointers and lessons, which encouraged him to be aggressive while roaming the outfield, as an influence on his defense, as he went on to win a Minor League Rawlings Gold Glove Award in 2023...Corona and Inciarte both hail from Maracaibo, the capital of the state of Zulia in Venezuela.
- His lone offseason not spent with the Aguilas was spent in the Arizona Fall League following the 2023 season, where he batted .240 (6x25) with two doubles, four RBI and two stolen bases in seven games with the Mesa Solar Sox.
- Headed into the 2025 season, Corona was ranked as the "Best Defensive Outfielder" in the Astros minor league system, per Baseball America.
- After four seasons in the Astros system, added to the club's 40-man roster on Nov. 14, 2023...the 2025 season will be his second at Major League Spring Training.

- Spent the entire 2021 season at Class A Fayetteville, appearing in 57 games...was his first full season in the Astros organization.
- Did not play in an official game in 2020 due to the COVID-19 shutdown.
- Made his professional debut in 2019, advancing three levels, from the Dominican Summer League, to the Gulf Coast League to Class A Brooklyn...combined to hit .301 (66x219) with an .868 OPS in 63 games...traded to Houston following the year.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-handed hitting catcher has become one of the top offensive threats at the position over his two full MLB seasons, including his first as Houston's primary catcher in 2024...over parts of three seasons with the Astros, he's hit .291 (276x948) with 52 doubles, 39 homers and 145 RBI in 258 games.
- Worked as the Astros' everyday catcher for the first time in 2024 and responded with a phenomenal season at the plate, batting .299 (175x585) with 29 doubles, 16 homers, 84 RBI and a .793 OPS...in the AL, he ranked fifth in batting average, tied for sixth in multi-hit games (50) and seventh in hits...was a finalist for the AL Silver Slugger Award at catcher.
- In 2024, set the club's single-season records for a player whose primary position is catcher in hits (175), runs (70) and RBI (84).
- Defensively, he's played mainly catcher (164g) during his Major League career, while also appearing at DH (78g) and first base (19g).
- In his first full Major League season in 2023, was named the Astros Rookie of the Year by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA after hitting .282 (100x355) with 23 home runs, 60 RBI, 22 doubles and an .846 OPS (.308 OBP/.538 SLG) in 110 games...his 23 homers were the second-most home runs by an Astros rookie in a single season, trailing only Yordan Alvarez, who hit 27 HR in 2019...of his 23 HR in 2023, he hit 14 as a catcher, which tied him with C Mitch Meluskey (2000) for the most homers by a rookie catcher in franchise history.
- Made his Major League debut in 2022, appearing in six games for the Astros, going 1x8 with a double and an RBI...had a great 2022 minor league season, earning the Astros Minor League Player of the Year honors...also was named a 2022 MiLB.com Organizational All-Star and played in the Futures Game, representing the Astros.
- Hit at every level in the minor leagues, combining to bat .321 (434x1353) with 52 homers and a .868 OPS in 340 minor league games...played in five full seasons as a professional from 2017-22 (excluding 2020), hitting over .294 in every year.
- In addition to being named a 2022 MiLB.com Organizational ALL-STAR, was named a 2021 Class A Carolina League All-Star and a 2018 Arizona League Postseason All-Star.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Yainer's first name is pronounced as "YIGH-ner" with the first syllable (YIGH) rhyming with the word sigh.
- Diaz was originally signed by the Cleveland organization on Dec. 7, 2016, at the age of 18...was considered an older signing, considering most amateur players from the Dominican officially sign at the age of 16.
- Had a roundabout journey to affiliated baseball after quitting the game at the age of 13...was encouraged by his father, Radhames, and his older brother, Issael, to pursue a professional playing career...Yainer credits his brother, Issael, with his return to the game...sadly, Issael did not see Yainer's Major League success, after passing away from cancer in 2022 at the age of 33, just prior to Yainer's first MLB action.
- Yainer also has two younger brothers, including Victor, who appeared in the Astros minor league system from 2023-24...Victor, who is four years younger than Yainer, was originally signed by the Phillies in 2018 as an amateur and joined the Astros organization in July of 2022...Victor played his 2024 season with the Astros Florida Complex League affiliate and Low A Fayetteville.
- Yainer played in parts of five seasons with Cleveland prior to his trade to Houston in 2021...at the 2021 trading deadline, the Astros were looking for relief help and acquired RHP Phil Maton from the Guardians in exchange for OF Myles Straw...Diaz was acquired along with Maton from Cleveland and by most media was considered just a footnote in the deal.
- After just a year in the Astros system, Diaz blossomed into a prospect and was named the club's 2022 Minor League Player of the Year...a year later, he was in the Majors for the entirety of the 2023 season and went on to earn the Astros' starting catcher role in 2024.
- Lauded for his ability to make hard contact, Diaz posted a hard-hit percentage (batted balls with an exit velocity of 95-mph-or-greater) of 47.5 in 2024, which ranked second on the Astros and in the 85th percentile among MLB players.
- Added to the Astros 40-man roster on Sept. 1, 2022 and has been with the MLB club since that date...is currently signed to a one-year contract for the 2025 season...with just over 2,000 year of service, is under club control through at least the 2028 season.

- Took over as the Astros primary catcher and was one of the game's top offensive talents at the position, batting .299 (175x585) with 70 runs scored, 29 doubles, three triples, 16 home runs, 84 RBI and a .766 OPS (.325 OBP/.441 SLG) through 148 games.
- In the AL, he ranked fifth in batting average and tied for sixth in multi-hit games (50)...defensively, he ranked fifth in the AL with 20 catcher caught stealings.
- Among AL catchers, he ranked first in hits (119), third in doubles (19), tied for third in RBI (59) and third in OPS (.771)...was a finalist for the AL Silver Slugger Award at catcher.
- Set career-highs in batting average, doubles, triples, RBI and walks (24).
- Started a career-high 99 games at catcher...also set a career-high with 11 starts at first base.
- Set the Astros' single-season records for a player whose primary position is catcher in hits, runs and RBI.
- Batted .337 (101x300) at Daikin Park, which was the second-highest home batting average in the AL, behind only KC IF Bobby Witt Jr., who batted .382 at his home ballpark.
- Logged 12 hits through the first seven games of the season, which were the most by an Astro since IF Jose Altuve in 2018 (also 12 hits)...his five multi-hit games through the first seven games of a season were tied for the most in Astros history, along with Jose Altuve (2017) and Lance Berkman (2004).
- Made his second career OPENING DAY roster (2023-24), both coming with Houston.
- Went 3x4 with an RBI on Opening Day on March 28 vs. NYY...became the first Astro since OF Michael Brantley (April 1, 2021 at OAK) to record a three-hit game on Opening Day.
- Was behind the plate for all nine innings of RHP Ronel Blanco's no-hitter on April 1 vs. TOR...also hit two home runs in the game, becoming the first catcher in MLB history to have a multi-homer game and catch a no-hitter in the same game...it also marked the third instance in MLB history in which a pitch-catcher battery of players born in the Dominican Republic completed a no-hitter.
- Homered in four straight games from June 3-7... became the first Astro since IF Yuli Gurriel (5 games from July 2-7, 2019) to homer in at least four consecutive games.
- Went 4x4 with a home run on July 30 vs. PIT... matched his single game career-high in hits, also doing so on June 5, 2023 at TOR.
- Stole the first base of his career on June 20 at CWS.
- Recorded his longest homer of the season and the second longest of his career with a 448-foot shot on Aug. 9 at BOS.
- Hit his first career walk-off home run, a solo shot in the 9th inning, on Aug. 19 vs. BOS off RHP Kenley Jansen...had moved to catcher from first base to begin the ninth inning, marking the eighth time in Astros history a catcher hit a walkoff HR (last, Evan Gattis on Aug. 26, 2016 vs. TB).
- Matched his career-high with a 10-game hitting streak from Aug. 17-26...batted .349 (15x43) with 4 HR, 5 RBI and a .992 OPS during the streak.

- Made a career-high 31 appearances, including two spots starts, in 2024, going 1-1 with a 4.17 ERA (21ER/45.1IP), two saves and 49 strikeouts across four stints with the Astros...his average of 9.73 strikeouts-per-nine-innings ranked third among Astros relievers (min. 45 IP).
- In his minor league career, he's gone 19-19 with a 4.39 ERA (154ER/315.2IP), 150 walks and 406 strikeouts in 110 games (58 starts) in the Astros minor league system (2018-24)...has posted huge strikeout numbers in his minor league career, with an average of 11.6 strikeouts-per-nine-innings, which ranks third among Astros minor leaguers since 2018 (min. 300 IP).
- Has won three Pitcher of the Week awards in his career: April 21, 2019 (Class A Midwest League), Sept. 2, 2019 (Class A Carolina League) and Sept. 11, 2022 (Triple A Pacific Coast League).

2024 SEASON:

- Received his most extensive time at the MLB level, going 1-1 with a 4.17 ERA (21ER/45.1IP) and 49 strikeouts through a career-high 31 appearances (two starts), while also logging the first two saves of his career.
- Averaged 10.30 SO/9IP (45 SO/39.1 IP) through his 29 relief appearances, which ranked 3rd among Astros relievers (min. 35 IP).
- Of his 29 relief outings, 10 were multiple innings, including eight outings of 2.0+ innings...led Astros relievers with five appearances of at least 2.1 IP.
- Posted a 2.70 ERA (6ER/20IP) in 15 appearances during the day, compared to a 5.33 ERA (15/25.1IP) in his 16 night appearances.
- Made two spot starts, coming on June 30 at NYM (3.1 IP, 0 H, 0 R, 3 BB, 2 SO) and July 5 at MIN (2.2 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 3 ER, 1 BB, 2 SO).
- Recorded the first save of his career on May 16 vs. OAK, allowing one run over 3.0 innings with two hits and two strikeouts.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Graduated from Allegany-Limestone HS in Allegany, N.Y. in 2013...prior to Dubin, the small town of Allegany had produced just one Major Leaguer, a pitcher named Charlie Reynolds, who made two starts for the Philadelphia Athletics in 1882.
- While in high school, Dubin played soccer and mostly shortstop, pitching less than 10.0 innings as a senior...went undrafted out of high school.
- Had a long college journey, playing for four different teams over five years...began at Jamestown Community College, where he was the backup shortstop for the 2013 fall season...after one semester, returned home and took a yearlong break from baseball, during which he worked as a contractor at Lowe's building decks and installing kitchens and bathrooms.
- Returned to baseball in 2015 at the request of a friend, Evan Ryan, who was playing at Erie Community College at the time...Ryan sold Dubin's skills to the coaching staff at Erie, who invited him out to a tryout...after throwing one time in front of coaches, he was offered a spot on the team...he went on to earn Second Team All-League honors while helping his team to a conference title and a NJCAA Regional runner-up finish in 2015...that season, he went 6-2 with a 3.95 ERA and 61 strikeouts in 54.2 innings.
- Transferred to the Division I level, pitching two years at the University of Buffalo (2016-17) before their baseball program dissolved...transferred to Georgetown College in 2018, setting a school record with 128 strikeouts, while going 9-1 with a 2.09 ERA in 14 starts...was named a NAIA First Team All-American, becoming the third player in Georgetown College history to earn the honor...also was named the 2018 Mid-South Conference Pitcher of the Year after leading the conference in ERA and strikeouts.
- After his stellar senior year, was selected by Houston in the 13th round of the 2018 MLB Draft...signed by Astros scout Travis Coleman.
- Began his pro career in a hybrid starter-reliever role, making 58 starts among his 100 minor league outings from 2018-23...has transitioned to a mostly-relief role, making 39 of his 41 appearances between the Majors and minors in 2024 out of the bullpen.
- Added to the club's 40-man roster on Nov. 19, 2021...is signed to a one-year contract for 2025...has used all three of his option years entering the 2025 campaign.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Last name is pronounced as "doo-BAHN".
- Mauricio was born in San Pedro Sula, Honduras, which is the capital city of the state of Cortés... San Pedro Sula is the primary industrial center and second largest city in Honduras...attended a bilingual school, where he learned English, and played soccer, the national sport of Honduras...credits his love of baseball to his older brother, Danilo, who happened to love baseball and turned him on to the game.
- His life changed on June 23, 2010, at the age of 15 after attending a baseball clinic in San Pedro Sula...there he met Andy Ritchey, who was running IMPACT, a Christian mission group from California that supplied baseball equipment to underprivileged youth...Dubón expressed his desire to play in the U.S. and three days later he moved to Sacramento to attend Capital Christian as a foreign exchange student, living with Ritchey and his family.
- Played three years of high school ball at Capital Christian HS in Sacramento before being drafted by the Red Sox in the 26th round of the 2013 MLB draft...signed by Red Sox scout Demond Smith.
- Has been traded three times since being drafted by Boston...was acquired by the Brewers in December 2016 and then traded to the Giants in July 2019...the trade to the Giants was special for Dubón, as he had become a fan of the team after moving to Sacramento...he was especially a fan of longtime Giants shortstop Brandon Crawford, who was a teammate of for his four seasons in San Francisco.
- Traded for the third time in his career in May of 2022, with the Astros acquiring him in exchange for minor leaguer C Michael Papierski.
- Is the second Honduran-born player to reach the Majors, joining Gerald Young, who also played for the Astros from 1987-92...Young was born in Honduras, but raised in California, making Dubón the first Major Leaguer to be born and raised in Honduras.
- Dubón is an avid Harry Potter fan and following the 2022 World Series, he and his wife, Nancy, traveled to London and visited several landmarks from the movie franchise such as "Platform 9 3/4" at King's Cross Station, while also recreating numerous key scenes from throughout the ever-popular movie series.
- Has been arbitration-eligible in each of the last two offseasons...is slated to reach free agency following the 2026 season.

- Batted .364 (4x11) with a double, a homer and five RBI as a pinch-hitter...ranked tied for fourth in the AL in pinch-hit RBI.
- On the year, started at LF (44g), CF (18g), RF (11g), 1B (9g), 2B (13g), 3B (9g) and SS (3g).

- Logged a 14-game hitting streak from June 4-21, batting .308 (16x52) with five doubles, one home run, five RBI and a .795 OPS during the streak.

2023 SEASON:

- The utility man began the year as a replacement at second base for an injured Jose Altuve but carved out a near-everyday role by season's end amid a breakout campaign.
- Batted .279 (130x467) with 10 home runs, 46 RBI, 76 runs scored, 26 doubles, three triples, seven stolen bases and a .720 OPS (.309 OBP/.411 SLG) in 132 games...set career-highs in nearly every offensive category.
- Made starts at the following positions: 2B (66g), CF (23g), SS (9g), LF (6g), 1B (2g)...also made appearances at RF and 3B.
- Logged three-plus hits in eight games...had recorded six career games with three-plus hits through the first four seasons of his career entering 2023.
- Made his fourth career OPENING DAY roster and first with the Astros this season.
- Went on a career-long 20-game hitting streak from April 2-26, batting .341 (29x85) with six doubles, four RBI and an .802 OPS during the streak...was one of only three hitting streaks of 20+ games in the Majors this season and trailed only a 25-game streak by Marcus Semien (May 10-June 6)...is the 15th player in Astros history to record a 20-game hitting streak and was the longest by an Astro since OF Hunter Pence recorded a 23-game hitting streak from May 19-June 13, 2022...per Elias, it was the longest hitting streak in Astros history posted prior to May 1, with OF Bob Watson holding the previous record at 19 games (April 9-27, 1973).

- Hit his first career leadoff home run on June 6 at TOR.
- Stole two bases on June 10 at CLE, marking his first career game with multiple stolen bases.
- Made his first career professional appearance and start at 1B on June 21 vs. NYM.
- Went 2x5 with two homers and two RBI on Sept. 4 at TEX...marked his first career multi-HR game...recorded back-to-back home runs twice that game with 2B Jose Altuve as the Astros became the first team in MLB history to have their No. 9 and No. 1 batters hit back-to-back homers twice in the same game.
- Recorded the first walk-off hit of his career on Sept. 20 vs. BAL with an RBI single in the 9th inning.
- Finished the season strong, batting .320 (40x125) with 22 runs, eight doubles, five homers, 19 RBI and a .883 OPS after Aug. 1 (45g)...ranked seventh in the AL in batting average during that span (min. 130 PA).
- In the POSTSEASON, batted .320 (8x25) with three runs scored and two RBI in eight games (six starts)...made his first career postseason start in Game 3 of the ALDS at MIN and went 2x5...hit safely in his first four career postseason starts, batting .471 (8x17) during that stretch.

2022 SEASON:

- Hit a combined .214 (76x294) with five home runs, 24 RBI, nine doubles and a .565 OPS (.252 OBP / .313 SLG) between his time with the Giants and Astros.
- Combined with the two clubs to make 59 total starts, which came at center field (33), shortstop (13), second base (5), left field (5) and right field (1).
- Made his third career OPENING DAY roster this season with the Giants.

- Acquired by the Astros from San Francisco in exchange for minor leaguer C Michael Papierski in a one-for-one swap on May 14.
- Made his POSTSEASON debut with Houston, appearing in six games as a defensive replacement in center field (played 9.0 innings)...became the first Honduran-born player to play in the World Series.

2021 SEASON:

- Made San Francisco's OPENING DAY roster...hit .240 with a career-best five home runs and 22 RBI in 74 games over three stints with the Giants.
- Appeared in 20 games (six starts) at 2B, 12 games (three starts) at 3B, 21 games (18 starts) at SS and 27 games (13 starts) in CF.

- Attended Archbishop Shaw HS in Marrero, Louisiana, graduating in 2013...was a four-year letterman at Archbishop Shaw and was First Team All-State, All-District and All-Metro as a junior and senior.
- Went on to attend Tulane, where he pitched three years (2014-17)...missed the '15 season due to injury.
- Was a graduate transfer at Mississippi State in 2018...worked as a multi-inning reliever and helped the Bulldogs reach the College World Series, eventually losing in the Semifinals to Oregon State.
- Selected by the Astros in the 14th round of the June 2018 Draft...signed by Astros scout Travis Coleman.
- In his first full minor league season in 2019, struggled out of the gate and contemplated quitting the game...with encouragement from his girlfriend, France kept playing and turned in a productive season...his girlfriend, now his wife, the former Jessica McCain, appeared on The Real World: Portland and four seasons of The Challenge, which is a reality TV show on MTV...J.P. credits his wife to saving his career.
- Did not pitch in 2020 due to the Coronavirus shutdown, but instead used that time to improve his craft...worked with a personal trainer and overhauled his pitching mechanics, while throwing into a pitching net either at his future in-laws backyard in Fayetteville and back home in New Orleans...his former mechanics included a high leg kick, which France abandoned for a short and deceptive delivery that he features today.
- An outdoorsman, France is a bow hunter and hunts mostly whitetail deer in the offseason in Mississippi and Kansas...grew up duck hunting in Louisiana, but lost interest in it before transitioning to bow hunting, which he learned by watching YouTube videos.
- J.P. and his wife, Jessica, welcomed their second child, a daughter, Remington, on April 3, 2024...J.P. made his scheduled start two days later on April 6 at Globe Life Field in Arlington...their first child, a son, Liam, was at J.P.'s debut on May 6, 2023 at T-Mobile Park in Seattle, sporting a pacifier that resembled his father's distinguished mustache.
- Was added to the Astros 40-man roster on Nov. 15, 2022...is under a one-year contract for the 2025 campaign and is projected to become arbitration-eligible following the 2026 season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-handed starter has pitched in parts of four seasons (2020-23) in Houston, going 28-19 with a 3.61 ERA (141ER/352IP) in 69 games (63 starts)...missed the entire 2024 season while recovering from Tommy John surgery.
- Has not made a Major League appearance since undergoing Tommy John surgery on May 19, 2023...made two rehab starts in 2024 before having his assignment shut down...is expected to rejoin the Astros pitching staff in 2025.
- Had a strong second full season in 2022, finishing the year as a 15-game winner, while making 28 starts...ranked tied for fourth in the AL in wins and ninth in opponent average (.222)...finished the year on a career-long seven game winning streak.
- Tossed the eighth immaculate inning in club history on June 15, 2022, at TEX, striking out 1B Nathaniel Lowe, 2B Ezequiel Durán and 3B Brad Miller...later was joined in that game by RHP Phil Maton, who also tossed an immaculate inning in the 7th inning against those same three hitters...according to MLB.com, marked the first time in MLB history for a game to feature two immaculate innings.
- A POSTSEASON veteran, helped the Astros to the 2022 World Series title by tossing 5.0 scoreless innings in the Astros 18-inning win in Game 3 of the ALDS at SEA...pitched the final 5.0 innings, allowing two hits and no walks...became the second Astro to work 5.0 scoreless in relief in a postseason game, joining LHP Framber Valdez (Game 1 of the 2020 AL Wild Card Series at MIN)...Garcia was also just the second pitcher in postseason history to work 5.0-plus scoreless relief innings.
- Named the Astros 2021 Rookie of the Year by the Houston BBWAA and finished second in the AL ROY voting, trailing only OF Randy Arozarena...led AL rookie pitchers in WAR (3.0), wins (11), innings (155.1) and strikeouts (167)...his strikeout total was the second-highest by a rookie in club history, trailing RHP Tom Griffin (200 in 1969).
- Made his MLB debut on Sept. 4, 2020, after never appearing in a game at the Double A or Triple A levels...also made his postseason debut as the starter for Game 5 of the 2020 ALCS vs. TB, throwing 2.0 scoreless innings...became the youngest pitcher in Astros history to start a potential postseason elimination game (23 years, 307 days old).

BROADCAST NOTES

- Signed as a 20-year-old free agent out of Venezuela on July 2, 2017...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Tom Shafer, Roman Ocumarez and David Brito.
- Luis has a younger brother named Heriberto Garcia, who pitched in the Astros system in 2023...Heriberto, who is three years younger than Luis, was originally signed by the Royals in 2018...he elected minor league free agency after the 2023 season and last appeared in the Venezuelan Winter League in 2023-24.
- As an amateur in Venezuela and prior to signing with the Astros, had trouble finding baseball cleats in Venezuela for his size 12 feet...Garcia's mom, who is a social worker, had a friend with a connection to Major League Baseball and made the ask for new cleats on behalf of her son...her friend with the MLB connection happened to be the sister of Astros bullpen catcher Javier Bracamonte, who regularly sends equipment back to his native country of Venezuela...without knowing who they were for, Bracamonte provided the cleats, which eventually made it back to Garcia...at some point during Garcia's 2021 rookie season, Bracamonte was surprised to find out that the kid from Venezuela who needed size 12 cleats was Garcia, who was in his first full MLB season.
- Is the third player in club history to wear the #77 after Pudge Rodriguez (2009) and Pedro Feliz (2010)...was assigned the number when he joined the club midseason in 2020 and opted to keep it moving forward...he has a special connection to the number, which was worn by him in photo ops on international signing day in 2017...the #77 signing day jersey was pulled randomly for photos by the Astros staff.
- Prior to it being outlawed before the 2023 season, had one of the most unique windups in the Majors, which was a mix of rocking a baby and a salsa dance...Garcia said he wanted a windup that he felt could be repeatable...it's so unique that it's been mimicked by all, from Major Leaguers, including Shohei Ohtani, to little leaguers, including Spring Branch 9-year-old Charlie Strong, who started using Garcia's windup in his little league games...after a video of Charlie went viral, Luis insisted on hosting him at Daikin Park, with Charlie eventually throwing out a ceremonial first pitch in 2022 with Luis as the catcher.
- Was arbitration eligible for the second time this offseason and signed to a one-year deal for 2025.

2024 SEASON:

- Did not make a Major League appearance during Spring Training, the regular season or the post-season while recovering from Tommy John surgery.
- Made two rehab starts, coming on June 28 with the FCL Astros (1 IP, 0 H, 0 R 0 BB, 2 SO) and on July 4 with Double A Corpus Christi (1.1 IP, 3 H, 4 R, 4 ER, 1 BB, 2 SO)...had his rehab assignment shut down following the start with Corpus Christi and did not make an official appearance for the rest of the season.

2023 SEASON:

- Had an abbreviated fourth season in the Majors after suffering a season-ending elbow injury in May...ended up making six starts, posting a 2-2 record and a 4.00 ERA (12ER/27IP).
- Made five healthy starts before leaving in his sixth start after facing one batter on May 1 vs. SF.
- Placed on the 15-day IL on May 2 and transferred to the 60-day IL on June 5...underwent ulnar collateral ligament reconstruction surgery (Tommy John) on his right elbow on May 19.

2022 SEASON:

- Second-year starter picked up 15 wins in his 28 starts...ranked tied for fourth in the AL in wins...had a very similar season to his rookie year of 2021, when he finished second in the AL Rookie of the Year voting...set career-highs in wins and innings (157.1) in 2022...also posted a 1.13 WHIP, a tick better than in 2021 (1.18).
- Finished the season riding a career-long, seven-game winning streak, which ranked as the seventh-longest in the AL this season...his streak began on Aug. 12 and spanned his last eight starts...in those outings, worked to a 3.20 ERA (16ER/45IP).
- Went 11-3 with a 4.46 ERA (42ER/84.2IP) in 15 home games...pitched better on the road, posting a 2.85 ERA (23ER/72.2IP) in 13 games.
- Among AL pitchers (min. 150 IP), ranked ninth in opponent average (.222), 10th in strikeouts per 9.0 (8.98) and 12th in opponent OPS (.678).
- Gets his outs via the strikeout and fly ball, as he ranked fifth in the AL in fly ball percentage (43.6%) among those with 150+ IP.
- Has dominated right-handed hitters in his career, limiting them to a .193 average (120x622)...lefties have hit almost 70 points higher against Garcia, posting a .259 average (151x582)...in 2022, those numbers are close to evening out as he limited righties to a .213 (67x315) average and lefties to a .234 (64x274) mark.
- Made his second consecutive OPENING DAY roster and pitched the Astros fifth game of the season on April 12 at ARI.
- Made history in the 2nd inning on June 15 at TEX, tossing the eighth immaculate inning in franchise history...struck out 1B Nathaniel Lowe, 2B Ezequiel Duran and 3B Brad Miller on nine pitches in the frame...later was joined in that game by RHP Phil Maton, who also tossed an immaculate inning in the 7th inning against those same three hitters...according to MLB.com's records, marked the first time in MLB history for a game to feature two immaculate innings.
- Went 1-1 in the POSTSEASON with a 1.59 ERA and six strikeouts in 5.2 IP, working solely as a reliever...tossed a heroic 5.0 scoreless innings in relief in the Astros 18-inning win in Game 3 of the ALDS at SEA...pitched the final 5.0 innings of the season, set a career-high in innings...his previous high was 108.2, reached in the minors in 2019.
- Became the second Astro to work 5.0 scoreless in relief in a postseason game, joining LHP Framber Valdez, who did so in Game 1 of the 2020 AL Wild Card Series at MIN...Garcia was also just the second pitcher in postseason history to work 5.0-plus scoreless relief innings which all came in extras, joining RHP Yusmeiro Petit (6IP), who did so for the Giants in Game 2 of the 2014 NLDS vs. SF.

- Rookie had a stellar year working out of the rotation...made two relief appearances in April...moved to the rotation on April 29 and stayed there through the end of the season.
- Began the year on the club's OPENING DAY roster as a starter, pitching Game 5 of the season at LAA...marked his first time on an Opening Day roster.
- Led AL rookie pitchers in WAR (3.0), wins (11), innings (155.1) and strikeouts (167)...his strikeout total was the second-highest by a rookie in franchise history, trailing RHP Tom Griffin (200 in 1969).
- Became the eighth rookie in Astros history to post an 11-win season and the first since RHP Collin McHugh also won 11 games for the Astros in 2014.
- Among Astros pitchers, ranked second in strikeouts (167), tied for second in starts (28) and third in innings (155.1)...with 155.1 innings pitched this season, set a career-high in innings...his previous high was 108.2, reached in the minors in 2019.
- Stymied RHH on the season, holding them to a .182 (52x286) average and a .548 OPS.
- Made five starts for the Astros in the POSTSEASON, going 1-3 with a 8.04 ERA (14ER/15.2IP)...had a rough couple starts to his open his postseason, in Game 3 of the DS at CWS (5ER/2.2IP) and Game 2 of the LCS vs. BOS (5ER/1IP).

- Returned to pitch in Game 6 of the DS vs. BOS and tossed 5.2 scoreless innings en route to the win, advancing the Astros to the WS...carried a no-hitter through 5.2 innings.
- Made two starts in the World Series and was handed the loss in both: Game 3 at ATL (1ER/3.2IP) and Game 6 vs. ATL (3ER/2.2IP).
- His Game 6 start came on three-days rest and started scoreless thru 2.2 innings before surrendering a three-run homer to eventual World Series MVP DH Jorge Soler.
- Following the season, named a finalist for the BBWAA AL Rookie of the Year, along with the eventual winner OF Randy Arozarena and SS Wander Franco...also named the Astros Rookie of the Year by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA.

2020 SEASON:

- Made his Major League debut with the Astros, going 0-1 with a 2.92 ERA (4ER/12.IP) and nine strikeouts in five games (one start).
- Bypassed Double A and Triple A en route to the Majors...prior to this season, had never appeared in a game at those levels before making his big league debut.
- Spent Spring Training at minor league camp, but was added to the Astros player pool prior to the beginning of Summer Camp.
- Was selected to the Major League roster on Aug. 29.
- Made his MLB debut on Sept. 4 at LAA in relief of starter Lance McCullers Jr., who did not collect an out in the 1st inning.
- In his debut, tossed 4.1 innings, allowing just one hit and one run on a solo homer...struck out two with three walks...entered the game with the bases loaded and no outs in the 1st inning...stranded two-of-three inherited runners...per Elias, became the second pitcher in Astros history to go 4.1+ innings while allowing one-or-fewer hits in his MLB debut, joining Joe Musgrove (Aug. 2, 2016 vs. TOR).
- Made his first-career start on Sept. 9 at OAK and tossed 5.0 scoreless innings, allowing just one hit with two walks and four strikeouts...became the Astros fourth homegrown pitcher from Venezuela to make a start for the club, joining J.C. Gutierrez (2007), Fernando Nieve (2006) and Carlos Hernandez (2001).

- Was a Pacific Coast League Post-Season ALL-STAR in 2024, ranking first among the league's pitchers in opponent batting average (.238) and WHIP (1.22), third in ERA (3.94), fifth in strikeouts (124) and ninth in innings (123.1)...also garnered two PCL Pitcher of the Week honors (Aug. 25 and Sept. 8) during his All-Star campaign.
- Has twice been named an MiLB.com Organizational ALL-STAR (2022-23)...since making his pro debut in 2022, ranks first among Astros minor leaguers with his 3.74 ERA and second with his average of 10.41 strikeouts per 9.0 innings (min. 250 IP).
- Despite pitching in just 15 professional games at the time, made one start in the 2023 World Baseball Classic for Team Israel, which came against Team Puerto Rico atloanDepot park in Miami.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Spent his entire 2024 season with Triple A Sugar Land and was named a Pacific Coast League Post-Season All-Star, going 8-2 with a 3.94 ERA (54ER/123.1IP), a .238 opponent average (112x238), a 1.22 WHIP and 124 strikeouts through 25 games (24 starts)...earned two PCL Pitcher of the Week honors (Aug. 25, Sept. 8)...among PCL pitchers, ranked first in opponent batting average, first in WHIP, third in ERA, fifth in strikeouts and ninth in innings pitched...among all Triple A pitchers, ranked second in WHIP, third in opponent batting average and fifth in ERA...got the start in the Triple A National Championship on Sept. 28 vs. Omaha and took a no-decision (3 IP, 6 H, 4 R, 4 ER, 0 BB, 3 SO) en route to Sugar Land's 13-6 victory...struck out a career-high 11 batters on Aug. 24 vs. Albuquerque.
- The 2023 season was his first full season as a professional...combined to go 7-7 with a 4.14 ERA (59ER/128.1IP) in 29 games (24 starts) between Double A Corpus Christi (20g/18gs) and Triple A Sugar Land (9g/6gs)...prior to the season, was on Team Israel's roster in the World Baseball Classic...

- Graduated in 2017 from Lakewood Ranch HS, which is in Bradenton, FL...pitched and hit in high school, going 4-2 with a 1.21 ERA over 10 appearances as a senior...totalled 52.0 innings and had 77 strikeouts...also hit .267 with two doubles, two triples, a home run and 16 RBI in 25 games...finished his high school career ranking as the No. 51 overall prospect in Florida by Perfect Game and as the No. 6 left-handed pitcher in Florida...went undrafted out of high school.
- Began his collegiate career at the University of Florida in 2018, but redshirted that year, and did not appear in a game...transferred to Hillsborough Community College for the 2019 season, where he appeared in 15 games (13 starts)...completed his season with a 2.44 ERA and a 7-4 record with 86 strikeouts in 88.2 innings...finished his amateur career at Central Florida (2020-21)...had a strong 2021 campaign, going 5-2 with a 2.77 ERA (17ER/55.1IP) and 72 strikeouts in nine starts...had his senior season cut short due to injury, which required Tommy John surgery.
- Gordon said his inclusion on Team Israel's roster during the 2023 World Baseball Classic, along with the opportunity to make a start, "went way beyond baseball for myself and my family"...Gordon hopes to visit Israel in the near future either on his own or through the Birthright Israel program, which offers a free heritage trip to the country for Jewish young adults between the ages of 18-26.
- Directly following the 2024 season, Gordon drove to St. Petersburg, Fla., to help his father, Steve, clean up damage to his home sustained from Hurricane Helene, which included more than four feet of water inside the house and a 20-foot tree that crashed through the roof...he then drove to his mother's home in nearby Bradenton to help prepare for incoming Hurricane Milton...following the difficult few weeks, Gordon found solace in his addition to the Astros 40-man roster, coming on Nov. 19, in order to protect him from the Rule 5 Draft.
- Received his second career invitation to Major League Spring Training camp in 2025...is signed to a minor league contract for the 2025 season.

made one start in the WBC, which came against Team Puerto Rico at loanDepot park in Miami... allowed four runs in 1.0 innings in the start... got the first two outs (Francisco Lindor, Kiké Hernández) before running into trouble in the inning.

- In his return season from Tommy John surgery in 2022, pitched with four different teams in the Astros minor league system...combined to go 2-1 with a 2.35 ERA (14ER/53.2IP) in 15 games (11 starts) on the season...struck out 78 in his 53.23 innings.

- Right-handed workhorse starter has pitched in parts of four minor league seasons and has spent a total of six seasons in the Astros minor league system (2018-24), going 21-16 with a 4.66 ERA (174ER/363IP) through 83 games (56 starts).
- Had the best season of his minor league career in 2024, earning the Pacific Coast League's ERA title after going 8-6 with a 3.70 ERA in 29 games (26 starts) with Triple A Sugar Land...was named a PCL ALL-STAR, also leading the league in strikeouts (141), while ranking second in opponent batting average (.242), WHIP (1.27) and innings pitched...as part of his breakout campaign, he also won a PCL Pitcher of the Month (July) and PCL Pitcher of the Week (July 30-Aug. 4).
- Was named a Texas League Post-Season All-Star in 2023 after going 5-2 with a 2.93 ERA (20ER/61.1IP) in 14 games (eight starts) with Double A Corpus Christi...was also twice-named Texas League Pitcher of the Week (July 9 and Aug. 13).
- Since his professional debut in 2019, ranks second among Astros minor leaguers with a 1.28 WHIP (min. 300 IP).

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Had a breakout 2024 season, spending the entire year with Triple A Sugar Land and winning the Pacific Coast League's ERA title after going 8-6 with a 3.70 ERA (61ER/148.1IP) in 29 games (26 starts)...set the Space Cowboys single-season record with 141 strikeouts...along with the ERA title, ranked first among PCL pitchers in strikeouts, second in opponent batting average (.242), second in WHIP (1.27) and second in innings pitched (148.1)...had his contract selected by the Astros on Sept. 29 and was scheduled to make his MLB debut with a start in the team's regular-season finale that day at Cleveland, but the game was eventually cancelled due to inclement weather...was named a PCL All-Star, PCL Pitcher of the Month (July) and PCL Pitcher of the Week (July 30-Aug. 4) as part of his breakout campaign...went 3-1 with a 1.15 ERA (4ER/31.1IP) a 0.80 WHIP and a .168 opponent batting average through five starts in July, also earning Astros Upper Level Minor League Player of the Month honors...posted a 2.08 ERA (25ER/108IP) over his final 18 games (17 starts) of the season.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Paved a unique path on his way to a college and eventually professional baseball, spending his prep career with the Carolina Royals, labeled an "alternative baseball program" based out of his hometown in Charlotte, NC...the program was originally intended for homeschooled students, but eventually opened up to students of all backgrounds...Gusto elected to play for the Carolina Royals after being passed on for the varsity roster at Providence High School in Charlotte, where he graduated.
- Was recruited mostly as an outfielder by colleges but wanted to remain a pitcher, eventually getting that opportunity with Broward College (Weston, Fla.), thanks in part to their head coach, Ben Bizier...following Gusto's freshman season, Bizier was named the head coach of Florida Southwestern College (Cypress Lake, Fla.), and Gusto elected to follow for his sophomore campaign...Gusto went 7-2 with a 2.88 ERA though 18 games in his lone season at Florida Southwestern and won the Suncoast Conference Pitcher of the Year, becoming the first player in the program's history to win the award.
- Selected by the Astros in the 11th round of the June 2019 draft...signed by Astros scout Charlie Gonzalez...at the time, was the highest-selected draft pick in Florida Southwestern history...would become the second player in Florida Southwestern history to appear in the Majors with his MLB debut, joining Brewers RHP Carlos Rodriguez, who made his big league debut in 2024.
- Has accrued exactly one day of MLB service time, which came on the final day of the 2024 regular season...Gusto had his contract selected from Triple A Sugar Land on Sept. 29 and was slated to make his MLB debut that day in the Astros' regular-season finale in Cleveland...however, the game was cancelled due to inclement weather, so while he has one day of big league service time, he's still awaiting his MLB debut.
- Received his first invite to Major League Spring Training this year...is under a one-year contract for the 2025 season...made two scoreless appearances as a minor league call-up during 2024 Major League Spring Training, tossing 4.0 scoreless with 10 strikeouts while allowing just two hits and two walks.

- Was promoted to Double A Corpus Christi in June of 2023 and went 5-2 with a 2.93 ERA (20ER/61.1IP) in 14 games (eight starts) with the Hooks...among Texas League pitchers with at least 60 innings, ranked fifth in ERA...was twice-named Texas League Pitcher of the Week (July 9 and Aug. 13)...began the year with High A Asheville, going 2-2 with a 6.47 ERA (35ER/48.2IP) in 12 games (six starts).
- Began the 2022 season with Low A Fayetteville (5g) but spent the bulk of his year with High A Asheville (18g), going a combined 6-5 with a 5.50 ERA (55ER/90IP) in 23 games (13 starts).

- Missed the entire 2021 season while recovering from Tommy John Surgery.
- Did not appear in a regular season game in 2020 due to the cancellation of the minor league season.
- Made his pro debut in 2019, appearing in three games with Short-Season Tri-City and the Astros Gulf Coast League affiliate while going a combined 0-1 with a 1.84 ERA (3ER/14.2IP).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Left-handed closer enters his second season with Houston as a five-time All-Star (2018-19, 2021-23), a three-time Trevor Hoffman NL Reliever of the Year (2018-19, 2021) winner and a two-time All-MLB First Team (2019, 2021) selection.
- Has been one of the most dominant relievers in the Majors since debuting in 2017...for his career, he has earned 199 saves while posting a 2.70 ERA and a 0.95 WHIP, allowing just 253 hits in 459.2 innings pitched for a .158 opponent average...since 2017, he ranks first among all MLB relievers in strikeouts per 9.0 innings (14.74), second in opponent average (.156), second in WHIP (0.94) and third in ERA (2.70).
- Is the only MLB reliever to log 30-plus saves in each of the last four seasons (2021-24) and ranks second with a total of 137 saves in that span, behind only RHP Emmanuel Clase (157 saves).
- Among all MLB pitchers with at least 450.0 career innings pitched, Hader's career opponent batting average (.156) ranks first in MLB history, while his career WHIP (0.94) and career strikeouts per 9.0 innings pitched ratio (15.01) rank second.
- Additionally, left-handed hitters are just 57x397 (.144) vs. Hader in his career...his .144 opponent batting average vs. left-handed hitters is the lowest in the Majors since 2017 (min. 400 batters faced), with RHP Jason Adam the next-closest (.166).
- Hader has shined in the POSTSEASON in his career, posting a 1.64 ERA (4ER/22IP) in 18 playoff appearances, allowing a .184 opponent average while tallying 33 strikeouts.
- Led MLB relievers with 105 strikeouts in 2024, his first season with the Astros, becoming the first reliever in club history to do so since RHP Brad Lidge (103 strikeouts in 2005)...ranked second in the AL with 34 saves and...set the Astros single-season record by converting 29 consecutive saves from April 7-Aug. 29.
- Was selected to his fifth career ALL-STAR Game in 2023...posted a 1.28 ERA (11ER/56.1IP) to go with 33 saves in 61 games...among NL relievers, he ranked second in ERA, second in strikeouts-per-nine-innings (13.58), fourth in opponent OPS (.508) and tied for fifth in saves...his 1.28 ERA in 2023 was the second-lowest ERA in a single season in his career, trailing only his 1.23 ERA in 2021 with Milwaukee.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Graduated from Old Mill Senior High School in Millersville, Md., just outside of Baltimore...went on to be drafted by the Orioles, who he grew up rooting for, in the 19th round of the 2012 draft.
- After just a year and a half in the Orioles system, was traded to Houston, along with OF L.J. Hoes and a Competitive Balance Round A pick, in exchange for RHP Bud Norris, on July 31, 2013...the Astros used the comp pick on OF Derek Fisher.
- The Astros were in the middle of a rebuild at the time of acquiring Hader, who joined a talented group in the club's farm system...in 2015, at Double A Corpus Christi, Hader played alongside future Major League All-Stars SS Carlos Correa, RHP Chris Devenski, OF Teoscar Hernández, RHP Lance McCullers Jr. and RHP Joe Musgrove...that team dominated with an 89-51 record and a Texas League South Division title.
- While pitching at Corpus Christi, Hader met his future wife, Maria...the couple now has one son, Lucas, who was born in June of 2022.
- Hader spent two years with the Astros before he was part of another deadline move, going to the Brewers along with RHP Adrian Houser, OF Brett Phillips and OF Domingo Santana in exchange for OF Carlos Gómez, RHP Mike Fiers and cash, on July 30, 2015.
- Meanwhile, Hader blossomed into one of the best relievers in the game after his acquisition by the Brewers...he spent parts of six Major League seasons in Milwaukee before being traded again at the trading deadline to San Diego on Aug. 1, 2022...the Brewers acquired four players in exchange for Hader.
- After spending the 2023 season in San Diego, reached free agency and signed a five year contract with the Astros on Jan. 22, 2024...the deal will keep him in an Astros uniform through the 2028 season.
- Josh and his wife, Maria, held a holiday toy drive through his "Hader's Heart" charity in December of this offseason outside of Union Station at Daikin Park...the toy drive benefited Be A Resource Houston (BEAR), which offers services and tools for abused and neglected children to help provide for a successful future...as part of "Hader's Heart," Josh and Maria also hosted a group of kids from BEAR at an Astros home game once a month throughout the 2024 season, providing the group a chance to meet Josh and Maria, watch batting practice on the field and meet/get autographs from Astros players.

- Recorded a 2.48 ERA (87ER/316.1IP) and 125 saves in parts of six seasons with the Brewers (2017-22)...the 2.48 ERA ranks second in Milwaukee history among relievers with at least 200 innings pitched with the club...he also ranks second in Milwaukee history in saves, trailing only Dan Plesac (133) .
- Has won seven Reliever of the Month Awards (6 in the NL; 1 in the AL), most-recently in August 2024 with Houston.

- Was the 2014 California League Pitcher of the Year in 2015 with High A Lancaster in the Astros system...was also a two-time MiLB.com Organizational ALL-STAR, earning the honor in 2014 in the Astros system and 2016 in the Brewers system...selected to play for the U.S. Team in the 2016 Futures Game, striking out the lone batter he faced.

2024 SEASON:

- Completed his first season with the Astros and went 8-8 with 34 saves, a 3.80 ERA (30ER/71IP), 105 strikeouts, a 0.096 WHIP, a .171 opponent batting average and 13.3 strikeouts per 9.0 IP.
- Led MLB relievers in strikeouts, becoming the first Astros reliever to do since RHP Brad Lidge led MLB relievers with 103 strikeouts in 2005.
- Among AL relievers, ranked second in saves, tied for second in wins and fourth in strikeouts per 9.0 innings.
- His 105 strikeouts were tied for the sixth-most in a single season from an Astros reliever, and were the most since RHP Brad Lidge logged 157 strikeouts in 2004.
- His eight wins were the most from an Astros reliever since RHP Chris Devenski also recorded eight wins in 2017.
- Set the Astros single-season record by converting 29 consecutive save opportunities from April 7-Aug. 29...surpassed the previous record of 24 consecutive saves from RHP Brad Lidge in 2005... was the second-longest saves streak in the AL in 2024, behind only a 34-save streak from RHP Emmanuel Clase.
- Was named the AL Reliever of the Month for August, giving him his sixth career Reliever of the Month honor...went 3-1 with eight saves, a 0.68 ERA (1ER/13.1IP), a .071 opponent batting average (3x42), a 0.60 WHIP and 17 strikeouts through 13 appearances during the month.
- Made seven multi-inning relief appearances on the year, including four appearances of at least 2.0 innings...prior to 2024, he had not made a multi-inning appearance since 2020 while with MIL... the Astros went 7-0 in games he pitched multiple innings in 2024.
- Held left-handed hitters to a .125 batting average (6x48) and a .376 OPS, striking out 23 of 53 left-handed batters faced...did not surrender a home

- After recording a 6.39 ERA (9ER/12.2IP) through his first 13 appearances of the season, he rebounded well by posting a 1.35 ERA (2ER/13.1IP) through 11 appearances in May.
- Struck out the first five batters he faced as a member of the Astros, coming in outings from March 28-30 vs. NY Yankees...became the first pitcher in Astros history to strike out the first five batters he faced as a member of the club, surpassing the previous record of four consecutive strikeouts from LHP Frank DiPino in 1982.
- Picked up the winning decision on April 30 vs. CLE, tossing 2.0 innings while allowing one unearned run with four strikeouts in the Astros' 10-9 win... marked his first appearance of 2.0-plus innings since he also pitching 2.0 innings on September 7, 2019 vs. CHC while with MIL.
- Recorded a save on May 17 vs. MIL, giving him a save against all 30 MLB clubs...per Elias, he became the 19th pitcher in MLB history to record saves against all 30 MLB franchises and the 5th active pitcher to do so, joining Kenley Jansen, Edwin Diaz, Craig Kimbrel and Aroldis Chapman.
- Notched a four-out save by tossing 1.1 perfect innings of relief with three strikeouts on Sept. 24 vs. SEA in the Astros' AL-West-clinching victory over the Mariners.
- Was a member of his seventh career Opening Day roster and his first with the Astros.
- Made his Astros POSTSEASON debut with a scoreless 1.0 inning in Game 1 of the ALWC vs. DET...surrendered 1 run on 3 hits with 2 walks in Game 2 of the ALWC, also allowing 2 inherited runners to score.

2023 SEASON:

- In his first full season with the Padres, he went 2-3 with a 1.28 ERA (8ER/56.1IP), 1.101 WHIP and .163 opponent batting average, matching his career-high with 61 appearances.
- Ranked second in the NL in ERA, second in strikeouts-per-nine-innings (13.6), fourth in opponent OPS (.508) and tied for fifth in saves.

- Posted the third-lowest ERA by a reliever in San Diego history (min. 50 IP), trailing only RHP Cla Meredith (1.07 ERA in 2006) and RHP Kirby Yates (1.19 ERA in 2009).
- Was selected as an ALL-STAR for the fifth time in his career...tossed a scoreless inning of relief in the contest.

- Converted all 10 of his save opportunities and owned a 0.69 ERA (1ER/13IP) through 13 April appearances, earning him NL Reliever of the Month honors.
- Led the Majors with a 0.31 ERA (1ER/29IP) at home (min. 30 IP)...was the second-lowest home ERA in the Majors in a single season since 2017, trailing only Baltimore LHP Cionel Pérez (0.26 ERA in 2022).
- Record reverse split, holding right-handed hitters to a .146 batting average (23x157) while left-handed hitters batted .231 (9x39).
- Logged a career-best 36.5-percent ground ball rate.
- Was scoreless in 52 of his 61 appearances on the year and did not surrender an earned run in 55 of his 61 outings.
- Had a 0.82 ERA (2 ER, 22.0 IP), 0.73 WHIP and .096 opponent batting average, also converting 13 of his 15 save opportunities, across his first 22 appearances from April 1-May 26.
- Per Baseball Savant, he ranked in the 90th percentile or greater in the following metrics among Major League pitchers: xBA (100th percentile, .156), xERA (99th, 2.36), K % (99th, 36.8%), hard-hit % (97th, 28.3%), chase % (92nd, 33.6%), barrel % (92nd, 4.4%) and whiff % (91st, 33.1%).

2022 SEASON:

- Began the year with Milwaukee and was dealt to San Diego on Aug. 1...combined to go 2-5 with a 5.22 ERA (29ER/50IP) and 36 saves in 56 games...was one save away from matching his career-high of 37, set in 2019.
- Was awarded the National League Reliever of the Month for April...held opponents to a .167 batting average, allowing just two hits, converted all 10 of his save opportunities and posted a 0.64 WHIP.
- Recorded the 500th strikeout of his career on May 10 at Cincinnati, doing so in 293.2 innings...became the second-fastest to reach the mark, behind only LHP Aroldis Chapman (292.0 IP).
- Had a scoreless streak of 40 appearances snapped on June 5...matched former Astros teammate Ryan Pressly for the longest such streak in MLB history...Hader's streak began on Aug. 1, 2021...was scoreless in his first 18 appearances of the 2022 season, setting a Major League record...the previous record was 12 straight scoreless appearances to open a season, Lee Smith in 1994 with BAL and José Mesa in 2005 with PIT.
- Despite an up-and-down year, he logged a 0.79 ERA and converted seven-of-eight save opportunities over his final 12 appearances of the regular season.
- Tossed 5.1 scoreless innings, struck out 10 batters and picked up four saves in five POSTSEASON appearances.
- Finished the Padres' Wild Card Series-clinching Game 3 win at NYY with a scoreless inning.
- Notched the first four-out save of his postseason career in Game 2 of the NLDS vs. LAD.
- Struck out Mookie Betts, Trea Turner and Freddie Freeman on just 10 pitches to seal the Padres' NLDS-clinching win vs. LAD in Game 4.
- Additionally, he struck out the side in his lone NLCS appearance vs. PHI...the three strikeouts gave him eight straight strikeouts dating back to his NLDS outings, becoming the first pitcher in MLB postseason history to strike out eight straight hitters.

2021 SEASON:

- Won his third career Trevor Hoffman National League Reliever of the Year Award, going 4-2 with a career-best 1.23 while converted 34-of-35 save opportunities in 60 outings with the Brewers...became the first pitcher in either league to win three Reliever of the Year Awards.

- Hernandez was born and raised in Missouri City, a suburb in the Houston area, and has played baseball at the prep, collegiate, minor league and Major League levels with a Houston-area team, culminating with his Astros debut in 2024.
- Graduated from Dulles High School in Missouri City, where he helped lead the Vikings to a District Championship in 2012 and a placement as a State Runner-Up in 2013...was named District MVP as a pitcher and third baseman as a senior in 2013.
- Began his collegiate career with two seasons at nearby Alvin Community College before transferring to the University of Houston for his junior season, serving as the team's closer...in his lone season with the Cougars, he went 3-0 with 11 saves and a 1.40 ERA (8ER/51.1IP) in 29 relief appearances...was named to the American Athletic Conference First Team.
- Was selected by his hometown Astros in the eighth round of the June 2016 draft...signed by Astros scout Noel Gonzales-Luna.
- Spent seven years in the Astros minor league system, reaching up to the Triple A level, before declaring minor league free agency following the 2022 season...coincidentally, as Hernandez reached the Triple A level in 2021, the Astros changed their Triple A affiliate to then-Sugar Land Skeeters...the now-Sugar Land Space Cowboys play at Constellation Field, located approximately 10 minutes from where he prepped at Dulles High School.
- Signed a minor league deal with the San Diego Padres on Jan. 27, 2023...pitched the bulk of the season with the Padres' Double A and Triple A affiliates before making his MLB debut with a scoreless inning of relief on Sept. 12, 2023, at Dodger Stadium.
- Re-signed with San Diego to begin the 2024 season with Triple A El Paso...was traded to the Astros for cash considerations on June 4 and made his Astros debut just a day later, tossing a perfect inning of relief vs. the Cardinals at Daikin Park.
- Hernandez says first memory of watching a baseball game in person was as a child at the Astrodome...while he doesn't remember the exact game, he remembers taking in the Astros stars of that era, including Billy Wagner, Craig Biggio and Jeff Bagwell.
- Has received his second career invite to Major League Spring Training, and his first with the Astros organization...is under a one-year contract for 2025.

2023 SEASON:

- In his debut season, made two appearances for the Padres, posting a 12.00 ERA (4ER/3IP) with five strikeouts through two games.
- Spent the majority of the season at the Triple A and Double A levels within the Padres organization, going a combined 5-1 with seven saves, a 3.84 ERA (26ER/61IP) and 82 strikeouts in 47 appearances.
- Made his MLB debut on Sept. 12 at Los Angeles

- (NL), tossing 2.0 innings in relief while allowing two runs on one hit with three strikeouts...picked up his first career strikeout vs. OF Jason Heyward.
- Tossed 2.0+ innings in 28 of his minor league outings, recording a 1.93 ERA (6ER/28IP) in those games.
- Signed a minor league contract with the Padres on Jan. 27.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Made 48 of his 51 appearances in 2022 with Triple A Sugar Land, going 5-5 with a 3.92 ERA (26ER/59.2IP) and 77 strikeouts...also made three appearances with Double A Corpus Christi, notching 4.1 scoreless innings of relief...led Astros minor leaguers with his 51 total appearances on the season.
- Was an MiLB.com Organizational All-Star in 2021, going 3-1 with six saves, a 1.61 ERA (10ER/56IP) and 69 strikeouts in 33 games (one start)...made 32 of his 33 appearances (one start) with Double A Corpus Christi, the other coming with Triple A Sugar Land...his 1.61 ERA was the lowest among Astros minor leaguers and fifth-lowest among all minor league pitchers with at least 55 innings pitched.
- Did not appear in a regular season game in 2020 due to the cancellation of the minor league season.

- Spent the bulk of his 2019 season with Double A Corpus Christi (18g), while also making five appearances with Class A Fayetteville, going a combined 2-4 with a 4.88 ERA (14ER/31.1IP).
- Missed the entire 2018 season while recovering from Tommy John surgery.
- Was named a 2017 Carolina League Mid-Season All-Star in his first full professional season after posting a 1.59 ERA (6ER/34IP) with 48 strikeouts in 24 games with Class A Buies Creek...also made 14 appearances with Double A Corpus Christi, where he went 1-2 with a 5.84 ERA (16ER/24.2IP).
- Made his pro debut in 2016, going a combined 1-2 with a 1.73 ERA (5ER/26IP) in 19 games between Class A Quad Cities and Short-Season Tri-City.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Switch-hitting utility player has played in 82 games at the MLB level through parts of three seasons, appearing with the Diamondbacks (2022), Mariners (2023) and Astros (2024)...is set to enter his ninth professional season and has batted .266 (559x2013) with 131 doubles, 66 home runs, 325 RBI and an .848 OPS in 648 career minor league games.
- Has produced strong on-base numbers throughout his minor league career, drawing a total of 438 walks while recording .403 on-base percentage in his 648 career games.
- A versatile defender, he's made 25 appearances as an outfielder and 18 as a catcher in three seasons at the MLB level...in the minors, he's also made appearances at first base and third base.
- Reached the Majors for his third consecutive season in 2024, appearing in six games in one stint with Houston after being claimed off waivers from San Francisco in April...spent the bulk of his season with Triple A Sugar Land and led the Pacific Coast League with a .419 on-base percentage, while batting .277 (97x350) with 26 doubles, 10 home runs, 59 RBI and an .873 OPS.
- Received his most extensive Major League playing time during his debut season with the Diamondbacks in 2022...made the Opening Day roster and batted .176 (31x176) with eight doubles, three triples, three homers and 17 RBI in 66 games...notched his first MLB hit with a three-run home run on April 10, 2022, against Padres RHP Javy Guerra.
- Was an MiLB.com Organizational ALL-STAR within the Brewers organization from 2018-19...batted .254 (170x669) with 33 doubles, 25 home runs, 113 RBI and an .821 OPS through the two seasons, spent with the Class A Carolina and Double A Biloxi.

- Spent Spring Training and began the regular season as a member of the Giants organization, but did not appear in a regular-season game before being designated for assignment and eventually claimed off waivers by the Astros on April 4.
- Appeared in six games, including one start in left field, through one stint with the Astros...went 0x8 in his big league time, while stealing one base...had his contract purchased on June 14 and was optioned to Triple A on July 2.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Was a three-year letterwinner at Lake Oswego H.S. (Lake Oswego, Ore.)...prior to his prep career, he appeared in the Little League World Series as a member of Lake Oswego Little League, representing the Northwest Team.
- Went on to attend nearby Portland University where played three seasons for the Pilots...had appeared in just 47 games his first two seasons but a coaching change ahead of his junior sparked extended playing time, batting .320 (62x194) with 14 doubles, five homers and 29 RBI in 54 games that season.
- Selected by the Brewers in the 18th round of the June 2016 draft...signed by Brewers scout Shawn Whalen.
- Has twice been traded during his career, most-recently in a one-for-one swap that sent him from Arizona to Seattle in exchange for former Rookie of the Year OF Kyle Lewis...was also involved in a 2021 Trade Deadline deal in which Milwaukee sent him to Arizona as part of a package for IF Eduardo Escobar.
- Hummel was born in Portland, Ore., but also spent a year of his childhood living in Seattle and became a diehard fan of the Mariners, sporting a Mariners logo decal on his bedroom wall...he was able to realize a lifelong dream when he was traded to Seattle in November 2022, eventually appearing in 10 games with the Mariners during the 2023 season.
- As a second-grader, Hummel began working as switch-hitter on the advice of a hitting coach who told him, "being a switch-hitting catcher was the second-best way to get drafted."
- Since the end of the 2023 season, Hummel has been a member of three different MLB organizations, despite only appearing in official MLB or minor league regular-season games with the Astros...on Dec. 1, 2023, he was claimed off waivers by the Mets from the Mariners...before pitchers and catchers reported for Spring Training in 2024, he was then traded by the Mets to the Giants for cash considerations...prior to appearing in a minor league game for San Francisco, he was designated for assignment and eventually claimed off waivers by the Astros.
- Received his third invite to Major League Spring Training in 2025 and his first with the Astros...is under a one-year contract for the upcoming season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-handed starter has gone 33-18 with a 3.59 ERA (200ER/501IP), with 204 walks and 564 strikeouts in 116 games (82 starts) in his five Major League seasons (2020-24) with the Astros.
- Made seven starts in 2024 before undergoing Tommy John surgery in early June...went 3-1 with a 3.89 ERA (15ER/34.2IP) through the seven starts...is expected to return during the 2025 season.
- Has allowed a .201 (365x1817) opponent batting average in his five-year career...among pitchers to toss 500-plus innings between the 2020-24 seasons, Javier ranked second in the Majors in that category, trailing only two-time Cy Young Award winner Blake Snell (.199).
- Has been a strong POSTSEASON performer in his young career, posting a 6-2 record with a 2.68 ERA (13ER/43.2IP) with four holds in 17 appearances, including five starts...has allowed just 22 hits in his 43.2 innings of work for a .146 opponent average, while striking out 60 hitters...his ERA is the third-lowest of any postseason pitcher (min. 40 IP) since the beginning of the 2020 postseason, trailing only Phillies RHP Zack Wheeler (2.18 ERA) and Padres RHP Yu Darvish (2.58)...his opponent batting average is the lowest opponent batting average in MLB postseason history (min. 150 batters faced).
- Has become a flyball machine, inducing pop ups at an elite rate...posted the highest fly ball percentage (38.8%) in the Majors in 2023, his second straight season in which he led the Majors.
- Has fared well when pitching at Daikin Park, going 20-8 with a 2.77 ERA (80ER/260IP) in 59 career games (40 starts)...since his debut in 2020, his 2.77 ERA at home ranks second in the AL...his 2.77 career ERA at Daikin Park ranks fourth in the ballpark's history (min. 200 IP).
- Had an incredible 2022 season overall, posting the lowest opponent batting average in AL (.170), which was 16 points lower than the second-place finisher and the eventual AL Cy Young winner RHP Justin Verlander (.186)...also ranked second in the AL in strikeouts per 9.0 (11.74) and fourth in WHIP (0.95)...including his two starts this postseason (11.1IP), finished his season by not allowing a run in six straight starts...allowed just seven hits in 34.1 innings pitched in those six starts for a .067 opponent average.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Grew up an outfielder before transitioning to pitching at the age of 16...less than two years later, signed by the Astros as a 17-year-old international free agent out of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic on March 18, 2015...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Roman Ocumarez and Leocadio Guevara.
- Received the nickname "El Reptil" (the reptile) during his time in the Astros minor league system, due to his poise, calm demeanor and slow, calculated movements on and off the mound...originally given the name by his High A Manager Morgan Ensberg and his pitching coach at the level, Drew French...Ensberg was a former All-Star player for the Astros, playing for the club from 2000-07.
- Works predominately with his low to mid 90s fastball, which has been nicknamed the invisiball...his fastball, which is a four-seamer, has a ride with high spin rates...coupled with his three-quarters arm slot, the pitch has strong deception to hitters...he follows that pitch up with a slider and a 12-6 curveball.
- A part of Javier's start-day routine includes bringing a cup of coffee out for his pregame warmups...prior to his start on April 27, 2021, Javier spilt the coffee on his white uniform and pants after trying to balance the cup on his glove...Javier remained in the coffee-stained uniform and tossed a career-high 7.0 scoreless innings vs. the Mariners at Daikin Park.
- Just three years in the Majors, Javier has already been an author of several special moments, none bigger than starting the club's combined no-hitter in Game 4 of the 2022 World Series...the night was extra-special for Javier, who had flown his father, Cecilio, and mother, Trinidad Mieses, in from the Dominican Republic for the game...in talking with his parents the night before the game, Cecilio and Trinidad predicted that their son, Cristian, would throw a no-hitter in Game 4...Javier tossed 6.0 innings of no-hit ball the next day...his mother had seen him pitch before in the United States, but that night was his father's first time to watch his son pitch in the Majors in person.
- Was originally added to the Astros 40-man roster on Nov. 20, 2019...after pitching three years in the Majors, the Astros and Javier agreed on a five-year contract that will keep Javier in an Astros uniform through the 2027 season...the deal was officially signed on Feb. 10, 2023.

- Was the starter in two combined no-hitters in 2022, which came on June 25 at NYY (7IP) and in Game 4 of the 2022 World Series at PHI (6IP)...became the first pitcher in Major League history to start two combined no-hitters in a career.
- During the no-hitter on June 25, 2022 at NYY, began a streak of striking out two-or-more batters in an inning for 13 consecutive innings over parts of three starts from June 25-July 6...became the third player since 1961 to have such a streak.
- Had a strong sophomore season in 2021, working in the rotation (nine starts) and bullpen (27 apps)... finished his season with a .186 opponent batting average, which ranked first in the AL (min. 90 IP), allowing just 67 hits in his 101.1 innings...held righties to a .155 mark (33x213) and a .587 OPS...also ranked second in the Majors with a 28.0 ground ball percentage (min. 90 IP).

- Finished third in the 2020 AL Rookie of the Year voting...led AL rookies in ERA (3.48) and in opponent average (.188, min. 150 batters faced).
- In the 2020 postseason, was the winning pitcher in the Astros ALDS Game 4 victory over the A's, and their Wild Card Series Game 2 win over the Twins... both games were series clinchers...joined Charlie Morton (2017) as the only pitchers in Astros history to record two wins in series-clinching games in a single postseason.
- Was named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2019, while also being named to the Second Team for MLB Pipeline's Prospect Team of the Year...recorded a 1.74 ERA (22ER/113.2IP) with a career-high 170 strikeouts between three levels in the Astros system...led all of the minor leagues in opponent batting average (.130) in 2019, which was 31 points ahead of the next best pitcher, LHP Mackenzie Gore (.161)...his 1.74 ERA was the second-best mark in all of the minors, behind only Gore's mark of 1.69.

- Made seven starts before undergoing season-ending Tommy John surgery in June, going 3-1 with a 3.89 ERA (15ER/34.2IP).
- Was off to a strong start to the season, tossing 11.0 scoreless innings through his first two starts (March 29 vs. NYY and April 3 vs. TOR)...became the first Astros pitcher to open a season with at least 11.0 scoreless innings since LHP Scott Kazmir tossed 14.2 consecutive scoreless innings to open the 2015 season...RHP Ronel Blanco went on to surpass Kazmir's record in 2024 by logging 15.0 consecutive scoreless innings to open his season.
- Went 3-0 with a 1.23 ERA (4ER/29.1IP) in his four starts at Daikin Park.
- Made his fifth career OPENING DAY roster, all coming with the Astros (2020-24).
- Missed 18 games from April 21-May 11 while on the 15-Day IL due to neck discomfort...was again placed on the IL on May 27 before eventually undergoing Tommy John surgery.

2023 SEASON:

- Spent his first full season out of the rotation, posting a 4.56 ERA (82ER/162.0IP) with his first 150+ inning season of his career...the Astros went 21-10 when he started in the regular season.
- Has pitched primarily as a starter over the 2022-23 seasons...among qualifying AL pitchers over that span, ranked fourth in opponent average (.204) and tied for sixth in strikeouts per 9.0 (10.23).
- Prior to the regular season, represented his native country (Dominican Republic) at the 2023 World Baseball Classic, getting the winning decision on March 13 vs Nicaragua as he threw 4.0 scoreless innings with four strikeouts in his start.
- Made his fourth career OPENING DAY roster.
- Went 7-1 with a 2.90 ERA (26ER/80.2IP) in his first 14 starts to begin the season...also recorded a 1.04 WHIP, eight quality starts, and a .219 opponent batting average during that span.
- Struck out a career-best seven consecutive batters on April 23 at ATL...was one away from matching the Astros franchise record, which has been accomplished on several occasions.
- Went 4-0 with a 2.40 ERA (8ER/30IP) in May...ranked tied for first among MLB pitchers in May in wins (4)...among AL pitchers was second in opponent average (.157) and seventh in ERA (2.40) in May.
- Tossed 6.0 scoreless innings on June 15 vs WSH, recording a career-high 15 flyball outs to zero groundouts with the only assist in his outing coming on a caught-stealing by Martín Maldonado in the 2nd inning...per Elias, the last pitcher in the Majors with a scoreless outing of 6+ IP without recording a groundout was TB RHP Luis Patiño on 7/29/21 vs. NYY...no Astros pitcher has had a scoreless outing of 6+ IP without recording a groundout in franchise history.
- Reached 500 career strikeouts during his outing on Sept. 3 vs. NYY...reached that number in his 104th career game, making him the seventh player in Astros history to reach 500 strikeouts within their first 104 career apps. (all coming with the Astros).
- Was his first POSTSEASON as part of the rotation, making three starts during the 2023 playoffs...opened this postseason by extending his scoreless innings streak in the postseason to 20.1 innings, which ranks as the longest in franchise history.
- Had his best postseason start in Game 3 of the ALDS at MIN, working 5.0 scoreless innings on one hit allowed, while working around five walks.

2022 SEASON:

- Third-year swingman pitched primarily out of the rotation, making 25 starts compared to just five relief appearances...was great in both roles, as a starter posting a 2.81 ERA (40ER/128.1IP) and as a reliever a 1.26 ERA (2ER/14.1IP).
- Was one of most dominant pitchers in AL...among pitchers with 140+ innings pitched, had the lowest opponent batting average in AL (.170)...was 16 points lower than the second-place and the AL Cy Young winner RHP Justin Verlander (.186).
- Also ranked second in K's per 9.0 (11.74) and fourth in WHIP (0.95) this season...his 11.74 K's per 9.0 ratio trailed only RHP Shohei Ohtani (11.87) (min. 140IP).
- In addition to his high strikeout rate and extremely low opponent batting average, induced pop ups at an elite rate...posted the highest fly ball percentage (56.9%) in the Majors this season (min. 140 IP).
- His .170 opponent batting average this season fell in line with his career opponent batting average of .178...among pitchers to toss 300+ innings over the 2020-22 seasons, Javier has posted the lowest opponent batting average of any pitcher, besting second-place RHP Corbin Burnes (.195)...right-handed hitters are hitting .143 (76x530) against Javier in his career...since 2020, Javier's .143 opponent BA vs. righties is also the lowest in the Majors (min. 420 batters faced).
- Was great the entire season, but finished the year in an extremely dominant stretch...over his last six starts, he posted a 1.08 ERA (4ER/33.1IP) with 44 strikeouts, a .127 opponent batting average and a 0.75 WHIP.
- Did not allow a run over his final four starts (23IP) and his last 25.1 innings...marked the longest active streak in the Majors at the end of the season and ranked as the third-longest in the AL this season...including his two starts this postseason (11.1IP), finished his season by not allowing a run in six straight starts...Javier allowed just seven hits in 34.1 innings pitched in those six starts for a .067 opponent average.
- On June 25 at NYY, pitched 7.0 innings of the Astros combined no-hitter...combined to toss it with RHP Hector Neris (1IP) and RHP Ryan Pressly (1IP)...marked the Astros 14th no-hitter in club history and their third combined no-hitter...C Martin Maldonado was behind the plate for the no-hitter.
- During the no-hitter on June 25 at NYY, Javier began a streak of striking out two-or-more batters in an inning for 13 consecutive innings over parts of three starts from June 25-July 6...became just the third player since 1961 to have a streak of 13+ innings, joining Corey Kluber in 2014 and Aroldis Chapman in 2020-21.
- Struck out a career-high 14 hitters in 7.0 innings of dominant work on July 1 vs. LAA...marked the most strikeouts by an Astros pitcher since RHP Gerrit Cole also struck out 14 on Sept. 24, 2019 at SEA.
- Had an absolutely prolific 2022 POSTSEASON, making his first two playoff starts and tossing 6.0 innings of Astros combined no-hitter in G4 of the WS...overall, was 2-0 with a 0.71 ERA in playoffs, striking out 16 in 12.2IP...allowed just two hits and one run, which came in a 1.1 inning relief appearance in G1 of ALDS at SEA.
- The no-hitter in Game 4 of the World Series was just second no-hitter ever in WS history and third ever in playoff history (RHP Don Larsen's perfect game on 10/8/56 in G5 of WS and RHP Roy Halladay on 10/6/10 in G1 NLDS)...is the only combined no-hitter in playoff history.
- Became just the seventh pitcher ever to start two no-hitters in a single season, with only one other pitcher ever split his no-hitters between reg. and postseason games (Halladay)...Javier is the first pitcher ever to start two combined no-hitters in a career...also joined teammate RHP Ryan Pressly as only pitchers to ever pitch in two combined no-hitters in career.
- In the start before the no-hitter, went 5.1 scoreless innings in G3 of ALCS at NYY...struck out five and allowed just one hit.
- Finished postseason on a 12-inning scoreless streak.

2021 SEASON:

- Finished his second MLB season, recording a 3.55 ERA (40ER/101.1IP) with 130 strikeouts, a .186 opponent batting average and a 1.18 WHIP.
- His .186 opponent average ranked first in the AL (min. 90 IP)...allowed just 67 hits in his 101.1 IP...held righties to a .155 mark (33x213) and a .587 OPS.
- Owned the second-lowest ground ball percentage in the Majors at 28% (min. 90 IP).
- Made his second straight OPENING DAY roster.
- Began the season in the Astros rotation, recording a 3.14 ERA (17ER/48.2IP) with a .173 opponent batting average, a 1.03 WHIP and a 3-1 record in nine starts.
- Moved to the bullpen for his final 27 outings...recorded a 3.93 ERA (23ER/52.2IP) with 72 strikeouts in 27 appearances as a reliever.
- In the POSTSEASON, he recorded a 3.38 ERA (4ER/10.2IP) with 19 strikeouts...was stellar in Game 4 of the ALCS, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings with two walks and three strikeouts.

2020 SEASON:

- 23-year old made his Major League debut, making 10 starts and two relief appearances while finishing third in the AL Rookie of the Year voting.
- Posted the highest finish by an Astros pitcher in the Rookie of the Year voting since Roy Oswalt finished in second in the 2001 NL Rookie of the Year voting.
- Went 5-2 with a 3.68 ERA (21ER/51.1IP), 18 walks, 48 strikeouts and a .188 opponent batting average (.34x181) across his 10 starts.
- Allowed just 36 hits in his 54.1 innings pitched, good for a .188 opponent batting average (.36x192)...led all AL rookies and ranked fourth among AL pitchers in opponent batting average (min. 150 batters faced), behind only Shane Bieber (.167), Kenta Maeda (.168) and Lucas Giolito (.184).
- Recorded the third-best WHIP by a rookie pitcher in club history (0.99), behind only Chris Devenski's (0.91 in 2016) and Bill Dawley (0.92 in 1983).
- Posted the third-best opponent batting average by a rookie in club history (min. 200 batters faced)...only Billy Wagner (.165 in 1996) and Bill Dawley (.185 in 1983) posted better marks as rookies.
- Had the seventh-lowest hard-hit ball rate in MLB (29.3%, min. 100 batted balls).
- Among AL pitchers with at least 150 batters faced, ranked seventh in WHIP (0.99).
- Led all AL rookies in ERA (min. 150 batters faced), and opponent average, and ranked tied for fourth in wins, tied for second starts, fourth in innings pitched and third in strikeouts (54).
- Gave up three runs or less in nine of his 10 starts.
- Made his first career OPENING DAY roster.
- Made his MLB debut on July 25 vs. SEA, tossing 1.0 scoreless inning of relief.
- Made his first career Major League start on July 29 vs. LAD (1ER/5.2IP)...struck out Max Muncy, Mookie Betts and Cody Bellinger to open up the game...per Elias, became the second pitcher in Astros history to strike out the first three batters he faced in his first Major League start, joining Frank DiPino (Sept. 7, 1982 vs. SD).
- Became the first Astros pitcher to allow two hits-or-fewer in at least 5.0 innings in his first Major League start since Jarred Cosart on July 12, 2013 vs TB.
- Was also the first Astros pitcher to allow one run-or-fewer in at least 5.0 innings in his first Major League start since Vince Velasquez on June 10, 2015.
- Gave up just 10 hits over his first four Major League starts for a .147 opponent batting average (10x68)...marked the fifth-best opponent batting average over a pitcher's first four MLB starts in franchise history, behind Taylor Buchholz (.134), Darryl Kile (.138), Tom Griffin (.143) and Mike Madden (.146).
- Struck out five Dodgers hitters over 2.0 scoreless innings of relief on Sept. 13 at LAD...became the third rookie reliever to strike out five-plus Dodgers hitters in an Interleague game, joining Baltimore's Dylan Bundy (7 K's on July 6, 2016) and Boston's Casey Fossum (5 K's on June 23, 2002).
- POSTSEASON: Made five relief appearances in the postseason across all three rounds, going 2-0 with a 2.89 ERA (3ER/9.1IP), five walks and 13 strikeouts.
- The Astros went 5-0 in his appearances.
- Both of his wins came in series-clinching games (ALDS Game 4 vs. OAK, Wild Card Series Game 2 at MIN), making him the second pitcher in club history to record two wins in series-clinching games in a single postseason, joining Charlie Morton (2017).
- Became the sixth pitcher in MLB history to earn the win without allowing a run in multiple series-clinching games in a single postseason, joining Mike Stanton (2000), Derek Lowe (2004), Jeremy Affeldt (2014), David Robertson (2017) and Ryan Madson (2018).
- Began his postseason career with 6.1 scoreless innings, spanning three outings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Rookie left-handed reliever is in his seventh season as a professional after being drafted by the Cubs in the 30th round of the 2019 draft...has been with the Astros organization for two years (2023-24), debuting with the Major League club in 2024.
- Had a strong 2024 season, appearing in 28 Major League games, posting a 2.39 ERA (7ER/26.1IP) with 32 strikeouts in 26.1 innings...held left-handed hitters to a .220 (9x41) opponent average and a .548 opponent OPS...in addition to his MLB success, also had a stellar Triple A season, in which he posted a 2.21 ERA (9ER/36.2IP) in 34 appearances.
- Made his Major League debut on June 23, 2024 vs. BAL, tossing a scoreless inning...fanned Gunnar Henderson for his first MLB strikeout.
- Made one POSTSEASON appearance in the 2024 Wild Card Series vs. DET (0ER/0.2IP).
- Has a strong minor league track record, making 85 career minor league appearances, all in relief, posting a 2.84 ERA (40ER/126.2IP)...has posted a .234 career opponent batting average, while striking out 130 hitters in 126.2 innings pitched.

2024 SEASON:

- The rookie 27-year-old received a mid-season promotion and spent the bulk of the second half of the season at the big league level, going 1-0 with a 2.39 ERA (7ER/26.1IP), a .211 opponent average (20x95) and 32 strikeouts through 28 appearances.
- Was tougher on right-handed hitters, holding them to a .204 batting average (11x54) compared to a .220 batting average (9x41) vs. left-handed hitters...however, allowed just one extra-base hit among the 46 left-handed batters he faced.
- Relied on a four-pitch mix in his rookie season, featuring a four-seam fastball (52%), slider (36%), curveball (8%) and sinker (5%).
- Made his MLB debut on June 23 vs. BAL, striking out one in a perfect 1.0 inning...picked up his first career strikeout vs. All-Star SS Gunnar Henderson.
- Recorded his first career winning decision on July 5 at MIN (1.0 IP, 2 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 0 SO).
- Tossed a career-high 1.2 innings on June 30 at NYM, recording one strikeout in the scoreless and hitless outing...matched the career high on Sept. 16 at SD, recording two strikeouts in a scoreless 1.2 frames.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Cuban outfielder has played in four professional seasons in the Astros organization (2021-24) since being signed as an international free agent out of Cuba in 2021...enters the 2025 season as Houston's No. 19 overall prospect, per Baseball America.
- Made his MLB debut for the Astros in 2024, appearing in seven games...went 2x20 (.100) with a walk and a pair of steals in his limited MLB action.
- Through 433 career minor league games, he has batted .252 (408x1620) with 71 home runs, 261 RBI and 106 stolen bases...has played parts of the last four seasons (2021-24) with Triple A Sugar Land, where he is the all-time franchise leader in hits (360), total bases (639), doubles (77), home runs (62), RBI (227), walks (191), runs scored (234), stolen bases (92), hit by pitch (44), plate appearances (1676), at bats (1426) and games (378).
- Is now a full-time outfielder, but does have experience playing on the infield in his minor league career...has 195 career minor league starts in center field, his most at any position...also has starts in right field (86), second base (70), shortstop (51), left field (7) and third base (6).
- Was voted an Astros MiLB.com Organizational ALL-STAR in 2023...was the only player in the Pacific Coast League, and one of five players in the Astros system, to log at least 20 home runs and 20 stolen bases...hit for the cycle on June 25, 2023 at Salt Lake, becoming the first player in Sugar Land's history to accomplish the feat.

2024 SEASON:

- Rookie outfielder made his Major League debut in 2024, appearing in seven games for the Astros, including six starts...went 2x20 (.100) with a walk and two steals in his limited Major League action.
- Opened his season at Triple A Sugar Land before being selected to the Major League roster on July 30...was with the Astros through Aug. 19 and was optioned back to Triple A.
- Recorded his first Major League hit in his first career plate appearance (Aug. 3 vs. TB), a single off RHP Zack Littell...became the 52nd player in club history to record a hit in their first career plate appearance.
- Had huge moments at Triple A in 2024, including a two-homer, six-RBI game on May 14 at ABQ, tying his career high in RBI.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Signed by Houston as a 23-year-old out of Havana, Cuba on Jan. 15, 2021...signed by Astros scout Charlie Gonzalez...was rated by MLB Pipeline as the No. 7 prospect of the 2021 international free-agent class.
- Grew up idolizing former Astros infielder Yuli Gurriel, who had a legendary career in the Cuban National Series...at the time of Leon's signing in 2021, Gurriel was the Astros starting first baseman, while the Astros also rostered fellow countryman Yordan Alvarez and Aledmys Diaz...the four Cubans shared the same clubhouse in 2021 and 2022 Spring Training.
- Was lauded for his powerful arm at the time of his signing and was selected as having the "Best Outfield Arm" in the Astros system ahead of the 2025 season by Baseball America...had an outfield assist that registered at 98.8 mph, per Statcast, on June 5, 2022, while with Triple A Sugar Land.
- Was invited to Major League Spring Training in 2025 for the fourth time in his career, but his first time as a 40-man roster player...was also an NRI in 2021, 2022 and 2024...did not get an invite in 2023 while recovering from offseason hernia surgery.

- Appeared with the American League squad in the 2021 All-Star Futures Game.
- Appeared in two seasons with Mayabeque of the Cuban National Series prior to signing with Houston...batted .359 (88x245) with 21 home runs, 61 RBI and eight stolen bases through 67 games.

- In 118 games at Triple A this season, he batted .299 (140x469) with 25 doubles, 24 home runs, 90 RBI, 29 stolen bases and an .886 OPS...finished fifth in the PCL in RBI (90), sixth in total bases (237), tied for sixth in hits (140), seventh in average (.299), eighth in OPS (.886) and in stolen bases (29), ninth in home runs (24) & in SLG (.514) and tied for 10th in extra-base hits (51).
- With his huge season at Triple A, became Sugar Land's all-time franchise leader in hits (360), total bases (639), doubles (77), home runs (62), RBI (227), walks (191), runs scored (234), stolen bases (92), hit by pitch (44), plate appearances (1676), at bats (1426) and games (378).

- A native Houstonian, Brice has deep roots with the Astros organization as a former youth player at the Astros Youth Academy...the Astros AYA has helped thousands of boys and girls since it opened in 2010, with many getting college scholarships to play baseball and softball...at the time of Brice's selection by the Astros there had been 11 kids taken in the MLB Draft who played at the AYA, but not a first-rounder.
- When he wasn't at the academy, Matthews was starring at Atascocita HS in Humble, TX, both on the diamond and the gridiron...Matthews served as his high school's dual-threat quarterback, finishing his senior season going 233-of-372 for 4,001 yards with 43 touchdowns and 12 interceptions...he also had 108 carries for 744 yards with 11 touchdowns...Matthews finished his football career as District 22-6A MVP.
- While at Atascocita HS, played behind offensive lineman Kenyon Green...Green went on to star at Texas A&M before being selected by the Houston Texans in the first round of the 2022 NFL draft.
- Matthews was not drafted out high school and went on to play baseball at the University of Nebraska for three seasons...had a breakout junior year in 2023 in which he hit .359 at the plate with 20 homers and 20 stolen bases as a first-team All-Big Ten selection...tallied a .481 OBP and a .723 slugging percentage...his 20-20 season was the first by a Huskers player in school history and the second in Big Ten history.
- Selected by Houston in the first round of the 2023 June draft with the 28th overall selection...signed by Astros scout Drew Pearson.
- Received his first career Major League Spring Training camp invite this season.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Grew up in West Chester, PA, as a fan of the Phillies and as a fan of their lead broadcaster Harry Kalas, the father of Astros television broadcaster Todd Kalas...is the youngest of four brothers in his family, including his identical twin brother, Jason, who was born nine minutes before Chas.
- Attended West Chester Henderson HS (PA) and became the first player in school history to score 1,000 career points in basketball and record 100 career hits in baseball...faced off vs. current New York Knicks forward Mikal Bridges in high school...Bridges, who attended Great Valley High School (PA), notoriously thwarted an initial attempt by McCormick to reach 1,000 career points, holding him to under three points in their final matchup in 2013.
- Went on to attend Division II Millersville, where he had an outstanding four-year career...helped the Marauders to a NCAA Division II Championship runner-up finish in 2016...finished his career at Millersville with a .373 average and a .441 OBP...is the only Marauder in program history to be a four-time All-Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference East selection and one of only four to be a three-time first team leader...finished career as Millersville's all-time selection in hits, runs and RBI.
- Drafted by the Astros in the 21st round of the June 2017 draft...signed by Astros scout Zach Clark.
- Is an oddity in baseball, as a position player who bats exclusively right-handed and throws left-handed...joined teammate Jake Meyers and Angels outfielder Bryce Teodosio as the only MLB players in 2024 with that distinction...Meyers and McCormick are the first pair of teammates to bat right and throw left since Rickey Henderson and Brian Leshar played together for Seattle in 2000...McCormick, Meyers, Jason Lane and Carl Warwick are the only four players in club history that fit into the category.

- Had a phenomenal rookie season in 2015, finishing top-10 among Astros rookie single-season records in SO/9IP (2nd, 9.24), opponent batting average (4th, .226), ERA (7th, 3.22) and strikeouts (7th, 129).
- Tabbed by BA as the game's No. 77 prospect in 2014 and No. 50 prospect in 2013...ranked by the publication as the Astros No. 11 prospect in 2015, No. 5 prospect in 2014 and No. 4 prospect in 2013.
- Was a Midseason ALL-STAR in the Midwest League (A) in 2013 and Texas League (AA) in 2015.

2024 SEASON:

- Entered the 2024 season projected to return to action midseason after recovering from 2023 forearm surgery...suffered a setback in July and ended up not pitching for the Astros in 2024.

2023 SEASON:

- Did not make an appearance in Spring Training, the regular season or postseason due to a right forearm injury...underwent surgery to repair his right flexor tendon and remove a bone spur on June 13.

2022 SEASON:

- Seven-year veteran and the emotional leader of the Astros pitching staff was limited to just eight starts due to injury...was great in his limited play, posting a 2.27 ERA (12ER/47.2IP) with 50 strikeouts and a .215 opponent average...made five quality starts, including two scoreless appearances.
- Missed the Astros first 119 games due to a right flexor tendon strain that he suffered while pitching in Game 4 of the 2021 ALDS vs. Chicago (AL)...went on to miss the ALCS and World Series...made his 2022 debut on Aug. 13.
- Allowed two-or-fewer runs in seven of his eight starts...despite missing the first half of the season, returned as a workhorse, tossing 6.0+ innings in each of his last four starts.
- Posted a 1.50 ERA (5ER/30IP) in five home starts.
- Made four minor league rehab appearances on his way back from injury...he recorded a 6.75 ERA (10ER/13.1IP) with 17 strikeouts during his rehab assignment, making three starts with Triple A Sugar Land and one with Double A Corpus Christi.
- Signed a long-term contract with the Astros on March 26, 2022...the five-year deal will keep him in an Astros uniform through the 2026 season.
- Pitched in three POSTSEASON games, leading Astros to a 2-1 record in those contests...struck out 18 batters in 15.2IP...threw a dominant 6.0 scoreless innings in G3 of ALDS at SEA, allowing two hits and striking out seven batters in an eventual 1-0 to clinch the series.

2021 SEASON:

- Had his best season as a pro, reaching career highs in wins (13), starts (28), innings (162.1) and strikeouts (185), also posting the best ERA (3.16) and opponent batting average (.205) of his career.
- Among qualifying AL pitchers, he finished his season ranking first in opponent batting average (.205), first in opponent OPS (.628) and second in ERA (3.16)...he also posted the lowest home runs per 9.0 (0.72) ratio and the highest ground ball perc. (56.9) in the AL.
- Allowed just 13 homers in his 162.1 innings this season for the lowest HR/9IP ratio (0.72) in the AL.
- Held right-handed hitters to a .188 (59x313) average and lefties to a .223 (63x283) mark.
- Showcased a new slider, throwing it 23.9% of the time...threw the pitch on 710 occasions, with opponents going 24x158 (.152) when they put it in play...still relied heavily on his famous curveball (25%) and his hard fastball (34%), while mixing in changeups (13.8%) and cutters (3.3%).
- Made the Astros OPENING DAY roster for the fourth time in his career and started the club's third game.
- Following the season, was named the Astros Pitcher of the Year by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA.
- Combined to go 1-0 with a 0.84 ERA (1ER/10.2IP) in two starts in the POSTSEASON, both coming in the ALDS...started Game 1 vs. CWS (0ER/6.2IP) and became the 11th pitcher in franchise history to toss at least 6.2 shutout innings in a postseason game, and the first since Gerrit Cole (7IP) in Game 3 of the 2019 ALCS vs. NY Yankees...returned on full rest to start Game 4 (1ER/4.1IP), tossing 4.1 innings before leaving with a flexor pronator strain, which kept him out the remainder of the postseason.

2020 SEASON:

- Made a successful return from Tommy John surgery, posting a 3.93 ERA in 11 starts for the Astros.
- Was excellent at home, going 3-0 with a 1.42 ERA (5ER/31.2IP) in five starts at Daikin Park.
- Among MLB pitchers with at least 40.0 innings, owned the second-highest groundball rate (61.1%).
- Led all American League pitchers in putouts (11) and total chances (18) while fielding his position.
- Threw his curveball at a career-low rate (37.6%)...threw his changeup at a career-high rate (18.4%).
- Made the Astros OPENING DAY roster for the third time in his career.

- Posted a 2-2 record and a 2.18 ERA (10ER/41.1IP) with 13 walks, 26 hits allowed (.182 avg.), a 0.94 WHIP and 45 strikeouts over his final eight starts.
- Struck out a season-high nine batters over just 4.0 scoreless innings in his final start of the season on Sept. 26 at TEX.
- Was on the Astros active roster throughout the entire POSTSEASON...made one start in the ALDS (Game 1) and two starts in the ALCS (Games 1 and 7)...went 0-2 with a 4.91 ERA (8ER/14.2IP), two walks and 23 strikeouts during his three postseason starts.

- ALCS VS. TB: Had a dominant performance in Game 1...gave up four runs (one earned)...struck out 11 batters without a walk over 7.0 innings pitched...his 11 punchouts ranked sixth in Astros history for a single postseason game, and marked the most by an Astros pitcher since Gerrit Cole's 15-strikeout performance in Game 2 of the 2019 ALDS vs. TB.
- Joined Cole (2018 ALDS Game 2 vs. CLE, 12 K) as the only Astros pitchers to post 11+ strikeouts without walking a batter in a single postseason game.
- Became the first pitcher in club history to make multiple Game 7 starts in his career.

2019 SEASON:

- Missed the entire season while recovering from right ulnar collateral ligament surgery.

2018 SEASON:

- Tossed a career-high 128.1 innings pitched and struck out a career-high 142 batters in what was his fourth Major League season.
- Set career-high marks in wins (10) and apps (25).
- Made 22 starts before suffering an elbow injury in August...returned to the club in September and pitched in three games out of the bullpen, the first regular season relief appearances of his career.
- Went 10-6 with a 3.93 ERA (55ER/126IP) and 138 strikeouts in his 22 starts...threw 2.1 hitless innings with four strikeouts in his three relief outings.
- Threw his changeup at a career-high rate for a single season (16%)...previous was 12% in 2017.
- Recorded four double-digit strikeout games, giving him 12 for his career...became the second pitcher in club history with 12+ double-digit strikeout games prior to turning 25 years old...also Don Wilson (16).
- Made his second-career OPENING DAY roster.
- Pitched a gem on April 17 at SEA, striking out 11 and allowing just one run on one hit in 7.0 innings...tied his career-high for strikeouts in a single game...retired 19 of the final 20 batters he faced.

- Carried a perfect game into the 6th inning on April 28 vs. OAK.
- Held a perfect game through 5.0 innings on May 20 vs. CLE...finished with 7.0 scoreless innings in Houston's 3-1 win.
- Struck out a career-high 12 batters on July 6 vs. CWS...gave up one run on three hits over 7.0 innings, walking none...took a no-hitter into the 6th inning.
- Became the second-youngest pitcher in club history to have a game with 12 strikeouts and no walks (24 years, 277 days) behind Larry Dierker, who had such a game as a 22-year-old in 1969.
- POSTSEASON: Pitched in five games in the postseason, posting a 1.80 ERA (1ER/5IP) with two walks and four strikeouts.
- ALDS VS. CLE: Was scoreless in Game 1 (1IP) and Game 3 (1IP).
- ALCS VS. BOS: Recorded a hold in Game 1 in the Astros 7-2 win at Fenway Park.
- Underwent Tommy John surgery on his right elbow on Nov. 6, 2018.

2017 SEASON:

- Was named to his first-career ALL-STAR team and was a hero for the club during the postseason.
- At 23 years old, became the second-youngest pitcher in club history to make an All-Star Team, behind RHP Larry Dierker (22 in 1969).
- Posted career-best marks in walk rate (7.8%) and walks per 9.0 innings ratio (3.03)...put up the highest groundball rate of his career with a 61.9% mark.

- Got the save in Game 7 after throwing 4.0 shutout innings...was the seventh save of at least 4.0 innings in MLB postseason history, and the first since Madison Bumgarner's save in Game 7 of the 2014 World Series...allowed just one hit and one walk to preserve Houston's 4-0 victory...threw 24 straight curveballs to end the game.
- Became the first pitcher in MLB history to strike out at least six batters in a postseason save.
- At 24 years, 19 days old, became the third-youngest pitcher in MLB history to record a save in a Game 7, behind LHP David Price (2008 ALCS, 23.054) and LHP Will McEnaney (1975 World Series, 23.250).
- Started Games 3 and 7 of the World Series...got the win in Game 3 after allowing three runs on four hits in 5.1 innings pitched...was the first World Series win in Daikin Park history.
- Did not factor into the decision in Game 7, tossing 2.1 scoreless innings...allowed three hits and hit four batters, a Major League record for a postseason game...at 24 years, 30 days, became the youngest pitcher to start Game 7 of the World Series since RHP John Lackey (24 years, 4 days) in Game 7 of the 2002 World Series.
- Recorded an RBI groundout in Game 7, becoming the first pitcher with an RBI since Barry Zito (Game 1, 2012), and the first AL pitcher with an RBI in the Fall Classic since Andy Pettitte (Game 3, 2009)...became the first AL pitcher to collect an RBI in Game 7 of a World Series, and the first pitcher in general since Jesse Orosco of the Mets in 1986.

- Posted a 3.22 ERA with 106 strikeouts in 81.0 innings across 14 starts in a season bookended by IL stints.
- Spent the season as one of the youngest starting pitchers in the AL...the only AL pitchers younger than McCullers to make a start were RHP Jose Berrios, RHP Luis Severino and RHP David Paulino.
- Put up an 11.78 strikeouts per 9.0 innings ratio (106SO/81IP), which ranked fourth among all MLB pitchers (min. 80IP) behind RHP Jose Fernandez (12.49), RHP Yu Darvish (11.84) and RHP David Phelps (11.84)...was the fourth-highest single season strikeouts per 9.0 innings ratio by an Astros pitcher all-time (min. 80IP), behind RHP Brad Lidge in 2004 (14.93), RHP Octavio Dotel in 2001 (12.43) and LHP Randy Johnson in 1998 (12.38).
- Became the third pitcher in MLB history with a K's per 9.0 innings ratio of 11.78 or higher prior to his age-23 season (min. 80IP)...also RHP Francisco Rodriguez (13.18) and RHP Kerry Wood (12.58).
- Joined RHP Roy Oswalt as the only pitchers in club history to post an ERA of 3.22 or lower in each of their first two seasons in the Majors.
- Led the AL with a 2.40 home ERA (min. 60 IP).
- Finished second in the Majors in curveball percentage (49.6%), trailing LHP Rich Hill (49.7%).
- Began the year on the 15-day IL with right shoulder soreness...was activated from the IL on May 13.
- In his start on May 26 vs. BAL, struck out 10 and allowed one run in 5.0 innings in a 4-2 Astros win...became the fourth MLB since 1913 to record 10+ strikeouts while allowing one hit or fewer in less than 6.0 innings, joining RHP Felix Hernandez (2013), RHP Jake Peavy (2003) and RHP Bobby Witt (1986).
- Made his first career start against the Yankees on July 27 and got the win, striking out 10 batters and allowing one run in 6.0 innings...per the Elias Sports Bureau, became the fourth-youngest pitcher over a 40-season span (22 years, 299 days old) to defeat the Yankees while recording 10+ strikeouts, behind only RHP Moose Haas (21.355 in 1978), LHP Matt Moore (22.096 in 2011) and RHP Mark Prior (22.274 in 2003).
- Posted double-digit strikeouts in consecutive starts from July 22-27...became the first Astros pitcher with consecutive double-digit strikeout games since LHP Wandy Rodriguez did so from Sept. 11-17, 2010.
- His 13.05 strikeouts per 9.0 innings ratio in July (44SO/30.1IP) ranked fifth all-time in American League history for a single July, trailing only RHP Pedro Martinez (13.94 in 2000), RHP Nolan Ryan (13.89 in 1989) and LHP Randy Johnson (13.38 in 1994; 13.14 in 1997).
- Was placed on the IL with right elbow discomfort on Aug. 3...remained on the IL through the end of the season.

2015 SEASON:

- Made 22 starts in his debut year in MLB, allowing three earned runs or less in 20 of his 22 starts.
- Among AL pitchers with at least 100.0 innings, ranked sixth in strikeouts per 9.0 innings and seventh in ERA and opponent batting average.
- Authored one of the best rookie seasons by a pitcher in club history, finishing top-10 in Astros rookie single-season records in SO/9IP (2nd, 9.24), opponent batting average (4th, .226), ERA (7th, 3.22) and strikeouts (7th, 129) (min. 100IP).
- Led AL rookies in ERA, opponent batting average and strikeouts per 9.0 innings (min. 100IP), while ranking third in strikeouts and wins above replacement (2.4).
- Was the second-youngest starting pitcher in the Majors, behind Yankees RHP Luis Severino.
- His 129 strikeouts ranked second all-time in club history within a player's first 22 career games, behind RHP Tom Griffin (145 in 1969).
- Spent Spring Training at minor league camp, but did make two appearances with the Major League team.
- Started the regular season at Double A Corpus Christi before getting promoted to Triple A Fresno on May 14...did not pitch in a game at Triple A and was selected to the Astros Major League roster on May 15.

- Made his Major League debut on May 18 vs. OAK...tossed 4.2 innings and allowed just one run in the game, striking out five and walking three.
- Picked up his first MLB win in what was his second MLB start on May 23 at Detroit...tossed 6.0 innings, allowing two runs on six hits, with six strikeouts.
- Struck out 11 batters in a one-run complete game effort on June 3 vs. CWS...marked his first professional complete game...became the first Astros rookie to strike out 11 batters in a complete game since RHP Roy Oswalt struck out 12 on Sept. 9, 2001 vs. MIL.
- On June 14 vs. SEA, tossed 5.0 hitless innings...at 21 years, 255 days, became the youngest pitcher to toss at least 5.0 hitless innings in a start since RHP Phil Hughes (20.311) on May 1, 2007 at Texas.
- Finished June with a 2.11 ERA (9ER/38.1IP), which marked the lowest ERA posted by an Astros rookie during the month since RHP Darryl Kile put up a 1.80 ERA in June of 1991...his .164 opponent batting average (22x134) in June was the lowest produced by an Astros pitcher since RHP Mike Scott in June of 1987 (.164, 26x159), and the lowest ever produced by an Astros rookie during the month.
- Among AL rookies in June, ranked first in strikeouts (40), tied for first in wins (3) and third in ERA...received votes for AL Rookie of the Month, which was awarded to teammate Carlos Correa.
- POSTSEASON: Started one postseason game for Houston (ALDS Game 4 vs. KC), becoming the youngest pitcher in club history to start a playoff game (22 years, 10 days old)...prior to McCullers, LHP Mike Hampton held the club record as he started Game 2 of the 1997 NLDS at 25 years, 22 days old.
- ALDS VS. KC: Became the youngest AL pitcher to toss at least 6.0 innings while allowing two runs or less in his first career postseason game since LHP CC Sabathia in Game 3 of the 2001 ALDS.
- Was named a Texas League Midseason All-Star at Double A Corpus Christi after allowing two earned runs in his 29.0 innings (0.62 ERA), striking out 43.
- At the time of his promotion to Triple A, was leading Double A in opponent average (.146), while ranking second in ERA and tied for fourth in strikeouts.
- Prior to the season, was ranked as a top 10 Astros prospect by multiple publications, including Baseball Prospectus (#7), Baseball America (#9) and ESPN (#6).

- Appeared in 41 games in a middle relief for the Astros in 2024, posting a 4.70 ERA (20ER/38.1IP)...accepted an outright assignment to the minors after being designated for assignment and finished the year with Triple A Sugar Land.
- Has pitched in two POSTSEASONS for the Astros (2022-23), logging a 2.51 ERA (4ER/14.1IP) with 18 strikeouts and a .143 opponent's batting average through 15 appearances.
- Was a mainstay in the Astros bullpen 2023, topping 65 appearances for the second straight season...was tied for ninth in the American League with 75 strikeouts, which were his career-high as a reliever...pitched to mixed results, recording a 5.08 ERA (38ER/67.1IP) on the year, but finished the season by logging a 2.75 ERA (11ER/36IP) with 43 strikeouts and a .224 opponent's batting average through his final 25 appearances...recorded a 3.60 ERA (2ER/5IP) with eight strikeouts through five POSTSEASON appearances
- Had a career year for the Astros in 2022, posting a 2.37 ERA and a 163 ERA+ in 71 games...served as closer when RHP Ryan Pressly was unavailable, earning 14 saves and 23 holds, both career-highs...also pitched for the first time in the POSTSEASON and was dominant, going 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA and four holds in 9.1 innings...struck out 10 batters and had a .156 opponent batting average.
- Pitched a scoreless eighth inning in Game 4 of the 2022 World Series against the Phillies, combining with RHP Cristian Javier (6 IP), RHP Bryan Abreu (1 IP) and RHP Ryan Pressly (1 IP) to toss just the third no-hitter in MLB postseason history.
- Served as the Rangers closer in the 2020 season, going eight-for-eight in save opportunities...was one of just three pitchers in the Majors to convert at least eight saves without a blown save.
- Made his MLB debut on May 14, 2014 vs. NYY, taking the loss in the Mets 4-0 defeat (6.0 IP, 5 H, 3 R-ER)...struck out a career-high 10 hitters in his third career start on May 25, 2014 vs. ARI (G1).

BROADCAST NOTES

- Grew up in the rural hometown of Sabana Huguero, which is inland Dominican Republic and near the Haitian border...played baseball recreationally as a child in Huguero before moving to Santo Domingo with a brother to train as a professional baseball player...at the time his move to Santo Domingo, he was topping out at 89...by the time he turned 20, he was reaching 94, attracting attention from local scouts.
- Despite his advanced age, the Mets signed Montero as a 20-year-old international free agent on Jan. 20, 2011...officially signed by Mets scouts Rafael Perez, Ismael Cruz and Gerardo Cabrera.
- After signing with the Mets, blossomed into a huge prospect, eventually starting the Futures Game for the World Team in 2013...entering the 2014 season, ranked as the Mets No. 2 pitching prospect, behind only RHP Noah Syndergaard and immediately ahead of RHP Jacob deGrom (per Fangraphs).
- Struggled to find his footing in the Mets organization before undergoing Tommy John surgery in '18...signed a minor league deal with the Rangers prior to the 2019 season and settled into full-time relief role post-surgery...was offered a chance to return to starting role with the Rangers but insisted on continuing as a reliever to maintain his arm's health...he bounced around the Rangers and Mariners organizations (2019-21) prior to the 2021 Trade Deadline.
- Acquired by the Astros on July 27, 2021, alongside RHP Kendall Graveman in exchange for RHP Joe Smith and IF Abraham Toro...prior to the trade, he had been DFA'd by the Mariners...that trade has been a huge success for Houston...Graveman was a boon for the Astros bullpen down the stretch in 2021, while Montero proved to be invaluable for the club in 2022...on the Mariners side, Smith reached free agency after the 2021 and Toro was traded to the Brewers following the 2022 season.
- Has played for four teams in his professional career in parts of eight seasons...reached free agency after the 2022 season and re-signed with the Astros on Nov. 15, 2022...signed a three-year deal to stay in Houston through the 2025 season...was designated for assignment on July 31, 2024, and was eventually outrighted to the minors...entered 2025 Spring Training as a non-roster invitee.

- Had a strong minor league career with the Mets as one of their top prospects...had an eventful 2013, in which he started the Future's Game (OER/1IP), was named an MiLB.com Organization ALL-STAR and was a BA Minor League All-Star.

- Made his third consecutive OPENING DAY roster with the Astros, going 1-2 with a 4.70 ERA (20ER/38.1IP) in 41 games.
- Logged a .200 opponent batting average (14x70) vs. right-handed hitters, allowing just four extra-base hits.
- Posted a 3.04 ERA (8ER/23.2IP) while recording a .205 opponent batting average (17x83) and a 1.06 WHIP through his first 24 appearances of the season...was scoreless in 18 of the 24 outings.
- Was designated for assignment on July 31 and eventually accepted an outright assignment to Triple A Sugar Land.
- Went 1-1 with a 2.20 ERA (4ER/16.1IP), 24 strikeouts and a .217 opponent batting average in 17 games with Triple A Sugar Land to close out his season.

2023 SEASON:

- Spent the 2023 campaign mostly in a middle relief role, going 3-3 with a 5.08 ERA (38ER/67.1IP) with one save and 79 strikeouts through 68 games.
- Struggled early on during the year but regained high-leverage innings in the second half of the season... recorded a 2.25 ERA (11ER/36IP) with 43 strikeouts, a .224 opponent's batting average and a 1.28 WHIP through his final 25 appearances.
- Was tied for ninth in the AL with 79 strikeouts, which were also his single-season career high as a reliever...also posted a career-best 10.56 strikeouts-per-nine-innings, surpassing his previous high of 10.55 SO/9 with the Rangers in 2019.
- Per Baseball Savant, averaged 96.1 mph with his fastball, which was the second-fastest mark of his career behind only an average of 96.4 mph in 2022.
- Collected his lone save of the season in his second appearance of the season on March 31 vs. CWS (1.0 IP, 1 H, 0 R, 0 BB, 1 SO).
- Made his fifth appearance on an OPENING DAY roster, also, 2015, 2017, 2021 and 2022..was his second Opening Day as an Astro.
- Participated with Team Dominican Republic in the 2023 World Baseball Classic, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings in two appearances.
- Recorded a 3.60 ERA (2ER/5IP), with three walks, eight strikeouts and a 1.00 WHIP in the POSTSEASON...finished the Astros' wins in Game 3 of the ALDS at Minnesota and Game 4 of the ALCS at Texas, recording a scoreless and hitless inning in each appearance.

2022 SEASON:

- Setup man turned in career year in his first full season with the Astros, posting a 2.37 ERA and a 1.63 ERA+ while logging 14 saves in 71 games.

- Was dominant at home, posting a 1.76 ERA and allowing a .175 opponent batting average at Daikin Park...in one-run games, went 2-1 with a 1.26 ERA... held left-handed hitters to a .158 (18x114) batting average.
- Among AL players, tied for third in appearances (71), tied for sixth in holds (23), 11th in innings (68.1) and 12th in saves (14).
- Made his fourth OPENING DAY roster.
- Was one of five Dominican-born pitchers used on April 13 vs. ARI (also, LHP Framber Valdez, RHP Ronel Blanco, RHP Cristian Javier, Montero and RHP Hector Neris)...according to Elias Sports, this tied a Major League record for most Dominican-born pitchers used in a single game...had been reached only four other times previously, also by the 2006 D-backs (3x) and the 2009 Royals (once).
- Allowed just two earned runs across last 15 apps. (14.2IP) to close out the regular season.
- In his first career POSTSEASON, pitched in 10 games while going 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA and four holds in 9.1 innings...struck out 10 and allowed a .156 opponent batting average...earned win in 1st career playoff appearance...went 1.2 innings in G2 of WS, allowing 1 hit and earning a strikeout... Astros went 9-1 in games that he pitched in.
- Pitched a scoreless 8th inning in Game 4 of the 2022 World Series against the Phillies, combining with RHP Cristian Javier (6IP), RHP Bryan Abreu (1IP) and RHP Ryan Pressly (1IP) to toss just the third no-hitter in postseason history.
- Reached free agency in the offseason and signed a three-year deal to stay with the Astros on Nov. 15.

2021 SEASON:

- Combined to go 5-4 with seven saves and a 6.39 ERA (35ER/49.1IP) in 44 games between the Mariners (40g) and the Astros (4g).
- Made the Mariners OPENING DAY roster and began the year as the club's closer...converted seven-of-12 save chances on the year, all with SEA
- Was designated for assignment on July 23...was acquired by the Astros on July 27 in a four-player deal that also brought RHP Kendall Graveman to Houston, while sending IF Abraham Toro and RHP Joe Smith to Seattle.
- Made four appearances for the Astros, tossing 6.0 innings without allowing an earned run.
- Placed on the IL on Aug. 10 with right shoulder discomfort, later diagnosed as a right lat strain, which ended his season.

2020 SEASON:

- Worked the entire pandemic-shortened season as the Rangers closer, going eight-for-eight in save opportunities...was one of just three pitchers in the Majors to log at least eight saves without a blown save (also: CLE's Brad Hand, 16-for-16; and NYY's Zack Britton, 8-for-8).
- Appeared in 17 games on the season, going 0-1 with a 4.08 ERA (8ER, 17.2IP), 19 strikeouts.

- Lefty reliever has pitched in parts of seven Major League seasons (2016-18, 2021-24) with the Giants (2016-18), Marlins (2021-23) and Twins (2024)...is 15-11 with one save and a 3.92 ERA (100ER/229.2IP) in 272 career Major League appearances...has 253 strikeouts in 229.2 career innings.
- Has also pitched in parts of 11 minor league seasons dating back to 2012...has 344 career minor league appearances under his belt, going 30-13 with 44 saves and a 3.41 ERA (156ER/412IP)...has 497 strikeouts in his 412.0 minor league innings.
- Has one career POSTSEASON appearance, which came with the Marlins in the 2023 National League Wild Card Series at Philadelphia...in Game 1, allowed one run on two hits in 1.0 inning with no walks and one strikeout at Citizens Bank Park.
- Had a breakout 2014 season with Advanced A San Jose and Double A Richmond...led the Giants organization with 24 saves...named to the California League Mid-Season ALL-STAR team...after the season, pitched for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League...selected to the AFL All-Prospect Team and was named to the Rising Stars Game after posting a 0.75 ERA (1ER/12IP) with 17 strikeouts in 10 games.

2024 SEASON:

- Pitched in his first season with the Twins after being acquired via trade with Miami on Feb. 11, in exchange for utility player Nick Gordon.
- Was in the Twins bullpen from Opening Day through Aug. 24 as a middle reliever and lefty specialist.
- Held left-handed hitters to a .193 batting average with a .564 OPS with Minnesota and right-handers to a .317 average with a .984 OPS.
- Recorded his first career save in his fourth appearance of the season on April 10 vs. LAD, pitching a scoreless 9th inning in a Twins 3-2 victory...got the opportunity after Brock Stewart and Griffin Jax pitched the 7th and 8th, and Jhoan Duran began the season on IL.
- Allowed just four hits to left-handed batters (36 lefties faced) in first 21 appearances from March 30-June 5; posted .118 BAA to lefties in that span.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Graduated in 2009 from Rowlette HS in Rowlette, TX, which is a suburb of Dallas...went undrafted out of high school and went on to attend Grayson Community College in nearby Denison, TX.
- Pitched two seasons (2010-11) at Grayson and was drafted twice, but did not sign...drafted by Milwaukee on both occasions, in the 43rd round of the 2010 draft and then again in the 33rd round of the 2011 draft.
- Transferred to the University of Oklahoma for his junior season (2012)...went 9-8 with a 3.07 ERA in 85.0 innings with the Sooners that year.
- Selected by the Giants in the fourth round of the June 2012 draft and began his professional career.
- Made headlines in 2024 after riding the Nationals bullpen cart to the mound prior to his appearance in May...for his services, Okert notably tipped his driver $5 for the ride...Okert was a frequent rider of the cart during his time in the NL East division as a member of the Marlins from 2021-23...he had no intentions of ever riding the cart, but an early-season trip to Washington and a freezing day changed his mind...upon leaving the bullpen, Okert saw the waiting cart and jumped in...he had a strong appearance that game and has continued the tradition since.
- Signed with the Astros this offseason as a minor league free agent with an invite to Major League Spring Training...officially signed on Nov. 5, 2024.

- Was the opener on July 24 vs. PHI (in front of bulk pitcher David Festa), pitching 0.1 inning in a Twins 5-4 victory...marked the third start of his career.
- Allowed just three home runs in first 35 games (29.0 IP) from March 30-July 24, but allowed three in final nine appearances (6.1 IP) from July 27-Aug. 23.
- Designated for assignment on Aug. 24...cleared waivers and accepted assignment to Triple-A St. Paul...pitched in seven games for St. Paul to finish season, from Aug. 31-Sept. 21.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Slick-fielding shortstop is entering the fourth season of his Major League career (2022-25), which has already included a Gold Glove, a 2022 ALCS MVP and 2022 World Series MVP.
- Has a hit in 20 of 26 career POSTSEASON games, hitting .279 (29x104) with four homers, nine RBI and a .764 OPS in the postseason...posted a 10-game postseason hitting streak from Game 4 of the 2022 ALCS through Game 3 of the 2023 ALDS.
- In 2024, set a single-season career high in games (157), hits (160), RBI (70) and steals (20)...led the Astros in games played...also led the Majors with 33 infield hits, besting second-place Bobby Witt Jr. (31).
- Ranked second in the American League with 149 starts at shortstop in 2023...hit .310 (67x216) across the final 57 games of the season, raising his season batting average from .237 to .263 over that span.
- Hit .253 (132x521) with 20 doubles and 22 homers in 136 games for the Astros in 2022...tied his predecessor, Carlos Correa, with 22 homers in their rookie seasons, the second-highest total by a rookie in franchise history (Yordan Alvarez, 27 HR in 2019)...finished fifth in Rookie of the Year voting.
- Became the first rookie shortstop in MLB history to earn a Gold Glove in 2022...he was also the first Astros rookie to win a Gold Glove at any position...was tied for first among MLB shortstops with 15 defensive runs saved, per FanGraphs.
- Went on an incredible run in the 2022 postseason, hitting .345 (20x58) with five homers and a 1.005 OPS in 13 games...named MVP of the ALCS and the World Series, becoming the first rookie position player to win MVP of an LCS and WS in the same season...according to Stats LLC, is the only player to win a Gold Glove, LCS MVP and World Series MVP over an entire career, nonetheless a single season.
- Had a highly productive minor league career, in which he hit .291 (201x690) with 85 RBI, 29 steals and an .814 OPS (.371 OBP/.443 SLG) in 182 games.
- Played in the Dominican Winter League in the 2020 and 2021 offseasons with the Estrellas de Oriente...earned the league's Gold Glove Award at shortstop in both seasons...also named the league's Rookie of the Year in 2020-21...combined to hit .298 (71x238) with eight doubles, five homers and 24 RBI over his two seasons with Estrellas.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Born in Santo Domingo, DR, Jeremy spent his childhood in the Dominican before moving to Rhode Island with his family at the age of nine...did not speak English when he moved to Rhode Island and credits playing sports as a way to connect with kids his age without knowing the language.
- Played baseball at Classical HS (RI) in Providence, serving as team captain his senior season in 2015...also participated in Track and Field for four years and was a member of a State Championship team...drafted by Atlanta in the 39th round of the June 2015 draft, but did not sign.
- Was not heavily recruited by colleges until his senior season in high school...the University of Maine, on the other hand, had followed Jeremy the majority of his high school career...Jeremy credits that early interest in his decision to attend Maine, where he played three seasons for the Black Bears...started every game during his collegiate career...at the time of the 2018 draft, was rated by ESPN.com as the No. 81 overall draft prospect.
- Drafted by Houston in the third round of the June 2018 draft with the 102nd overall selection...signed by Astros scout Bobby St. Pierre.
- Jeremy is the son of Gerónimo Peña, who played second base in the Majors for seven seasons with St. Louis (1990-95) and Cleveland (1996)...during his MLB career, Gerónimo batted .262 (265x1010) with 124 RBI and 54 steals...despite being the son of a Major Leaguer, Jeremy never saw his dad play since he wasn't born until Gerónimo's playing career ended...Gerónimo shared an infield with Hall-of-Fame shortstop Ozzie Smith for part of his career...throughout Jeremy's life, Gerónimo has passed along many of Ozzie's defensive lessons to his son.
- IN THE COMMUNITY: Hosts his community group, Peñas Pals, at the ballpark for select Friday night home games...the groups consist of students from Houston-area schools, selected based on character, grades and growth...the students attend Astros BP and meet with players, while also decorating a pair of cleats for Peña to wear that night...this initiative, along with others, earned him the Astros nomination for the 2023 Roberto Clemente Award.
- Was added to the Astros 40-man roster on Nov. 19, 2021...is signed to a one-year contract for 2025.

- Named the Triple A West Player of the Week for the week of Sept. 20-26, 2021, after hitting .478 (11x23) with three doubles, a triple, five home runs and seven RBI in the week...on Sept. 21 vs. Albuquerque, he hit three home runs, including an inside-the-parker and a walk-off two-run homer.

2024 SEASON:

- Batted .266 with 28 doubles, two triples, 15 home runs, 70 RBI, 25 walks, 20 stolen bases and a .701 OPS in 157 games on the season...set a single-season career high in games, leading the club with 157 games played...also reached career highs in hits (160), RBI (70) and stolen bases (20).
- His 20 stolen bases set a single-season career high and ranks as the third-most in franchise history by a shortstop in a single season.
- Led the Majors with 33 infield hits, besting second-place Bobby Witt Jr. (31)...marks the most infield hits in a season by an Astro since 2B Jose Altuve had 35 in 2017.

2023 SEASON:

- Batted .263 (152x577) with 10 home runs, 52 RBI, 32 doubles, 81 runs scored and 13 stolen bases in 150 games...set his single-season career highs in games, runs scored, doubles and stolen bases.
- Among AL shortstops, ranked third in doubles, third in hits and fourth in runs...also ranked second in the AL with 149 starts at shortstop.
- Over his last 57 games of the year, posted a .310 (67x216) average with 34 runs, 15 doubles, two triples, 17 RBI, 23 walks and a .379 OBP.
- Batted .325 (53x163) with an .834 OPS against left-handers...among AL players, ranked 4th in batting average vs. LHP
- Stole three bases on April 16 vs. TEX...was his single-game career high and was the first Astros player since OF Myles Straw (June 2, 2019) to steal at least three bases in a game
- Set a single-game career high with 4 RBI on July 29 vs. TB, going 2x6 with a double
- Had a five-hit game on Aug. 27 at DET...with his five hits, he became the fifth different Astros shortstop to record a five-hit game...the last was IF José Vizcaino, who went 5x5 on Aug. 17, 2022 at CIN.

2022 SEASON:

- Finished fifth in AL Rookie of the Year voting after hitting .253 (132x521) with 22 homers, 63 RBI, 20 doubles and a .715 OPS (.289 OBP/.426 SLG).
- Among AL rookie position players, ranked second in HR (22), third in WAR (5.0), fourth in hits (132), fourth in runs (72), fourth in extra-base hits (44) and fourth in RBI (63).
- Was named the AL Gold Glove winner at shortstop...according to Elias, he's the first rookie shortstop in MLB history to earn a Gold Glove...he was also the first Astros rookie to win a Gold Glove at any position.
- Per FanGraphs, was tied for first among MLB shortstops with 15 defensive runs saved.

- Was an ALL-STAR in each of his first two professional seasons, earning the honors in 2019 with the Single A Midwest League and in 2018 with the Short-Season New York-Penn League.

- Ranked in the 98th percentile of MLB players in sprint speed...averages 29.8 feet per second when sprinting, which ranked 12th in the Majors.
- Made his third career OPENING DAY roster (2022-24)...went 2x4 with a double on Opening Day, March 28 vs. NYY.
- Had a strong start to the season, hitting .300 (76x253) through his first 65 games (thru June 9)...within that run, recorded a career-high tying 10-game hitting streak from April 7-16, batted .357 (15x42) during the streak.
- POSTSEASON: In the 2024 Wild Card Series vs. DET, he batted .167 (1x6) with a run scored and a walk.

- Appeared on his second career and consecutive Opening Day roster.
- Was on the Dominican Republic team in the World Baseball Classic, appearing in two games.
- Was the Astros' nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award following the debut of his "Peña Pals" initiative in partnership with the Astros Foundation...every Friday home game during the 2023 season, Peña chose a Houston-area school and the school chose five students, based on character, grades and growth...the students got to interact with Astros players during batting practice and decorated cleats that Peña would wear for that night's game...by the end of the 2023 season, Peña hosted 13 schools and 65 students at DaikinPark.
- Started all 11 of the Astros' POSTSEASON games and batted .200 (8x40) with a double and an RBI...logged a hit in each of the first three postseason games, which extended his postseason hitting streak to 10 games, dating back to the 2022 season...became the sixth player in Astros postseason history to log a hitting streak of at least 10 games.

- With 22 homers, tied Carlos Correa (2015) for the second-most home runs by a rookie in Astros franchise history...trailed only Yordan Alvarez (27 HR in 2019) in that category.
- Became the sixth Astros rookie to hit 20 homers in a season, joining Yordan Alvarez (2019), Carlos Correa (2015), George Springer (2014), Lance Berkman (2015) and Glenn Davis (1985).
- Made his first career OPENING DAY roster and started at shortstop on Opening Day.
- Hit first career walk-off home run on April 22 vs. Toronto...became the first Astros rookie to hit a walk-off home run since OF Brian Bogusevic did so on Aug. 16, 2011 vs. CHC.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Towering right-handed catcher has appeared in parts of three minor league seasons with Houston (2022-24), peaking at the Double A level...has logged 34 doubles, 21 home runs and 74 RBI through 177 career minor league games, while batting .225 (130x579) with a .728 OPS.
- Hit a combined 13 homers between stops at Double A Corpus Christi and High A Asheville in 2024, leading all catchers in the Astros minor league system...also ranked second among Astros minor league catchers with 29 doubles last season.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Set professional career highs in numerous key offensive categories in 2024, including runs scored (44), hits (76), doubles (16), home runs (13), RBI (40), stolen bases (7) and walks (48)...batted .227 (76x335) with a .718 OPS, appearing mostly with Double A Corpus Christi (83g) after beginning his season with High A Asheville (17g)...went on to play for the Surprise Saguaros of the Arizona Fall League in the offseason, batting .218 (16x73) with three doubles, two home runs and 15 RBI in 18 games.
- Spent his entire 2023 season with High A Asheville, appearing in 58 games...recorded 13 doubles, six home runs and 24 RBI while batting .198 (36x182) and posting a .709 OPS...was on the 7-Day IL from July 19-Sept. 25.
- Had a strong beginning to his pro career in 2022, batting .290 (18x62) with five doubles, two home runs, 10 RBI and an .839 OPS in 19 games with Low A Fayetteville...had his season cut short due to a foot injury, appearing in his last game on Aug. 27.

- Was a three-year letterwinner as a catcher and outfielder at Lambert High School (Suwanee, Ga.), graduating in 2018...was selected to the Georgia High School Association Region 5-7A First Team in both 2017 and '18...batted .375 with two home runs and 25 RBI his senior season.
- Was undrafted out of high school and went on to attend Mercer University, where he played four seasons for the Bears...played all over the field as a freshman, appearing at center field, right field, first base and catcher...settled into a near full-time catching role by his junior year...was named to the Buster Posey National Collegiate Catcher of the Year Award Watch List as a junior in 2021, posting a .285 average to go with nine doubles, seven homers and 32 RBI...as a senior, was named to the All-Southern Conference Second Team, leading the conference with 18 homers and 52 walks, while finishing second in runs scored (53) and third in average (.315)...was also selected to the ABCA/Rawlings NCAA Division I Southeast All-Region Team his senior year.
- Drafted by Houston in the sixth round of the June 2022 draft...signed by Astros scout Bobby St. Pierre.
- Collin was behind the plate for a near-no-hitter this offseason while with the Surprise Saguaros of the Arizona Fall League...coincidentally, it was a trio of pitchers from the AL West rival Texas Rangers (RHP Leandro Lopez, RHP Josh Stephan and LHP Avery Weems), who combined to carry a no-hitter into the eighth inning on Nov. 1 vs. the Peoria Javelinas...it would have marked the first no-hitter in the AFL in eight years.
- The 2025 season is his first at Major League Spring Training...is currently signed to a minor league contract for the 2025 campaign

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-handed hitting second baseman has won a Gold Glove Award (2022) and been a Silver Slugger Award finalist (2022) as part of a six-year Major League career (2019-24), all spent with the Rockies, after being selected by them with the third overall pick of the 2015 MLB Draft.
- Appeared in 135 games in 2024, the second-most in a single season in his MLB career, and batted .267 (134x501) with 29 doubles, 13 home runs, 54 RBI and a .721 OPS (.314 OBP/.407 SLG), while also producing a 1.1 WAR (Baseball Reference).
- Had a breakout 2022 season, in which he won the National League Gold Glove Award at second base and was named a finalist for the NL Silver Slugger Award at the position...led Major League second basemen with 22 defensive runs saved and his 3.0 dWAR (Baseball Reference) ranked second among all MLB players...became the second Rockies second basemen (also, D.J. LeMahieu) to win a Gold Glove Award...batted .266 (140x527) with 30 doubles, 13 homers, 63 RBI and a .733 OPS.
- Recorded the first two home runs of his MLB career in pinch-hit fashion (June 5, 2021 vs. OAK; June 10, 2021 at MIA), becoming the first player in Rockies history to hit their first two career home runs as a pinch hitter.
- Was a highly-regarded prospect in his ascent through the Rockies minor league system, representing the club at the Futures Game in both 2017 and '18...was rated as the No. 10 prospect in all of baseball ahead of the 2019 season, per MLB.com...in 2016, was named a Mid-Season and Post-Season ALL-STAR in the South Atlantic League, while also being named the league's "Top MLB Prospect" by MLB.com...named a MiLB.com Organizational All-Star within the Rockies system from 2016-18.

- Hit .267 (134x501) with 29 doubles, 13 home runs, 54 RBI and a .721 OPS (.314 OBP/.407 SLG) in 135 games for the Rockies...were the second-most games and doubles he'd logged in a single season in his MLB career.
- Batted .328 (77x235) at home...was the seventh-best home batting average in the Majors.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Graduated from Lake Mary High School (Lake Mary, Fla.) in 2015...batted .360 with eight home runs his senior season...was ranked as the No. 1 prospect nationally by MLB.com and Baseball America ahead of the June 2015 draft...was committed to play collegiately at Florida State.
- Played with the Orlando Scorpions travel team while in high school, with its alumni also including RHP Zack Greinke, LHP Chris Sale and C Jonathan Lucroy.
- Selected by the Rockies with the No. 3 overall pick of the June 2015 draft...the Astros had two picks within the first five selection of the 2015 draft, taking IF Alex Bregman at No. 2 and OF Kyle Tucker at No. 5...Rodgers attended the draft, hosted at the MLB Network studios in Secaucus, N.J., to hear his name called by MLB Commissioner Rob Manfred.
- Lake Mary High School has produced a pair of top-three picks in the MLB Draft over the last decade in Rodgers and Nationals OF Dylan Crews, with the latter going on to star at LSU after graduating high school in 2020...like Rodgers, Crews was ranked as the No. 1 draft prospect by MLB.com, coming after a three-year career at LSU...the Nationals selected Crews with the No. 2 pick of the June 2023 draft and he made his big league debut in 2024...Rodgers served as a workout partner for Crews during his high school career and provided mentorship when he was deciding whether to enter the pro ranks out of high school or go to LSU.
- Brendan put together one of the best defensive seasons in Rockies history in 2022 en route to winning the NL Gold Glove Award at second base...his 3.0 dWAR (Baseball Reference) was the third-highest total in Rockies history and was the best since IF Troy Tulowitzki logged a 3.9 dWAR in 2007...his 22 Defensive Runs Saved were the most in a single season by a second baseman since Darwin Barney recorded 28 DRS with the Cubs in 2012...he became the eighth player in Rockies history to win a Gold Glove Award.
- After spending 10 seasons in the Rockies organization, was non-tendered on Nov. 22 as he was set to enter his final off-season with arbitration eligibility.
- Signed by the Astros as a minor league free agent with an invite to Major League Spring Training on Feb. 18, 2025.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Went undrafted out of Kingston High School (Kingston, N.Y.) and went on to play three seasons at Sacred Heart University (Fairfield, Conn.)...was named to the All-Northeast Conference Second Team as a freshman in 2014 and was selected to the All-NEC First Team in 2015.
- Was college teammates with Tigers RHP Jason Foley, and the duo both made their MLB debuts with Detroit in 2021...Short and Foley, who shared a dorm suite as sophomores and were roommates in a house as juniors, make up two of the three players to appear in the Majors in the history of Sacred Heart...Short had been optioned to Triple A Toledo as Foley was called up from Toledo to make his MLB debut in June 2021...Tigers manager A.J. Hinch allowed Short to remain with the big league club for an extra day so he could see the Foley's debut, which he watched from a stadium suite at Rate Field in Chicago on June 6, 2021.
- Zack grew up a Mets fan, even attending a game during the 2000 World Series at Shea Stadium, and got the chance to play at Sacred Heart while former Mets manager Bobby Valentine was the program's athletic director...Zack credits Valentine as a valuable mentor through his process in getting selected in the MLB draft.
- Selected by Chicago (NL) in the 17th round of the 2016 draft...signed by Cubs scout Matt Sherman.
- Was placed on his first career Opening Day roster with the Mets in 2024, finding out he earned the spot on March 24, 2024, just as camp was wrapping up...it was an emotional day for Zack on numerous levels, as he was informed his grandmother had passed away the same day..."It's something bigger than me, that's for sure," Short said to MLB.com after receiving the news he had made the Mets Opening Day roster.
- Co-hosts "The Compound" podcast with former minor league teammates Ian Happ and Dakota Mekkes, who he played with in the Cubs system...the weekly podcast features the trio sharing their baseball-life experiences while interviewing guests
- Has been a member of five different organizations since November 2023, first being claimed off waivers by the Mets from the Tigers that month...was then traded to the Red Sox on May 1, 2024, and traded to the Braves on May 9, 2024, before signing a minor league contract with the Astros on Jan. 6, 2025.

- The 2024 first-round pick enters his second professional season as the consensus top-ranked prospect in the Astros system and one of the top third-base prospects in all of baseball.
- Batted .313 (36x115) with 20 runs scored, five doubles, four triples, seven home runs, 24 RBI and a 1.004 OPS (.396 OBP/.609 SLG) through 32 games in his first pro season in 2024, making stops at the Low A, High A and Double A levels in the Cubs system...was named the Carolina League Player of the week on Aug. 25 as part of a stretch in which he homered in six straight games with Low A Myrtle Beach.
- Was featured in numerous preseason top-100 prospect rankings headed into the 2025 season, including The Athletic (No. 43), Baseball America (No. 55), MLB Pipeline (No. 59; No. 3 third-base prospect) and ESPN (No. 73).

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Had a strong professional debut in 2024, batting .313 (36x115) with 20 runs scored, five doubles, four triples, seven home runs, 24 RBI, two stolen bases and a 1.004 OPS (.396 OBP/.609 SLG) through a combined 32 games between the Low A, High A and Double A levels in the Cubs system...homered in six consecutive games from Aug. 20-25 while with Low A Myrtle Beach, also batting .556 (10x18) with eight RBI over that span...he became the first player in Myrtle Beach's 25-year history to homer in six consecutive games and the streak was the longest in MiLB in 2024...was named the Carolina League Player of the Week on Aug. 25 as part of the homer streak...was promoted to High A South Bend on Aug. 27 and then Double A Tennessee on Sept. 10...also appeared in the Southern League playoffs with Double A Tennessee, going 2x10 with three runs scored, a home run, three RBI and two walks in three games.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Graduated from Palm Beach Central High School (Wellington, Fla.), where he was ranked as the No. 1 shortstop in Florida and the No. 53 prospect nationally by Perfect Game following his senior year in 2022...was ranked as the No. 84 draft prospect by MLB Pipeline heading into the 2022 MLB Draft, but went undrafted due to his strong commitment to Florida State.
- Played in two seasons at Florida State (2023-24)...following his freshman season in which he batted .258, Smith put on a phenomenal showing in the Cape Cod League, where he batted .347 with 12 doubles, four triples, six home runs and 26 RBI in 44 games with the Hyannis Harbor Hawks...earned the Robert A. McNece Award for the Most Outstanding Prospect in the Cape Cod League
- Was named a second-team All-American by Perfect Game and Baseball America as a sophomore in 2024, batting .387 (104x269) with 22 doubles, 16 home runs, 57 RBI and a .488 on-base percentage for the Seminoles...Smith's .387 batting average was the highest from a Florida State player since Tyler Holt in 2009 (.401) and his 104 hits were the most since Buster Posey in 2008 (119).
- Selected by Chicago (NL) in the first round (14th overall) of the 2024 draft...was recommended by Cubs area scout, Ike Ballou.
- Was the key prospect return for the Astros in the trade that sent OF Kyle Tucker to the Cubs on Dec. 13, 2024...was joined by IF Isaac Paredes and RHP Hayden Wesneski as the full package from the Cubs in exchange for Tucker.
- Astros GM Dana Brown expects Smith to get time at third base and right field as he makes his way through the Astros minor league system...Smith exclusively played third base at Florida State and in his first pro season, but his plus arm strength has been lauded as a tool that could also make him a fit at right field.
- Cam credits the use of meditation to help him focus and handle pressure before and during games...he initially used the Calm App to help him with his meditation, but now uses Reggae music as a relaxation tool, with Bob Marley and the Wailers as one of his top choices within the genre.
- Smith grew up in Lake Worth, Fla., located approximately 30 minutes from the Astros Spring Training Complex in West Palm Beach, Fla.

- In 51 games for the Mariners, hit .160 (25x156) with seven doubles, eight home runs, 17 walks, 23 runs, 18 RBI and two stolen bases.
- Hit his first career homer with a solo shot leading off the 3rd inning off Michael Pineda on April 10 at MIN.
- Named to his first OPENING DAY roster...started in left field on Opening Day to make his Major League debut and went 0x3 with two walks and one RBI.
- Recorded first career multi-HR game on June 26 vs. CWS, blasting a pair of solo HR in a 3-2 Mariners win.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Did not play in an official game in 2020 due to the cancellation of the minor league season...acquired by the Mariners via trade from San Diego with C Luis Torrens, INF Ty France, and RHP Andres Muñoz in exchange for C Austin Nola, RHP Dan Altavilla and RHP Austin Adams on Aug. 30...after joining Seattle, spent the season at the Mariners alternate training site in Tacoma.
- Invited to his first Major League Spring Training camp in 2019 and split the season between Double A Chattanooga and Double A Amarillo...acquired by San Diego from Cincinnati on July 31 in a seven-player, three-team deal... named to his second-consecutive SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game roster.
- Spent the entire 2018 season with Class A Daytona Beach, hitting .277 (110x397) with 19 doubles, four triples, eight home runs, 41 RBI and 71 runs scored... named MVP of the SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game at Nationals Park after going 2x2 at the plate with a 438-foot HR and a triple...sent his bat to the Cooperstown Hall of Fame.
- Named a Baseball America 2017 Class A All-Star after ranking among Midwest League leaders in games (129, 1st), RBI (77, 2nd), walks (71, 2nd), stolen bases (41, 2nd), hits (138, 3rd), triples (10, 3rd), total bases (221, 4th) and batting (.281, 10th).
- Made his pro debut in 2016 at Rookie Billings and hit .303 (69x228) with nine doubles, six triples, two home runs, 34 RBI and 39 runs scored in 61 games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Dominican right-hander enters the 2025 season as one Houston's top pitching prospects and has posted one of the lowest opponent batting averages in the minor leagues since making his professional debut in 2021...through parts of four minor league seasons with the Astros, he's gone 11-21 with a 4.46 ERA (158ER/317.1IP), 445 strikeouts and a .187 opponent batting average (212x1133) in 85 games (53 starts).
- Posted a .161 opponent batting average in 2024, ranking first among all minor league pitchers (min. 100 IP)...his .187 opponent batting average since the 2021 season ranks third among all MiLB pitchers (min. 300 IP).
- Led the Astros system and ranked third among all minor league pitchers with 171 strikeouts in 2024, racking up the total in just 130.1 innings pitched between stops with Double A Corpus Christi and Triple A Sugar Land.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Was one of the most dominant starters in the minors in 2024, ranking first among all MiLB pitchers with a .161 opponent batting average (min. 100 IP), while also ranking third with 171 strikeouts (130.1 IP)...made all but one of his 28 appearances (24 starts) in the regular season with Double A Corpus Christi, going 5-9 with a 4.24 ERA (60ER/127.1IP) in his time with the Hooks...set Corpus Christi's single-season record with 166 strikeouts...made his Triple A debut in his regular-season finale on Sept. 19, allowing two runs through 3.0 innings with five strikeouts in a start for the Space Cowboys...went on to get the start in Game 2 of the Pacific Coast League Championship Series vs. Reno, tossing 4.0 scoreless innings while striking out five batters...at the time of his promotion to Triple A, led the Texas League in opponent batting average (.162) and strikeouts (166), while ranking fourth in WHIP (1.14) and fifth in ERA (4.24)...logged a career-high 12 strikeouts on May 10 vs. Amarillo.
- Spent the entire 2023 season with High A Asheville, going 3-9 with a 5.86 ERA (59ER/90.2IP) with 116 strikeouts in 25 games (13 starts)...ranked ninth in the South Atlantic League in strikeouts...went on to make seven relief appearances with the Mesa Solar Sox of the Arizona Fall League in the offseason.

- Last name is pronounced "oo-YOH-lah"
- Miguel signed with the Astros as an 18-year-old non-drafted free agent from the Dominican Republic in January 2021...is looking to join a long list of successful Astros starters who joined the organization past their initial international signing window at 16 years old, including Framber Valdez, Cristian Javier, Ronel Blanco and Luis Garcia.
- Ullola is a native of Puerto Plata, a major coastal city in the D.R. known for its beaches and resorts, with a population just over 160,000 as of 2022.
- Entering the 2025 season, was ranked as the top pitching prospect and No. 6 overall prospect in the Astros system by Baseball America...also rated by Baseball America as having the "Best Fastball" and the "Best Slider" in the Astros system.
- Miguel relies heavily on a fastball-slider mix, with his fastball sitting between 92-95 mph and reaching up to 97 mph...his fastball is extra deceptive thanks to a flat approach angle coupled with superb carry...also works in a changeup and curveball in his arsenal.
- The 2025 season is Ullola's first at Major League Spring Training...is under a minor league contract for the upcoming season.

- Worked all of 2022 with Low A Fayetteville and went 2-2 with a 3.25 ERA (26ER/72IP), 120 strikeouts and a .157 opponent batting average in 22 games (11 starts)...his .157 opponent batting average (39x249) was the lowest among Astros minor leaguers and the fourth-lowest among all MiLB pitchers (min. 70 IP)...also ranked fifth in the Carolina League and sixth among Astros minor leaguers in strikeouts...was on the Injured List from April 14-May 1.
- Made his professional debut in 2021, splitting time between the Astros Dominican Summer League (8g) and Florida Complex League (2g) affiliates...went a combined 1-1 with a 4.07 ERA (11ER/24.1IP) and 38 strikeouts in 10 games (five starts).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Two-time ALL-STAR left-hander has become a frontline starter within the Astros rotation, going 68-41 with a 3.30 ERA (326ER/888.2IP) and 866 strikeouts in 157 games (135 starts) through parts of seven seasons in Houston (2018-23).
- Has established himself as one of the top starters in the AL since joining the Astros rotation in 2020, going 60-33 with a 3.12 ERA (271ER/781IP) and 764 strikeouts over that stretch...among qualified starters since 2020, ranks first in wins, first in ground ball percentage (62.6) and eighth in ERA.
- Has gained the reputation of a workhorse starter...since 2020, which includes postseason action, ranks third among all pitchers with 866.0 innings pitched, trailing only RHP Aaron Nola (903.2) and RHP Zack Wheeler (899.2).
- Enters 2025 ranking fourth among franchise lefties in strikeouts (866), fifth in wins (68), sixth in starts (135) and sixth in innings pitched (888.2).
- In 17 career POSTSEASON appearances (16 starts), has gone 7-6 with a 4.34 ERA (41ER/85IP)...since 2020, ranks first in innings (85), strikeouts (95), starts (16) and is tied for first in wins (7) among MLB pitchers in the postseason...had his best postseason run in 2022, going 3-0 with a 1.44 ERA (4ER/25IP) in four starts...allowed one run through 6.0 innings to pick up the winning decision in Game 6 of the 2022 World Series vs. Philadelphia as Astros secured their second World Series title in club history...among Dominican-born pitchers in Major League postseason history, ranks first in wins (7), second in strikeouts (95) and second in innings (85)...trails only Hall-of-Famer Pedro Martinez in strikeouts (96) and innings (96.1).
- Was the Astros ace in 2024, leading the team in wins (15)...among AL pitchers, finished third in ERA, third in opponent SLG (.323) and fourth in opponent OPS (.610)...had two no-hit bids of 7.0+ innings: Aug. 6 at TEX (8.2IP) and on Aug. 30 vs. KC (7IP).

- Was signed by the Astros as a 21-year-old non-drafted free agent out of the Dominican Republic on March 18, 2015...at 21-years old, Valdez was five years older than most amateur free agent signees from the Dominican Republic...according to Valdez, other teams were skeptical of potential arm issues and were reluctant to take a chance because of his age.
- Originally a position player, Valdez began pitching at the age of 16 and had interest from scouts within a couple years of his conversion...by the age of 21, Valdez was finally seen by the Astros at a workout staged by an independent trainer in Guayacanes, DR, a small town just west of San Pedro de Macoris...after seeing him throw just a handful of pitches, the Astros invited him to throw at their Dominican Academy and promptly signed him following that tryout...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Tom Shafer, Roman Ocumarez and David Brito.
- Valdez's signing at the ripe age of 21 was dismissed by most, but for the Astros it signaled a start of a new philosophy in Latin America...most of the top players in Latin America are signed at the age of 16, but the Astros went against that conventional wisdom and saw older international pitchers as an undervalued demographic...Houston made a concerted effort to scout and sign those pitchers, which has since produced Major Leaguers who were all signed at advanced ages: Ronel Blanco (22), Luis Garcia (20), Cristian Javier (18) and José Urquidy (19).
- Fulfilled a childhood promise by funding and help building a church in the Guayacanes community in the Dominican Republic following the 2021 season...at 14 years old, Valdez promised the pastor of his church, Pastor Antonio, that he would make the Major Leagues and return to make needed upgrades to the facility...Framber continued to make good on that promise by constructing and opening a second church in December 2023, with the new church being built in his hometown of Sabana Grande de Palenque.
- Added to the Astros Major League roster in September of 2018...surpassed five years of service time following the 2024 season meaning he will be a free agent following the 2025 season.

- Tossed the 16th no-hitter in Astros franchise history on Aug. 1, 2023 vs. Cleveland...became the first left-hander to toss a no-hitter in Astros history...also became the first Astro to face the minimum 27 batters in a no-hitter...went on to win his first AL Player of the Week Award following the no-hitter.
- Earned his second straight ALL-STAR nod in 2023, going 12-11 with a 3.45 ERA (76ER/198IP) with 200 strikeouts, also tossing two complete-game shutouts...among AL starters, ranked third in innings pitched, fifth in opponent batting average (.228), seventh in strikeouts and seventh in ERA...was also tabbed as the Astros OPENING DAY starter for a second consecutive season.
- Had a banner 2022 season in which he was the club's OPENING DAY starter, was the winning pitcher in the ALL-STAR Game and dominated in the playoffs...among AL starters in 2022, he ranked first in quality starts (26), first in innings (201.1), first in home runs per 9.0 (0.49), first in groundball percentage (67.3), second in wins (17) and sixth in ERA (2.82)...finished fifth in Cy Young Award voting.
- Missed the first 49 games of the 2021 season with a fractured finger, but returned on May 28...after that date, he ranked tied for first in the AL in wins (11), while ranking third in innings (134.2) and fourth in ERA (3.14)...posted the highest ground ball percentage (70.3%) in the Majors.
- Named the Astros 2020 Pitcher of the Year by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA...among AL pitchers, ranked second in home runs per 9.0 innings (0.64), fifth in walks per 9.0 innings (2.04, 16BB), sixth in innings pitched (70.2), eighth in strikeouts (76), and eighth in strikeouts per 9.0 innings (9.68)...also led the Majors in groundball to flyball ratio (3.56) and groundball rate (60%).
- Made his MLB debut on Aug. 21, 2018 at SEA (0ER/4.1IP), earning the win, and followed that up by winning his first MLB start on Aug. 26, 2018 at LAA (1ER/5IP)...became the fifth pitcher in club history to earn a win in his first two MLB appearances...also Bill Dawley (1983), Mark Lemongello (1976), J.R. Richard (1971) and Don Wilson (1966-67).
- Named a Double A Texas League ALL-STAR in 2018 before being promoted to the Majors midseason...finished the season third in the league in strikeouts, with 120 in his 94.1 innings pitched.
- While he was not a member of Major League Spring Training camp in 2017, he did impress in five Spring Training games with the Astros as a minor league call-up...struck out seven batters in his 7.0 innings with the Major League club in 2017 Spring Training...pitched in the Arizona Fall League in 2017, going 1-1 with a 3.20 ERA (7ER/19.2IP) and 14 strikeouts in six starts for the Mesa Solar Sox.

2024 SEASON:

- Was the ace of the staff, leading the team in wins (15) and innings pitched (176.1) while allowing the fewest amount of HR (13) among Astros starters on the season...posted the lowest single-season WHIP of his career (1.106).
- Among AL pitchers on the season, finished first in GB% (60.8), first in opponent GIDP (32) and GIDP/9 (1.63), third in ERA, third in opponent SLG (.323), fourth in opponent OPS (.610), fifth in Pitching WAR (3.9) (source: STATS) and tied for fifth in wins.
- Posted his best-career home winning percentage and ERA (min. 5g), going 9-2 with a 2.53 ERA at Daikin Park in 15 starts...among AL pitchers, ranked third in home ERA.
- Also had a career-best .214 opponent batting average against right-handed hitters, fourth-lowest among qualified AL LHPs.
- Made his third-consecutive OPENING DAY start...joined LHP Dallas Keuchel (2015-17) as the second lefty in Astros history to make three consecutive Opening Day starts...allowed three runs on five hits through 4.2 IP with six walks (tied for career high) and five strikeouts...had logged 15.2 consecutive scoreless Opening Day innings prior to allowing a run in the top of the 5th...the last Astros pitcher to log at least 15 straight scoreless Opening Day innings was RHP Roy Oswalt (15.0 from 2006-07).
- Was placed on the 15-day IL on April 6 due to left elbow soreness...was activated from the IL on April 27 ahead of his start in Mexico City.
- Threw 6.0 no-hit innings on June 1 vs. MIN before allowing a leadoff single in the 7th.
- Threw his lone complete game of the season on June 7 at LAA...allowed one run on four hits and one walk with eight strikeouts in a 7-1 win...finished the season as one of 11 AL starters with a complete game...since 2021, ranks second in the Majors in complete games behind MIA Sandy Alcantara (10).
- On July 26 vs. LAD threw 6.1 shutout innings to earn his 62nd win, passing Jim Deshaies for fifth-all time in wins in club history by a lefty...finished the season with 68 career wins, immediately trailing Dallas Keuchel and Mike Hampton (76).
- Tossed 8.2 no-hit innings on Aug. 6 at TEX before allowing a two-run homer to SS Corey Seager...the near no-no came just over a year-to-the-date of his first career no-hitter (Aug. 1, 2023 vs. CLE)...tossed a season-high 107 pitches...per Elias, was the third pitcher in Astros history to take a no-hit bid through 8.2 innings before being broken up, joining RHP Mike Scott (June 12, 1988) and RHP Larry Dierker (Sept. 13, 1969).
- Won his career-high eighth straight decision on Aug. 18 vs. CWS.
- Threw 7.0 hitless innings against KC on Aug. 30...was joined by teammate RHP Ronel Blanco and TOR Bowden Francis as the only pitchers in the Majors to log multiple no-hit bids of 7.0 innings this season...has now logged multiple no-hit bids of 7+ innings in back-to-back seasons (also, Aug. 1, 2023 vs. CLE and Aug. 25, 2023 at DET)...is the first pitcher in Astros history to accomplish the feat in back-to-back seasons and is the first MLB pitcher to do so since RHP Nolan Ryan, who did so each season from 1972-74 (source: Elias).

- From July 31 thru Sept. 12 vs. OAK, had a streak of 31 consecutive scoreless innings at home...marked the fifth-longest single-season home scoreless streak in Astros history, and was the longest since a franchise-record 36-inning home scoreless streak from LHP Randy Johnson in 1998 (source: Elias).
- On Sept. 24 in his final start of the regular season, pitched the Astros to a 4-3 win over SEA to clinch the AL West Division title.
- Started Game 1 of the Wild Card Series vs. DET... allowed three runs on seven hits through 4.1 innings...was his 16th career POSTSEASON start.

2023 SEASON:

- Had a fantastic season that included his second straight ALL-STAR selection, his first career no-hitter, two complete-game shutouts and an AL Player of the Week Award...went 12-11 with a 3.45 ERA (76ER/198IP) and a career-high 200 strikeouts in 31 starts...finished ninth in Cy Young voting, giving him a top-10 finish in back-to-back seasons.
- Among AL starters, ranked second in groundball percentage (55.0), third in innings (198.0), third in opponent batting average (.228), tied for third in home runs per 9.0 IP (0.86), tied for third in quality starts (20), fifth in opponent OPS (.656), seventh in ERA (3.45) and seventh in WHIP (1.113)...the only other Major League pitcher with two shutouts was AL Cy Young Award winner, RHP Gerrit Cole.
- Got the OPENING DAY start for the second straight season...was the first Astros pitcher to make back-to-back Opening Day starts since Justin Verlander (2018-21)...was the third LHP in Astros history to make back-to-back Opening Days, joining Dallas Keuchel (2015-17) and Dave Roberts (1973-74)
- Tossed a complete-game shutout on May 21 vs. Oakland...allowed just four hits and struck out seven batters without issuing a walk...was the first complete-game shutout by an Astro without allowing a walk since Dallas Keuchel on May 30, 2015 vs. Chicago (AL).
- Was selected to his second straight ALL-STAR Game in 2023...did not pitch in the game.
- Led the AL with a 2.51 ERA headed into the All-Star Break...was the first Astros pitcher to lead their league in ERA at the All-Star Break since Roger Clemens in 2005 (1.48 ERA).
- Tossed the 16th total no-hitter in Astros history on Aug. 1 vs. Cleveland...was the 15th regular-season no-hitter in Astros history... was the first Astros no-hitter tossed by a left-handed pitcher... became the ninth Dominican-born player to throw a no-hitter in Major League history...faced the minimum of 27 batters, which is the first time that's been achieved in an Astros no-hitter...allowed just one baserunner via a walk and struck out seven batters through the nine shutout innings...was his sixth career complete game and his third complete-game shutout.
- Needed only 93 pitches to complete the no-hitter... per Sarah Langs, that ranked as the third-lowest total in a no-hitter since pitch counts started being tracked in 1988... the others were tossed by the Astros RHP Daryl Kile (83) on Sept. 8, 1993, and the Yankees RHP David Cone (88) on July 18, 1999.
- Went on to win his first career AL Player of the Week Award on Aug. 7 following the no-hit effort.
- Four starts after his no-hitter, worked 7.0 hitless innings on Aug. 25 at DET (114 pitches)...became the only pitcher in club history to post two hitless starts of 7.0-plus innings in a single season.
- Made three starts in the POSTSEASON, going 0-3 with a 9.00 ERA (12ER/12IP)

- Was the Astros OPENING DAY starter and ALL-STAR Game winner...won 17 games and led the AL in CGs (3)...also led MLB with 26 quality starts.
- Tossed 25 straight quality starts from April 25 to Sept. 18, setting the MLB record for the most consecutive quality starts in a single-season...the streak tied for the second-longest streak in MLB history when including multiple seasons...also extended the Astros record, which was previously held by RHP Mike Scott, who tossed 20 straight quality starts in 1986 Cy Young season.
- Among AL starters, he ranked first in quality starts (26), first in innings (201.1), first in home runs per 9.0 ratio (0.49), first in GB% (67.3), second in wins (17), sixth in opponent OPS (.600) and sixth in ERA (2.82).
- Struck out a season high 13 hitters in a start on July 3 vs. LAA...was followed by RHP Hector Neris (2 SO), RHP Rafael Montero (2 SO) and RHP Ryan Pressly (3 SO), who combined to strike out 20 hitters in the game...this tied the MLB record for a 9.0-inning game...the Astros became the eighth team in MLB history to accomplish the feat...the 20 strikeouts in a 9.0-inning game was also a franchise record, besting their previous record of 19.
- Made his first career All-Star roster...was the third pitcher used by the AL squad and pitched a scoreless third inning, earning the win after the AL scored their three runs in the top of the fourth...got all three of his outs in the third inning on groundouts...induced those from Juan Soto, Manny Machado and Freddie Freeman...made the 39th appearance by an Astros pitcher in the All-Star Game and became the first Astros pitcher to earn a win...was also the first Astros pitcher to pitch in the ASG since RHP Justin Verlander tossed 1.0 inning in a start back in 2019...was one of five Astros selected to the 2022 All-Star Game, joining 2B Jose Altuve, DH Yordan Alvarez, RF Kyle Tucker and Verlander.
- Tossed his first career shutout on Sept. 12 at DET... Valdez's shutout was the first by an Astros pitcher since RHP Justin Verlander tossed his most recent no-hitter on Sept. 1, 2019 at TOR.
- Dominated the 2022 POSTSEASON, going 3-0 with a 1.44 ERA...was the only pitcher in the playoffs to record three wins...recorded 33 strikeouts during 25 playoff innings...allowed 5.04 hits per 9 innings in playoffs...the Astros went 4-0 when Valdez pitched in playoffs.

- Last name is spelled "VanWey" and pronounced "Van-WHY".
- Graduated from Webb City High School (Webb City, Mo.) and went on to play five seasons at nearby Missouri Southern State University (2018-22), a NCAA Division II school in Joplin, Mo., which had an enrollment of just over 3,500 students as of the 2022-23 academic year.
- Finished his career at Missouri Southern State as the program's all-time leader in career appearances (76) and strikeouts-per-nine-innings (13.49)...also finished second in program history with 15 career saves and fifth with 222 career strikeouts.
- As a fifth-year senior in 2022, he was a unanimous All-Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association First Team selection, going 7-3 with a 3.47 ERA and 123 strikeouts through 14 starts...were the second-most strikeouts in a single season in MSSU history.
- Directly following his final season at MSSU, he joined the Glacier Range Riders of the independent Pioneer league...he made nine starts for the Range Riders, who are based out of Kalispell, Mont.
- Signed with the Astros as a non-drafted free agent on July 26, 2022...was signed by Astros scout Jim Stevenson...VanWey was dominant in his introduction to the affiliated ranks, allowing just one hit and striking out 16 batters in eight scoreless innings through four appearances (two starts)...he was shut down for the season, though, having already surpassed 130 innings including his time at the collegiate and independent level.
- Logan utilizes an unconventional delivery that helps create deception among his pitches, while also adding more spin...he's described his motion as a side-arm motion that comes more over the top at the point of release...former Double A Corpus Christi pitching coach Sean Buchanan described it as, "an unorthodox delivery from a lower slot, and it's kind of like the arms and legs come at ya and it just looks a little bit different"...ahead of his 2024 breakout season at the Triple A level, Logan added a sinker to go with his fastball, changeup and slider, continuing to fuel his deception.
- The 2025 season is VanWey's first at Major League Spring Training...is under a minor league contract for the upcoming season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Left-handed control specialist is set to enter his seventh professional season (2019-24)...has appeared in nine Major League games, along with 70 appearances (43 starts) in the minors, all coming with the Red Sox organization.
- Was a highly-regarded prospect within the Red Sox system, going 15-13 with a 3.61 ERA (100ER/274.1IP), 334 strikeouts, a .226 opponent batting average and a 1.12 WHIP through his 70 minor league appearances...has averaged a 4.77 strikeout-to-walk ratio throughout his minor league career.
- Did not make a regular-season appearance at any level in 2024 due to a left shoulder injury.
- Made his MLB debut with the Red Sox in 2023 and logged nine relief appearances on the season...worked mainly as a long reliever, posting a 6.26 ERA (16ER/23IP) with one save...tossed 6.2 innings in relief in his MLB debut on June 22, 2023...became the fourth Red Sox pitcher in the Live Ball Era (since 1920) to tossed 6.0+ innings in relief in their Major League debut, and was the first to do so since RHP Clem Hausmann in 1944.
- Was the Eastern League Pitcher of the Month for April 2022, posting a 1.17 ERA (3ER/23IP) in four starts with Double A Portland.

- Did not make a regular-season appearance at the minor league or Major League level due to a left shoulder injury.
- Made two appearances for Boston in MLB Spring Training before being optioned to Triple A Worcester and placed on the 7-Day IL on March 29.
- Was designated for assignment by the Red Sox on July 30 and released on Aug. 2...signed a minor league contract with Houston on Aug. 16.

2023 SEASON

- Received his first MLB action, making nine relief appearances across five stints with the Red Sox...logged one save and posted a 6.26 ERA (16ER/23IP), working mainly in long relief.
- Made his MLB debut on June 22 at Minnesota, tossing 6.2 innings of relief while allowing three runs on six hits with two strikeouts...picked up his first career strikeout vs. OF Max Kepler.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Graduated from Hodgson Vocational Technical High School (Newark, De.) in 2015, where he was a first-team All-Star pick as a junior and senior...went 23-3 with a 0.83 ERA in his high school career, also finishing with Delaware's state record for career strikeouts (333).
- Was undrafted out of high school and went on to spend four seasons at the University of Delaware...made just nine starts his sophomore season in 2017 before undergoing Tommy John surgery and subsequently missing the entire 2018 season...returned in 2019 and posted a 3.86 ERA through 14 starts, also becoming the fourth player in program history to log 100-plus strikeouts in a single season (106)...finished his UD career fourth all-time in program history with 252 career strikeouts.
- Was drafted by the Red Sox in the 26th round of the 2019 MLB Draft, a round that no longer exists in the current 20-round MLB First-Year Player Draft.
- Became the second player born in Delaware to appear for the Boston franchise when he made his MLB debut in 2023, joining RHP George Prentiss, who pitched in the franchise's first two seasons (1901-02).
- Was named the winner of the 2023 Lou Gorman Award, "given annually to a Red Sox minor leaguer who has demonstrated dedication and perseverance in overcoming obstacles while working his way to the Major League team."
- Became just the fourth pitcher in Red Sox history to toss 6.0-plus innings in relief in their Major League debut (June 22, 2023, at MIN)...coincidentally, the last pitcher in the Majors to toss 6.0-plus innings in relief in their big league debut was Astros lefty Kent Emmanuel, who pitched 8.2 innings in relief in his debut on April 24, 2021 vs. the Angels.
- Was a consistent contributor to Red Sox community initiatives...as part of the club's 2023 Rookie Development program, he visited patients at Boston Children's Hospital and helped host a Play Ball clinic with the Red Sox Foundation...also took part in the Red Sox Holiday Caravan in December 2023, participating in visits to Boston-area hospitals, food banks and Boys & Girls Clubs.
- Signed a minor league contract with the Astros on Aug. 16, 2024, and is under a minor league contract with the club this season...is set to participate in his third consecutive Major League Spring Training.

- Was named a 2017 MiLB.com Organizational All-Star after advancing to Double A Corpus Christi in what was his first full minor league season...by doing so, he became just the fifth player in a 20-year span to be drafted out of high school and advance to the Double A level in his first full minor league season, joining Chad Billingsley, Zack Greinke, Clayton Kershaw and Dylan Bundy.

2024 SEASON:

- For the first time in his professional career, pitched as a full-time reliever and turned in his best professional season...parlayed his minor league success into three MLB appearances (0ER/3.1IP).
- Spent the majority of his season at Triple A Sugar Land, where he went 4-1 with a 1.89 ERA (7ER/33.1IP) in 32 appearances...struck out 46 hitters in his 33.1 innings while allowing a .203 opponent average.
- Began the year at Major League Spring Training, but did not make a game appearance...optioned to minor league camp on March 10...Began the regular season at Sugar Land and made three appearances before his first call-up.
- Recalled for his Major League debut on April 16 at ATL...tossed 0.2 of a scoreless inning, recording his first out on a lineout by Michael Harris II...optioned back to Triple A on April 17.
- Missed over a month of play from April 22-June 18 while dealing with right shoulder discomfort.
- Returned to Triple A action on June 23 and finished the Triple A season with a 0.95 ERA (3ER/28.1IP) over his final 27 appearances...his ERAs over his final four months: June (2.25), July (0.00), August (1.64) and September (0.00).
- Recalled for his second Major League stint on Sept. 1 and stayed with the Astros through Sept. 5...picked up his first Major League strikeout on Sept. 2 at CIN (Tyler Stephenson).

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER

- Opened the 2023 season with Triple A Sugar Land and went 1-2 with a 5.70 ERA (19ER/30IP) and 32 strikeouts in eight games (six starts)...had a fantastic outing on April 12 at Oklahoma City, striking out seven batters and allowing just one hit through four scoreless innings...was removed from his start on May 25 vs. Salt Lake and did return the rest of the season due to a right lat strain.
- Returned to game action in June of 2022, making three rehab starts in the Astros lower levels...promoted to Triple A in July and finished his season with the Space Cowboys...combined to post a 6.53 ERA (29ER/40IP) in 13 games (11 starts) on the season...struck out 45 in his 40.0 innings pitched.
- Reported to Major League Spring Training in 2021, but did not pitch in a game...optioned to minor league camp on March 12...experienced discomfort in his elbow while throwing live batting practice in a Spring Training workout...underwent ulnar collateral ligament reconstructive surgery (Tommy John) on his right elbow on March 17.
- Was a non-roster invite to Major League Spring Training for the second consecutive season in 2020...made four appearances for the Astros (5ER/6IP) before the COVID-19 shutdown...reported to Summer Camp and impressed in live BP's but did not make the Opening Day roster...spent his entire 2020 season on the 60-man player pool at the Astros Alternate Training site...had his season cut short due to a right forearm strain.
- Combined to post a 3-7 record with a 7.99 ERA (53ER/59.2IP) and 86 strikeouts between four levels in the Astros system in 2019...pitched in the Arizona Fall League following the year and went 3-2 with a 2.88 ERA (8ER/25IP) in six starts for Peoria.
- Made eight regular season starts for Double A Corpus Christi in 2018...didn't debut with the Hooks until June 8 following a 50-game suspension handed down by MLB...made six consecutive starts and exited his outing on July 5 with an oblique injury...was an MLB Futures Game selection but was unable to participate in the contest due to injury...returned to the mound in August to make two more starts before re-injuring his oblique...returned for the postseason, making one start on Sept. 7 at San Antonio (1ER/2.2IP)...following the regular season, pitched for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League, where he as named an AFL Rising Star...posted a 2.42 ERA (7ER/26IP) with 36 strikeouts in 26.0 innings across six starts...earned AFL Pitcher of the Week on Oct. 13.
- Worked his way up the Astros minor league system in 2017, moving from Class A Quad Cities to Advanced Class A Buies Creek to Double A Corpus Christi...by doing so, he became just the fifth player in a 20-year span to be drafted out of high school and advance to the Double A level in his first full minor league season, joining Chad Billingsley, Zack Greinke, Clayton Kershaw and Dylan Bundy...combined to post a 5-4 record with a 2.83 ERA (29ER/92.1IP) with 143 strikeouts in 23 games (18 starts)...was named an MiLB.com Organizational All-Star following the season.
- Debuted as a professional in 2016, tossing 18.2 innings in eight games between two affiliates...signed his professional contract on June 22 after being drafted on June 8.

2024 CLUB NOTES

DIVISION TITLE SECURED: For the first time, the Astros have won their division in four straight seasons...they are the first club to win the AL West in four straight years since Oakland won five straight AL West titles (1971-75).

THE TURNAROUND: After April 27, the Astros went 79-53 (.598) in their final 132 regular season games, which was the second-best record in the Majors in that span...through April 26, the Astros were 7-19 after 26 games...the Astros were also 63-40 (.612) after June 1, which was five wins more than the closest AL team after that date.

|--------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. Dodgers: 81-53 (.604) | 1. Astros: 63-40 (.612) |
| 2. Astros: 81-54 (.600) | 2. Tigers: 58-47 (.552) |

TURNAROUND SEASON: This season marked the second in club history for the team to reach both 12 games under and 12 games over .500, also reached in 2005, when the club bottomed out at 15-30 and topped out at 89-73...the Astros turnaround was mirrored by the 2024 Mets, who bottomed out at 11 games under .500 and finished the year 89-73...per OptaSTATS, the only other seasons in MLB history where multiple teams did this were 2005 (Astros/Athletics) and 1916 (Browns/Giants).

INEVITABLE: The Astros became the 13th team in the divisional era of MLB (since 1969) to come back from a 10.0-plus game deficit in their division to end up winning their division title...the Astros were 10.0 games back after a loss on June 18 with a 33-40 record and finished with a 3.5-game lead in the AL West and an 88-73 record...the last three teams to come back from such a deficit:

2022	Atlanta Braves	10.5
2012	Oakland A's	13.0

THE COMEBACK: With their slow start and turnaround, the Astros reached a couple Major League firsts...per MLB.com, the Astros had the worst record through 25 games (7-18) by a division winner, and the worst record through 50 games (22-28) by a division winner.

GAINING GROUND: The Astros gained their ground in the division in a month-long span, from June 19-July 19, picking up 10.0 games in the standings in that time, while going 18-6...according to MLB's Sarah Langs, the Astros 24 games are tied for third-fewest by a team to erase a division deficit of 10+ games since divisions began, behind the 1993 Red Sox (20g) and the 1982 Dodgers (13g).

IN THE POSTSEASON: The Astros made their 18th postseason appearance in what is the 63rd year of the franchise that began in 1962...this season marks the 13th time in club history for the Astros to enter the postseason as a division winner...these postseason appearances were made after winning the NL West (1980, 1986), NL Central (1997-99, 2001) and AL West (2017-19, 2021-24).

EIGHT STRAIGHT!: The Astros appeared in their eighth straight postseason (2017-24), which extended their franchise record...they have also made the postseason nine times in the last 10 seasons (since 2015) and joined the Dodgers as the only teams in the Majors to qualify for the postseason in each of the last eight years...the Astros postseason streak is the fourth-longest in MLB history, trailing only the 1991-2005 Braves (14), 1995-2007 Yankees (13) and 2013-24 Dodgers (12).

POSTSEASON VETS: Since 2017, the Astros have played more postseason games (99) and have more postseason wins (59) than any other club...the Astros are 59-40 in that span for a .596 win percentage in the postseason.

AT THE HELM: Astros manager Joe Espada became the third manager in club history to win a division title in their first season managing the club, joining Hal Lanier (1986) and Larry Dierker (1997)...he also became the sixth manager to secure a postseason berth in their first season managing the club, joining Lanier, Dierker, Phil Garner (2004), A.J. Hinch (2015) and Dusty Baker (2020).

WILD CARD HISTORY: The Astros played in the Wild Card round for the third time in their postseason history...previously, the Astros dispatched the Yankees in the one-game playoff in 2015 and swept the Twins in the 2020 Wild Card round, with all three of those games being on the road.

ALCS STREAK SNAPPED: By losing in the Wild Card Series, the Astros had their ALCS appearance streak snapped at seven (2017-23)...they are the second team in MLB history to advance to seven straight LCS (since 1969), joining the 1991-99 Braves (excluding 1994 when the LCS was not played), who did so in eight straight completed seasons...2B Jose Altuve, 3B Alex Bregman, RHP Lance McCullers Jr., and RHP Justin Verlander are the only players who were with the Astros for all seven.

ALL-STROS GAME: The Astros had three players selected to the All-Star Game in 2B Jose Altuve, OF Yordan Alvarez and OF Kyle Tucker...Altuve and Alvarez were named starters, marking the fourth time in franchise history for the Astros to have multiple fan-elected starters in the same season, which also occurred in 1997 (two), 2017 (three) and 2019 (three)...Alvarez was the only of the trio to play in the game, walking in his only plate appearance.

- Astros MVP - LF Yordan Alvarez
- Astros Pitcher of the Year - RHP Ronel Blanco
- Astros Rookie of the Year - RHP Spencer Arrighetti
- Darryl Kile Good Guy of the Year - UT Mauricio Dubón
- Fred Hartman Award - Javier Bracamonte

AWARD SEASON: The Astros had a pair of players take home weekly and monthly awards this season...the AL Player of the Week Awards went to RHP Ronel Blanco (April 6) and LF Yordan Alvarez (Aug. 10)...the Astros had two monthly winners, both coming in August, with the Reliever of the Month Award going to LHP Josh Hader, and the Rookie of the Month going to RHP Spencer Arrighetti...this marked the first time that two Astros players received a monthly award in the same month since August of 2019.

5,000 VICTORIES: On Sept. 13 at LAA, the Astros secured their 5,000th win as a franchise, becoming the 18th club in MLB history to reach 5,000 wins...according to Baseball-Reference, the Astros all-time leaders in Wins Above Replacement are Jeff Bagwell (79.9) and Craig Biggio (65.5) and Jose Altuve (52.8).

HOME BOYS: The Astros went 46-35 (.568) at home, which ranked third in the AL, trailing only the Guardians (50-30) and Mariners (49-32)...the Astros home record included a 10-game home winning streak from June 16-July 12, which ranks as their second-longest home winning streak in Minute Maid Park history (since 2000), trailing only a remarkable 18-game run from Aug. 23-Oct. 3, 2004.

SILVER BOOT SECURED: With a 7-6 record against the Rangers this season, the Astros retained the Silver Boot Trophy, which they have held for the eight straight seasons (2017-24)...In those eight years, the Astros are a remarkable 86-45 against their intrastate rivals.

ODE TO OAKLAND: The Astros played their last series at the Oakland Coliseum from July 22-24...with the A's leaving Oakland in 2025, we look back on several Astros memories at the storied stadium:

- The Astros lost their first six games at the stadium and started 12-25 through their first 37 games in Oakland...midway through 2016, the Astros ripped off a 10-game winning streak at the Coliseum and finished 55-54 all time at the stadium, becoming the only visiting team in MLB history with a winning record at the venue.

- 2B Jose Altuve posted a 20-game hitting streak at the stadium from Sept. 5, 2013- Aug. 9, 2015...this ties as the third-longest hitting streak in stadium history.

- OF Josh Reddick is named as one of the A's 50th greatest players and was presented with his A's 50th Anniversary Team jersey in a pregame ceremony on May 7, 2018 at the Coliseum...Reddick is one of several players to call Oakland and Houston home, joining other notables, 1B Chris Carter, IF Jed Lowrie and SS Miguel Tejada.

- CF George Springer became the first player in franchise history to post a six-hit game in a 9.0-inning contest, going 6x6 in a 16-2 win on May 7, 2018 at the Coliseum....this still marks the only six-hit game in stadium history.

- RHP Justin Verlander earned his 200th career win at the Coliseum on Aug. 19, 2018.

- Following Verlander, in what was his third start as an Astro, RHP Zach Greinke won his 200th career game on Aug. 18, 2019 at the Coliseum.

- After sitting alone among the cardboard cutouts in the stands at the Coliseum during the 2020 season, RHP Zach Greinke served as the Astros Opening Day starter on April 1, 2021 at OAK, picking up the win with 6.0 shutout innings, in what was the Astros only Opening Day game at the Coliseum.

- LHP Framber Valdez threw the Astros only 9.0-inning complete game at the Coliseum on May 30, 2022 in a 5-1 win...he worked 9.0 innings of one-run ball in the victory for the first 9.0-inning complete game of his career.

- LF Yordan Alvarez hit two of the longest homers of his career on May 30, 2022 at the Coliseum, a 469' shot in the 4th and a 444' homer in the 8th...the 469' homer was the longest of his career, and the longest by an Astro over the last five seasons (2020-24).

- The Astros set a Coliseum record by hitting seven homers in the same game on May 28, 2023...1B José Abreu hits his first homer of the season in the game and sprints around the bases...he was HBP later in that contest.

- RHP Justin Verlander moved into the top 10 all-time in strikeouts at the Coliseum on May 24, 2024 by racking up nine strikeouts in a 6-3 win...he passed Hall of Famer RHP Greg Maddux (3,371) that day by striking out former teammate 3B Abraham Toro.

MASHING IN MEXICO: The Astros tallied 20 runs on 23 hits in their two games in the Mexico City Series from April 27-28, which resulted in a two-game sweep of the Rockies...the series marked the second time for the Astros to play a regular season series in Mexico, also doing so from May 4-5, 2019 vs. the Angels in Monterrey, also a two-game Astros sweep.

TRADE SEASON: The Astros made a pair of trades around the deadline, first acquiring LHP Yusei Kikuchi from the Blue Jays in exchange for RHP Jake Bloss, OF Joey Loperfido and minor leaguer IF Will Wagner...they later completed their additions by acquiring LHP Caleb Ferguson from the Yankees in exchange for minor leaguer RHP Kelly Austin and international bonus pool money.

THE WILD CARD SERIES ROSTER: The Astros Wild Card Series roster included 11 pitchers and 15 position players...five players on the roster had no postseason playing experience prior to 2024: RHP Spencer Arrighetti, RHP Ronel Blanco, IF Zach Dezenzo and LHP Bryan King...LF Yordan Alvarez and OF Chas McCormick, who were both nursing injuries at the end of the regular season, were both on the Astros Wild Card roster.

COMING UP BIG: 2B Jose Altuve finished his postseason ranking second in postseason history in homers (27), second in runs (89), third in hits (179), tied for third in extra-base hits (48), seventh in games (104) and seventh in RBI (56)...all-time postseason rankings below:

HOMERS (ALL-TIME)	XBH (ALL-TIME)
1. Manny Ramirez 29	1. Derek Jeter 57
2. Jose Altuve 27	2. Bernie Williams 51
3. Bernie Williams 22	T3. Jose Altuve 48
4. two tied 20	T3. Manny Ramirez 48

YORDAN'S POSTSEASON STREAK: DH Yordan Alvarez went 2x4 with a double in Game 1 of the Wild Card Series, which gave him multiple hits in seven consecutive postseason games, breaking a tie with OF Nelson Cruz for the longest streak in MLB history...in those seven postseason games, which dated back to Game 2 of the 2023 ALCS, Alvarez hit .556 (15x27), with a double, triple, two homers and nine RBI.

BROWN'S POSTSEASON START: RHP Hunter Brown made his first career postseason start in Game 2 of the Wild Card Series and struck out nine batters through 5.2 innings, allowing one run on two hits with two walks...became the second pitcher in Astros history to strike out nine-plus hitters in their first career postseason start, joining RHP Mike Scott, who tossed a complete-game shutout with 14 strikeouts in Game 1 of the 1986 NLCS vs. NYM.

ON THE BUMP: The Astros pitching staff ranked fourth in the AL in ERA (3.74), third in opponent average (.231) and second in strikeouts (1479)...their bullpen ranked fourth in the AL in ERA (3.62).

EYE-POPPING AUGUST: The Astros pitching staff allowed a .185 opponent average in August, which incredibly ranks as the second-lowest team opponent batting average allowed in any single month by any team in MLB history...additionally, Astros pitchers struck out 291 batters in August, which is their most strikeouts in the month of August in franchise history...in the month, they posted a 2.51 ERA (70ER/250.2IP) with a .185 opponent batting average, which led the Majors.

LOWEST OPPONENT AVG. IN A MONTH (MLB HISTORY)

1. Cleveland: .174	May of 1968
2. Houston: .185	August of 2024
3. Boston: .189	September of 1915
4. Baltimore: .189	July of 1968

PITCHING IN: After the Astros added LHP Yusei Kikuchi to the rotation on Aug. 2, the Astros staff solidified for a 3.17 ERA (167ER/474.2IP), which ranked third in the Majors in that span...within that stretch, Astros starters led MLB in ERA (2.99) and IP (304.1), while ranking second in strikeouts (323) and second in opponent average (.215).

NINE STARTS, NINE WINS: The Astros went 9-0 in the first nine starts made by LHP Yusei Kikuchi, marking the first time in club history for the Astros to win the first nine starts by any pitcher new to the franchise...the previous franchise record was eight straight wins in starts made by RHP Justin Verlander, a streak that spanned parts of the 2017 (5) and 2018 (3) seasons...in the Majors, the last pitcher to pitch his team to a 9-0 record in his first nine starts with their franchise was RHP Max Scherzer, who did so upon joining the Dodgers at the 2021 trade deadline.

Wins	ERA	Opponent SLG
1. Valdez: 12-4	1. Brown: 2.31	1. Valdez: .291
T2. Berrios: 11-7	2. Valdez: 2.38	2. Brown: .300
T2. Skubal: 11-3	3. Skubal: 2.59	3. B. Miller: .322

RONEL ON A ROLL: RHP Ronel Blanco was one of the top starters in the AL this season, as he finished the season ranking first in the AL in opponent batting average (.190) and in H/9IP (.613), while ranking second in ERA (2.80), sixth in WHIP (1.09) and eighth in opponent OPS (.627)...the Astros went 20-9 in his starts this season.

LA GRASA: LHP Framber Valdez posted a 2.91 ERA (57ER/176.1IP) with 169 strikeouts, a .221 opponent batting average and a 1.11 WHIP in 28 starts for the Astros this season...in the AL, Valdez ranked first in ground ball percentage (60.8), third in ERA, fourth in opponent OPS (.610), seventh in opponent batting average and ninth in WHIP...in his final 17 starts, he posted a 2.24 ERA (27ER/108.2IP) with 118 strikeouts and a .198 opponent average...the Astros went 14-3 in Valdez's last 17 starts.

DIESEL: RHP Hunter Brown, who led all Astros starters in starts (30) and strikeouts (179), had a rough start to the season, but turned his year around in mid-May, working to an 11-5 record and a 2.46 ERA (39ER/142.2IP) in his last 24 appearances after May 11...during this impressive run, Brown put together several streaks, including a streak of 12 consecutive 6.0+ inning starts, a streak of eight straight quality starts and a career-long, five-game winning streak.

RONEL'S NO-NO: RHP Ronel Blanco tossed the 17th no-hitter in franchise history in a 10-0, complete-game win over the Blue Jays on April 1 in Houston...Blanco allowed just two walks with seven strikeouts in his gem (105 pitches)...the no-hitter, which was the earliest thrown by date in MLB history, gave Astros manager Joe Espada his first career managerial victory.

NEAR NO-HITTERS: The Astros took five no-hitters through 7.0 innings this season...per MLB's Sarah Langs, the Astros have 17 no-hit bids of 7.0-plus innings since the beginning of the 2019 season (including playoffs), which is nine more than the next closest team (Padres: 8).

Ronel Blanco: 9 IP on April 1 vs. TOR
Ronel Blanco: 7 IP on June 16 vs. DET
Framber Valdez: 8.2 IP on Aug. 6 at TEX
Framber Valdez: 7 IP on Aug. 30 vs. KC

CLIMBING THE CHARTS: According to STATS, RHP Justin Verlander finished his season ranking 10th all-time in strikeouts and 40th all-time in wins.

K's in MLB History (#9-11) Wins in MLB History (#38-40)

9. Walter Johnson: 3508 T38. Two Tied: 265

SPENCER'S GIFTS: RHP Spencer Arrighetti tallied 25 strikeouts over two starts combined from Aug. 4-10, becoming the first rookie in AL history to have 12-plus strikeouts in consecutive starts (per STATS)...his 13 strikeouts on Aug. 10 at BOS were the most by an Astro in 2024 and tied as the second-highest total ever by an Astros rookie, second only to RHP J.R. Richard and his record-setting 15 K's tallied in what was his ML debut on Sept. 5, 1971 at SF...additionally, Arrighetti is one of six Astros ever to tally 12+ K's in back-back starts, joining Cristian Javier, Gerrit Cole, J.R. Richard, Tom Griffin and Don Wilson.

ROOKIE HONORS: RHP Spencer Arrighetti was named the AL Rookie of the Month for August after he went 3-2 and posted a 1.95 ERA (7ER/32.1IP), a .168 opponent batting average (19x113) and struck out 47 batters in his five starts during the month...according to OptaSTATS, in the modern era, Arrighetti is just the second MLB rookie to have that many strikeouts while allowing so few hits in a calendar month, joining RHP Kerry Wood, who did so in May of 1998 (60 K, 19 hits)...Arrighetti is the first Astros pitcher to receive the award since RHP Colin McHugh won it in September of 2014.

RELIEVER RUNDOWN: In the regular season, RHP Bryan Abreu ranked tied for second among all Major League relievers in appearances (78), tied for third in strikeouts (103) and third in innings pitched (78.1)...LHP Josh Hader led all Major League relievers in strikeouts (105) and ranked second in the AL in saves

(34)...additionally, RHP Hector Neris owned a share for the Major league lead with 10 wins in relief, eight of those coming during his time with the Cubs.

THROWING 100: RHP Bryan Abreu (103) and LHP Josh Hader (105) are just the seventh set of teammates in MLB history to post 100+ strikeouts as a reliever in the same season...they are the first Astros teammates to do so and the first pair of teammates to do so in the Majors since RHP Matt Barnes (110) and RHP Brandon Workman (104) did so for the 2019 Red Sox.

29 STRAIGHT: LHP Josh Hader converted 29 consecutive saves from April 7-Aug. 29, which is the longest consecutive, single-season saves streak in club history...the previous record was held by RHP Brad Lidge (24 straight in 2005).

PLAYING ALL THE HITS: The Astros led the American League in hits (1448) and batting average (.262), while ranking second in OBP (.322)...the Astros last led the AL in both categories in 2021 with 1496 hits and a .267 average.

SPREAD THE WEALTH: The Astros were one of six MLB teams with six players with 60-plus RBI, along with the Yankees, Diamondbacks, Orioles, Rangers and Phillies...the Astros group: 2B Jose Altuve, LF Yordan Alvarez, 3B Alex Bregman, C Yainer Diaz, CF Jake Meyers and SS Jeremy Peña.

TUCKER'S TIME: While healthy, RF Kyle Tucker was one of the best players in the Majors this season, as evidenced by his 4.7 WAR and 181 OPS+ in just 78 games...Tucker missed a total of 79 games while on the IL after fouling a ball of his right shin on June 3...remarkably, the Astros went 48-31 in his absence.

ROCKET LAUNCHER: RF Kyle Tucker hit homers with six straight hits in a streak that ran from May 5-12...per Elias, prior to Tucker's streak, the longest streak posted by an Astros had been five straight hits as homers, most recently reached by LF Yordan Alvarez from June 17-23, 2022.

TONIGHT ON 20/20: 2B Jose Altuve finished his season with 20 homers, to go along with 22 steals, which gives him his third career 20/20 season (also, 2016-17)...Altuve is one of 19 players to post a 20/20 season in 2024.

HALL OF FAME COMPANY: On May 3 vs. SEA, 2B Jose Altuve recorded his 300th career stolen base...in his illustrious career, he has surpassed 2,000 hits, 400 doubles, 200 homers and 300 stolen bases...he is just the fifth player in MLB history to reach all four milestones, while also having a career batting average in the .300s...the others are all Hall of Famers: Derek Jeter, Paul Molitor, Willie Mays and Roberto Alomar.

HANK AARON AWARD FINALIST: LF Yordan Alvarez was named a finalist for the prestigious Hank Aaron Award, an honor that recognizes the most outstanding regular season offensive performer in each league...Alvarez was one of 10 AL finalists for this award with the winners being announced at the All-MLB Awards on Nov. 14.

- The cycle was the second by an Astro in the last two seasons, as 2B Jose Altuve last did so on Aug. 28, 2023 at BOS...prior to Altuve, the Astros had gone 10 years between cycles, with the last being hit by OF Brandon Barnes in 2013.
- The cycle was just the second in T-Mobile Park history, also accomplished by SS Miguel Tejada on Sept. 29, 2001.
- Alvarez became just the ninth DH in MLB history to hit for the cycle, last accomplished by Jake Bauers on June 14, 2019.
- Alvarez hit for the cycle in just four plate appearances in the game, becoming the second Astro to do so, also 1B Bob Watson on June 24, 1977 vs. SF.

MILESTONE HOMER: Yordan Alvarez hit his 150th career homer on Aug. 7 at TEX, in what was his 590th game, which is the fastest to reach that milestone in franchise history...George Springer had the previous club record, reaching #150 in his 723rd game...additionally, Alvarez is now the eighth-fastest player to reach 150 HR in MLB history.

Fewest Games To Reach 150 HR - MLB History (per Elias)

| 2. Pete Alonso - 538 | 6. Albert Pujols - 586 |
| 3. Aaron Judge - 552 | 7. Mark McGwire - 588 |
| 4. Eddie Mathews - 569 | 8. Yordan Alvarez - 590 |

YOR-GONE! YOR-GONE! YOR-GONE! DH Yordan Alvarez recorded his third career three-homer game on Aug. 28 at PHI, which was his 606th career game...according to MLB's Sarah Langs, Alvarez is one of four players in Major League history to have three three-homer games within a players first 610 games, joining Mookie Betts (4), and Hall of Famers Ralph Kiner and Johnny Mize.

BREGMAN'S BOUNCEBACK: 3B Alex Bregman hit .280 (127x454) with 25 homers and an .838 OPS from May 9 thru the end of the regular season...this followed a difficult start to the year for Bregman, who hit .189 (24x127) with one homer in his first 33 games to start the year.

NOTHING FINER THAN YAINER: C Yainer Diaz emerged as the Astros everyday catcher this season, setting single-season club records by a catcher in hits (175), runs (70) and RBI (84)...among AL players this season, Diaz ranked tied for third in three-plus hit games (17), fifth in batting average and tied for sixth in multi-hit games (50).

CATCHING ON: Offensively, Astros catchers led the AL in batting average (.290), slugging pct. (.428) and OPS (.759), while ranking third RBI (88)...Houston used three different catchers in 2024 (Yainer Diaz-99gs; Victor Caratini-45gs; César Salazar-7gs).

IN THE PINCH: C Victor Caratini (.421, 8x19) and UT Mauricio Dubón (.364, 4x11) excelled in the pinch, with Caratini ranking third in the AL with eight pinch hits...as a team, the Astros hit .263 (26x99) in the pinch, which ranked second in the AL.

THE NEED FOR SPEED: SS Jeremy Peña had 33 infield hits on the season, which were the most in the Majors in 2024 and the most by an Astro in a single season since 2B Jose Altuve had 35 infield hits in 2017...Peña got these by sprinting 29.8 feet per second, which ranked 12th in the Majors and in the 98th percentile of all MLB players.

BATTING 1,000: Per Elias, the Astros used 55 players this season, including 26 new players, which moved them past 1,000 players all-time to wear an Astros uniform in the regular season...number 1,000 was OF Ben Gamel, with OF Jason Heyward checking in as No. 1,001...both veterans were productive down the stretch, with Gamel hitting .259 (15x58) with a .377 OBP in 20 games, while Heyward hit four homers with a .756 OPS in 24 games.

SERIES NOTES

ODE TO OAKLAND: The Astros marked the Athletics' final one at the Oakland Coliseum, with the Astros going 55-54 all-time at the venue...the Astros are the only visiting team in MLB history with a winning record at the Oakland Coliseum...IF Jose Altuve notched a 20-game hitting streak at the Coliseum from Sept. 5, 2013-Aug. 9, 2015, which was the third-longest in the stadium's history...RHP Justin Verlander (Aug. 19, 2018) and RHP Zack Greinke (Aug. 18, 2019) each recorded their 200th career wins as members of the Astros at the venue...OF George Springer became the first player in Astros history to record six hits in a 9.0-inning game, doing so on May 7, 2018, at the Coliseum...Yordan Alvarez hit two of the longest homers of his career at the Coliseum on May 30, 2022, a 469-foot shot in the 4th and a 444-foot homer in the 8th. The 469-foot homer was the longest of his career, and the longest by an Astro over the last five seasons (2020-24)...Verlander moved into the top 10 all-time in strikeouts at the Coliseum on May 24, 2024, passing Hall of Famer RHP Greg Maddux (3,371)

POSTSEASON HISTORY: The Astros and A's have linked up once in the postseason, coming in the 2020 ALDS as the Astros won in four games...the Astros belted 12 home runs and batted .322 (46x143) with a .982 OPS as a team during the series...IF Carlos Correa (3), IF Jose Altuve (2), OF Michael Brantley (2) and OF George Springer (2) each belted multiple home runs...the series was played at Petco Park in San Diego due to the COVID-19 pandemic...the 2020 ALDS currently stands as the Athletics' most-recent trip to the postseason.

SERIES SUCCESS: Excluding the 2020 season, the Astros have won the season series vs. Oakland in nine consecutive years, going 99-60 (.623) during those seasons.

SERIES NOTES

2024 RECAP: During the first meeting between the clubs in late June, the Astros picked up a pivotal three-game sweep at Daikin Park to help fuel their comeback in the AL West standings...by the time they traveled to Baltimore in late August, they held a five-game lead for first place in the AL West and split a four-game series at Camden Yards...IF Jose Altuve belted three homers in seven games vs. the Orioles in 2024. LHP Framber Valdez posted a 2.84 ERA (4ER/12.2IP) in two starts, striking out 15 batters. On Aug. 22 in Baltimore, RHP Spencer Arrighetti had one of the finest outings of his rookie year, tossing 6.0 scoreless innings to help lead the Astros to a 6-0 win against Orioles ace RHP Corbin Burnes.

ALL IN THE FAMILY: When the Astros hosted the Orioles last June, it marked the first meeting between brothers-in-law Joe Espada and Brandon Hyde as opposing managers...Espada and Hyde, who also coached within the Miami Marlins minor league system and their MLB staff from 2010-11, are related through marriage as their respective wives, Pamela and Lisa, are sisters.

TRADE HISTORY : To help boost their 2022 World Series title run, the Astros acquired slugging first baseman Trey Mancini from the Orioles in a three-team deal at that year's Trade Deadline. Mancini belted 8 home runs in 51 games with the Astros to close out the regular season...Mancini also appeared in eight postseason games and went 1x3 in the club's World Series-clinching win in Game 6 vs. the Phillies...Mancini departed in free agency following the 2022 season...to complete the deal, the Astros traded RHP Chayce McDermott to Baltimore and OF Jose Siri to Tampa Bay.

FUN AT FENWAY: The Astros swept the Red Sox in their lone trip to Fenway Park last season (Aug. 9-11), extending their franchise-record winning streak at the venue to six games, dating back to 2023...since 2017, the Astros have gone 15-6 at Fenway Park, marking the best winning percentage of any team at the ballpark over that span (min. 14 games)...the Astros have batted .336 (78x232) with 14 home runs, 46 RBI and a 1.008 OPS over their last six games at Fenway Park.

POSTSEASON HISTORY: The Astros and Red Sox have met on three separate occasions in the postseason, with the Astros winning two of the series...the teams most-recently met up in the 2021 ALCS, in which the Astros won the series in six games...the Red Sox rode a win of the 2018 ALCS over the Astros into their ninth World Series Championship...the clubs first met in the postseason in the 2017 ALDS, with the Astros winning the series in four games as the Astros went on to win their first World Series Championship that season...one of the most memorable individual postseason games between the clubs came in the Astros' series-clinching win in Game 4 of the 2017 ALDS at Fenway Park...the Astros trailed 3-2 entering the eighth inning and went on to score a combined three runs off LHP Chris Sale and RHP Craig Kimbrel to secure the series victory...IF Alex Bregman started the comeback with a solo homer off Sale to lead off the eighth inning while OF Carlos Beltran and OF Josh Reddick also chipped in an RBI each.

LAST SIGNIFICANT TRADE: The Astros bolstered their catching depth at the 2022 Trade Deadline with the acquisition of longtime Red Sox backstop, Christian Vázquez.... Vázquez was acquired on Aug. 1, 2022, which coincided with the Red Sox beginning a three-game series in Houston...Vázquez, who entered the series with Boston, made his first start as an Astro just two days later against his former club...he drew the start for one of the most iconic postseason games in Astros history, as he was behind the plate for the club's combined no-hitter in Game 4 of the World Series at Philadelphia...the Astros won all three of his starts during the 2022 postseason, including the World Series-clinching Game 6 victory at Daikin Park.

SERIES NOTES

VS. CLEVELAND: The Astros have secured a season series victory over the Guardians in six consecutive seasons, dating back to 2018... additionally, since 2021, the Astros are 9-3 vs. Cleveland at Daikin Park... the season series between the clubs ended in odd fashion in 2024, as their scheduled regular-season finale at Progressive Field was canceled due to inclement weather... RHP Ryan Gusto was scheduled to make his Major League debut in the contest for the Astros... it marked the first time since 2008 the Astros didn't play a full 162-game schedule (excluding the 2020 season).

POSTSEASON HISTORY: The Astros made quick work of Cleveland in the only postseason matchup between the franchises, sweeping the 2018 American League Division Series... the Astros outscored Cleveland, 21-6, including an 11-3 win to finish the sweep... OF George Springer batted .429 (6x14) with three home runs and IF Alex Bregman batted .556 (5x9) with two home runs during the series... RHP Gerrit Cole struck out 12 batters in the Game 2 victory, tied for the fourth-most strikeouts in a postseason game in Astros history.

LAST SIGNIFICANT TRADE: The Astros beefed up their relieving corps ahead of the 2021 postseason while also netting their catcher of the future in a deadline deal with Cleveland... the Astros acquired RHP Phil Maton and C Yainer Diaz in exchange for speedy OF Myles Straw... Maton recorded a 3.67 ERA (64ER/157IP) in 162 appearances over three seasons (2021-23) with the Astros... Diaz quickly ascended through the Astros system, appearing in the 2022 MLB Futures Game and making his Major League debut in September of that season... he had a standout rookie season, batting .282 with 23 home runs and 60 RBI... the 23 home runs were the second-most in a single season by an Astros rookie, behind only OF Yordan Alvarez (27 HR in 2019)... in his first full season as the Astros backstop in 2024, Diaz ranked fifth in the American League in batting average (.299) and seventh in hits (175)... Straw debuted with the Astros in 2018 and flashed top-flight speed and superb center-field defense each season at the Major League level with Houston leading up to the trade... Straw went on to win his first career Gold Glove Award with the Guardians in 2022.

SERIES NOTES

2024 POSTSEASON: The Astros and Tigers met for the first time in the postseason last year, with the Tigers sweeping the best-of-three Wild Card Series at Daikin Park... American League Cy Young Award winner LHP Tarik Skubal fired 6.0 scoreless innings to pick up the winning decision in Game 1... RHP Hunter Brown, making his first career postseason start, fanned nine batters through 5.2 innings in Game 2, joining RHP Mike Scott as the only Astro to strike out nine-plus batters in their first career postseason start... however, the Tigers combined to use seven pitchers to limit the Astros to just 5 hits and two runs in Game 2 win as they closed out the series.

ASTROS CONNECTION: Former Astros manager A.J. Hinch enters his fifth season at the helm in Detroit... Hinch managed the Astros for five seasons (2015-19) and ranks second all-time in franchise history in managerial wins (481) and winning percentage (.594, 481-329)... Hinch helped guide the Astros to their first World Series Championship in 2017 and led the team to the postseason in four of his five seasons as the Astros' manager.

TRADE HISTORY: The Astros made one of their most impactful trades in franchise history with Detroit on August 31, 2017, acquiring future Hall-of-Famer RHP Justin Verlander in exchange for three minor leaguers... Verlander headlined the Astros rotation as they went on to win the World Series that season, as he was also named the ALCS MVP... in his seven-season Astros tenure, Verlander won two Cy Young Awards (2019 and '22), two World Series (2017 and '22) and was selected to three All-Star Games.

DETROIT RAISED: Astros RHP Hunter Brown is a native of Detroit, where he went to grade school (Isaac Jogues Catholic School), high school (Lakeview HS) and college (Wayne State University)... Brown has made six career appearances (5 starts) vs. Detroit in his young career (incl. postseason), and has gone 3-0 with a 2.70 ERA (10ER/33.1IP).

SERIES NOTES

2024 RECAP: The Astros exacted a bit of revenge in their final meeting vs. the Royals last season, sweeping a four-game series from Aug. 29-Sept. 1 at Daikin Park...it marked the first four-game sweep over the Royals in club history and their first sweep of the Royals of any kind since a three-game from Sept. 13-15, 2019 in Kansas City...the sweep came after the Royals outscored the Astros 28-8 in a three-game sweep at Kauffman Stadium from April 9-11...the Royals also swept the Astros in a three-game series at Daikin Park in their final meeting in 2023 (Sept. 22-24)...Yordan Alvarez paced the Astros offense vs. Kansas City in 2024, batting .423 (11x26) with two home runs and five RBI in seven games.

POSTSEASON HISTORY: The Astros snapped a nine-year postseason drought when they matched up against the Royals in the 2015 ALDS...the Royals went on to win the series in five games, despite the Astros initially jumping out to a 2-1 series lead...the Royals went on to win Game 5 behind a strong effort from starter RHP Johnny Cueto and eventually went on to win their second World Series in franchise history.

LAST SIGNIFICANT TRADE: The Astros acquired one of the most prolific postseason performers in Major League history, OF Carlos Beltrán, from the Royals as part of a three-team deal that also included the Oakland A's in June 2004...to complete the deal, the Astros sent C John Buck to the Royals and RHP Octavio Dotel to Oakland...Beltrán's first stint in Houston was brief but memorable, putting together one of the best single-season postseason performances in MLB history in 2004...Beltrán batted .435 (20x46) with three doubles, eight home runs, 14 RBI and six stolen bases in 12 games as the Astros advanced to an LCS for the first time since 1986...Beltrán is the only player in MLB history to have at least eight home runs, 14 RBI and six stolen bases in a single postseason.

SERIES NOTES

SERIES AT A GLANCE: The Astros have had a strong run as of late against their American League West counterpart, winning the season series nine of the last 10 years...since 2021, the Astros are 44-20 vs. the Halos, including 22-9 at Angel Stadium...entering 2025, the Astros' record of 127-80 (.614) is their best record vs. an AL West opponent since moving to the AL in 2013.

LAST SIGNIFICANT TRADE: The Astros acquired C Martín Maldonado via trade on two occasions, with the first time coming from the Angels in exchange for LHP Patrick Sandoval on July 20, 2018...Maldonado went on to appear in 41 games with the Astros in 2018 and was re-acquired in a trade with the Chicago Cubs on July 31, 2019...from 2021-23, Maldonado started 344 games at catcher for the Astros, which were the most starts at the position in that span in the American League...he ranks third all-time among Astros catchers with 58 home runs...in the 2023 postseason, Maldonado passed Hall-of-Famer Yogi Berra for the third-most starts at catcher (62) in MLB Postseason history.

IN THE RAFTERS: Along with Jackie Robinson's No. 42, the Angels and Astros share another player whose respective number has been retired by both clubs in Hall of Famer RHP Nolan Ryan...the Astros retired Ryan's No. 34 in 1996 while the Angels retired his No. 30 in 1992...Ryan is one of seven players to have their number retired by multiple teams...he's the only player other than Robinson to have his number retired by three clubs, as the Rangers also retired his No. 34 in 1996...of all four clubs he appeared with, Ryan's nine seasons with the Astros were his most with any single team.

SERIES NOTES

POSTSEASON HISTORY: The Astros and Rays have met twice in the postseason, with the Rays most recently thwarting a chance for the Astros to make back-to-back World Series appearances by winning the 2020 ALCS in seven games...the two clubs also linked up in the playoffs the year prior, with the Astros winning the 2019 ALDS in five games...OF Randy Arozarena homered twice in the Rays' Game 7 win in the 2020 ALCS while former Astro RHP Charlie Morton got the start and tossed 5.2 scoreless innings...the Astros scored four runs in the first inning off Rays starter RHP Tyler Glasnow to help fuel their winner-take-all victory in Game 5 of the 2019 ALDS at Daikin Park.

TRADE HISTORY: The most-recent trade between the two clubs came at the 2022 Trade Deadline, with Tampa Bay acquiring OF Jose Siri from the Astros as part of a three-team deal that netted Houston IF Trey Mancini from the Baltimore Orioles...the last significant trade that was between strictly the two clubs came on December 14, 2003, when the Astros acquired RHP Brandon Backe in exchange for utility man IF Geoff Blum...Backe was a constant in the Astros rotation from 2004-09, making 79 starts, along with seven postseason appearances, during that span...a native of Galveston, Texas, Backe tossed seven scoreless innings in Game 4 of the 2005 World Series vs. the Chicago White Sox, marking the longest scoreless outing in Astros World Series history...Blum had two separate stints with the Astros as a player (2002-03, 2008-10) and is entering his 10th season as the club's TV color broadcaster.

AT THE TROP: Though the Rays are scheduled to play their 2025 home games at George M. Steinbrenner Field, the Astros have won eight of their last nine games at Tropicana Field, including a three-game sweep at the venue in 2024...since 2021, the Astros have gone 10-2 at the home of the Rays...IF Jeremy Peña has thrived at Tropicana Field, batting .371 (13x35) with four home runs, seven RBI and a 1.207 OPS in nine career games at the venue.

SERIES NOTES

SILVER BOOT: The Astros secured a victory of the Silver Boot Trophy in 2024 with a 6-4 win in the final meeting between the clubs on Aug. 7 at Globe Life Field...LHP Yusei Kikuchi picked up the win in the 2024 finale between the clubs, striking out eight batters through 5.1 innings...the Astros have won the Silver Boot Trophy for eight consecutive seasons, dating back to 2017, and have gone 86-45 vs. the Rangers over that span.

NEAR NO-NO: LHP Framber Valdez nearly tossed the second no-hitter of his career on Aug. 6 at Globe Life Field, carrying the no-no through 8.2 innings before it ended on a two-run homer from IF Corey Seager...the Astros still managed to log a 4-2 win, which kickstarted a season-best eight-game winning streak...from 2019-24, the Astros have recorded 17 no-hit bids of at least 7.0 innings, which are nine more than any other MLB team...the Astros also logged five no-hit bids of 7.0 innings in the 2024 season alone.

TOPSY TURVY 2023: The 2023 campaign was the most memorable between the in-state rivals, culminating in a matchup in the 2023 ALCS in which the Rangers won and went on to win their first World Series title...the Astros won seven of their final nine games vs. the Rangers to win the season series, which served as a tiebreaker for the AL West Division title when the clubs ended the year with the same record...the Astros took a 3-2 lead in the ALCS, winning all three games at Globe Life Field thanks to a ninth-inning, go-ahead three-run homer from IF Jose Altuve in Game 5...the Rangers rallied for back-to-back wins in Games 6 and 7 to take the series fueled by ALCS MVP, OF Adolis García...García hit .357 (10x28) with 5 home runs and 15 RBI during the ALCS.

NO-NO: The Astros picked up their first win of 2024 in historic fashion, with RHP Ronel Blanco completing the 17th no-hitter in franchise history in a 10-0 win on April 1...it marked the earliest no-hitter in MLB history by date...Joe Espada also became the first manager in MLB history to pick up the first win of their managerial career via a no-hitter...Blanco's no-hitter was the 13th solo no-hitter in Astros history, with two of the club's last three solo no-hitters coming vs. the Blue Jays...RHP Justin Verlander tossed the other one on Sept. 1, 2019 in Toronto...Blanco was making just the eighth start of his career and tossed just the 18th solo no-hitter in MLB history from a pitcher within the first eight starts of their career.

TRADE HISTORY: The Astros bolstered their rotation at the 2024 Trade Deadline by acquiring LHP Yusei Kikuchi in exchange for OF Joey Loperfido, RHP Jake Bloss and IF Will Wagner...over 10 starts with the Astros, Kikuchi went 5-1 with a 2.70 ERA (18ER/60IP) and 76 strikeouts...the Astros went 9-1 in his 10 starts, including a 9-0 record through his first nine starts, marking the first time in club history for the Astros to win the first nine starts by any pitcher new to the franchise...in his Astros debut on Aug. 2 vs. Tampa Bay, Kikuchi struck out 11 batters through 5.2 innings, including eight consecutive strikeouts at one point, which matched the franchise record...he became just the fifth player in Astros history to strike out 11-plus batters in their debut with the club.

ASTROS CONNECTION: The Astros selected OF George Springer with the 11th overall pick of the 2011 MLB Draft and went on to earn three All-Star selections, two Silver Sluggers and was named the 2017 World Series MVP during a seven-year stint in the big leagues with Houston (2014-20)...entering the 2025 season, he ranked seventh in Astros history with 174 home runs...his 39 leadoff home runs with the Astros ranked third in club history behind Hall-of-Famer Craig Biggio (53) and Jose Altuve (40)...Springer also ranked tied for second in Astros postseason history in home runs (19), fourth in doubles (15), sixth in RBI (38) and seventh in games played (63)...Springer entered free agency following the 2020 season and signed a six-year contract with the Blue Jays.

SERIES NOTES

2024 IN REVIEW: The Astros fortified their first-place lead in the American League West in their lone meeting vs. the D-backs, taking two-of-three in an early September series at Daikin Park...LHP Framber Valdez tossed 7.0 scoreless innings while OF Yordan Alvarez notched one of his seven multi-homer games to lead the Astros to a win in the series opener...IF Jeremy Peña hit a three-run homer to help back a 13-hit effort as the Astros secured a series win the following night...in the series finale on Sunday Night Baseball, OF Pavin Smith collected a career-high eight RBI, tying C Chris Iannetta for the second-most RBI in a single game in Diamondbacks history...IF Jose Altuve had a phenomenal series, going 8x14 (.571) with three doubles, a home run and three RBI...the Astros have either won or tied their season series vs. Arizona for 10 consecutive seasons, dating back to 2014.

ASTROS CONNECTION: After an eight-season stint as Arizona's third base coach, Tony Perezchica was hired by the Astros this offseason to serve as the club's third base coach, as well as infield coach/run prevention coordinator...prior to joining the D-backs Major League staff, he spent several seasons in their organization as a minor league manager, field coordinator and infield coordinator from 2003-16...Perezchica spent parts of four seasons in the Major Leagues as an infielder with San Francisco (1988, 1990-91) and Cleveland (1991-92).

TRADE HISTORY: The Astros added a potential future Hall of Famer at the buzzer of the 2019 Trade Deadline, acquiring RHP Zack Greinke from the Diamondbacks...the Astros sent RHP Corbin Martin, RHP J.B. Bukauskas, OF Seth Beer and IF Josh Rojas to Arizona to complete the deal...Greinke went 22-10 with a 3.89 ERA (130ER/300.2IP) in 52 games (51 starts) in parts of three seasons with the Astros...Greinke also appeared in 11 postseason games (10 starts) with the Astros, going 1-2 with a 4.30 ERA (22ER/46IP)...Rojas had the biggest impact among Arizona's return, batting .252 (331x1315) with 22 home runs and 144 RBI in 381 games across parts of five seasons (2019-23).

SERIES NOTES

LAST SIGNIFICANT TRADE: The Astros and Cubs connected on a pair of trades in the 2024 offseason, beginning with the Astros landing All-Star IF Isaac Paredes, RHP Hayden Wesneski and top prospect IF Cam Smith, in exchange for OF Kyle Tucker...Paredes, who the Cubs themselves had just acquired at the 2024 Trade Deadline, earned his first All-Star selection in 2024 while with the Rays...Wesneski, a Houston native, has pitched in parts of three seasons with the Cubs (2022-24)...Smith, a third baseman who the Cubs selected with the 14th overall pick of the 2024 MLB Draft, is a consensus choice as the Astros' top prospect entering the 2025 season...in seven seasons with the Astros, Tucker was selected to three All-Star Games, while also winning a Gold Glove in right field and a Silver Slugger Award...on Jan. 28, the Cubs acquired RHP Ryan Pressly from the Astros in exchange for minor leaguer RHP Juan Bello...Pressly earned two All-Star selections and recorded 112 saves in seven seasons with the Astros, along with 14 saves in the postseason...Bello, 20, spent his entire 2024 season with Low A Myrtle Beach, where he posted a 3.21 ERA in 22 starts.

LONG LOST RIVALS: The Astros and Cubs spent 19 seasons together in the NL Central (1994-2012) but have played just 16 games against each other since the Astros moved to the AL in 2013...the clubs have traded sweeps in each of the past two seasons, with the Cubs sweeping a three-game set at Wrigley Field in 2024, which was the Astros' first trip to the "Friendly Confines" since 2013...the Astros swept a three-game series vs. the Cubs in Houston in 2023, the first meeting between the former division foes since 2019.

ALL-TIME OPPONENTS: The Astros and Reds have met on 854 occasions, the most games played by the Astros against any single opponent...the Reds have had the upper hand of late, winning nine straight over the Astros since the beginning of the 2019 season...the Astros have also dropped 13 of their last 15 games vs. their former NL Central rivals since joining the American League in 2013.

BAGGY: The Reds had a front-row seat over the years to the legendary career of Jeff Bagwell, as his 197 games vs. them were his second-most vs. any opponent, trailing only the Chicago Cubs (199 games)...Bagwell launched 49 career homers vs. Cincinnati, which were 11 more than his next-closest opponent (STL, 38 HR)...he also logged a .308 career batting average and 1.009 OPS vs. Cincinnati...Bagwell hit the 400th home run of his career vs. the Reds on July 20, 2003, at Great American Ball Park.

ASTROS CONNECTION: Before becoming a member of the vaunted Big Red Machine, Hall of Famer Joe Morgan spent the first 10 years of his Major League career (1963-71) with the Astros...Morgan was selected to two All-Star Games and finished second in the 1966 National League Rookie of the Year voting while with the Astros...he appeared in 891 games with Houston, batting .263 (860x3268) with 61 home runs, 278 RBI and 195 stolen bases...Morgan was selected to the All-Star Game in each of his eight seasons with the Reds (1972-79) and returned to the Astros for the 1980 season before retiring following the 1984 campaign.

SERIES NOTES

SOUTH OF THE BORDER: The Astros and Rockies met for a pair of games from April 27-28 at Estadio Alfredo Harp Helú last season in Mexico City, with the Astros sweeping the series...the Astros offense came alive in the series, scoring a combined 20 runs, belting six home runs and outscoring the Rockies, 20-6, over the two-game set...it marked the second consecutive year that MLB regular-season games were played in Mexico City and was the Astros' second regular-season trip to Mexico...the Astros also swept a two-game series vs. the Los Angeles Angels from May 4-5, 2019, in Monterrey, Mexico.

DUBÓN GETS IT DONE: Thanks to his four seasons spent with the San Francisco Giants in the NL West, Mauricio Dubón's 32 career games vs. the Rockies are second-most among current Astros, behind only Jose Altuve (34g)...Dubón has been phenomenal in his career vs. the Rockies, batting .326 (31x95) with seven doubles, four home runs, 23 RBI and a .927 OPS.

HOME-FIELD ADVANTAGE: The Astros have gotten the better of the Rockies recently, winning 26 of the last 32 meetings between the clubs...the Astros have been especially dominant at Daikin Park, winning their last 11 home games vs. the Rockies...the Astros' last home loss to the Rockies came on Aug. 14, 2018...the Astros have won 16 of their last 18 home games vs. the Rockies, dating back to April 8, 2012...the Rockies return to Daikin Park in 2025 for a three-game series from Sept. 26-28.

LAST SIGNIFICANT WAIVER CLAIM: The Astros claimed RHP Collin McHugh off waivers from the Rockies on December 18, 2013...McHugh was a fan favorite in his time with Houston from 2014-19 and appeared in 195 games (110 starts), going 58-35 with a 3.63 ERA (304ER/753.1IP)...he finished fourth in the 2014 American League Rookie of the Year voting, as well as eighth in the 2015 AL Cy Young Award voting after winning a career-best 19 games.

POSTSEASON HISTORY: The Astros and Dodgers have met twice in the postseason, but undoubtedly the most memorable occasion came in the 2017 World Series...the Astros won the 2017 Fall Classic in seven games, giving the franchise its first title...the 2017 World Series provided numerous iconic moments, including a go-ahead two-run homer from OF George Springer in the top of the 11th in Game 2 at Dodger Stadium and a walk-off RBI single by IF Alex Bregman in the 10th inning of Game 5...Springer homered five times in the World Series, including in four consecutive games to close out the series, en route to being named World Series MVP...the other postseason meeting between the two clubs came in the 1981 National League Division Series, which the Dodgers won in five games...former Astros manager Dusty Baker started in all five games of the 1981 NLDS at left field for the Dodgers.

LAST SIGNIFICANT TRADE: What initially appeared as a minor deal at the 2016 Trade Deadline turned out to be one of the most impactful in Astros history, when the club traded reliever RHP Josh Fields to the Dodgers in exchange for then-minor league OF Yordan Alvarez...the Cuban slugger has established himself as one of the top hitters in the Majors, winning the 2019 American League Rookie of the Year, the 2021 American League Championship Series MVP and an AL Silver Slugger Award in 2022, while also being selected to three All-Star Games (2022-24)...Alvarez had his fingerprints all over the Astros 2022 World Series Championship run, hitting three go-ahead home runs in the sixth-inning-or-later, all three with the Astros trailing...those go-ahead home runs included a three-run walk-off home run in Game 1 of the ALDS vs. SEA and a game-winning go-ahead three-run homer over the center-field batter's eye at Daikin Park in Game 6 of the World Series vs. Philadelphia.

SERIES NOTES

ASTROS CONNECTION: Astros manager Joe Espada received his first Major League coaching job as the third base coach for the Marlins, holding the position from 2010-13...prior to working as the Marlins third base coach, Espada worked as a hitting coach for the organization's Single A and High A affiliates, as well as serving as the Marlins minor league infield coordinator from 2008-09...Espada was named the Astros' 20th full-time manager prior to the 2024 season after serving as the team's bench coach from 2018-23...Espada also spent part of his 10-year professional playing career in the Marlins organization, appearing in 79 games with their Triple A affiliate in 2001.

SERIES HISTORY: The Astros swept their lone series vs. the Marlins in 2024, winning three games from July 9-11 at Daikin Park...the Astros have now won five in a row vs. Miami and nine of their last 12, dating back to 2017...the two clubs will meet at loanDepot Park from Aug. 4-6 in 2025, with the Astros holding a 6-3 record all-time at the venue...
IF Jose Altuve has posted strong career numbers vs. the Marlins, batting .353 (30x85) with eight doubles, two triples, three homers, 13 RBI and a 1.002 OPS...among active players with at least 80 career at bats vs. the Marlins, his .353 batting average ranks second headed into the 2025 season.

TRADE HISTORY: The Astros provided a boost to their bullpen at the 2021 Trade Deadline, acquiring RHP Yimi García from the Marlins for RHP Austin Pruitt and OF Bryan De La Cruz...García spent just the back half of the 2021 season with the Astros, going 1-2 with a 5.48 ERA (13ER/21.1IP) in 23 appearances...García, who signed with the Toronto Blue Jays prior to the 2022 season, also went on to appear in 10 games in the 2021 postseason, including four scoreless innings through four appearances in the World Series vs. ATL...De La Cruz made his Major League debut with the Marlins in 2021 and appeared in 431 games with them across parts of four seasons (2021-24) before being traded to the Pittsburgh Pirates at in July of last season.

SERIES NOTES

TRADE HISTORY: The Astros got their prospective everyday centerfielder at the 2015 Trade Deadline, acquiring OF Carlos Gomez and RHP Mike Fiers in exchange for LHP Josh Hader, RHP Adrian Houser, OF Domingo Santana and OF Brett Phillips. Gomez was unable to replicate his power-speed combo from early on in his career that made him the headliner of this deal, batting .221 (98x444) with nine home runs and 42 RBI in 126 games through parts of two seasons with Houston...the Astros released Gomez on August 18, 2016...Hader was the biggest coup for the Brewers, going on to become one of the game's most dominant relievers...in parts of six seasons with the Brewers, Hader went 17-17 with a 2.48 ERA (87ER/316.1IP) with 125 saves and was selected to four All-Star teams...coincidentally, Hader returned to the Astros in 2024 on a free-agent deal that will keep him in Houston through the 2028 season...the flame-throwing lefty recorded 34 saves in his first big league season with the Astros.

ASTROS CONNECTION: C Victor Caratini spent his first season in Houston in 2024, batting .269 (52x201) with eight homers and 30 RBI in 87 games...prior to signing a two-year contract with the Astros, Caratini spent the previous two years (2022-23) with Milwaukee, belting 16 home runs while appearing in 157 games through two seasons.

FORMER NL CENTRAL MATES: The Astros took two-of-three from the Brewers from May 17-19 last season at Daikin Park, accounting for the Brewers' first trip to Houston since June 2019...the Astros and Brewers spent 15 seasons together in the NL Central (1998-2012) but have played just 16 times since the Astros joined the AL in 2013, with the series split at 8-8.

LANETRRAIN: Former Astros outfielder Jason Lane has served on the Brewers coaching staff since 2015 when he was hired as an assistant hitting coach...since the 2020 season, he's worked as Milwaukee's third base coach...Lane spent six of his seven MLB seasons with the Astros, including three straight 100-appearance seasons from 2004-06, in which the club made two appearances in the NLCS...Lane's best season with the Astros came in 2005 when he belted a career-best 26 homers en route to helping lead the team to its first-ever World Series appearance.

TRADE HISTORY: The Astros re-acquired future Hall of Famer RHP Justin Verlander from the Mets at the 2023 Trade Deadline, sending minor league outfielders Drew Gilbert and Ryan Clifford to New York to complete the deal...Verlander spent just half a season with the Mets after signing as a free agent prior to the 2023 season...he returned to the Astros following an initial six-year stint that included two World Series Championships (2017, 2022), two American League Cy Young Awards (2019, 2022) and three All-Star selections...Verlander was crucial to the Astros' run to the 2023 AL West Division title, going 7-3 with a 3.31 ERA (25ER/68IP) in 11 starts to close out the year...he also went on to go 1-1 with a 2.95 ERA (6ER/18.1IP) in three starts during the 2023 postseason...Gilbert was the Astros' first-round selection of the 2022 MLB First-Year Player Draft while Clifford was selected in the 11th round the same year...per MLB Pipeline, Gilbert was ranked as the Mets' No. 3 prospect with Clifford at No. 4 following the 2024 season.

POSTSEASON HISTORY: The Astros and Mets have linked up once in the postseason, coming in the 1986 National League Championship Series...it marked the first trip to an LCS for the Astros, who had a rotation headlined by RHP Nolan Ryan and RHP Mike Scott...the Mets, led by the likes of C Gary Carter, IF Keith Hernandez, OF Daryl Strawberry, OF Lenny Dykstra, RHP Dwight Gooden and RHP Ron Darling went on to win the 1986 NLCS in six games and then went on to win the 1986 World Series over the Boston Red Sox.

POSTSEASON HISTORY: The Astros first-ever postseason matchup vs. the Phillies was a success, winning the 2022 World Series in six games...the World Series featured numerous iconic Astros postseason moments, starting with OF Kyle Tucker's two-homer game in Game 1, which was the first multi-homer game in Astros World Series history...after the Phillies took two-of-three to open the series, RHP Cristian Javier, RHP Bryan Abreu, RHP Rafael Montero and RHP Ryan Pressly teamed up to toss a combined no-hitter in Game 4 at Citizens Bank Park...it marked just the second no-hitter in World Series history and the third no-hitter in MLB postseason history...OF Yordan Alvarez capped off his remarkable postseason with a go-ahead three-run home run in the sixth inning off LHP Jose Alvarado...IF Jeremy Peña was named the World Series MVP finish a remarkable postseason that also included ALCS MVP honors.

LAST SIGNIFICANT TRADE: After being selected to two All-Star Games with the Astros, OF Hunter Pence was dealt to the Phillies for IF Jon Singleton, RHP Jarrod Cosart, OF Domingo Santana and RHP Josh Zeid in July 2011...Pence appeared in parts of two seasons with the Phillies before going on to win two World Series titles in eight seasons with the San Francisco Giants...Singleton, considered a headliner of the Astros' return, was released in 2018 but returned to Houston on a minor league deal in 2023, reaching the Majors with the Astros once again later that season...he earned a near-everyday role as the club's first baseman in 2024, appearing in a career-high 119 games while belting 13 homers with 42 RBI and a .707 OPS. Cosart (2013-14), Santana (2014-15) and Zeid (2013-14) each reached the big league level with the Astros following the trade.

SKENES SELLS OUT HOUSTON: Pirates phenom RHP Paul Skenes made his first-ever appearance in Houston on July 29, 2024, drawing a sellout crowd of 40,522 fans at Daikin Park...Skenes took a no-decision after striking out six batters through 6.0 innings while allowing two runs (one earned) on five hits...the Pirates would go on to win the game 5-3...the Astros were scheduled to start RHP Jake Bloss, who like Skenes, was selected in the 2023 MLB Draft...however, Bloss was scratched that day as he was included in the Astros' package to the Blue Jays to acquire LHP Yusei Kikuchi...according to MLB's Sarah Langs, it would have marked the sixth-ever matchup in the Majors between starters who were drafted the previous year...along with it being Skenes' debut in Houston, it was a meeting between two LSU icons...Former Astros third baseman Alex Bregman helped lead LSU to the College World Series twice during his time in Baton Rouge while Skenes helped lead the Tigers to a National Championship in 2023.

TRADE HISTORY: The Astros struck gold prior to the 2019 season, acquiring RHP Gerrit Cole from the Pirates in exchange for RHP Joe Musgrove, RHP Micahel Feliz, OF Jason Martin and IF Colin Moran...Cole, the first overall pick of the 2011 MLB First-Year Player Draft, blossomed with the Astros, going 35-10 with a 2.68 ERA (123ER/412.2IP) in 65 starts across two seasons...Cole was selected to the All-Star Game in each of his two seasons in Houston, also finishing top-five in the American League Cy Young Award voting both years...he finished as high as second in the 2019 AL Cy Young Award voting...the Astros reached the playoffs in both of Cole's seasons in Houston, including a trip to the 2019 World Series...he went 5-2 with a 2.17 ERA (12ER/49.2IP) in seven postseason starts with the Astros.

SERIES NOTES

TRADE HISTORY: The Astros and Padres connected on a 12-player trade in December 1994, with the Astros acquiring OF Derek Bell, RHP Doug Brocail, IF Ricky Gutierrez, LHP Pedro Martinez, OF Phil Plantier and IF Craig Shipley in exchange for IF Ken Caminiti, IF Andujar Cedeno, OF Steve Finley, IF Roberto Petagine, RHP Brian Williams and LHP Sean Fesh...Bell had the biggest impact among players acquired by the Astros in this deal, batting .284 (770x271 1) with 74 home runs and 444 RBI through five seasons (1995–99)...the Astros appeared in the postseason in three of Bell's five seasons with the club...Brocail had two stints with the club (1995–96, 2008–09) and appeared in 72 games in 2008, going 7–5 with a 3.93 ERA (30ER/68.2IP)...Caminiti and Finley proved to be the biggest losses for the Astros. Caminiti, who was inducted into the Astros Hall of Fame in 2024, was selected to two All-Star Games and won the 1996 National League MVP with San Diego...Finley spent four seasons with the Padres (1995–98) and won two Gold Gloves at center field while also garnering one All-Star selection.

POSTSEASON HISTORY: While still National League counterparts, the Astros and Padres met in the 1998 NLDS...the Padres went on to win the series in four games and advanced to the 1998 World Series vs. the New York Yankees...LHP Randy Johnson, who was acquired from the Seattle Mariners in a mid-season deal, logged a 1.93 ERA (3ER/14IP) and struck out 17 batters through two starts...Johnson was outdone only by RHP Kevin Brown, who recorded a 0.61 ERA (1ER/14.2IP) and struck out 21 batters through his two starts.

TRADE HISTORY: The Astros acquired utility man Mauricio Dubón from the Giants on May 14, 2022, in exchange for C Michael Papierski, who was with Triple A Sugar Land at the time of the deal...Dubón, who was designated for assignment by the Giants prior to being traded, has become an integral part of the Astros lineup...he had a breakout 2023 campaign, which culminated with his first career Gold Glove Award, coming at the utility spot...that season he set career-highs in nearly every offensive category, batting .278 (130x467) with 26 doubles, 10 home runs, 46 RBI, seven stolen bases and a .720 OPS in 132 games...the Honduras native made starts at seven different positions in 2024, becoming the first player in Astros history to do so (source: Elias)...since the trade, Dubón has batted .333 (8x24) with three doubles and two RBI in six games vs. the Giants.

HISTORICAL SERIES: The Astros and Giants have a long history against each other, with the Astros having played the Giants 738 times, their second-most against any individual opponent behind only the Cincinnati Reds (854g)...the franchises first met on May 11, 1962, when the then-Colt .45s beat the Giants, 7-0, behind a shutout from RHP Turk Farrell...the Giants starter that day was Hall of Famer Gaylord Perry, with their lineup also featuring a trio of Hall of Famers in Willie Mays, Willie McCovey and Orlando Cepeda...the Giants hold the all-time series lead (384-354) but the Astros lead the series at 11-9 since 2015.

SERIES NOTES

BIG PUMA: Lance Berkman was one of the most prolific sluggers in Astros history, racking up five All-Star selections and belting 326 homers to go with 1,090 RBI and a .959 OPS in his 12 seasons with Houston (1999-2010)...Berkman retired following the 2013 season, but not before a two-year stint with the Cardinals (2011-12), which included an All-Star selection and Comeback Player of the Year Award in 2011...Berkman was key to the Cardinals' run in the 2011 postseason, culminating in a World Series title, batting .313 (20x64) with two homers and 11 RBI in 17 games...he batted .423 (11x26) with a homer and five RBI in the World Series as the Cardinals topped the Rangers.

POSTSEASON HISTORY: The Astros and Cardinals have met twice in the postseason, with both occasions coming in the National League Championship Series and each series running at least six games...the Cardinals won the first series, taking the 2004 NLCS in seven games before ultimately losing to the Boston Red Sox in the World Series...the Astros avenged the loss just a season later, winning the 2005 NLCS in six games to secure their first-ever trip to the World Series...RHP Roy Oswalt allowed just one run through seven innings of work in Game 6 of the 2005 NLCS, sending the Astros to the Fall Classic vs. the Chicago White Sox.

TRADE HISTORY: The former National League Central rivals do not have an extensive trade history, but the Astros did land a franchise icon from the Cardinals on October 24, 1974, acquiring OF José Cruz in exchange for cash...Cruz went on to play 13 seasons in Houston, making two National League All-Star teams and finishing top-10 in NL MVP voting three times. Cruz was inducted into the Astros Hall of Fame in 2019 and his No. 25 has been retired by the club.

POSTSEASON HISTORY: The Astros advanced to their third World Series in franchise history in 2019, where they faced the Nationals and were defeated in seven games... it was the first World Series title in Washington's history and it marked the first World Series in which the road team won each game...RHP Stephen Strasburg was named the World Series MVP after going 2-0 with a 2.51 ERA (4ER/14.1IP) through two starts.

SEE YOU IN WEST PALM: Not only are the Astros and Nationals forever linked by their matchup in the 2019 World Series, but the two clubs also share a Spring Training facility at CACTI Park of the Palm Beaches in West Palm Beach, Fla...the two clubs are scheduled to square off six times in Spring Training this season, as well as a Spring Breakout game featuring top prospects from each club on March 14, 2025. The teams meet in the regular season from July 28-30 at Daikin Park...it will mark the Nationals' first trip to Daikin Park since the 2019 World Series.

TRADE HISTORY: Just before the start of the 2002 season, the Astros swung a deal with the Montreal Expos to acquire utility infielder Geoff Blum in exchange for IF Chris Truby...Blum spent five of his 14 years in the Majors with the Astros across two stints (2002-03, 2008-10)...he had the most productive offensive season of his career directly following his first trade to Houston, batting .283 with 10 homers, 52 RBI and a .807 OPS through 130 games in 2002...Blum has continued to be a staple in Houston, as he's set to enter his 10th season as an analyst on the club's TV broadcast.

ASTROS HALL OF FAME PRESENTED BY HOUSTON METHODIST

The Astros Hall of Fame presented by Houston Methodist was established in 2019, and resides in Hall of Fame Alley on the main concourse of Daikin Park in left-center field. The Astros Hall of Fame was created to give Astros fans an opportunity to celebrate and connect with the greatest individuals and moments in Astros franchise history.

The inaugural Astros Hall of Fame class of 2019 featured 16 individuals: the nine Astros with retired numbers, as well as the members of the Astros Walk of Fame located on Texas Ave. outside Daikin Park. Each member of the Astros Hall of Fame has their own custom plaque on display inside Hall of Fame Alley.

14 • 3B BOB ASPROMONTE (1956, 1960-71) CLASS OF 2019

An original member of the Colt .45s franchise, Aspromonte took the first plate appearance in Houston franchise history, as he was the leadoff hitter in the club's inaugural game on April 10, 1962. Aspromonte recorded the first hit, run and stolen base in Houston franchise history, and was an Opening Day starter in all seven of his seasons with Houston. He established a franchise record for grand slams (6), and in 1965 he tallied 14 game-winning hits and a team-high 11 game-winning RBI. Aspromonte also recorded the first regular season homer by an Astros player in the Astrodome on April 24, 1965.

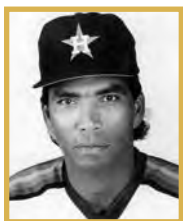

5 • 1B JEFF BAGWELL (1991-2005) CLASS OF 2019

One of two players inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a member of the Astros, Bagwell played his entire 15-year career with Houston, leading the club to six play-off appearances, four division titles and a National League Pennant (2005). He became the first player in Astros history to be named MVP of his league (1994), and was the first Astros player to win Rookie of the Year (1991). The franchise leader in homers (449), walks (1401) and RBI (1529), Bagwell was also an elite defensive player, winning a Gold Glove Award in 1994. He is the only first baseman in MLB history to record 200 steals and 400 homers.

7 • 2B CRAIG BIGGIO (1988-2007) CLASS OF 2019

The first player to be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a member of the Astros, Craig Biggio played all 20 of his Major League seasons with the Astros. He is the only player in Astros history to reach 3,000 total hits, and is the MLB modern-day all-time leader in hit by pitches (285) and ranks third all-time in leadoff home runs (53). Biggio was named to seven All-Star teams, won five Silver Slugger Awards and four Gold Gloves. Biggio impacted the community off the field as well with his lifelong dedication to the Sunshine Kids organization, and in 2007 he won MLB's Roberto Clemente Award for his efforts in the community.

25 • LF JOSE CRUZ (1975-87) CLASS OF 2019

Jose "Cheo" Cruz played 19 total seasons in the Majors, including 13 seasons with the Astros where he was a fan favorite. Cruz played in 1,870 games with the Astros, batting .292 with 335 doubles, a franchise-record 80 triples, 138 home runs, 942 RBI and 288 stolen bases. Cruz was a two-time All-Star and two-time Silver Slugger Award winner with Houston. In 1980, he finished third in the NL MVP voting and led Houston to its first-ever division title and postseason berth. Cruz spent 13 seasons as the Astros Major League first base coach and over a decade in the front office.

49 • RHP LARRY DIERKER (1964-76) CLASS OF 2019

In addition to pitching 13 seasons in the Majors with Houston, Larry Dierker impacted the Astros for over 40 years as a broadcaster, front office executive and as one of the greatest managers in franchise history. The franchise-leader in innings pitched, complete games, shutouts and starts, Dierker was a two-time All-Star, posting a 137-117 record and a 3.28 ERA in 345 career games (320 starts) with the Astros. Dierker became the sixth manager in MLB history to lead his club to a division title in his first season, and led the Astros to four division titles in his five seasons. In 1998, Dierker was named the NL Manager of the Year.

Gene Elston broadcast Major League games in Houston for 25 years as the Voice of the Astros from 1962-86. He was behind the mic for the first game in franchise history on April 10, 1962, when the Colt .45s defeated the Chicago Cubs. Elston was the first play-by-play broadcaster for the Houston franchise, and a generation of baseball fans received their introductions to both the Astros and MLB by his broadcasts. Elston broadcast baseball 47 years, and in 2006 was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum for his significant and lasting contributions to the game of baseball.

Milo Hamilton, the 1992 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, broadcast Major League baseball for close to 60 years, including 28 seasons with the Astros. Hamilton was behind the mic for some of the greatest moments in Astros franchise history, including the club's National League pennant run in 2005, Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit, Nolan Ryan's 4,000th strikeout and six postseason appearances. Hamilton was also a tremendous ambassador for the Astros away from the booth, dedicating his time to numerous charitable endeavors and fundraising activities.

Before going on to win two NL MVP Awards and two World Series Championships with the Big Red Machine in Cincinnati, Joe Morgan kickstarted a Hall of Fame career with the Houston Colt .45s and Astros from 1963-71. A two-time All-Star with Houston, Morgan finished second in the NL Rookie of the Year Award voting in 1965, winning the Sporting News Rookie of the Year award. Morgan returned to the Astros in 1980 and helped the club reach its first playoff berth and division title in franchise history. Morgan still ranks among the top five Astros all-time in triples (2nd, 63), OBP (4th, .374) and stolen bases (5th, 219).

36 • RHP JOE NIEKRO (1975-85) CLASS OF 2019

The Astros all-time franchise leader in career wins with 144, Joe Niekro pitched in 11 seasons with the Astros as part of a 22-year career in the Majors. While the knuckleballer found moderate success prior to joining the Astros, he blossomed into a true ace with Houston. Over a seven-year stretch from 1977-83, Niekro was one of the game's elite pitchers, leading the National League in innings pitched (1,857) while ranking second in strikeouts (1,228) in that span. Niekro set a new single-season franchise record for wins in 1979, going 21-11 with a 3.00 ERA while being named to the NL All-Star team.

37 • RHP SHANE REYNOLDS (1992-2001) CLASS OF 2019

Shane Reynolds led the Astros starting rotation during the final years of the Astrodome and the first years of Daikin Park, helping the Astros reach the playoffs four times in his 11 seasons with the club. An All-Star in 2000, Reynolds went 103-86 with a 3.95 ERA and 1,309 strikeouts in 274 career games (248 starts) in his Astros career. Reynolds led the NL in starts in back-to-back years from 1998-99, and eclipsed 200.0 innings pitched in three out-of-four seasons from 1996-99. He won 19 games while posting a 3.51 ERA and 209 strikeouts in 1998, propelling the Astros to a second-straight division title.

50 • RHP J.R. RICHARD (1971-80) CLASS OF 2019

J.R. Richard was one of the most imposing pitchers of his era. In 10 seasons with Houston, he went 107-71 with a 3.15 ERA, 76 complete games, 19 shutouts and 1,493 strikeouts in 238 games. Richard won the NL ERA title in 1979 with a 2.71 mark over 38 starts while also setting a new single-season club record for strikeouts with 313. In 1978, he became the first pitcher in franchise history to lead the Majors in strikeouts in a single season (303). Richard's 1,493 strikeouts are the third-most in club history. Richard was named to the NL All-Star team in 1980, but suffered a career-ending stroke on July 30, 1980.

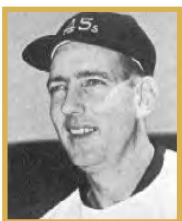

34 • RHP NOLAN RYAN (1980-88) CLASS OF 2019

Major League Baseball's strikeout king spent nine seasons pitching at the top of Houston's rotation, his most among any of the four teams he played for in a 27-year career. In 282 starts with the Astros, Ryan went 106-94 with a 3.13 ERA, 1,866 strikeouts, 38 complete games and 13 shutouts. The all-time franchise leader in career strikeouts, Ryan also owns the top career ERA in Astros history. A two-time All-Star with Houston, he led the NL in both ERA (2.76) and strikeouts (270) as a 40-year-old in 1987. In 1980, his first year with Houston, he helped pitch the club to their first National League West Division title.

33 • MIKE SCOTT (1984-91) CLASS OF 2019

Mike Scott pitched nine seasons with Houston, tallying a 110-81 record with a 3.30 ERA and 1,318 strikeouts in 263 games. He became the first pitcher in MLB history to throw a no-hitter in a clinching situation when he shut down San Francisco, 2-0, to help the Astros wrap up the NL West title on Sept. 25, 1986. Scott won the NL Cy Young Award that season after leading the National League in ERA (2.22), innings pitched (275.1) and strikeouts (306). A three-time All-Star with Houston, Scott became the first player ever to win NLCS MVP honors while pitching for the losing team in 1986.

Jim Umbricht was an original member of the Houston Colt .45s. He opened the 1962 season with the Colts and was one of the top relief pitchers in the NL, posting a 4-0 record with a 2.01 ERA. Umbricht was diagnosed with cancer in 1963, and made a remarkable comeback. Following a cancer operation in mid-March of 1963, Umbricht came back to the Astros and pitched in 35 games, making three starts, posting a 4-3 record with a 2.61 ERA. Umbricht died on April 8, 1964 at the age of 33. His number, 32, was officially retired by the Astros on April 12, 1965.

40 • RHP DON WILSON (1966-74) CLASS OF 2019

Don Wilson compiled a 103-92 record in nine seasons with the Astros, posting a 3.15 ERA with 78 complete games and 20 shutouts. He was named to the NL All-Star team and named the Astros Team MVP in 1971 after going 16-10 with a 2.45 ERA in 268.0 innings pitched. Wilson is the only pitcher to throw two no-hitters in a Houston uniform. On July 14, 1968, he established the franchise record for strikeouts in a single game with 18, eight of which were consecutive. He died on January 5, 1975, and his number, 40, was retired by the Astros on April 13, 1975.

24 • OF JIMMY WYNN (1963-73) CLASS OF 2019

Jimmy Wynn spent the first 11 years of his 15-year Major League career with Houston, the first two as a member of the Colt .45s. Despite his small frame (5'9"), Wynn boasted enormous power and a strong throwing arm, earning him the nickname "The Toy Cannon". In 11 years with Houston, he hit .255 with 228 doubles, 32 triples, 223 homers, 719 RBI and an .806 OPS in 1,426 games, the majority of which were played in the pitcher-friendly Astrodome. Wynn was named to the 1967 All-Star Team after clubbing 37 home runs with 107 RBI.

FOUNDER & OWNER • ROY HOFHEINZ (1962-76) CLASS OF 2020

One of the founding fathers of the Astros, Judge Roy Hofheinz was the first owner of the Houston franchise. A state legislator at age 22, a Harris County judge at age 24 and the mayor of Houston at age 40, Hofheinz played an instrumental role in getting the Colt .45s to Houston in 1962, and in 1965 renamed the club the Astros to coincide with the opening of the first domed stadium in professional sports history, the iconic Astrodome. Hofheinz revolutionized baseball and the sports industry in many ways, including his decision to utilize an artificial playing surface in 1966 which he dubbed "AstroTurf".

A seven-time All-Star and one of the most dominating closers in Major League history, Billy Wagner spent the first nine years of his standout 16-year MLB career with Houston, posting 225 saves and 694 strikeouts in 464 games with the Astros. Wagner was selected by Houston in the first round of the 1993 draft, and within four years became Houston's shutdown closer at the Major League level. He set an Astros single-season franchise record for saves in 1999 (39 saves), before topping his own club-record mark in 2003 with 44 saves. In 1999, Wagner finished fourth in the NL CY Young Award race.

Bob Watson spent 14 of his 19 MLB seasons with the Astros, making two All-Star teams while batting .297 with 241 doubles, 139 homers, 782 RBI and an .808 OPS in 1,381 games. He scored MLB's one millionth run on May 4, 1975, and became the first player in MLB history to hit for the cycle in both leagues. Following his playing career, Watson became the second African-American General Manager in Major League history when he was named GM of the Astros in 1994. In 1996, Watson became the first African-American GM to win a World Series when he did so as GM of the New York Yankees.

21 • OF TERRY PUHL (1977-90) CLASS OF 2022

Longtime Astros outfielder Terry Puhl, who spent the first 14 seasons of his 15-year Major League career in an Astros uniform, is in the top 10 all-time in franchise history in multiple categories, including games played, hits, doubles, triples and runs scored. His 14 seasons as an Astro are topped only by Craig Biggio (20 seasons) and Jeff Bagwell (15 seasons). In addition to his offensive production, Puhl was considered a talented, all-around player that provided strong defense and speed on the basepaths.

Covering three different stints, Tal Smith spent 35 of his 54 years in Major League Baseball with the Houston Colt .45s/Astros franchise. In that span, Smith played a major role in many different aspects of the organization's growth, development and success, both on and off the field. Among other accomplishments, as a front office executive, he held leadership roles in the construction of both the Astrodome and Daikin Park and in the creation of Astroturf. On the field, he was an architect for both the first Astros team to advance to the postseason and for the first Astros team to play in the World Series.

For 30 seasons, Bill Brown served as the primary television voice of the Astros. His professionalism and knowledge of the game, along with his powerful voice and relentless preparation, made him one of the top play-by-play men of his generation. Over the years, Brown has received many well-deserved honors in his career, including an induction into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame and an induction into the Astros Media Wall of Honor. He was also honored with the National Sportscasters Association Texas Sportscaster of the Year Award and the Fred Hartman Award for Long and Meritorious Service, which is given out annually by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

ASTROS HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

Bill Doran was a fan favorite among Astros players in the 1980's. He was a tough, hard-nosed player that was admired for both his hustle and ferocity and for his production on the field. As a player, he was one of the top, all-around second basemen in the National League and one of the best at that position in franchise history. During the 1980's, the switch-hitting Doran led all Astros players in runs scored, stolen bases and walks, was second in hits and third in games played. Among all NL second basemen in the 1980's, he ranked first in walks, second in runs scored and fourth in stolen bases. On the Astros all-time franchise lists, Doran ranks in the top 10 in hits, runs, stolen bases, walks, at-bats and triples. Doran was voted as the Team MVP on two occasions (1985, 1987). Defensively, he ranks third in franchise history in assists and fourth in double plays turned.

11 • 3B KEN CAMINITI (1987-94, 1999-2000) CLASS OF 2024

During his 10 seasons in an Astros uniform, All-Star Ken Caminiti developed a reputation as one of the finest defensive third basemen of his era. While manning the hot corner, he combined range, soft hands and one of the most explosive throwing arms that the game has ever seen. In addition to his physical talent, to his peers, he was known as the "ultimate gamer" and as a great teammate. In franchise history, he ranks second all-time among third basemen in games (1,063), innings (9,043) and assists (1,906) and third in putouts (828). He ranks third among Astros third basemen in career RBI with 546, which ranks 11th all-time in franchise history. Among Astros switch-hitters, he ranks second all-time only to Lance Berkman in several categories, including home runs, RBI and doubles. Caminiti was also a clutch performer in the postseason for the Astros, hitting .471 (8x17) in the 1999 NLDS vs. Atlanta with three home runs and eight RBI while posting a 1.526 OPS.

BROADCASTER • RENE CARDENAS (1961-74, 2007-08) CLASS OF 2024

René Cárdenas truly was a broadcasting pioneer for both the Colt .45s/Astros organization and for Major League Baseball. In 1958, he became the first full-time Spanish-language broadcaster to call games for a Major League Baseball team, doing so with the Los Angeles Dodgers. In 1961, he was hired by the expansion Houston Colt .45s (now the Houston Astros) to pioneer their Spanish radio broadcasts as both their first broadcaster and as director of Spanish broadcasting. Cárdenas would call Astros games for 14 seasons before returning to Nicaragua in 1975, where he called baseball games on both television and radio. In 2008, he also called several Astros games in Spanish on television for the first time. Additionally, Cárdenas has been a finalist three times for the Cooperstown National Baseball Hall of Fame's Ford C. Frick Award for broadcasting excellence.

HOUSTON MAJOR LEAGUE HISTORY

2020 In perhaps the strangest year in Major League history, MLB completes a 60-game regular season in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic...after navigating a tumultuous offseason, a Spring Training shutdown and a three-month hiatus, the Astros return to the field in July and advance all the way to the American League Championship Series for their fourth straight season, this time under new Manager Dusty Baker and new General Manager James Click...their postseason run, which included series wins over the Twins and Athletics, followed a 29-31 regular season record in the truncated season...the club overcame huge blows just to make the postseason, as the Astros got just one start out of reigning AL Cy Young winner Justin Verlander and just two games out of reigning AL Rookie of the Year Yordan Alvarez...Houston also loses four keys from their bullpen, three to season-ending injuries and one to an opt out...outfielder Kyle Tucker established himself as an everyday player, after leading the club in extra-base hits, while starter Framber Valdez leads the club in innings pitched in a breakout campaign...Houston ties a Major League record by using 15 rookie pitchers, including 10 to make their MLB debut...Cristian Javier leads that group, as the young starter finishes third in the AL Rookie of the Year voting...despite down regular season offensive numbers, Carlos Correa and Jose Altuve lead the club on their postseason run, with Correa totaling six homers and 17 RBI in his 13 postseason games...George Springer chips in four postseason homers, giving him 19 in his career, which ties him for fourth in MLB postseason history...like most of baseball, the Astros do not host fans at their home stadium in 2020, but still hold home field advantage with a 20-8 record at Daikin Park...Astros Opening Day is held on July 24 vs. Seattle, the latest Opening Day in franchise history...Houston wins the opener, 8-2, extending their franchise record winning streak on Opening Day to eight games.

2021 The Astros captured their fourth pennant in franchise history and, third in a five-year span, falling short of their second World Series Championship in six games to the Atlanta Braves...in the postseason, Houston defeated the White Sox in a four-game ALDS...advanced to play in the ALCS for the fifth consecutive season becoming ...the third team in MLB history to advance to record this feat (since 1969), joining... the Braves (1991-99) and A's (1971-75)... Houston would go on to defeat the Red Sox in six games...Yordan Alvarez was named the ALCS MVP after batting .522 during the series...Jose Altuve hit 5 home runs during the postseason and has recorded 23 career postseason home runs, which ranks second all-time in MLB history...Altuve also tied the Major League record with 21 runs scored in a single postseason, matching CF Carlos Beltran, who also scored 21 for the Astros in 2004...Kyle Tucker led all players in RBI this postseason with 15...during the regular season, the Astros led the AL in runs (863), hits (1,496), OBP (.339) and average (.267)...Houston won their fourth AL West division title in the last five seasons...Carlos Correa and Yuli Gurriel each won the Rawlings Gold Glove Award for their respective positions while Correa was also awarded the Rawlings AL Platinum Glove Award...the Astros also won the Rawlings AL Glove Team Award...Alvarez and Tucker were named to the All-MLB Second Team...Astros manager Dusty Baker became the first manager in MLB history to win division titles with five different clubs (Astros, Nationals, Reds, Cubs and Giants)...Gurriel earned his first career batting title and became the second player in club history to win a batting title, joining Altuve...he also was the second Cuban-born player to win a batting title, joining Tony Oliva and the eighth-oldest player in MLB history to win a batting title...rookie starter Luis Garcia had a phenomenal season, posted a 3.30 ERA with a 11-8 record on his way to finishing second in the AL Rookie of the Year award...Lance McCullers Jr. had his best season as a pro, reaching career highs in wins (13), starts (28), innings (162.1) and strikeouts (185), while also posting the best ERA (3.16) and opponent batting average (.205) of his six-year career...Altuve, Michael Brantley, Correa and Ryan Pressly were selected to the All-Star Game...Houston was on the road in Oakland for Opening Day defeating the Oakland Athletics, 8-1...the Astros have won nine straight games on Opening Day (2013-21), which ties the modern Major league record, also reached by the Mariners (2007-15), Reds (1983-91), Mets (1975-83) and St. Louis Browns (1937-45)...per Elias, the only MLB team to post a longer winning streak on Opening Day was the 1887-1896 Boston Beaneaters (current Braves franchise), with a 10-game streak.

The Astros captured their second World Series title in 2022 after a dominant season that saw them win 106 games, the second-most in franchise history and the second-most in MLB...Houston defeated the Philadelphia Phillies in six games in a series that saw the Astros throw just the 3rd no-hitter in World Series history and the first combined no-hitter in MLB postseason history behind the arms of Cristian Javier (6.0IP), Bryan Abreu, Rafael Montero and Ryan Pressly (1.0IP each) and also saw Yordan

Alvarez hit a 450-foot three-run home run to give the Astros a 3-1 lead in the clinching Game 6...Houston starting pitcher and 2022 Cy Young Award winner Justin Verlander capped his remarkable season at age 39 with his first World Series win in Game 5 against the Phillies...the Astros began the postseason with a remarkable 7-0 record that was helped immensely by two clutch home runs from Alvarez and rookie Jeremy Peña in the ALDS against the Seattle Mariners...Alvarez hit a walk-off 3-run homer in Game 1 against Seattle while a Peña solo shot help end an 18-inning game, clinching Game 3 for the Astros, which ended up tying the record for the longest postseason game in MLB history...the Astros 7-0 start to the playoffs, which is tied for the second-best ever, was fueled by three-and-four game sweeps of Seattle and the New York Yankees, respectively...the Astros faced 1-0 and 2-1 deficits in the World Series against Philadelphia before winning three-straight games to earn the title...Peña became just the third rookie in MLB history to win World Series MVP, as the shortstop hit .400 with a home run and three RBI against the Phillies...his postseason overall saw him hit .345 with four homers and eight RBI...the World Series win was the first for Astros manager Dusty Baker, who filled perhaps the only missing hole in his historic and illustrious 25-year career as a skipper...Houston's pitching staff turned in a remarkable playoff performance, indicated best by the bullpen, which allowed the lowest ERA in MLB postseason history among staffs that threw 35 innings or more (0.83)...Astros starter Framber Valdez went 3-0 in the playoffs while posting a 1.44 ERA, while Javier allowed just a single earned run in 12.2 innings...the postseason was a mirror of the regular season for the Astros, who had the best bullpen ERA (2.80) in MLB and the second-best rotation ERA (2.95)...spearheading the Astros rotation was Verlander, who earned his third career Cy Young award in his first year back from Tommy John Surgery at age 39 after posting a 18-4 record and a MLB-best 1.75 ERA among starters...he is the 4th oldest pitcher ever to earn the award...Valdez also engineered a historic 2022 season, posting a 17-6 record and a 2.82 while breaking the MLB record for most consecutive quality starts in a single-season with 25...Valdez also set the MLB record for most consecutive quality starts by a left-handed pitcher (22) while shattering the Astros previous franchise record of 19...Valdez's streak ended at 25, which is now the 2nd-longest in MLB history...the pitching staff also saw Javier engineer his first hitless outing of the year on June 25 in New York against the Yankees, whom the Astros pitched a combined no-hitter against for their first of the year...relievers Hector Neris and Ryan Pressly helped Javier in the effort, each throwing one frame...the regular season also saw the Astros throw two immaculate innings in a single game, one by starter Luis Garcia and another by reliever Phil Maton on June 15 against the Rangers in Arlington...both were caught by catcher Martin Maldonado, who was also on the receiving end of the combined no-hitter just 10 days later...2022 also saw Ryan Pressly's 33 save season for Houston's pitching staff, which shot him up the leaderboard among the Astros' all-time franchise leaders...he ranked T-4th with Fred Gladding in saves in Astros with 76 at the end of the regular season after being T-13th entering the year...Pressly also now is the Astros all-time leader in postseason saves after earning his 11th in Game 6 of the World Series...other notable moments included Lance McCullers Jr. returning from a forearm injury that kept him out until August, where he was incredible in his return, going 4-2 with a 2.27 ERA, and Ryne Stanek posting the 2nd-best ERA in MLB this year among qualified relievers with a 1.15 ERA, which also set a new Astros franchise record...at the plate, Houston hit the 4th-most home runs in baseball, lead in part by Alvarez's 37-homer year, which ranked 6th in MLB...Alvarez finished as an AL MVP finalist, hitting .306 with a .613 slugging percentage, which was the 2nd-best mark in baseball...the Astros also saw Jose Altuve hit .300 for the sixth time in his career, while the second baseman swatted 28 home runs and stole 18 bases...Kyle Tucker had a remarkable year as well, hitting 30 home runs, driving in 107 RBI and a career-high 25 stolen bases...he was the only player in baseball to hit 30 homers and record 25 steals...he joined Jeff Bagwell as the only other Astro in history to reach each number, who did it in 1997 and 1999...Tucker's back-to-back 30 home run seasons made him the first Astro since Lance Berkman accomplished the feat in 2001-02...Five Astros made the 2022 All-Star Game at Dodger Stadium in Los Angeles: Altuve, Alvarez, Tucker, Verlander and Valdez.

MAJOR LEAGUE HISTORY

2023 In their final season with legendary manager Dusty Baker at the helm, the Astros reached their seventh consecutive American League Championship Series, becoming the first American League team and second team overall (Atlanta Braves, 1991-99) to accomplish the feat... they were dispatched by their in-state rivals and eventual World Series Champions, Texas Rangers, in a seven-game ALCS in which the road team won each contest... Baker announced his retirement shortly after the ALCS, capping a sure-to-be Hall-of-Fame career that included a World Series Championship, two AL pennants and three AL West titles in his four-year stint in Houston... the Astros clinched their third straight AL West Division title on the final game of the regular season, setting up a matchup vs. the Minnesota Twins in the ALDS... the Astros won the ALDS in five games, moving on to face the Rangers in the ALCS in the first intrastate LCS in MLB history... after dropping the first two games of the series, the Astros won three straight at Globe Life Field... Jose Altuve continued his postseason heroics in Game 5 with a go-ahead three-run homer in the ninth inning... the home run was Altuve's 10th career go-ahead home run in the postseason, surpassing Albert Pujols for the most in MLB history... Yordan Alvarez hit .465 with six homers, 15 RBI and a 1.487 OPS in the playoff... Kyle Tucker led the American League with 112 RBI and won his first career AL Silver Slugger Award... Tucker, who was also a finalist for the AL Gold Glove Award in right field, became the third player in Astros history and the first since Lance Berkman in 2002 to lead their league in RBI... Framber Valdez made had the highlight of his year on Aug. 1, tossing the 16th no-hitter (including the postseason) in franchise history... it was the first no-hitter thrown by a left-hander in club history... on the same day Valdez threw his no-hitter, the Astros made the biggest splash of the MLB Trade Deadline by re-acquiring Justin Verlander in a trade with the New York Mets... Verlander was key to the Astros' postseason push, going 7-3 with a 3.31 ERA in 11 starts to close out the regular season... Altuve reached numerous career milestones, including 2,000 career hits, 1,000 runs scored, 400 doubles, 200 homers and 700 RBI... he also became the first Astro to hit for the cycle in 10 years, doing so on Aug. 28 at Boston... Mauricio Dubón received extended playing time and set career highs in nearly every offensive category en route to winning the AL Gold Glove Award at the utility spot... Alvarez, Tucker and Valdez represented the Astros in the All-Star Game at Dodger Stadium, with each player garnering their second career All-Star selection... the Astros tied their club record in homers (7) on May 28 at Oakland and hits (25) on Aug. 27 at Detroit... for the fifth time in club history, and the first time since 2007, the Astros surpassed three million fans, with a final attendance total of 3,052,347.

2024 In their first year under manager Joe Espada, the Astros won their fourth consecutive American League West Division title but had their historic streak of consecutive years reaching the ALCS snapped at seven... the Astros were swept by the Detroit Tigers in their best-of-three AL Wild Card Series at Daikin Park... Jose Altuve logged the 118th hit of his postseason career in Game 2, surpassing Manny Ramirez for third-most in MLB history... Altuve won his seventh Silver Slugger Award, tying Ryne Sandberg for the most by a second baseman in MLB history... Alex Bregman earned his first career Gold Glove Award... the Astros reached the postseason for the ninth time in the last 10 seasons despite opening the season at 7-19, going 63-40 after June 1... the Astros became the 13th team in the divisional era (since 1969) to come back from a 10.0-game deficit to win their division... Yordan Alvarez led the Astros in batting average (.308), doubles (34), home runs (35), RBI (86) and OPS (.959)... he became the 10th player in Astros history to hit for the cycle, doing so on July 21 at Seattle's T-Mobile Park... Alvarez, Altuve and Kyle Tucker each earned All-Star selections... Ronel Blanco completed the 17th no-hitter in franchise history on April 1 vs. the Toronto Blue Jays, in what was the earliest no-hitter thrown in MLB history (by date)... Blanco was superb in his first full season in the rotation, leading qualified AL pitchers in opponent batting average (.190) and ranking second in ERA (2.80)... Hunter Brown and Framber Valdez were a formidable duo from June 1 on, with Brown ranking first in ERA (2.31) and Valdez second (2.38) in the AL over that span... Yusei Kikuchi was acquired from the Toronto Blue Jays on July 29 and the Astros went 9-0 in his first 9 starts with the club... the Astros swept the Rockies in a two-game series at Estadio Alfredo Harp Helú in Mexico City, marking the franchise's second regular-season trip series to Mexico.

ASTROS STADIUM HISTORY

Colt Stadium served as the home to Houston's first Major League Baseball franchise: the Colt .45s. The outdoor, single-deck facility was constructed as a temporary home until a domed stadium was completed. It was in operation for three seasons, from 1962-1964, and was witness to two no-hitters, both by the Colts: Don Nottebart in 1962 and Ken Johnson in 1963. High heat and humidity moved many games to late afternoon starts and pushed the National League to lift its ban on Sunday night games. It was located in what is now the Astrodome's north parking lot.

Current status: The stadium was dismantled in the 1970s and moved to Torreon, Mexico, where it was reassembled and became home to a Mexican League baseball team.

By the time the Astrodome opened on April 9, 1965, for an exhibition game between the Houston Astros and New York Yankees, it was already heralded as the "Eighth Wonder of the World." The largest structure of its kind and the world's first multi-purpose domed stadium, the Astrodome came to symbolize the futuristic home of professional sports in America. In honor of Houston's significance to the country's space program, it was appropriately named the Astrodome, and to maintain the theme, the Colt .45s were proudly renamed the Astros. AstroTurf was developed and installed to start the 1966 campaign after natural grass was unsuccessful. It served as the Astros home for 35 seasons.

ASTROS FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually by the Baseball Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster, National League President, Commissioner, and Hall of Famer, has been presented annually since 1978. Frick was a driving force behind the creation of the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and he helped foster the relationship between radio and the game of baseball.

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony. Each award recipient (not to be confused with an inductee) is presented with a calligraphy of the award during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (Astros broadcaster from 1962-1986)

Gene Elston's baseball broadcasting career spanned 47 years, primarily as a radio announcer. The 2006 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, delivered baseball to a new legion of fans as the lead voice of the expansion Houston Astros for 25 years, from their beginnings as the 1962 Colt .45s, through their 1986 National League West Division championship. While his voice became a beacon to fans in Texas and the Southwest, Elston's broadcasting responsibilities also included numerous national assignments. Elston broke into radio as a high school basketball broadcaster in 1941 in Fort Dodge, Iowa. After serving in the Navy during World War II, he returned to the small midwest stations he knew so well. His break came in 1945 when he handled color commentary for the National Football League's Cleveland Rams. His entry into baseball came in 1946, when Elston was hired to call games for the Waterloo White Hawks of the Three I League. Three years later, he was named play-by-play for Des Moines of the Western League. In 1954 he made the major leagues as the number two man for the Chicago Cubs. In 1958, Elston was chosen to work with Bob Feller for Mutual's Game of the Day, which aired over 350 stations across the country, a position he held through 1960. In 1961, as baseball was expanding, he was the first announcer to handle play-by-play duties for the Houston franchise. He went on to work the CBS Radio Game of the Week from 1987-1995 and CBS postseason games from 1995-1997. A Texas Baseball Hall of Fame inductee, Elston also created a unique scorebook, Gene Elston's Stati-Score Baseball Scorebook, and authored two books, including the 2001 release, A Stitch in Time: A Baseball Chronology, 1845-2000.

MILO HAMILTON (Astros broadcaster from 1985-2012)

Milo Hamilton, the 1992 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, broadcast Major League baseball for more than 40 years. His big league on-air career included stops with the St. Louis Browns (1953), St. Louis Cardinals (1954), Chicago Cubs (1956-57 and 1980-84), Chicago White Sox (1962-65), Atlanta Braves (1966-75), Pittsburgh Pirates (1976-79), and Houston Astros (1985-2012). It was no coincidence that he was behind the microphone for more historic baseball events than any other announcer. His smooth style appealed to his listeners and his knowledge of the game has earned him the respect of his peers. Among the milestones he broadcast were Hank Aaron's 715th home run, Ernie Banks' fifth grand-slam of the 1955 season, seven no-hitters and Roger Maris' 61st homer (recreated on Western Union ticker). He was also on the Cardinals' broadcast crew when Stan Musial hit his record-breaking fifth home run in a doubleheader and he was doing the play-by-play 18 years later when San Diego's Nate Colbert duplicated Musial's feat. Wherever he has been, Hamilton involved himself in fund-raising activities, and over the years he helped raise over $1.5 million for local charities. Born in Fairfield, Iowa, on Sept. 2, 1927, Hamilton graduated from the University of Iowa with a degree in radio speech. Milo shared the broadcast booth with numerous other Frick Award winners, including Jack Brickhouse, Bob Elson, Harry Caray and Jack Buck.

AL HELFER (Astros broadcaster in 1965)

Al Helfer, who was big in stature, big in personality and a big league mainstay in broadcast booths across the country for four decades, was named the 2018 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. The burly 6-foot-4 Helfer worked behind a microphone in the Majors for eight different clubs, the Pirates (1933-34), Reds (1935-36), Yankees (1937-38, 1945), Brooklyn Dodgers (1939-41, 1955-57), New York Giants (1945, 1949), Phillies (1958), Colt .45s (1962) and Athletics (1968-69), and gained a national following as a radio broadcaster for Mutual Broadcasting System's Game of the Day in the 1950's. For a five-year period between 1950 and '54, he was traveling to a different ballpark six days a week. A rewarding but exhausting assignment, it was due to this Game of the Day exposure – the broadcasts carried by approximately 400 stations in non-MLB markets and around the world by the Armed Forces Radio Network – which Helfer became one of the nation's best-known baseball broadcasters. It was said that his audience reached 80 million at times. In 1962, Helfer was a member of the Colt .45s original broadcast crew, along with other Astros greats, Gene Elston, Loel Passe and Rene Cardenas.

Harry Kalas, longtime announcer for the Philadelphia Phillies, was the 2002 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. A native of Naperville, Ill., Kalas graduated from the University of Iowa in 1959 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Speech, Radio, and Television. The affable broadcaster was drafted into the military on graduation day and spent the following two years in Hawaii with the U.S. Army. In 1961, he served as sports director of radio station KGU and also began broadcasting for the Pacific Coast League's Hawaii Islanders as well as the University of Hawaii. An original member of the Astros broadcast team in 1965, he called games for Houston until 1970. In 1971, he moved to the Phillies broadcast booth, where he shared the microphone with Hall of Fame outfielder Richie Ashburn for 26 seasons. Kalas was honored as Pennsylvania Sportscaster of the Year 18 times. He also broadcast Big Five basketball and Notre Dame football. Kalas, revered for his uncanny ability to connect with his listeners, whether on radio or television, called more than 5,000 Phillies games. His passion for the game was unsurpassed, and his powerful, soothing voice was a summertime tradition throughout Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

Each season, the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor, located on the club level at Daikin Park, inducts a current or former Houston media member who has made significant and lasting contributions to the landscape of Houston baseball through their work in journalism or broadcasting.

ANITA MARTINI (inaugural, 2007 inductee)

The inaugural inductee into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor was the late Anita Martini, a pioneer in the sports media field. Martini, a native of Galveston, was a pioneer for women in sports journalism. Martini began her career with Houston radio station KTRH during the 1960s and became the nation's first woman sports anchor in the early 1970s, at Houston television station KPRC. In 1974, she challenged Major League Baseball for the right to join her male colleagues in the clubhouse for post-game interviews with the players. Martini won her fight when she interviewed Jimmy Wynn in the Los Angeles Dodgers clubhouse after a game at the Houston Astrodome. By the 1980s, she was hosting one of the first call-in sports shows on Houston AM radio station KPRC. She died of cancer in 1993 at the age of 54. Martini also is an inductee of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (2008 inductee)

Elston broadcast Major League Baseball games in Houston for 25 years as the Voice of the Astros from 1962-1986. He was behind the microphone for the first game in franchise history on April 10, 1962, when the Colt .45s defeated the Chicago Cubs. Elston was the first play-by-play broadcaster for the Houston franchise, and a generation of baseball fans received their introductions to both the Astros and Major League Baseball by his broadcasts. Elston broadcast baseball for 47 years, beginning with Waterloo of the Triple I League in 1947. After nine seasons broadcasting minor league baseball, Elston made his Major League debut with the Chicago Cubs in 1954. He also called the Mutual "Game of the Week" from 1958-60 and the CBS Radio "Game of the Week" from 1987-97. In 2006, Elston was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum for his significant and lasting contributions to the game of baseball through his work in broadcasting. Among the highlights of Elston's career with the Astros included calling eight of the team's no-hitters, two Astros NL Western Division Championships (1980, 1986), and Nolan Ryan breaking Walter Johnson's all-time strikeout record in 1983. He was inducted in the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1993.

NEIL HOHLFELD (2009 inductee)

Hohlfeld covered the Houston Astros as the beat writer for the Houston Chronicle from 1979 until 1995. He served as president of the Houston chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America in 1993. In 1996, Hohlfeld went on to cover other sports, including Texas A&M athletics and NASCAR, through 2006 before assuming an editing assignment for the Chronicle. In 2007, he returned to his first love as a baseball analyst for FS Houston's pre- and post-game shows. Hohlfeld graduated from the University of Missouri with a Bachelor of Journalism in 1973 and began his career in Hannibal, Mo. He worked for the Chicago Tribune from 1974-79 before joining the Chronicle in 1979. Hohlfeld passed away on July 19, 2008 at the age of 56. He was honored by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA as the recipient of the 2008 Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service Award.

Herskowitz was one of Houston's original beat writers and columnists, having covered the team since its inception in 1962. He wrote for both the Houston Post and Houston Chronicle. A graduate of the University of Houston, at age 26, Herskowitz became the nation's youngest sports editor of a major newspaper and later received international recognition for his coverage of the terrorist tragedy at the 1972 Munich Olympics. He was the first writer to win national first place awards in three Associated Press categories in one year, 1968. In addition to his journalism career, Herskowitz has authored books on historical figures, such as Gene Autry, Nolan Ryan, Paul "Bear" Bryant and Prescott Bush. He was also the ghostwriter of several autobiographies, including Dan Rather and Mickey Mantle. A former Marine, he has been inducted into the Houston Chamber of Commerce Hall of Fame, and received the national Headliners Award for excellence in sports writing. Herskowitz is also a former executive with the American Football League; a New York magazine editor; an original partner in the Houston Rockets; and a journalism professor at Sam Houston State University. He was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

BILL BROWN (2011 inductee)

Bill Brown was the Houston Astros play-by-play announcer for 30 seasons. Brown, also known as "Brownie," was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame on Nov. 12, 2004. He joined the Astros in 1987 after working as senior producer and anchor of the Financial News Network's SCORE program. Prior to that assignment, he was the sports director of the Sports Time Cable Network, which televised select Reds, Royals and Cardinals games. He spent one year with HSE in Pittsburgh and was the television voice of the Cincinnati Reds from 1976-82. Brown, who began his broadcast career on radio at 18 years old, graduated from the University of Missouri in 1969 and became a U.S. Army broadcast specialist, working as a sportscaster for the Armed Forces Vietnam Network in Saigon from 1970-71. After leaving the service in 1971, Brown completed one semester of graduate school at Central Missouri State College in 1971 and then earned a job at WLWT-TV in Cincinnati. Brown has broadcast for two teams in the World Series, the 1976 Reds and the 2005 Astros. He also called Craig Biggio's historic 3,000th hit in 2007, as well as many other memorable moments during both his Astros broadcasting tenure and overall broadcasting career.

MILO HAMILTON (2012 inductee)

Hall of Fame broadcaster Milo Hamilton spent a total of 59 seasons broadcasting Major League Baseball, which ranked as the second-longest broadcasting career in the game's history. A member of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame, Hamilton has also been recognized by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, having won the Ford C. Frick Award in 1992. As an Astros broadcaster, he called many of the greatest moments in franchise history, including Nolan Ryan's 4,000th strikeout in 1985, the final out of Mike Scott's dramatic, division-clinching no-hitter in 1986, the Astros historic, six-pitcher, combined no-hitter at Yankee Stadium in 2003, the Astros 2005 Game 6 NLCS clincher, and Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit in 2007. Prior to joining Houston, Hamilton had already established himself as a top broadcaster in the game, having called Hank Aaron's historic 715th home run on April 8, 1974. His career accomplishments also include calling games at 59 Major League ballparks, being behind the mic for 11 no-hitters and broadcasting for the Pirates during their 1979 World Series championship season. At the conclusion of the 2012 campaign, he retired from his position as "The Voice of the Astros", having established himself as one of the all-time great broadcasters in Major League Baseball history.

RENE CARDENAS (2013 inductee)

Cardenas, a native of Managua, Nicaragua, started his professional baseball broadcast career with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1958, becoming one of the first members of a Spanish radio broadcast team in the history of Major League Baseball. In the coming years, Cardenas further made history as a pioneer, as he and his team became the first Spanish radio broadcast team to call a World Series (1959) and an All-Star Game (1961). Cardenas was brought into the Houston organization by Judge Roy Hofheinz in 1962 as the Director of the Spanish Division for the Colt .45's, and stayed with the Astros through 1975. He also spent time with the Texas Rangers organization, where he started their very first Spanish radio broadcast. Following his time in Arlington, Cardenas returned to LA where he did Spanish radio and TV broadcasts for the Dodgers in the 1980s. Cardenas returned to Houston in 2000 where he began writing for the club. He returned to Spanish radio broadcast in 2007 and in 2008, became a television broadcaster for the team. He now writes for La Prensa, as well as the Astros Gameday Magazine and La Voz. Among his many honors are a place in both the Texas Rangers and former LA Dodgers Walks of Fame, and three nominations for the Ford C. Frick award in 1993, 2010 and 2011.

Alex Treviño became a distinguished member of the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Thursday, Sept. 18, 2014, in what was his 19th year in the Astros Spanish radio booth. He joined the broadcast team in 1996 and has called over 3,000 Astros games and six postseason appearances, including the 2005 World Series run. As of 2014, his 19 seasons in the broadcast booth were the second-most in franchise history by a Spanish broadcaster, trailing only Orlando Sanchez Diago's 21 years. Prior to joining the broadcast staff, Treviño spent 13 seasons in the Majors, primarily as a catcher, including the 1988-90 seasons with the Astros. He also spent time with the Mets, Reds, Braves, Giants and Dodgers in his Major League career. Treviño finished his playing career in the Mexican League, playing three seasons (1993-95) in his hometown of Monterrey, Mexico. Treviño was a member of the 1972 Pony League World Series championship team, which hailed from Monterrey. He later would become one of seven Mexican-born players to play for the Astros, and was inducted into the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum Hall of Fame in 2003.

HARRY SHATTUCK (2015 inductee)

Long-time sportswriter for the Houston Chronicle, Harry Shattuck, was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 23, 2015. Shattuck covered the Astros beat for the Houston Chronicle for several seasons. Shattuck worked in the newspaper business for the Houston Chronicle for parts of four decades from 1970-2009. He began covering the Astros in 1970 and served as the Chronicle's beat writer from 1972-1985. He moved on to serve as the Chronicle's national baseball writer (1985-88), the assistant sports editor (1989-93) and the travel editor (1993-09) before his retirement. In his distinguished career, Shattuck covered 14 World Series, was the former chairman of the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA and voted for the Baseball Hall of Fame for over 30 years. While on the Astros beat, Shattuck covered the team during the tumultuous change in team ownership in 1976 and during the Astros 1980's playoff appearances.

MARK BERMAN (2016 inductee)

On Monday, Sept. 26, 2016, long-time sports director at KRIV-TV Mark Berman was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor. Berman has spent over 30 years at KRIV-TV in Houston, having joined the Houston FOX affiliate in 1986 and being named the station's sports director in 1988. In his role, Berman covers all sports in the Houston area, including professional, collegiate and high school athletics. A leader in his industry, Berman is best known for his relentless work ethic, his professionalism and his accuracy in breaking stories. Since joining the Houston media, Berman has covered every Astros playoff team in franchise history (1980-81, 1986, 1997-99, 2001, 2004-05, 2015), including the club's World Series appearance in 2005. Berman grew up in Hempstead, Texas, and graduated from the University of Houston with a degree in communications.

BOB ALLEN (2017 inductee)

Houston sports anchor and director Bob Allen was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 17, 2017. One of the most iconic members of the Houston media market, Allen sadly passed away in October of 2016 after a lengthy battle with cancer. Allen spent 38 years as sports director at ABC13 News (KTRK) after getting named to the post in 1975, making him the longest tenured major market sports anchor in the country. He also spent two years as sports director at KHOU 11 News following his run with KTRK. During his career, Allen covered virtually all of the Astros postseason runs, all five ownership groups in the history of the Houston franchise, the construction and opening of Daikin Park, the Astros first appearance in a World Series and Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit and Hall of Fame selection. A native of Houston, Allen was committed to giving back to his community, as he was an enthusiastic supporter and board member of both the Sunshine Kids organization and the Special Olympics.

Longtime Houston Chronicle photojournalist Karen Warren was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 14, 2018, becoming the first photojournalist to receive this honor since the award's inception in 2007. With over 20 years as a staff photographer at the Houston Chronicle, Warren has covered some of the best years in the history of the Astros franchise and has become a fixture in the Houston media market. Since joining the Houston Chronicle in 1997, she has shot a multitude of Astros regular season and postseason games, and has traveled to Spring Training in Florida to cover the team for close to 20 seasons. In addition to her coverage of the Astros, Warren has also covered the Houston Texans and Houston Rockets during her time at the Chronicle. Warren began her career in photojournalism at the Austin American-Statesman in 1987, where she spent nine years before joining the St. Louis Post-Dispatch in 1996. She joined the Houston Chronicle staff in 1997. A graduate of the University of Texas at Austin, Warren has shot or edited 14 Super Bowls, two World Series runs, the 2004 NLCS, the 2003 College World Series and the 2010 Little League World Series.

LARRY DIERKER (2019 inductee)

Franchise icon Larry Dierker was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 22, 2019, his 73rd birthday and the 55th anniversary of his Major League debut, which came as a 17-year-old for the Houston Colt .45s. Dierker debuted with Houston in 1964 and had a remarkable 14-year playing career, including 13 seasons with the Astros (1964-77). After his playing days, Dierker was hired to the club's radio and television broadcast teams in 1979. He worked on both platforms for a total of 20 seasons (1979-96, 2004-05) over two stints in the booth. Dierker has the distinction of moving directly from the broadcast booth to the managerial position, which he did in 1997. He went on to lead the Astros to four playoff appearances (1997-99, 2001) in his five seasons as manager. Since 2005, Dierker has filled a variety of roles with the Astros, including appearances on club broadcasts, writing for team publications and serving as an Astros Community Outreach Executive and as a Special Advisor to the club. Earlier this year, he was inducted into the Astros Hall of Fame, as a member of the inaugural class.

KEVIN ESCHENFELDER (2020 inductee)

Longtime Houston broadcaster and native Houstonian Kevin Eschenfelder was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on July 24, 2021. He was celebrating his 25th season in 2021 as the Astros pre and postgame host for their television rights holder, AT&T SportsNet Southwest. Eschenfelder has over 30 years experience working in the Houston media market, originally getting his start in 1991 at Fox Sports Net, covering all three of Houston's major professional sports teams. He began hosting the Astros and Rockets pre and postgame shows in 1997 for Fox Sports Southwest, before continuing in that role for FS Houston, Comcast SportsNet Houston and AT&T SportsNet SW. In addition to his pre and postgame duties for Astros games, Eschenfelder fills in on the Astros television broadcasts as a play-by-play announcer. A graduate of the University of Houston, Eschenfelder has been the radio voice of the University of Houston Football team since 2013.

JAMIE HILDRETH (2022 inductee)

Longtime Astros executive Jamie Hildreth was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honors on October 3rd, 2022. Hildreth last served as the Astros Senior Vice President of Broadcasting and Alumni Relations before sadly passing away in Spring Training of 2017. Hildreth originally joined the Astros in 1987 as the club's Director of Broadcasting and would remain with the Astros for 30 seasons serving in various roles within the organization. Working behind the scenes, rather than in front of the microphone, Hildreth worked alongside longtime Astros broadcasters Alan Ashby, Bill Brown, Jim Deshaies, Larry Dierker, Milo Hamilton, Alex Treviño, Bill Worrell and others. Hildreth also had a hand in the hiring of the current Astros broadcast teams in the television and radio booths. Prior to joining the Astros, Hildreth was already a fixture in the Houston media market after having a successful career in radio, which included stops at KRBE and KTRH in Houston and KTRM/KALO in Beaumont, TX. Hildreth had a highly decorated career, which included winning the 2014 Fred Hartman Award, given annually by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America. Additionally, in 2021, he was inducted into the Texas Radio Hall of Fame. A native Texan, Hildreth was a graduate of the University of Houston, majoring in radio and television.

PHIL BOUDREAUX (2023 inductee)

Phil Boudreaux, a staple of Astros baseball for over 40 years, was voted in as the 2023 inductee into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor. The Astros will recognize Boudreaux at Daikin Park in a pregame ceremony during the 2024 season. Boudreaux works behind the scenes as the statistician for Astros telecasts. For nearly every Astros home game in his 40 seasons, Boudreaux has assisted Astros broadcasters, a group that includes the current team of Todd Kalas and Geoff Blum and former broadcasters Bill Brown, Jim Deshaies, Larry Dierker, Milo Hamilton and Gene Elston, to name a few. Boudreaux has worked over 3,000 Astros games for the various television broadcasters over the years and also collaborated with Bill Brown and Mike Acosta on the 2021 book "Houston Astros' Golden Era," which traced the team's history. In addition to joining the telecast in 1982, Boudreaux also served as a sports producer and reporter for KTRH Radio from 1982-89 producing the award winning Sportsbeat show with Jerry Trupiano and John Breen.

ALAN ASHBY (2024 inductee)

Alan Ashby, longtime Astros player and broadcaster, was voted in as the 2024 inductee into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor. Ashby called 12 seasons of Astros baseball across two stints in the broadcast booth, first on radio (1998-2005) then on television (2013-16). He spent his first eight seasons on radio alongside his on-air partner, Hall of Famer Milo Hamilton. While on radio, Ashby was on air for memorable years in club history, including the Astros 102-win season in 1998, the Astrodome's final season in 1999, and the opening of Daikin Park in 2000. Ashby was also in the booth for the 2004 ALDS and ALCS, which marked the club's first postseason series victory, and the Astros first World Series run in 2005. Overall, he called 38 Astros postseason games on radio. After a six-season stint in the Blue Jays broadcast booth, Ashby returned to Houston in 2013 for the Astros first season as an AL club. He remained on air for the Astros through the 2016 season, calling the Major League debuts of franchise icons George Springer, Carlos Correa, Lance McCullers Jr. and Alex Bregman. Ashby was also on air in 2015, when the Astros snapped their 10-year postseason drought. Prior to his broadcasting career, Ashby spent 11 of his 17 Major League seasons as a catcher with the Astros from 1979-89, during which he was a part of three postseason teams. He appeared in 965 games as an Astro and still leads all catchers in franchise history in homers (69), while ranking second in games, hits, runs, doubles and RBI.

ELITE COMPANY

Jeff Bagwell hit 43 home runs and stole 31 bases in 1997. He also hit 42 HR with 30 SB in 1999. Bagwell joins Barry Bonds as the only two players in Major League history to record as many as two 40HR/30SB seasons. Bagwell is also the only first baseman in Major League history with a "30-30" season, thanks to his efforts in 1997 and 1999.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER • CY YOUNG • ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Jose Altuve (AL) and Jeff Bagwell (NL) are the only players in franchise history to win Most Valuable Player awards. Bagwell, Carlos Correa (AL) and Yordan Alvarez (AL) are the only players in club history who have captured the Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year award. Astros pitchers have captured the Cy Young Award five times, Justin Verlander in 2019 (AL) and 2022 (AL), Dallas Keuchel in 2015 (AL), Roger Clemens in 2004 (NL) and Mike Scott in 1986 (NL). Listed below are all Astros who finished in the top 10 of the MVP voting or received consideration in one year for the circuit's Cy Young and Rookie of the Year honors.

ASTROS HOME RUNS IN HOUSTON

On May 11, 1998, Jeff Bagwell hit his 98th Astrodome home run off the Marlins' Livan Hernandez to put the first baseman one ahead of outfielder Jimmy Wynn, whose 97 Houston homers were the most by any player in the history of the franchise. Bagwell eventually hit 126 home runs in the Astrodome before the Astros moved to Daikin Park in 2000. Wynn hit 93 of his roundtrippers in the Astrodome and four in Colt Stadium during his 11-year career which lasted from 1963-73. And, speaking of Colt Stadium, the record for Houston homers in that facility stands at 21 by Bob Aspromonte.

The 1968 All-Star Game reflected overpowering pitching. The two leagues combined for only eight hits and just one run, marking the first 1-0 contest in the history of the Midsummer Classic. The lone run – by the National League – was scored in the 1st inning on a single, an error, a wild pitch, and a double play.

Playing for the injured Pete Rose, Willie Mays led off in the bottom of the 1st and singled to left field. In a failed pick-off at first, Luis Tiant's (CLE) throw went wild, advancing Mays to second. Curt Flood (STL) was then walked, and a fourth-ball wild pitch moved Mays to third. First baseman Willie McCovey (SF) grounded into a double play, but Mays took advantage to score the only run of the game.

With the victory, the NL stretched its winning streak to six. The six-man NL pitching staff held the AL to just three hits, as Tom Seaver (NYM) tossed five strikeouts late in the game and Juan Marichal pitched 2.0 perfect innings. Nine pitchers in the game did not allow a single walk.

1968 ALL-STAR GAME

The 1968 All-Star Game in Houston was the first played indoors and on artificial turf.

Los Angeles left-hander Fernando Valenzuela fanned five consecutive batters to tie Carl Hubbell's 52-year-old All-Star record, but the National League's pitching triumphs weren't enough as the American League recorded the 3-2 victory on two home runs.

The NL pitching staff sat down 12 total batters, but the AL's Roger Clemens (BOS) had a strong night of his own. He tossed 3.0 perfect innings which included just three balls and 21 strikes. The AL bats came through at the same time as second baseman Lou Whitaker (DET) followed a Dave Winfield (NYY) double with a two-run shot off Dwight Gooden (NYM) in the 2nd. In the 7th inning, Frank White (KC) came in to pinch-hit for Whitaker, knocking an 0-2 pitch from Mike Scott (HOU) over the left-center field wall to seal the AL's second All-Star win in the 1980s.

The American League displayed its offensive prowess early, scoring six runs in the 1st inning en route to a 9-4 win over the National League in the third All-Star Game played in Houston and the first at Daikin Park.

Astros right-hander Roger Clemens, who also started the 1986 All-Star Game in Houston, allowed six runs and five hits in suffering the loss. Clemens allowed two 1st-inning homers, to Manny Ramirez (BOS) and Alfonso Soriano (TEX). Mark Mulder (OAK) pitched 2.0 innings and allowed one run to earn the win. Soriano was named the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing 2x3 with three RBI. Soriano was the first leading vote-getter to also earn MVP honors in the same season.

The National League cut the lead to 7-4 with a three-run 4th, including an RBI double by Edgar Renteria (STL) and a two-run double by Albert Pujols (STL). David Ortiz' (BOS) homer against Carl Pavano (FLA) in the 6th ended the game's scoring.

The AL pitching staff held the NL scoreless through the final 5.0 innings, thanks to scoreless efforts from Javier Vazquez (NYY), Ted Lilly (TOR), Joe Nathan (MIN), Tom Gordon (NYY), Francisco Rodriguez (ATL), and Mariano Rivera (NYY).

The American League won its seventh consecutive victory, not counting the 2002 tie at Miller Park in Milwaukee. The NL remained winless since 1996.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

The Houston Astros utilize MLB's online credentialing system. All media credential requests and applications for coverage of the Houston Astros must go through MLB's online credentialing system at <http://credentials.mlb.com>. Additionally, all credentials – whether issued by Major League Baseball, the BBWAA, or the Astros – will bear photographs. Scout identification cards will also require photos.

- Houston Astros season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering agencies that cover the Astros on a daily basis. Daily passes will be issued to approved media members who do not qualify for season credentials and who meet Major League Baseball's policies for media access. Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer or director, via the online credential system at least 24 hours in advance of the game being requested. CREDENTIALS MUST BE DISPLAYED IN A VISIBLE MANNER AT ALL TIMES.
- ALL credential requests, whether season or daily, must go through MLB's online credential system. This will also be the process for Astros Spring Training, regular season, Wild Card and American League Division Series credential applications.
- Daily credentials will be available at Window 29, located next to the right field gate, four hours prior to first pitch.
- No spouses, guests or children of media members will be issued passes.
- Credentials are not transferable.
- Credentialed media are also prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations will result in the immediate revocation of the credential.
- Credentials may be revoked at any time without cause.

SECURITY: To comply with security measures implemented by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros, all media will be required to follow the following procedures upon entering Daikin Park and while covering the game.

When entering Daikin Park, please be prepared to:

- Enter the ballpark at the First Base Entrance, located in the Diamond Lot near the intersection of Preston and Hamilton Streets.
- Provide photo identification.
- Sign in at the media entrance.
- Allow bags to be searched upon entering the ballpark.

While covering the game, please be prepared to:

- Clearly display working credentials at all times.
- Allow bags and equipment cases to be randomly searched if requested by ballpark security officials.
- Observe credential regulations as set forth by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros. Only those individuals with the proper credentials will be admitted in the clubhouses, on the field and in the press box.

MEDIA SERVICES

PARKING: Working media may park in the B and C lots at Daikin Park with a season credential, BBWAA credential or media identification badge. Entrances to these lots are located on St. Emanuel St., Preston St. and Texas Ave.

MAIN PRESS BOX: The press box and broadcast booths are located on the Club Level behind home plate and are accessible from the press box elevator and the elevator at the First Base Entrance (level C) prior to the opening of gates and after the game. The escalators on the main concourse are available at all times.

MEDIA DINING ROOM: Media dining is located in the press box on the Club Level just behind the broadcast booths. There is a monetary charge per meal. Media dining is open to accredited members of the media only. Spouses/children are not allowed in the media dining room. Credit cards are only accepted.

CLUBHOUSES: Both clubhouses are located on the Service Level and are accessible via the press box elevator. The Astros clubhouse is located on the first base side of the ballpark, while the visiting teams and umpires are on the third base side. Pre- and postgame access rules are determined by Major League Baseball. The Astros clubhouse opens approximately four hours before game time and closes once the team takes the field for batting practice. When the team does not hit outside or under unusual circumstances, the Astros will use their discretion on when to open and close the clubhouse. All times are approximate and subject to change.

General clubhouse rules include:

- Absolutely no autographs or gifts of any kind.
- No still photography in the clubhouse.
- When shooting video interviews, please make sure it is only of the player at his locker or in front of a wall while he is giving the interview. Players should be shot from the chest up.
- Do not sit in the player's chairs.
- No shooting B-roll inside the clubhouse.

FIELD: All media must leave the field 45 minutes prior to the first pitch. No person will be allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly specifying field privileges (i.e., club pass, photo pass).

PRESS CONFERENCE ROOM: The press conference room is located on the Service Level across from the home clubhouse down the first-base side.

NOTES: Game notes, updated Major League statistics, lineup sheets and other pertinent media information will be available near the entrance of the press box on the Club Level two hours prior to first pitch. Box scores, play-by-play sheets and postgame notes will be available in the same area after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES: Media guides are available upon request in the press box from Astros Communications staff members and are available online at MLBPressbox.com.

WI-FI: Wireless Internet access is available in Daikin Park. Contact the Astros Communications department for details.

ASTROS ON THE WEB: The official website of the Houston Astros is Astros.com. The site is updated daily with news, statistics, game notes, feature stories and minor league information. The Major League Baseball website, MLB.com, can also be accessed via Astros.com. The Astros also offer a Spanish website, AstrosDeHouston.com. The site features daily news coverage of the team as well as feature stories from international sports writers.

MLB PRESSBOX: With approved registration, media members gain electronic access to numerous Major League Baseball resources by logging onto MLBPressbox.com (on the official MLB website). Some of the information on this site includes: public relations contacts; daily statistical updates; daily game notes; current and archived press releases; media guides; press kits; credential language and media regulations; and historical information about MLB and its entities. In addition, this site provides media the opportunity to download HD-quality video, hi-resolution logos and information on special events for all 30 clubs, as well as headshots of players, coaches, umpires and select executives. All media covering the Astros should register on the MLB Pressbox site to access these resources.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL DRESS GUIDELINES

Major League Baseball requests members of the media covering our games to dress in an appropriate and professional manner that reflects their respect for their colleagues, the teams and the players they are covering. Clubhouses, dugouts, press boxes, interview rooms and the playing field are working areas, and MLB expects members of the media to adhere to a business casual dress code. In that regard, media members are requested to adhere to following dress guidelines:

- Flip-flops are not permitted in clubhouses
- Jeans should be clean, neat and presentable (e.g., Ripped jeans should be avoided)
- T-shirts bearing offensive, disrespectful or inappropriate messages are not permitted
- Clothing bearing MLB club logos should not be worn in press areas
- Clothing should be appropriate for a business casual work environment. The following are some non-exclusive examples of apparel that should be avoided:
 - » Sheer or see-through clothing
 - » Excessively short skirts, dresses or shorts (e.g., Cut more than 3-4 inches above the knee)
 - » Tank tops, muscle shirts, one-shouldered or strapless shirts
 - » Clothing exposing bare midriffs or visible undergarments

We ask all members of the media to respect these guidelines. MLB will consider appropriate actions in those cases in which the guidelines are violated.

Major League Baseball Online Audio, Photography and Video Rules

The following are rules established by Major League Baseball regarding the usage of audio, photos and video online during the regular season by non-rightsholders.

- 1) Any media member credentialed to cover a Major League game must notify and receive permission from the host club or Major League Baseball that he/she intends to post audio or video content online.
- 2) The gathering of audio and video content in clubhouses pre-game and post-game is subject to the host club rules regarding electronic media access.
- 3) The manager's pre-game media availability may not be carried live and audio and video postings may be no longer than 120 seconds.
- 4) One-on-one interviews that are posted online with players, team personnel and baseball officials must be pre-arranged, can be posted for a maximum of 72 hours, must be no longer than 120 seconds long and cannot include any game highlights.
- 5) Any video captured within the ballpark, excluding press conferences, must be limited to 120 seconds and cannot be carried live.
- 6) No live or taped audio or video is permitted to be captured by any entities other than rightsholders from 45 minutes prior to game time until the game has concluded.
- 7) The post-game manager's press conference may be captured via video and audio and posted online but may not be carried live. This specific content may be archived for 72 hours.
- 8) Entities credentialed for photography may transmit on-line or display up to seven still pictures or photographs of any Game during its progress; provided, however, that under no circumstances may Bearer display any more than seven still pictures or photographs of any Game during its progress regardless of whether Bearer obtained such pictures or photographs at the Game.

THE ASTROS TELEVISION BROADCAST TEAM

TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY BROADCASTER

- The 2025 season marks Todd Kalas' 33rd year as an MLB broadcaster and ninth as the Astros play-by-play voice on television. The Astros have advanced to the postseason in each of Todd's first eight seasons with the club.
- Kalas has won four Lone Star Emmys for his work on Astros telecasts.
- Todd is the son of Hall of Famer and former Astros broadcaster Harry Kalas.
- Prior to joining the Astros in 2017, Todd spent the previous 19 seasons (1998-2016) as part of the Tampa Bay Rays TV broadcast team. While his primary duties for the Rays were as pre- and postgame host and in-game reporter, Todd also handled play-by-play duties for hundreds of Rays games on both television and radio during his time there.
- Known for his distinctive voice and personality, Todd grew to be a popular figure with Rays fans as a result of his work on the broadcasts and was a three-time Suncoast Emmy award winner. Prior to joining the Rays, Todd worked with the New York Mets radio (1992-93) and Philadelphia Phillies television (1994-96) broadcast teams.
- A native Houstonian, Todd was born at St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital in Houston while his father, Harry, served as an Astros broadcaster from 1965-70. Harry would later call Phillies games from 1971-2009 en route to a Hall of Fame career. When the Phillies and Rays met in the 2008 World Series, Todd and his father called an inning together on radio during Game One of the Fall Classic.
- Todd graduated with a degree in broadcast journalism from Syracuse University, and began his baseball career with the Louisville Redbirds in 1991.
- In past years, Todd has called college football, basketball and baseball games and has been a studio host for NHL and NBA teams.
- Todd and his wife, Michele, reside in Houston.

GEOFF BLUM

TELEVISION COLOR BROADCASTER

- Geoff Blum returns for his 13th season with the Astros TV broadcast team in 2025, which will be his ninth as the everyday color analyst for Astros telecasts. Geoff, who retired after 14 Major League seasons as an infielder (1999-2012), made the transition from the playing field to the broadcast booth in 2013.
- Geoff has won four Lone Star Emmys for his work on Astros broadcasts.
- During his playing career, Geoff had two stints with the Astros, totaling five seasons in Houston (2002-03, 2008-10). Over the course of his tenure with the Astros, Geoff hit .259 with 228 RBI, 46 homers, 77 doubles and a .711 OPS.
- A switch-hitter, Geoff was known as one of the top pinch-hitters and utility players in baseball, appearing at all four infield positions in nine straight years (2000-08). He appeared in the postseason three times in his career (2005-06, 2011).
- Geoff was originally drafted by the Montreal Expos in the 1994 June Draft. Prior to his professional career, Geoff was a standout at the University of California, Berkeley. He also played a season in the Cape Cod League.

TELEVISION SIDELINE REPORTER

- Julia Morales returns for her 13th season as the Astros TV sideline reporter. As a reporter and anchor for Space City Home Network, Julia serves as the primary in-game reporter on Houston Astros telecasts. She has four Lone Star Emmys for her work covering the Astros.
- Before moving to Houston, Julia worked as a sports reporter for Time Warner Cable News, formerly YNN in Austin, covering a wide range of events, including the Super Bowl, NBA Finals, World Series, and the College Baseball WS.
- Prior to joining the Time Warner Cable sports crew, Julia was the weekend sports anchor/reporter for KYTX-TV in Tyler, TX. Julia began her television career at KTEN-TV in Denison, Texas.
- A native of Crandall, TX, Julia spent two years as a "World Famous Kilgore College Rangerette" before graduating from UT Austin, where she was a member of Texas Pom for the Longhorns' 2005 National Championship season.
- Julia and husband Matt had their first baby in 2020 with the birth of daughter Valerie Rose.
- Julia is extremely passionate about animals and serves on the Advisory Board for Houston Pets Alive!, a no-kill animal rescue.

THE ASTROS RADIO BROADCAST TEAM

RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY BROADCASTER

- Robert Ford was named to the Astros radio broadcast team to work alongside Steve Sparks as the play-by-play commentator on Feb. 13, 2013. He enters his 13th season as the radio voice of the Astros. In their 12 seasons, the duo of Robert and Steve have called nine postseasons, including seven ALCS and four World Series. The 105 postseason games that they have called in that span are tied for the most in the Majors.
- During the 2022 offseason, Robert was named the 2022 Texas Sportscaster of the Year.
- Prior to joining the Astros, Robert had served as the radio pre- and postgame host for Kansas City Royals games on 610 AM KCSP, the Royals flagship station, since 2009.
- Robert has seven years of experience broadcasting minor league baseball, having called more than 800 games during stints with the Binghamton Mets, Kalamazoo Kings and Yakima Bears. In that span, Robert was twice named Frontier League Broadcaster of the Year (2003 and 2004). He also has extensive play-by-play experience in college basketball, including calling games for ESPN in recent years.
- Robert is a 2001 graduate of Syracuse University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism.
- Robert has twice been a finalist for the Esurance MLB Award for "Best Call, TV/Radio," including in 2017 for his call of Alex Bregman's walk-off RBI single in Game 5 of the World Series.
- Robert lives in Houston and has a daughter, Elena.

STEVE SPARKS

RADIO BROADCASTER

- Steve Sparks was named to the Astros radio broadcast team to work alongside Robert Ford as the color commentator on Feb. 13, 2013. He enters his 13th season on the Astros radio broadcast.
- Since 2015, Steve and partner Robert have called seven ALCS' and four World Series. The 105 postseason games that they have called in that span are tied for the most in the Majors.
- A knuckleballer in his playing days, Steve pitched in the Major Leagues in parts of nine seasons (1995-2004) for the Brewers, Angels, Tigers, A's and Diamondbacks. His best season was in 2001 while with Detroit when he went 14-9 in 35 appearances (33 starts) with a 3.65 ERA while leading the Majors in complete games with eight. He also tallied a career high in innings pitched (232.0) that season.
- Steve attended Sam Houston State University, where he helped lead the Bearkats to back-to-back Gulf Star Conference baseball titles and an NCAA Division II Regional playoff appearance in 1986 and again in the school's first year at the Division I level in 1987. On Nov. 3, 2017, Steve was inducted into the Sam Houston Letterman's Association Hall of Honor.

RADIO BROADCAST ENGINEER

- Matt Boltz enters his 11th season with the Houston Astros and his 25th overall in Major League Baseball.
- Matt is the Radio Broadcast Engineer & Producer for the Astros Radio Network. He generates, maintains and produces all live audio for the entire Spring Training, regular season & postseason schedule.
- In the 2020 pandemic season, Matt started an entertaining Astros podcast, that featured current and former players as guests, with Astros broadcasters serving as hosts.
- Matt also orchestrates all broadcast material, live commercial inventory, promotions and live interviews with the broadcasters, the front office, the radio flagship and the entire radio network.
- His offseason duties include editing and archiving all recorded sound, managing and servicing technical elements and assisting with network affiliate relations. Matt also engineers and produces Astroline, which has been on the air since 1988.
- Prior to joining the Astros, Matt served as the Radio Producer Engineer for the Chicago Cubs Radio Network from 2001-2014. During that time, he also engineered game broadcasts for WGN Chicago and Northwestern Wildcats basketball and football programs.
- Matt resides in Pearland, Texas, with his wife, Melissa, and their two children: Emma Lucille and Theodore Matthew.

SPANISH RADIO BROADCASTER

- Francisco Romero enters his 18th season of play-by-play on the Astros Spanish radio network and has called over 2,000 games in his career, including eight no-hitters and a perfect game.
- Francisco and partner Alex Treviño are one of the longest-tenured broadcast duos in the Majors. The two have been a team since 2008, and have called 105 postseason games since 2015, which is tied for the most in baseball in that span.
- Prior to coming to Houston, he spent five seasons broadcasting Milwaukee Brewers games in Spanish on Telemundo Wisconsin. His MLB broadcasting experience also includes selected Minnesota Twins games over five seasons (2003-08).
- His Major League broadcast debut was for the Arizona Diamondbacks on Telemundo Arizona in 1999, and he spent two years on Diamondbacks broadcasts from 1999-2000.
- Other Major League broadcasting experience includes select games on Spanish Radio with the Cincinnati Reds in 2005. Francisco also spent four seasons as the play-by-play broadcaster and pre and postgame show producer on Spanish radio broadcasts for the Triple A Tucson Sidewinders of the Pacific Coast League.
- Additional sports broadcasting experience includes both football and basketball for the University of Arizona Spanish Radio Network (1999-2021), as well as three seasons on the Arizona Cardinals radio halftime report.
- Francisco and Alex also currently produce a series of webisodes for the Astros Spanish social media channels (Contacto con Los Astros).
- Francisco has been part of three Spanish broadcast effort debuts (Brewers, Reds and Royals) and is the only Spanish broadcaster to have broadcast games for six different MLB teams (D-backs, Brewers, Twins, Reds, Royals and Astros).
- In addition to broadcasting baseball games, Francisco was the English as a Second Language instructor for the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Chicago White Sox (extended Spring Training) players from 1998 - 2001.
- A graduate of the University of Arizona, Francisco spent 10 years as the sports anchor for the Telemundo affiliate in Tucson, Arizona, as well as one year as general assignment reporter.
- As a sports anchor/reporter for Telemundo, Francisco has covered some of the most important sports events in the world, such as: MLB World Series and All-Star Games, the Super Bowl, NBA Finals, Road to the World Cup, NCAA Basketball Tournaments, NCAA Softball Tournaments, NCAA Baseball Tournaments, NASCAR and Championship Boxing.
- In 2005, Francisco was inducted into his High School Media Hall of Fame, Pueblo High School in Tucson, Ariz. Francisco was also elected to the Pueblo High School Warrior Foundation Hall of Fame Class in 2017.
- He earned a 2004 Emmy Award from the Rocky Mountain Chapter in the sports reporting category; that same year he also earned the Communicators Award for sports reporting. In 2003, the Arizona Daily Star named him as one of the Top 100 Sports Figures of Southern Arizona.
- In 2014, the Association of Sports Broadcasters of Nicaragua invited Francisco to speak on MLB broadcasting.
- Francisco was ranked No. 3 in the Top 100 Sports Figures of Southern Arizona by the Arizona Daily Star, behind former Astros pitching coach Brent Strom and former Astros bullpen coach Craig Bjornson in 2017.
- Francisco resides in Houston, Texas with his wife Larissa, daughter Isabella and son Frankie.

ALEX TREVIÑO

SPANISH RADIO BROADCASTER

- Alex Treviño returns for his 30th season as color analyst on the Astros Spanish radio network. He and partner Francisco Romero have been a team since 2008, making them one of the longest-tenured teams in baseball. The two have called 105 postseason games since 2015, which is tied for the most in the Majors in that span.
- Alex joined the Astros broadcast booth in 1996 and has called more than 3,000 Astros games, 14 postseason appearances and five World Series (2005, 2017, 2019, 2021 and 2022).
- Alex's 29 seasons in the broadcast booth are the most in franchise history by a Spanish broadcaster, besting Orlando Sanchez Diago's record of 21 years.
- A native of Monterrey, Mexico, Alex spent 13 seasons playing in the Majors, primarily as a catcher, including the 1988-90 seasons with the Astros. He also spent time with the Mets, Reds, Braves, Giants and Dodgers. While with the Mets in 1980, he threw out 44% (47 of 106) of attempted basestealers, which was tops in the NL. Later in his career, while with the Dodgers on June 13, 1986 vs. the Padres in San Diego, he was part of history when he and pitcher Fernando Valenzuela formed the first Mexican-born battery in Major League history.
- Alex' older brother, Bobby Treviño, played in the Major Leagues as an outfielder for the Angels.
- Alex hit a career-high .290 while serving as Houston's backup catcher in 1989 and hit .364 (32x88) in 25 starts.
- He played in 939 Major League games and had a .249 lifetime average.
- In September 2014, Alex was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor for his significant and lasting contributions to the landscape of Houston baseball through his work in broadcasting.

DAIKIN PARK

THIS

The 2025 season marks the 25th year of baseball in downtown Houston and the first under the newly-named Daikin Park (pronounced: DIKE-in). The venue, which went by "Minute Maid Park" from 2002-24, has hosted numerous special events, including the 2004 All-Star Game and Home Run Derby, the World Series (2005, 2017, 2019, 2022), the 2014 Civil Rights Game, Super Bowl LI Opening Night, major concert events, weddings, graduations, galas, college baseball tournaments, charity drives and was used as a vaccination site during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The year 2000 saw something the grand old game of baseball had not experienced since 1964—a Major League team in Houston playing on natural grass outdoors. While clear skies and real grass were welcome additions for fans, the Bayou City hardball-faithful also enjoyed another first: Daikin Park's 242 foot-tall retractable roof. More than three million fans embraced the new ballpark in its inaugural season. Since then, the club has welcomed more than 60 million visitors during the facility's 24-season tenure.

Daikin Park has become a welcome home for the Houston Astros and has ushered in a new era of Major League sports in the city. With the downtown ballpark, Houston continues to stand on the forefront of modern stadium construction that began with the club's previous home—the Astrodome. The park's retractable roof brought open-air baseball to Houston for the first time in 35 years, and the natural grass field and classic architecture provided the opportunity of capturing the same atmosphere from the great ballparks of baseball's golden age.

Approval of the ballpark, however, was not limited to the applause of the fans. Less than one calendar year after its opening, Daikin Park had already been recognized on local, state and national levels with several awards. The following are the first four major awards that the home of the Astros were honored with:

- Greater Houston Preservation Alliance, 2000 Good Brick Award. The President's Award was presented to former owner Drayton McLane, the Astros and the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority for the renovation of the 1911 Union Station building. The Good Brick Awards are presented annually in recognition of leadership and excellence in historic preservation.
- Most Outstanding Civil Engineering Project. This honor came from the Texas Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), a professional organization that represents the vast majority of civil engineers.
- National Honor Award for Engineering Excellence. This national recognition for engineering excellence came from the American Consulting Engineers Council (ACEC). This honor stamped Daikin Park as one of the top 24 engineering projects among all buildings and civil works projects nationally.
- National Center for Spectator Sports Safety and Security, 2023 Facility of Merit Award. This award recognizes a sports facility that has demonstrated an innovative approach to enhancing safety and security beyond their normal operations, or addressed a significant safety/security concern. The award is selected by each respective sports league, association, or advisory committee, and presented at the annual National Sports Safety and Security Conference & Exhibition.

LOCATION: Daikin Park is located at 501 Crawford Street on the northeast end of downtown Houston. Situated near the George R. Brown Convention Center, Discovery Green and BBVA Compass Stadium, the ballpark is located one block west of U.S. 59 and is bound by Congress Avenue on the north, Texas Avenue on the south, Crawford Street on the west and Hamilton Street on the east.

HISTORY: The idea for a public-private financing drive for a downtown Houston ballpark was conceived in 1996. Fourteen leading Houston companies joined together to form the Houston Sports Facility Partnership. The Partnership agreed to provide a $35 million interest-free loan with no repayment due until 10 years of ballpark operation had passed. With the Partnership's initial commitment, the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority had the support it needed to present a ballpark proposal to the public in November 1996. Voters approved the $250 million project.

ALL-STAR GAME: In 2004, Daikin Park played host to the 75th Major League Baseball All-Star Game. More than 350,000 people participated in All-Star Week activities, which included the Futures Game, the Legends/Celebrity Softball Game, and the Home Run Derby - all of which took place at Daikin Park - in addition to the John Hancock All-Star Fan Fest. The week culminated with the All-Star Game and a 9-4 American League win over the National League squad. Four Astros played for the National League squad, including the NL starting pitcher Roger Clemens, Carlos Beltran, Jeff Kent and Lance Berkman.

FIRST GAMES: The Houston Astros and New York Yankees played an exhibition game on March 30, 2000, with Houston winning 6-5. The Astros hosted the Philadelphia Phillies in the first official regular-season game on April 7, 2000, with Philadelphia winning 4-1.

ARCHITECT: The Architect of Daikin Park was HOK Sports Facilities Group, along with Construction Manager Brown & Root Services, a business unit of Halliburton Company.

PLAYING FIELD: Featuring Platinum TE Paspalum grass, the playing surface covers 2.5 acres. The drainage and irrigation systems include 6,682 linear feet of perforated pipe and 4,406 linear feet of PVC pipe, respectively. A total of 51 irrigation heads help make the job for Head Groundskeeper Izzy Hinojosa and his staff much easier. All grassed areas of the playing field are also constructed to USGA golf green construction specifications, allowing for excellent drainage and a growing media which is ideal for maintaining high-performance turfgrass.

SIZE: The building dimensions cover 28.97 acres of gross square footage, a total of 1,263,240 square feet. The height is 93 feet to the last seating tread, equivalent to a nine-story building.

TRAIN: A replica of a 19th century locomotive (circa 1860) and linked coal tender is a fan favorite. The train provides an architectural icon which combines sight, sound and motion for a dynamic entertainment and celebration feature. It also provides a link to the past for Houston and the Union Station site. The train was designed by Uni-Systems and built by SMI & Hydraulics, which also provided the transporters for the retractable roof. Weighing close to 50,000 pounds, the train runs some 800 feet along the low roof track on the west side of the ballpark. The back cart of the train had long carried a stack of oranges, a nod to the venue's former name, "Minute Maid Park." Beginning in 2025, the back cart will carry a new item that will be debuted on Opening Day. The new item in the train's back cart will also serve as a nod to the venue's 25-year anniversary as it enters a new era as Daikin Park.

THE NAME: On Nov. 18, 2024, the Houston Astros and Daikin Comfort Technologies North America, Inc (Daikin) announced they had reached an agreement on a 15-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the home of the Astros as Daikin Park.

The agreement, which took effect on January 1, 2025, will run through the 2039 season, and includes official naming rights, other partnership benefits, and giving back to the Greater Houston community through educational programming and youth sports development in underserved communities.

Daikin Industries, Ltd. (DIL) is a leading global indoor comfort solutions provider with over 98,000 employees around the world, and over 22,000 employees across Daikin group companies in the U.S.. The company was founded in Japan on Oct. 25, 1924, and recently celebrated its 100th anniversary.

Daikin constructed and operates a 4.2 million square foot campus, the largest HVAC manufacturing facility in North America (Daikin Texas Technology Park), located in Waller, Texas, a part of the Greater Houston community. Daikin provides jobs for approximately 10,000 people in the Greater Houston area.

An event to announce the partnership was held at Daikin on Nov. 18, featuring appearances from Owner and Chairman of the Houston Astros Jim Crane, President and Chief Executive Officer, Daikin Comfort Technologies North America Inc., Satoru Akama, and Executive Vice President and Chief Sales and Marketing Officer, Daikin Comfort Technologies North America, Inc., Takayuki "Taka" Inoue.

"We are excited to be partnering with Daikin for our ballpark's naming rights," Crane said at the announcement event. "Daikin is an international company that proudly calls the Greater Houston area its North American home. The Houston Astros and Daikin share the same values, a commitment to excellence and a desire to give back to our local community. As we celebrate the 25th anniversary of this ballpark in 2025, I am proud to have Daikin alongside us to create even more special memories for our fans now and in the future."

Overall, Daikin has invested more than $1 billion in the Houston area, including more than $500 million in building Daikin Texas Technology Park. In August 2024, Daikin launched an initiative with the City of Houston to equip low-to-moderate income homes with advanced air conditioning and heating solutions, providing more comfort and energy efficiency for homeowners. Daikin is always looking for new ways to support their community and to create innovative technologies, with an unwavering commitment to making sustainable and responsible choices.

The partnership between the Astros and Daikin will enable the franchise to continue to invest in stadium amenities, as the organization is always looking to improve and make the gameday experience better for all fans. The partnership also includes community initiatives aimed at continuing and creating deep connections between the Astros, Daikin and the Houston community.

The stadium had been named Minute Maid Park since 2002. Minute Maid will continue to be a partner of the Houston Astros through 2029.

UNION STATION: According to HOK's design platform, the most literal tie between Houston's past and its new ballpark is a physical line to Union Station. On March 2, 1911, Houston's second downtown Union Station, rebuilt at a cost of $500,000, opened its doors for the first time. In the 104 years since, it has served as an epicenter of the city's population growth, been a catalyst for commercial evolution, and become an identifying landmark within the downtown skyline.

Houston was once described as "Where 17 Railroads Meet the Sea". An article in a 1913 issue of "The Rotarian" called Houston the "City of First Consideration" and "The Largest Manufacturing City in the Southwest." Union Station was at the center of it all, the hub of a strong industrial municipality that specialized in oil, rice, sugar and lumber. The historic landmark has also served as a shelter for hurricane refugees and has been visited by Presidents of the United States.

Trains with names such as Acadian, Argonaut, Katy Flyer, California Special, Lone Star, Orleanean and Pioneer made hundreds of stops at Union Station during its active period (1911-1974). Other trains with monikers such as Sam Houston Zephyr, Southerner, Sunset Limited, Sunshine Special, Texas Chief, Texas Eagle, Texas Rocket and Valley Eagle routinely picked up passengers there as well.

The first-floor Great Hall still includes much of Union Station's original architectural work. It currently serves as a general reception area for guests, functions as an event space, and houses the Astros Team Store. Each Astros fan who enters Daikin Park through Union Station retraces the steps of passengers who boarded trains in another era.

Today, the conference rooms and event spaces occupying the second and third floor of the renovated Union Station at Daikin Park (open 365 days a year) are named after some of the trains listed above. They are honored as both a tribute to hardworking rail personnel and in remembrance of Union Station's historic importance.

The Houston Astros executive offices occupy the fourth and fifth floors of the building. The sixth floor houses the Roof Deck and Club House at Union Station, where groups of up to 100 people can watch Astros baseball with scenic views of downtown Houston as a backdrop.

Though it sat vacant for a quarter century from 1974-1999, the former transit hub has re-taken its rightful place on the Houston skyline, now serving as the gateway to Astros baseball and remaining an important landmark in downtown Houston.

PLAYING FIELD: Featuring Platinum TE Paspalum grass, the playing surface covers 2.5 acres. The drainage and irrigation systems include 6,682 linear feet of perforated pipe and 4,406 linear feet of PVC pipe, respectively. A total of 51 irrigation heads help make the job for Head Groundskeeper Izzy Hinojosa and his staff much easier.

All grassed areas of the playing field are also constructed to USGA golf green construction specifications, allowing for excellent drainage and a growing media which is ideal for maintaining high-performance turfgrass.

SOUNDS: With a focus on creating the best fan experience, the Houston Astros upgraded the bowl and concourse audio system at Daikin Park to L-acoustics A Series, a system known for its advanced line array technology providing exceptional sound quality with consistent coverage across large listening areas. The upgrade, completed prior to 2025 season, included more than 400 speakers scattered throughout the seating areas, with almost 1,000 speakers along the concourses.

THE ROOF: Architects from the HOK Sports Facilities Group recommended early on that a retractable roof would be appropriate for the Texas climate. Since building the first retractable-roof ballpark – the Skydome in 1989 – designers have crafted several kinds of retractable roofs. Some, for instance, open only over a small central section. The roof at Daikin Park, however, retracts completely off the ballpark to reveal the largest open area of any retractable roofed baseball stadium in existence today. A total of 50,000 square feet of glass in the west wall of the retractable roof gives fans a view of the Houston skyline, even when the roof is in the closed position.

Uni-Systems provided the technical expertise to design the best roof structure for Daikin Park. Mechanized roof panels open and close in 14-20 minutes. The roof moves back and forth an estimated 160 times a year, a distance of 14.6 miles. To cover the ballpark, steel panels roll in sequence along tracks on the east and west sides of the stadium. When the roof is open, the southern and northern panels, each of which measures 537 by 120 feet and weighs 1,905 metric tons, rest at the north end below the large middle section with its dimension of 589 by 242 feet and a weight of 3,810 metric tons. Designers determined the roof's shape – lower side panels flanking the high center panel – by tracking a batted baseball's hyperbolic flight path. Forged steel wheels, 140 in total, measuring 35 inches in diameter transport the three roof panels.

CONCESSIONS: Aramark Sports + Entertainment, the exclusive food and beverage partner of the Houston Astros, continues to set a new standard for culinary innovation at the ballpark. The past few seasons have introduced a variety of stadium updates, including multiple new concessions concepts, additional "Walk Thru Bru" self-service beverage locations and cutting-edge technology designed to enhance convenience throughout the park. In collaboration with Aramark, Daikin Park became the first MLB stadium to feature an Amazon Just Walk Out autonomous store, underscoring the team's commitment to delivering a seamless and memorable gameday experience. Fans can also enjoy premium offerings such as the Gallagher Club—a sophisticated space featuring an open kitchen concept—and a fully remodeled suite level that highlights Houston's local culinary talent. In 2025, Aramark and Daikin Park extended their partnership to further redefine the ballpark experience with innovative and elevated hospitality.

TECHNOLOGY: Following the 2010 season, the Houston Astros installed two new, high-definition video boards and a large ribbon board at Daikin Park in time for the start of the 2011 Major League Baseball season. The new primary video board is located in right field and measures 54 feet high and 124 feet wide (approximately 6,695 square feet), making it the third-largest board of its kind in the Major Leagues when installed. The Astros previous video board that had been in the ballpark since its inception in 2000 was 26 feet high and 45 feet wide. A smaller video board, measuring 24 feet high by 40 feet wide, was installed in left field, and a ribbon board, stretching from foul pole to foul pole and more than 1,000 feet long, was also added. A speed pitch board and an old-fashioned, manually operated scoreboard keep fans on top of the action in the ballpark and in every other big league venue. When it opened in 2000, Daikin Park was the first major sports facility to feature a closed-captioning board for the hearing impaired. Prior to the 2023 season, the video boards and ribbon boards in the stadium were replaced with new 4K Samsung LED boards. Ross Video now powers the control room and integration allowing the Astros to provide fans with award-winning special video features and effects created by Astros Productions.

RENOVATIONS: Prior to the 2017 season, the Astros made major renovations to the center field area. The center field area is now home to new concessions including fan-favorites Shake Shack and Pluckers, the Lexus Club, retail and more. Following the 2019 season, the Houston Astros renovated the suite level and created the Michelob Ultra Bar. In addition, a new club, Gallagher Club, was added down the left field line to hold up to 120 people. Prior to the 2025 season, maintenance was completed on the roof and mechanical systems, and the stadium's food-and-beverage warehouse was rebuilt. Additionally, several new design concepts and seating options have been created and added on the club level.

- Bob married Sandra Mahon Moynihan in 2024.
- He is a fifth-generation Galvestonian, and still lives on the island.

MLB GUIDELINES FOR THE MOVEMENT OF RETRACTABLE ROOFS

The decision as to whether a game begins with the roof open or closed rests solely with the home club.

If the game begins with the roof open: it shall be closed only in the event of impending rain or other adverse weather conditions. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the home club, after consultation with the Umpire Crew Chief.

The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.

If the game begins with the roof closed: it may be opened when, in the opinion of the home club, the climatic environment has reached a level where fan comfort and enjoyment will be best served by opening the roof to the natural atmospheric conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following guidelines should be applied to opening the roof during a game.

- > The roof may only open once during a game.
- > The Umpire Crew Chief will be notified at the commencement of the inning that the roof will be opened at the inning's conclusion.
- > The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.

25-YEAR ANNIVERSARY

The 2025 season will mark the 25th anniversary of baseball in Downtown Houston and the venue's first season under its new name, Daikin Park. The Astros moved out of the Astrodome at the turn of the 21st century, moving on from a stadium monikered "The Eighth Wonder of the World" due to its size and innovation as the first domed stadium in the world. Daikin Park, which went by the name "Minute Maid Park" from 2002-24, carried the torch of innovation as one of the first Major League stadium's with a retractable roof. The ballpark's unique design, highlighted by train tracks and a train atop arches in left field, made it an instant jewel among MLB stadiums.

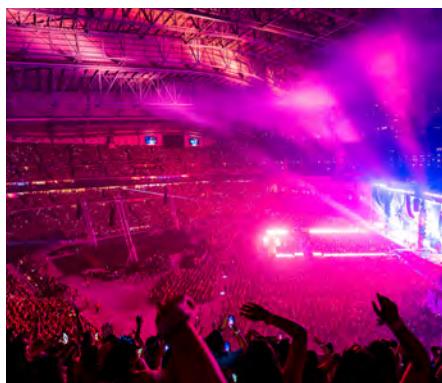

The first regular-season game played at the venue came on April 7, 2000, as the Astros hosted the Philadelphia Phillies. Since then, it's played host to over 1,900 Astros regular-season games, 63 postseason games and was the location for the final out as the Astros won the 2022 World Series. In 2004, it hosted the All-Star Game, with Muhammad Ali throwing out the ceremonial first pitch. The venue has welcomed over 60 million visitors since it opened its doors in 2000, including U.S. Presidents, with George H.W. Bush and George W. Bush throwing out the ceremonial first pitch for Game 5 of the 2017 World Series. In just the first five years of the ballpark's history, the Astros made the NLCS twice (2004-05) and went to the World Series for the first time in franchise history in 2005.

Some of the biggest musical stars and groups have made Daikin Park a stop on their tours throughout the world.

A few of the most renowned acts to host concerts at the ballpark include Taylor Swift, Bad Bunny, Beyonce, Jimmy Buffet, Madonna, Paul McCartney, Lady Gaga, Billy Joel, P!nk, Guns N Roses, Ed Sheeran, Chris Stapleton and the Red Hot Chili Peppers. The most highly-attended concert in the ballpark's history came on Sept. 2, 2022, when over 40,000 attendees flocked to Daikin Park to watch a Bad Bunny concert.

PARK

For over a quarter of its 25-year history, Daikin Park has presided over the “Golden Era” of Astros baseball, which has included eight consecutive trips to the postseason (2017-24), seven consecutive appearances in the American League Championship Series (2017-23) and the first two World Series titles in franchise history (2017, 2022).

During the Golden Era, Daikin Park has played host to a total of 47 postseason games. That total also includes 13 World Series games, which are the most of any MLB venue during that span.

The quartet of Jose Altuve, Alex Bregman, Carlos Correa and Yuli Gurriel started in a combined 73 postseason games with each other, the most by an group of four teammates in Major League history. That group etched their respective names all over the MLB all-time postseason leaderboards, with all four ranking within the top-15 all-time in career postseason hits. Entering the 2025 season, Altuve ranks second all-time in career postseason homers (27) and third in career postseason hits (118).

Along with that group, future Hall of Famer Justin Verlander joined the Astros just in time to fuel their run to a 2017 World Series title and won two of his three career Cy Young Awards (2019, 2022) with the club.

One of the ballpark's greatest attributes over its 25 years has been its versatility in hosting events. It's consistently been one of the most attractive spots to host large-scale events in Houston, while also being an essential site for the city during times of struggle.

Over the years, it has hosted boxing matches, weddings, W.W.E events, toy drives, charity events, galas, company outings, college baseball games, celebrity softball games, fashion shows, blood drives and much more. The ballpark has also served as a relief site for supplies following hurricanes and was a vaccination center during the COVID-19 pandemic.

In 2026, the ballpark will also host a portion of the World Baseball Classic.

25-YEAR ANNIVERSARY

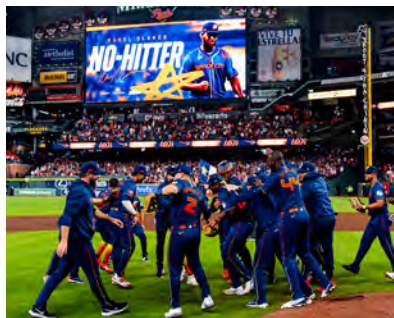

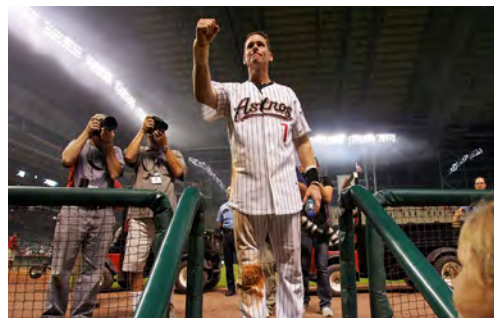

Over the last 25 years, Daikin Park has witnessed many of the greatest moments in Astros history, while watching some of the club's legends begin and end their careers.

Astros icons Jeff Bagwell and Craig Biggio closed out their careers with Daikin Park as their home base, with Biggio logging his 3,000th career hit at the venue. Both Bagwell's No. 5 and Biggio's No. 7 were retired in ceremonies at Daikin Park.

Numerous legendary Astros careers began with Daikin Park as their home, most notably Jose Altuve and Alex Bregman. Altuve, who debuted in 2011, recorded the 2,000th hit of his career at Daikin Park in 2023.

A few players made Daikin Park their home after already establishing themselves among the game's greatest. Houston natives Roger Clemens and Andy Pettite returned home to help fuel the team's run to the 2005 World Series, with Clemens also winning his seventh Cy Young Award with the Astros in 2004.
